Cited for bravery in G.O. 22, Hqrs 3rd Div, AEF dated 8 July 1919 as follows:- "Always active and an inspiration to the battery by his fearless adherence to duty. At Montfaucon, Hill 253 and Louppy, in the absence of Red Cross assistance he himself rendered first aid, dressing the wounded at Montfaucon. He volunteered to take two pieces forward to the Mamelle Trench then occupied by our front line infantry, knowing well that the trench was being subjected to the heaviest of shell fire. Above Gland (Battle of the Marne) under heavy shelling he personally took horses off the picket line on which several horses had been wounded and led them to a place of safety."
