The Challenge of Graduation

Another year . . . another graduation, and into the history of Chelmsford High School are written the annals of another class. The Class of 1950 experiences in this graduation something of pleasure and of pain, something of excitement and of achievement, but most of all, something of challenge.

Each one of us at one time or another has dreamed of becoming a person of great fame. He has visualized himself as a bacteriologist who found the cure for cancer, a chemist who discovered a rare element, or a famous writer who wrote the great American epic. He has imagined himself being honored by his fellowmen for his service to mankind.

We all dream dreams, but few accept the challenge of their dreams, for obstacles stand in the way. The desire for immediate success is one of the greatest of these obstacles, but it is one which must be overcome before any real achievement can be made. Another is the wish for an easy and effortless future, always a hindrance to accomplishment. Perhaps most damaging to the achievement of dreams is the craving for wealth measured in the material sense, which keeps us from reaching the heights to which we aspire.

There are virtues which we must practice if we are to accept the challenge of our dreams. We must have patience as we struggle to attain our goal. We need perseverance to help us keep steadily moving forward on the road to success. We also need willingness to work at any task which we may meet on the way. If we keep our dreams in mind and our virtues in hand, we will be able to fulfill our dreams as we go forward into the future.

JANICE POLAND, '50

Board of Editors

We, the Yearbook Staff, wish to offer this book as a reminder of the many precious days spent in our school, of the friends we shall never forget, and of the teachers whose guidance we shall continue to follow.

In September of 1946 we came to Chelmsford High School. In June of 1950 we graduate. To casual observers our coming and our going will not appear especially significant. But we know that somewhere between these two dates lie the happiest moments of our lives. We can never relive these moments, nor can we ever quite recapture the familiarity of things, nor the comradeship of classmates, for these things will have passed into memory.

As we accept the challenge that comes to us with our graduation, we cast a lingering look behind. We hope that in the on-coming years the pages of the Yearbook may serve to recall our early joys, our friendships, our young hopes and aspirations, our little successes, and all the stuff that youth is made of. Herein we shall be young forever.

Class Ode

Forever, forward we shall strive
So at our goal we shall arrive,
With every gift that we have gained
Forward we go.

Forward we go to this our goal
For this our motto we shall enscroll,
Forward ever and backward never
Forward we go.

When we go on to build our fame
The thoughts we had will still remain,
With God to lead us on the way
Forward we go.

LUCIAN H. BURNS

Principal of Chelmsford High School

Let us walk quickly, friend;
Work with our might while lasts our little stay,
And help some halting comrade on the way;
And may God guide us, friend.

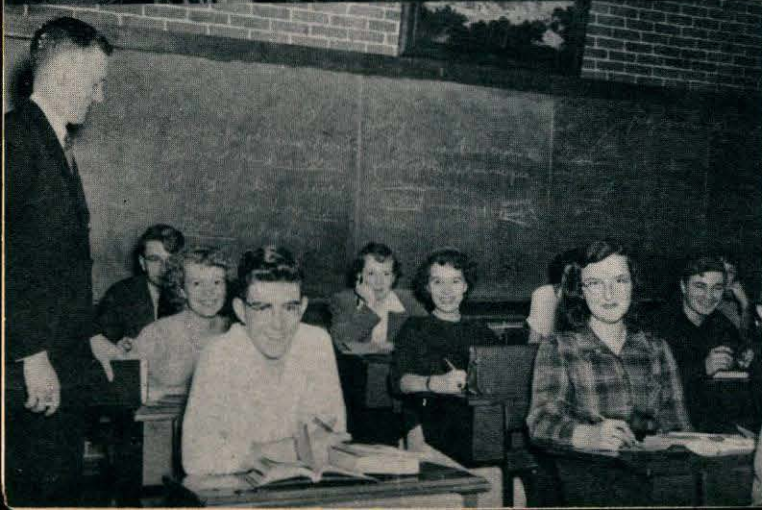

—LILLIAN GRAY

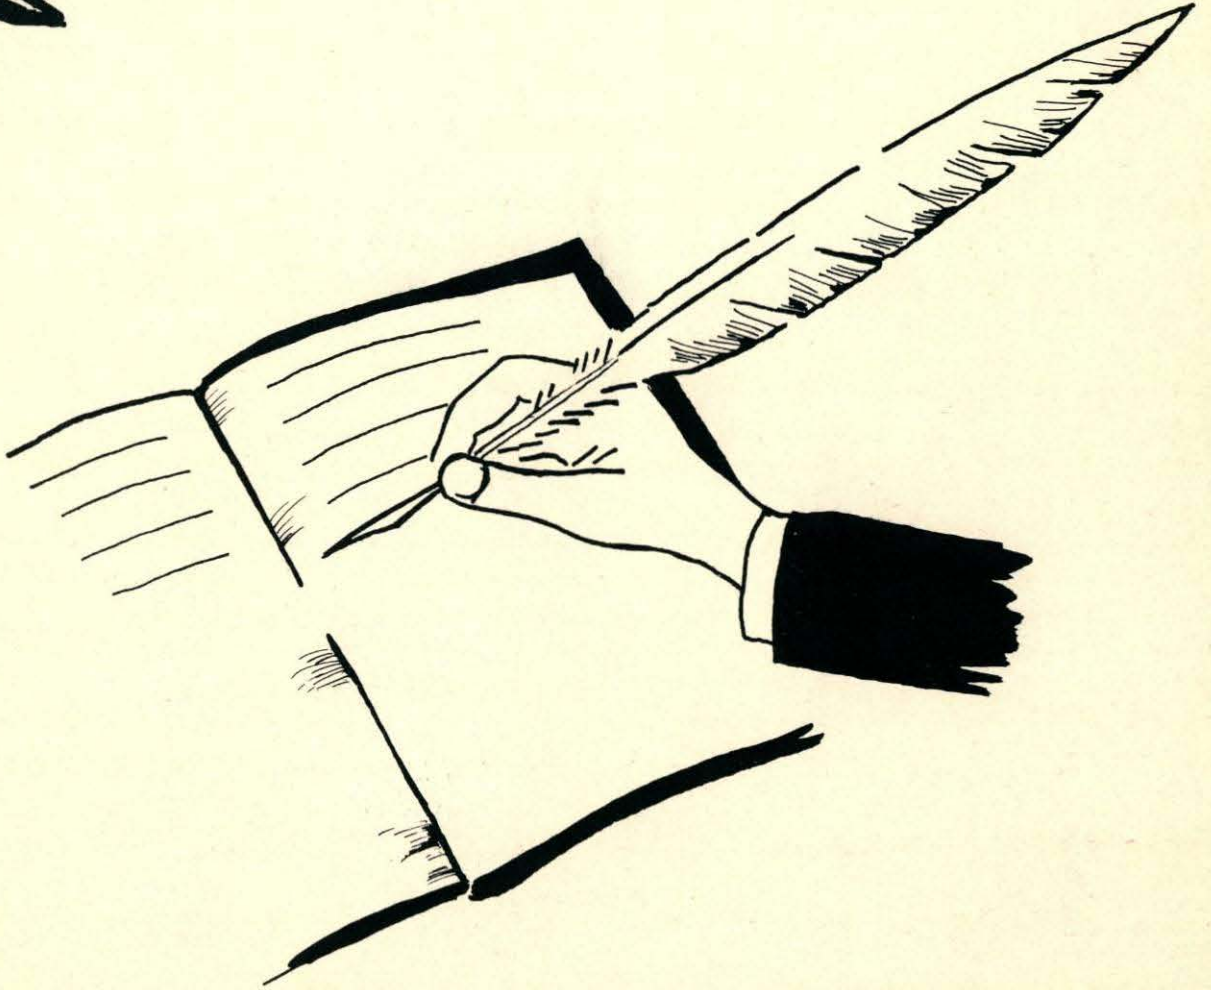

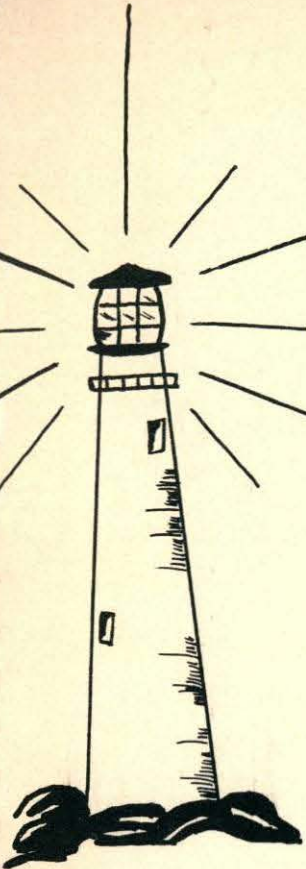

H. MORTON JEFFORDS

Superintendent of Schools

Pupils are the school's most important public relations agents. They are daily reporters operating between the school and the home. Pupils' opinions tend to reflect themselves in parents' attitudes. No superintendent or staff of administrators, working full time on nothing but public relations, could possibly awaken the community to the living force of the school as much as a few score children when their energy and enthusiasm are directed into learning activities which carry over into the life of the community.

Cheerleaders

With the spirited and tireless assistance of their coach, Miss Mildred Hehir, the Chelmsford High School cheerleaders made another enviable and conspicuous record in 1950.

Attractive in their neat, new uniforms of maroon and white corduroy, the girls became a familiar and welcome sight at both home and out of town games. With Barbara Bovill and Lois Brooks as co-captains, it is small wonder that they drew lusty cheers from an enthusiastic rooting section.

Chelmsford Cheerleaders presented a picture of precision and team spirit, and drab indeed would have been our athletic competitions had it not been for this animated team, which enlivened and stimulated both spectators and players.

Football

The Chelmsford High School football team, while it did not prove itself a championship team, did manage to score some wins, and we hope it has thereby broken the jinx that seems to have followed our teams for four years.

Our able coaches, Joseph Nolan and William Callagy, have earned our sincere respect and appreciation. They and Co-captains Kerrigan and Reis wish Captain-elect Hoyle the best of success on the gridiron next year.

Girls' Basketball

Once again our coach, Miss Margaret E. Keith, called out candidates for basketball. Realizing the loss of veterans, she made a determined effort to have a fine team in spite of this handicap.

The team started out very slowly, but after a few defeats came back to wind up in third place in the Suburban League. Two players, Janet Sweet and Ruth Crowley, made the All-Star Team in the Suburban League. In the Littleton tournament, our girls were placed against Pepperell and lost by a small score.

Our capable captain, Evelyn Reeves, leaves Janet Sweet and Isabelle Mann to lead the team next year.

*TOURNAMENT GAMES

Boys' Basketball

As we open our 1950 score book, we find that 14 of the 18 games played by the Chelmsford High School boys were wins. In the final play-off with Dracut, we lost a tough decision, but not discouraged went on to the Townsend tournament to claim all honors in the A Division.

We suffered one loss to a powerful Y. M. C. A. team and one other to Pinkerton on their home courts. The tension of a championship game caused the two losses to Dracut and enabled them to squeeze us from the suburban championship.

The tournament was a complete success for Chelmsford, and as the final whistle blew, we were crowned the A Division champs, and obtained a permanent trophy and one leg on a three-year trophy. Captain Kydd (of Chelmsford, not Treasure Island) received the outstanding player trophy; Richard Haberman and Robert Kydd also placed on the "All Star Team." In addition, each player was awarded individual charms.

The team as a whole turned in a wonderful record, and the score book says Bob Carruthers, Richard McHugh, Robert Kydd, Richard Haberman, and Roger Bicknell were the sharpshooters of the 1950 squad.

The loss of players this year will be slight and there should be a perfect season next year with the leadership of Captain Bob Carruthers. We hope also to have Murray Hicks, our swell coach, and the good-natured cooperation of Charlie Campbell, our bus driver.

ACTIVITIES

Majorettes

Chelmsford High School's snappy drum-majorettes, always eye-catching in bright red corduroy uniforms, added new white boots this year to their outfits. They performed at the home football games, and they attracted a great deal of attention in the majorette dance routine arranged for them by Bernie Larkin. It was really something!

The group put on a summer exhibition at the South Chelmsford fair. They also twirled at the Swedish Lodge, after which they were invited to the Swedish Outing held at Stony Brook. The ten dollars received for their entertainment they promptly donated to the band fund.

Our majorettes have developed style and dash, and have become another of the well functioning units which reflect credit upon our school.

Band

When the Chelmsford High School Band appears, whether at a high school function or at a social event, a show as well as a musical treat is in store. This year the band is larger than it ever has been before, because Mr. Larkin has instructed three days a week at the high school and two days a week in the grammar schools, thus giving every pupil an opportunity to become a member.

Memorial Day was one of the busiest days of the year for band members. They started the morning by parading in North Chelmsford, and then proceeded to the Center, where they paraded and played for the exercises which American Legion Post 212, conducted. In the afternoon they journeyed to Hollis, New Hampshire, and joined with the Hollis Band in participating in their line of march, after which both bands gave an hour's concert. This busy day ended happily with an invitation to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leivens for a most enjoyable evening.

The band has led a vigorous and active life. During the summer it played concerts for the South Chelmsford Carnival, the North Congregational Festival, the Strawberry Festival, the Baptist Church, the East Chelmsford Parent Teacher Association, the West Chelmsford Lawn Party, the Westland Neighbor Night, the March of Dimes Concert, and the dedication of Perham Park. It played also on numerous occasions for the benefit of neighboring towns and cities. It participated in the Lowell High School Field Day, it played to start the bleacher fund for our neighboring town Billerica, and it entertained William North Lodge at the Masonic Temple.

The band highlighted its Christmas season by playing carols for the shut-ins and elderly people in our town. In the evening they also enjoyed a party, conducted by the Westland Parent Teacher Association. This is one of the memorable events to which members of the band look forward each year.

Chelmsford High School is indebted to the band for the concert at Second Annual Sport Night, and for the music for the Booster Day Parade. Perhaps most of all, we owe a debt of gratitude to these boys and girls for the pep and interest they have added to our football games. In excellence of achievement in precision marching, from the time they marched under the goal posts until their performance during the half, they pleased both the ear and eye.

Glee Club

The Glee Club has completed an interesting and enjoyable year under the skillful direction of Miss Olive Littlehale, who has worked constantly to encourage the appreciation of good music.

The members of the Glee Club presented their traditional program for the Christmas Assembly, and in January joined with the band to present the annual concert for the March of Dimes Fund.

Junior Red Cross

Under the capable supervision of Miss Scoboria, the Junior Red Cross has completed another year of service to others. At the first meeting, the following officers were elected: President, James Kerrigan; Vice President, Vincent Oliver; and Secretary-Treasurer, Elmer L'Ecuyer.

The following homeroom representatives were chosen also: Janet Adams, Joan Guerrero, John O'Boyle, Leola Blott, Harold Kelly, Fenner Peckham, Leonard DePalma, Roger LaPointe, Jean Reid, Charlotte Dinnigan, Helen Linnell, Jean Supple, William Forrester, and Marilyn Watt.

A Red Cross assembly, planned by Miss Scoboria and the officers, was held in November. The speaker, Mrs. Thomas McSorley, spoke on Junior Red Cross activities. An interesting movie, "All Together," was also presented at this time.

During the Red Cross membership drive, the representatives collected $29.43. Four rooms achieved 100% membership.

At Christmas time, one hundred and twenty-five menu folders were made. The club also made five hundred newspaper disposal bags for use in hospitals. The members took part this year in the International Art Program. Ten pictures, showing the American scene, were chosen to be sent in. These pictures were to be exchanged with schools abroad.

We, at Chelmsford High School, are pleased to give this unselfish service, as a small expression of gratitude for all we have received.
