Graduation

Graduation from high school is both an end and a beginning. It is the end of twelve of the happiest years of our lives, of daily renewals of friendships long since established, of many monstrous things now suddenly grown trivial, of something we have too often considered busy work with words and figures, and of a childish heaven from which we have peered fearfully out the corners of our eyes at the great world into which we are now catapulted.

More than being an ending, graduation is a beginning. We are entering into new experiences, new interests, and new trials; replacing high school with institutions of higher learning, the business world, and the armed services; assuming the financial, social, and political responsibilities that fall upon every adult in a democratic society. At last we see that the "busy work" is really the foundation upon which the structure of our lives must rest. In this troubled world "Faith, Courage, and Loyalty" are sorely needed: faith in our common humanity and in God; courage to face the future and whatever it holds, be it happiness or sorrow; and loyalty to our own ideals and those set up for us by our forefathers. Faith, courage, and loyalty are not external, transient, spasmodic, or automatic; rather they are within the heart, constant and unchangeable, the product and reward of personal consecration and the touchstone of our lives.

In recognition of the evenness and geniality of his disposition,
the friendly fairness and his attitude toward youth,
the infallibility of his sense of humor,
and the effective informality of his classroom techniques,
we, the Class of 1951,
affectionately dedicate this, our Yearbook,
to
MURRAY B. HICKS

H. MORTON JEFFORDS

Superintendent of Schools

Parents are quick to recognize and appreciate genuine achievement on the part of their children and to want the best possible experiences for them, according to their understanding of what is most important. In high standards of attainment, by means of opportunities and experiences which the public understands and has helped to plan, the public relations of a school are securely anchored.

Our Welcome

We, the Class of 1951, wish to welcome to our school, Mr. John T. Conrad, who in a brief period has proved himself to be a lively optimist, a kindly and constructive critic, an enthusiastic organizer, and an energetic leader.

JOHN T. CONRAD
Principal

To the Seniors:

A graduate from our schools should be first of all an American, understanding the American way of life and being deeply committed to it; he should see his culture as a cohesive whole and be able to play his part in it adequately; he should have a personal philosophy of life that will enable him to live satisfactorily with himself, peacefully with his neighbors, and face the universe with confidence, courage, faith, and serenity.

JOHN T. CONRAD

Board of Editors

We, the members of the yearbook staff, have done our utmost to produce a book of which you will be justly proud. May it be to you what we have tried to make it: a distinctive and graphic representation of your high school life. It is our hope that as the years roll on you will turn its pages and live in memory the joys of youth.

In Appreciation

LUCIAN H. BURNS
1930—Principal—1950

It is most fitting that the Class of 1951 acknowledge within the pages of this year-book the twenty years of teaching and administrative service rendered by Chelmsford High School's former principal, Mr. Lucian H. Burns. For his indefatigable and un-sparing zeal, for his strict adherence to principles, for his earnest endeavor to instill in his pupils the true values and disciplines of education, we respect his leadership. We express to Mr. Burns our sincere wish that the years ahead may hold a welcome relief from exacting and difficult duties, together with a full measure of health, long life, and happiness.

DAISY B. MACBRAYNE
1929—Teacher—1950

In the retirement of Miss Daisy B. MacBrayne in the fall of 1950, Chelmsford High School lost the services of a devoted teacher, whose animation and humor had long enlivened her classrooms. The members of the class of 1951 are happy to take this opportunity to pay well-merited tribute to an enthusiastic student of literature, a sympathetic and cheery personality, a diligent and spirited teacher, and a lady of dignity and refinement.

The Test of Life

The test is not in written sheets—
It comes in life's highways and streets,
Where each shall have a testing time
That shows the earthly or sublime

Right thoughts, right acts—these are the test—
A constant striving for the best.
Beyond the test of hand and mind
The test of life we all shall find.

The Chelmsford High School Athletic Association was organized early in the school year under the guiding hand of Mr. Nolan. This is the largest organization in school. Its function is to raise money for equipment of all athletic teams in school and to create a wholesome school spirit. Both objectives have been successfully accomplished under the sincere and experienced counsel of Mr. Nolan assisted by the willing and capable efforts of each board member.

Starting early in September several dances were held which were financially and socially most successful. Throughout the football and basketball seasons the board members were busy collecting dues and gate receipts, selling programs, and assisting in any needed capacity. Through these activities our athletic teams have profited by the purchase of equipment and the confidence inspired by a loyal student backing.

Mr. Nolan and the board members are particularly grateful to the Chelmsford Lions Club for its generous support throughout the school year.

Cheerleaders

The Chelmsford High School Cheerleaders, under the spirited and tireless guidance of their coach, Miss Joyce McCue, have brought to a fine conclusion a most noteworthy year. With Estelle Marcotte and Louise Pickard as co-captains, the team, uniformed in maroon and white, was a colorful and inspiring sight. The girls succeeded admirably in raising the spirit of the school to a new height.

The cheerleaders urged the teams on to victory at all their games and in all their tournaments, and entered into competition at Littleton where they won second place.

The members of the team are as follows:

SENIORS

Estelle Marcotte, Co-captain
Louise Pickard, Co-captain
Barbara Jones

JUNIORS

Nancy Greenwood
Joan L'Ecuyer
Gail Littlefield

FRESHMEN

Carolyn Dusseault
Constance Dusseault

Football

The Chelmsford High School football team of 1950 was ably captained by Dick Hoyle and well trained by Coach Joe Nolan and his assistant, Coach Bill Callagy.

The team got off to a bad start by losing a heartbreaker to Punchard in the last period. This knocked the spirit out of the team for the next two games, but it finally revived itself only to lose another heartbreaker to Dracut in the last minute of play. But the team wasn't to be denied, for in the next game they came home with a victory over Wilmington. Chelmsford went on to win over a large Lowell J. V. team and won over Weston in a close muddy battle.

Then came the traditional Thanksgiving game. Chelmsford stopped the painted Indians from Howe dead in the first period, leading 6 to 0 at the quarter and 13 to 0 at the half. In the third period, our boys held their own but showed signs of tiring due to the lack of relief from experienced substitutes. Howe scored late in the fourth period, making the score 13 to 7. On the ensuing kickoff, Howe recovered our fumble and quickly scored, making the score 13 to 13. Chelmsford gathered enough strength to block the try for the extra point as the game ended.

All in all it was a successful season, and Captain Hoyle's fine spirit, particularly when things were toughest, was an inspiration to the team. Captain Hoyle and all the senior football players wish Captains Haberman and Hunt, their fine squad, and their Coaches Nolan and Callagy the best of luck and success in the coming season.

The scores were:

Burlington	0	Chelmsford	2
Punchard	14	Chelmsford	6
Johnson	25	Chelmsford	13
Tewksbury	34	Chelmsford	13
Dracut	6	Chelmsford	0
Wilmington	0	Chelmsford	19
Lowell J. V.	0	Chelmsford	30
Weston	0	Chelmsford	13
Howe	13	Chelmsford	13

Boys' Basketball

As the season ends and we open the score book, we find the best record ever compiled by a Chelmsford High School Boys' Basketball Team. Coach Hicks may well be proud of his team's record of 22 wins and 2 losses, the Suburban League title, all honors in Class A Division at Townsend, and Class C title in the Tech Tournament held in the Boston Garden.

We suffered our first loss in our first game with Pinkerton on their home court, and our second, to Methuen.

The Townsend tournament was a complete success for Chelmsford, as we were crowned Division A Champs and obtained one permanent trophy and our second leg on a three year trophy. Captain Carruthers received the outstanding player award; Bill Hicks won the foul shooting trophy; Richard Haberman and Robert Carruthers placed on the All Star Team; and in addition, each player was awarded an individual charm.

In the Tech tournament the Chelmsford boys played three consecutive days and won the title, thereby setting a new record. The school received a plaque and a basketball for its trophy case, Captain Carruthers was named to the Tournament All Star Team, and each member of the team received a medal and a gold bracelet.

In honor of the excellent record, Principal Conrad, Coach Hicks, and the members of the basketball team were invited to appear on Bump Hadley's television program. This show was sponsored by Chevrolet Inc. and Roger Boyd of the Boyd Motor Co. The initial appearance for any of our teams on T. V. was a big success as was the dinner which followed at the Hotel Kenmore. Later the Rotary Club of Lowell and the Lions Club of Chelmsford each in turn feted our champions.

The basketball team as a whole turned in a wonderful record, and by far the outstanding sharpshooter of the squad was Captain Carruthers, who totaled over 525 points for the season.

The loss of players this year will be heavy, but with the excellent coaching of Mr. Hicks and leadership of Captain Guerrero we have every confidence that the team will do credit to their school and themselves.

Girls' Basketball

The Chelmsford High School Girls' Basketball Team, led by its co-captains, Janet Sweet and Isabelle Mann, has had a very successful season this year under the able direction of Miss Joyce McCue. Miss McCue, who came to us from the University of New Hampshire, has added spirit as well as know-how to our team.

The Chelmsford Girls' Team took part in the Littleton Tournament, defeating Bromfield and Westford Academy and then losing to Townsend, who went on to become champions. The girls placed second in the Suburban League which we consider highly commendable.

Baseball

The Chelmsford High School baseball team of last year, led by Captain Richard Burne and coached by Joseph Nolan, finished the season tied for first place with Billerica, both teams having achieved records of eleven victories and three defeats.

A play-off game was arranged between the two teams to decide which team would play Westford. Billerica was defeated by a score of thirteen to nothing. Chelmsford then played Westford and was defeated by a score of ten to four. This game decided which team would represent the Suburban League in the Eastern Massachusetts Baseball Tournament held at Braves Field in Boston.

Chelmsford played against Johnson the two remaining games which had been postponed earlier in the season because of bad weather. Chelmsford won the first encounter by a nine to nothing shutout, making her record one of ten victories and three defeats. In the last game of the season Chelmsford again won by a score of three to two in fourteen innings, thus finishing with a record of eleven victories and three defeats and a tie with Billerica for first place, which could not be played off due to the lateness of the season.

Chelmsford lost only three members of her baseball team by graduation, and therefore she expects to repeat in 1951 the excellent performance witnessed on the diamond in 1950. She has the same high quality of coaching and capable co-captaincy under William Hicks and William Yoachimciuk.

The Student Council

The officers and representatives on the Student Council are as follows:

President	Richard Hoyle
Vice-President	Richard Haberman
Corresponding Secretary	Charlotte Dinnigan
Recording Secretary	Exie Dusseault
Treasurer	Dorothy Becker
Social Chairman	Eleanor Gray
Assembly Chairman	Daniel Pihl
Welfare Chairman	Ralph Adams
Senior Representatives	Roger Bicknell, Raymnod Hardy
Junior Representatives	Allen Mello, William Nebes
Sophomore Representatives	Avis Hulslander, Franklin Warren
Freshman Representatives	Judith Poland, John Suich

This year one of the many innovations at Chelmsford High School, as a result of Mr. Conrad's enthusiastic endorsement of student activities, was the formation of a student council under the advisership of Miss Mildred Hehir, who has devoted her usual enthusiasm and energy to the success of this new venture.

Richard Hoyle, who is senior class president, and Roderick Hunt, who is junior class president, together with Miss Hehir attended in Dedham a conference of student council representatives for eastern Massachusetts. Their purpose in attending was to gain ideas as to how our own student council should be conducted.

The slate of officers was chosen under the supervision of Miss Hehir, assisted by Mrs. Charlotte Carriel, and Mr. William Callagy. It was a difficult task for both the teachers and the class presidents who worked with them, for the success of the organization depends upon the council membership. The three senior boys on the council are Richard Hoyle, Roger Bicknell, and Raymond Hardy. These three boys have helped tremendously in the successful conduct of the council affairs. We feel proud of the work they have helped to accomplish throughout the year.

A successful dance, Cupid's Ball, provided money for a council sweater fund for senior athletes. In March a talent night was held, all performers being high school students.

The main project of the organization now is the framing of a constitution which will be used by succeeding councils in the years to come as a democratic foundation for self-government in the school.

Junior Red Cross

The Junior Red Cross has again completed an active and worthwhile year under Miss Scoboria's enthusiastic leadership. A very successful membership drive resulted in a hundred per cent.

At the first meeting in the fall the following officers were elected:

President	Jo-Ann Foster
Vice-President	Charlotte McLaughlin
Secretary	Harold Kelley
Treasurer	Leola Blott

Homeroom representatives:

Carbonneau, Cecile	Litchfield, Lawrence	Welch, Dorothy
Dusseault, Exie	Mello, Hazel	Wheeler, Doris

Thanksgiving posters, newspaper disposal bags, St. Patrick's day and Fourth of July decorations were made for hospitals. Also, more than five hundred pencil stubs were collected for veterans. In the spring gift boxes and scrapbooks to be sent abroad formed the major part of the Red Cross work.

Mrs. Thomas McSorley, director of the Lowell Junior Red Cross, spoke at a Junior Red Cross assembly. The group also sponsored two movies "Beyond the Line of Duty" and "When Disaster Strikes." We feel pleased that the school has made this unselfish contribution to the happiness of those who are less fortunate.

Majorettes

The Drum Majorettes, an auxiliary unit of our band, marched and performed at all Chelmsford High School home football games this year.

Led by the head majorette, Ruth Crowley, the group presented a first-class performance in twirling and stepping. Brightly attired in red corduroy uniforms and white boots, they have participated in the Lowell High School Field parade, Memorial Day parade, and our Field Day. At the tournament in the Boston Garden they added not only color to the band, but served to inspire in all of us an essential spirit and drive to win.

Band

This year a larger Chelmsford High School Band continued the tradition of playing for the people of Chelmsford.

This well trained group, under the direction of Bernie Larkin, in addition to playing at innumerable school functions, including all school assemblies, gave concerts at the North Chelmsford Congregational Church Lawn Party, St. John's Carnival, Westlands Neighbor Night, East Chelmsford Parent-Teacher Association Lawn Party, West Chelmsford Parent-Teacher Association Lawn Party, Chelmsford Center Baptist Church Strawberry Festival, South Row Village Improvement Association Lawn Party, South Chelmsford Baptist Church Lawn Party, and at Grange Meetings.

In the spring of 1950, the band participated in the Notre Dame Academy May Festival and the Lowell High School Field Day. They also marched in the Memorial Day parades in North Chelmsford and Chelmsford Center. At Christmas time, many shut-ins were cheered by the carols of the band. After the caroling, the band members held their annual party at the Westlands School.

The highest point of the year, for the band as well as the whole school, was the trip to the Boston Garden where they played during the Eastern Massachusetts Inter-collegiate Basketball Tournament. Their music was broadcast over the radio between games.

In spite of the loss of many members because of graduation, we feel confident that the band will carry on its successful career of entertaining.

Glee Club

Under the gifted direction of Miss Olive Littlehale, the Chelmsford High School Glee Club has enjoyed a most successful year. In December the Glee Club members presented their usual inspiring Christmas Concert, and they also entertained, throughout the year, at various schools and public gatherings.

Secretary	Patricia Toms
Treasurer	Louise Pickard
Faculty Adviser	Earl J. Watt

The newly formed Chelmsford High School Lamp Lighters Club is one of the busiest and most useful organizations in our school. Under the vigorous and ever-competent direction of Mr. Watt the club members have furnished a splendid service. Audio-visual aids are among the most highly recommended modern teaching methods. We are proud of the service given by the members of this active group who distribute information on available films; solicit selections; order, deliver and return films; pay postal charges; and take entire charge of film projection. Their services are available to all teachers and organizations. The Lamp Lighters showed more than sixty-five pictures between the time of their organization and March first, and give ample proof that education can be fun.

Press Club

As a result of all the activities instituted at Chelmsford High School this year, there was a new need for publicity about the school and its organizations. Many members of the senior class who are interested in writing have been preparing press releases covering school activities for the Lowell Sun and Sunday Sun, Chelmsford News-weekly, and Lowell Sunday Telegram. There has been much favorable comment on these write-ups from both editors and the reading public.

Since so much interest in writing was created, it was a natural result that a Press Club should be organized. Mrs. Carriel, our senior English teacher, consented to be our adviser and as usual gave us valuable guidance.

Nancy Burke served as temporary chairman of the first meeting at which the following officers were elected.
