Dedication . . .

TO SHIRLEY H. EMMONS

whose unfailing patience, interest, and sincerity have been ever present in her faithful and intelligent work among us, we, the Class of 1953, dedicate this, our Yearbook.

"Happy and achieving pupils are the products of effective instruction by an understanding classroom teacher."

H. MORTON JEFFORDS

Superintendent of Schools

"Our ultimate and definite goal as a school is to provide practice in logical thinking and opportunities for the acquiring of knowledge, skills and ethical values. It is our abiding concern that our boys and girls become first, citizens capable of contributing to the continuance of American democracy, and secondly, individuals living happily with their intimates and peacefully with all men."

JOHN T. CONRAD

Principal

Board of Editors

We, the members of the board of editors, proudly present "The Lion." This edition is the first leatherbound yearbook to be published by a graduating class of Chelmsford High School, and we hope that this custom will be continued in the following years.

We chose this name and used this symbol throughout our book because this is the first year that the lion has officially been the school's mascot. We hope you enjoy and appreciate his appearance within this annual.

May this book be to you what we have tried to make it — a distinctive and graphic representation of your high school life. It is our earnest desire that this book will keep alive the memories gathered during the past four years at Chelmsford High. The future will bring new faces and changes to our school, but within these pages we have recalled and recorded your activities and your accomplishments.

Juniors

Juniors, Juniors,
Where do you wander?

Upstairs and downstairs
Your minutes for to squander.

Then you see your list of tasks,
Which must be met and done,
You tackle them with might and main
And finish every one.

You've learned to work, at each new job
You've discovered how to play
You're ready now to take the place
We'll leave for you some day.

Sophomores

Sing a song of Sophomores
The class of '55
They're the wisest class in school

So witty and alive.
They like to laugh and have their fun

But underneath it all
They are a group we won't forget

In summer, spring, or fall.

Freshmen

What are little boys made of?
What are little boys made of?

Baby faces
In some cases,
Voices changing,
Interests ranging,
Height increasing,
Study ceasing,
Missiles flying,
Teachers sighing.

That's what little boys are made of.

That's what little boys are
made of.

What are little girls made of?
What are little girls made of?

Lipstick smear
From ear to ear,
Childish giggle,
Grown-up wiggle,
Eyeballs roll,
Upperclassmen their goal,
Scholarship waning,
Teachers complaining.

That's what little girls are made
of.

That's what little girls are made
of.

To what we have said give little heed,

These freshmen classmates will succeed.

The Chelmsford High School Athletic Association, under the efficient leadership of Lawrence P. Healey, is one of the Most hard-working groups in the school. Its first activity of the year is the sale of membership tickets to students who are thus permitted to attend the games at a greatly reduced rate. One of its highlights was Booster Day with the parade of colorful floats, followed by an exciting football game and a victory dance. The duties of this association are to buy uniforms and equipment for the basketball, football, and baseball players, to sell and collect tickets at each game, to pay the referees, and to take charge of the pep assemblies. This organization plays a great part in fostering school spirit and promoting a keen interest in sports.

COACH — Mildred M. Hehir

Captained by Eleanor Gray, who has been conspicuous not only for appearance and performance, but also for outstanding qualities of leadership, the Chelmsford High School cheerleaders once again gained merited recognition. Even before tournament time arrived, the Lowell Sunday Sun chose to feature our snappy and lithe cheerleaders in numerous action shots of their vigorous routines.

This year's group of cheerleaders was large enough to permit the functioning of two units, and in this manner more girls were allowed this opportunity to serve their school. The performance of the team reflects great credit upon the coach, Miss Mildred Hehir, who has earned during her years of coaching at Chelmsford High School an enviable reputation for training championship teams.

Football

The Chelmsford High football team of 1952, directed by Coaches Nolan and Ciszek and led by co-captains Don House and Ronnie Yates, enjoyed its most successful season in eight years as the team racked up six victories against three defeats.

C. H. S. opened the season at Punchard and dropped a tough one to a team that went on to a great season losing only one game. The next week, however, the team started a four-game winning streak which included a victory over Dracut, their first defeat in 7 years at the hand of C. H. S. After losing a tough one to Ipswich, we went on to upset once-beaten Weston and to trounce Johnson.

In the annual finale on Thanksgiving morning, Howe High School ended its second undefeated season, downing our boys 19-0. By virtue of this victory, Howe won the suburban and State Class D Championships.

We all hope that captain-elect Joe Marcotte will lead the team to many victories in the fall of 1953.

The scores:

Chelmsford	0	Punchard	19
Chelmsford	33	Assumption	6
Chelmsford	12	Tewksbury	0
Chelmsford	21	Dracut	0
Chelmsford	13	Wilmington	0

Chelmsford	41	Johnson	6
Chelmsford	0	Howe	19

Boys' Basketball

Once again Coach Murray Hicks displayed his uncanny knack for producing great basketball teams when this year's quintet won the Suburban League Championship. Under the leadership of Captain Frederick Crowe, the team finished the season with a record of eleven wins and six defeats.

After losing the first game to Hudson we whipped the stubborn Maynard team and the powerful alumni five. Our hopes lowered when a powerful Punchard club defeated us but scored again when we beat our perennial rivals and defending champion Howe. From then on things looked good until we lost to Dracut. This created a three way tie between Howe, Dracut, and Chelmsford. We were ready for Dracut the second time, though, and eliminated them. Our hopes were high again and our hearts anxious as we journeyed to the Ditson school in Billerica for the game that would decide the championship. Determined to defeat Howe, we played our hearts out to a victory tune of 77-63.

Once again we have been invited to participate in the Townsend Tournament and we hope that this year we will permanently retire the trophy that we have won twice.

Girls' Basketball

The Chelmsford High School girls' basketball team had a very successful season this year under the competent coaching of Miss Nancy Cordingly.

Co-captain Barbara Hicks skillfully controlled the front court with her sharp shooting and high scoring, while co-captain Mary Warren, with the assistance of Louise Sweet and Jane Paduch, patrolled the back court with professional ease. With this winning combination the team tied with Howe for second place in the Suburban League.

The junior varsity squad, under the leadership of co-captains Bette Buchan and Florence Vickery presented a good display of ball handling which points to a promising future for the Chelmsford girls.

At the time this book went to press the team had been invited to participate in the Littleton Tournament. The girls were looking forward for an opportunity to better their chances for Championship honors.

Field Hockey

The Chelmsford High School field hockey team went into its first year as a letter sport in the fall of 1952. Although hockey has been played before by the girls at Chelmsford High, this was the first season in which the activities were completely organized with the players receiving letters for their participation.

Coached by Miss Cordingly, and co-captained by Mary Gonsalves and Charlotte McLaughlin, the team enjoyed the season, winning two games, losing four, and tying one.

We forecast success for next year under the able leadership of co-captains-elect, Frances Eaton and Patricia Norwood.

Baseball

Once again, as is so evident in every Chelmsford High School competitive activity, good sportsmanship stands as the highest achievement obtained by our 1952 baseball team.

The Chelmsford High School baseball teams of 1952 and 1953 feel deeply indebted to Coaches Nolan and Ciszek not only for their training in baseball skills but also for their promotion of fair play and good sportsmanship with rival schools.

The 1952 baseball team was an able club captained by John Whitesides. Although not all the scores were in Chelmsford's favor, there was one victory with its accompanying circumstances which should be considered seriously by the student body.

On Field Day, 1952, for the first time in that season, the bleachers were filled with fans, shouting, cheering for Chelmsford, and talking up a good game. The enthusiasm of these rooters gave the team that little extra push that brought home the bacon; they defeated Punchard. Perhaps, if that same support from an interested student body had been present at all the games, the team would have been helped over th erough spots and would have had a championship year.

It is hoped that, in this year of 1953, baseball will not have been the forgotten sport, that under the co-captainship of Bernard McGlinchey and Dean Hauesler, it will have been played to packed bleachers of shouting fans, and that the score each time will have been in Chelmsford's favor.

For 1952—"Hats off to you, Jock!"

For 1953—"Good luck to you, Bernie and Dean!"

The Chelmsford High School Student Council, under the guidance of Miss Hehir, has, in its third year, an outstanding record of service for school and community.

The Student Council has served the school through its continued stimulation of school spirit and its unfailing interest in student problems. By the sale of refreshments at athletic events, of bookcovers, sweaters, and sweat-shirts, and through the planning and presenting of a talent show, the Student Council has been able to purchase new uniforms for cheerleaders and twirlers, sweaters for the senior athletes, both girls and boys, and lights for the gym. A contribution of one hundred dollars was made toward a public address system. A delegation from the Council went to Winchester where the members discussed mutual problems and widened their experience through contact with other representatives from all parts of the state. Visits have been made to other schools, and visitors from other schools have been received here as part of the Student Council program for bettering the school.

The community has been served through the Student Council sponsorship of the different charitable funds. At Thanksgiving and Christmas two families were made happier by the thoughtfulness of Chelmsford High School pupils.

Thus, the students of Chelmsford High School have become more aware of their school, have developed greater enthusiasm for its achievements, and have increased their interest in others through the work of the Student Council.

The newly formed National Honor Society was organized late last year and began to function early this year under the guiding hand of Miss Booth. The main purposes of this organization are to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop character in all students. Only juniors and seniors are eligible for membership.

The outstanding accomplishment of the National Honor Society this year has been the sponsoring of a College Board Examination class for those seniors planning to enter college. With the assistance of the teachers, classes were held once a week and help was given in English composition and vocabulary, geometry, algebra, and French.

It is our hope that this worthwhile organization will expand and be the group to which every student will aspire as it certainly is a worthy goal to achieve.

Baton Twirlers

The Chelmsford High School Baton Twirlers, with Beverly Lydon and Mary Gonsalves as co-captains and Joan Taylor as drum majorette, have been a credit to this school. Directed by Miss Mildred Hehir, the twirlers have developed new techniques which have won them praise and admiration. Proudly wearing their new maroon and white uniforms, they have made favorable appearances on Memorial Day, Lowell Field Day, our own Field Day, Booster Day and at the Golden Gloves Bout.

The twirlers are particularly proud of Mary Gonsalves who has won many honors. She appeared at the All-Star game at the Lowell Stadium for two consecutive years and won second and fourth prizes in the twirling competition. She also appeared in a Drum Majorette contest sponsored by "The Boston Herald."

The Band

The band has completed another successful year in the annals of Chelmsford High School. Under the expert direction of Mr. Hahn, who has proved to be a friend to all and a musician of ability and understanding, the band began its year by playing at all the football games both at home and away. Playing at school assemblies, at both Chelmsford and Lowell Field Days, at a concert in Nashua, and on Memorial Day, the band displayed its usual superior quality. The band also added its color to the Republican Rally, the Booster Day parade, and the Golden Gloves in Lowell.

Probably the most enjoyable time of the season for the band was the night it went caroling for shut-ins. After making many stops in all parts of the town during a storm which was one of the worst of the winter, the band was treated to a delicious turkey supper and movies.

The climax of the band's busy year was as q'lways its annual concert which as usual displayed the versatility of the band and its conductor to the delight of the audience.

Glee Club

Under the leadership of Mr. John Hahn, the Glee Club has been a hard working and successful unit. Although the girls and boys have studied in separate groups, they have performed together in a practiced and professional manner.

The Glee Club has rendered its usual service to school and town by entertaining at assemblies, at churches, and at Parent Teachers Association meetings. The highlight of its season was a concert for the Lowell Rotary Club.

We thank the Glee Club and its leader for representing Chelmsford High School so willingly and so well.

The Press Club has in its second year of existence served our school, the town, and other schools as well, by releasing weekly information concerning school interest and activities. The weekly news releases range from four to ten, depending upon the school program.

Although without a treasury, the club was able to enter a horse drawn float on Booster Day and was pleased to win a cash prize.

Its success could not have been achieved if it had not been for the able direction of Mrs. Carriel, whose knowledge of English and capable leadership has proved invaluable.

In its third year the Lamplighters Club has again proven an asset to Chelmsford High School.

The Club maintains two purposes. The first is to teach its members how to use all types of tape recorders, movie projectors, filmstrip machines, amplifiers, and public address equipment and how to make minor repairs on them. The second is to assist in the development of the visual aids program for Chelmsford High School by their knowledge of these machines.

The Club consists of twenty-one members, who under the direction of its faculty adviser, Mr. Dunigan, has assisted our faculty in planning and using these aids in the classroom.

The class of '53 would like to thank sincerely the Lamplighters and its leader for its help in adding to the success of our years at Chelmsford High School.

Junior Red Cross

Under the able guidance of Miss Marjorie Scoboria, the Junior Red Cross has once again completed a successful year of service.

This year, the membership drive was more successful financially than in any other year. Also 100% membership was achieved for the school.

Many enjoyable moments were spent in preparing a school scrapbook to be sent abroad. Cartoon and cross-word puzzle books, made under the co-chairmanship of Betty Morrison and Hazel Mello, were sent to hospitalized veterans. Gift boxes were filled and sent to less fortunate children abroad. Carol Sutherland was the chairman of this project.

Mr. Malcolm E. Weeks spoke at the Junior Red Cross assembly in March. He gave pointers on how to speak in public. Ruth Waitt was in charge of this meeting.

The following officers were elected for this year:

President	Paul Peterson
Vice-President	Carol Sutherland
Secretary	Jacqueline Westwood
Treasurer	Paul Chevalier

Homeroom representatives:

Anne Marie Cafiso	Jerry Greska	Mary McCarthy
Irene Cheney	Eileen Harrington	Pricilla McGaughey
Anne Crowe	Jannette Henkel	Hazel Mello
Ann Dale	Helen Karafelis	Harvey Miller
Joan Dodge	Marie LaHaise	Florence Raymond
David Dutton	Lillian LeBrun	Shirley Sutherland
Esther Gaqnon	Larry Litchfield	Ruth Waitt
Shirley Gould	Joseph Marcotte	John Witts

The members of the Junior Red Cross have learned the value of their organization and have experienced the satisfaction that comes from helping others.

Masque and Whig Club

This year, under the direction of Mr. Birdsall, the Masque and Whig Club was formed. Its first dramatic production, a one-act play entitled A By-Line for St. Luke, was enthusiastically received by the student body at the Christmas assembly.

In the spring, the club members successfully presented to the public a three-act play, A Date With Judy.

As the Masque and Whig Club is fulfilling a long-felt need in the activities of Chelmsford High School, it is hoped that the club will grow and will not only present a play annually but also contribute much to our assembly programs.
