All glory comes

from daring to begin

Eugene F. Ware

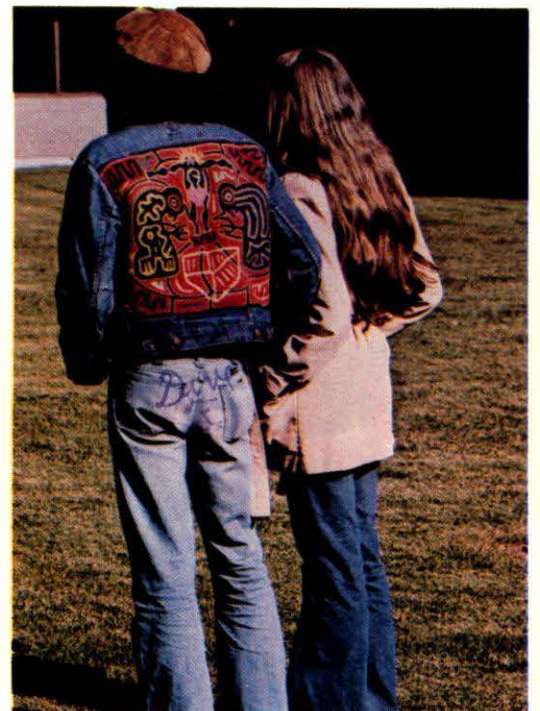

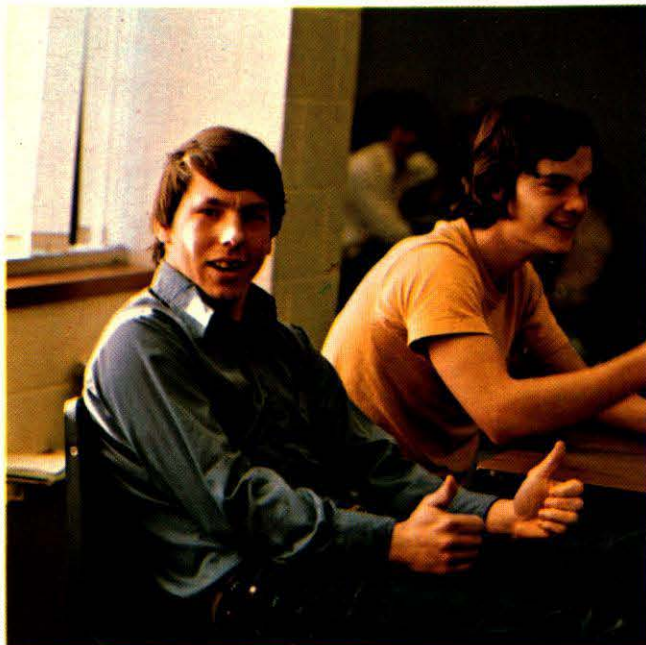

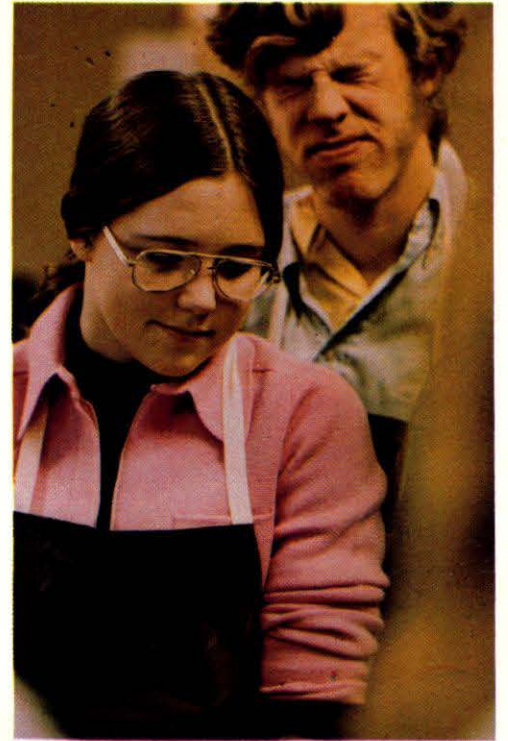

Originality does not consist

in saying what no one has
ever said before,
but in saying exactly what you think about yourself.

J. F. Stephen

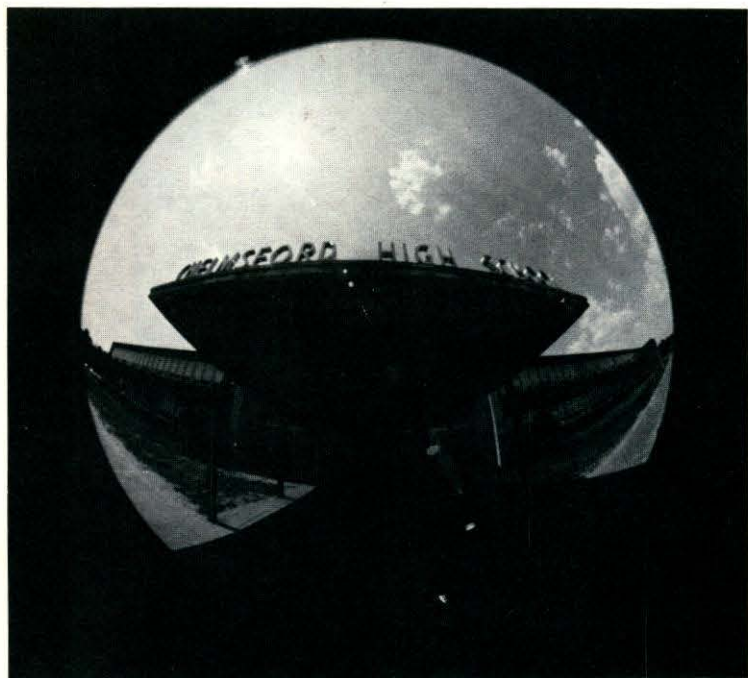

There is no comparison
between that which is lost
by not succeeding
and that which is lost
by not trying.

Frances Bacon

Nothing is waste

that makes a memory.

Ned Lore

We never know how high we are,

till we are called to rise;
and then

if we are true
to plan

our statures touch the skies.

Emily Dickinson

Nothing is waste

that makes a memory.

Ned Lorem

We never know how high we are,

till we are called to rise;
and then

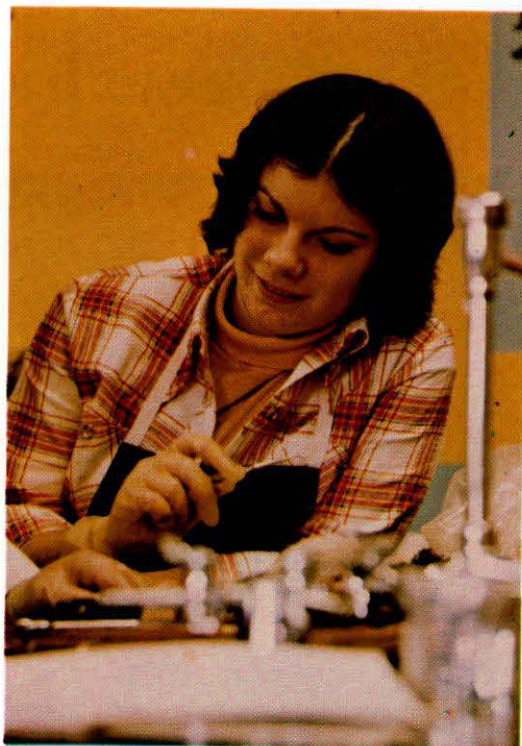

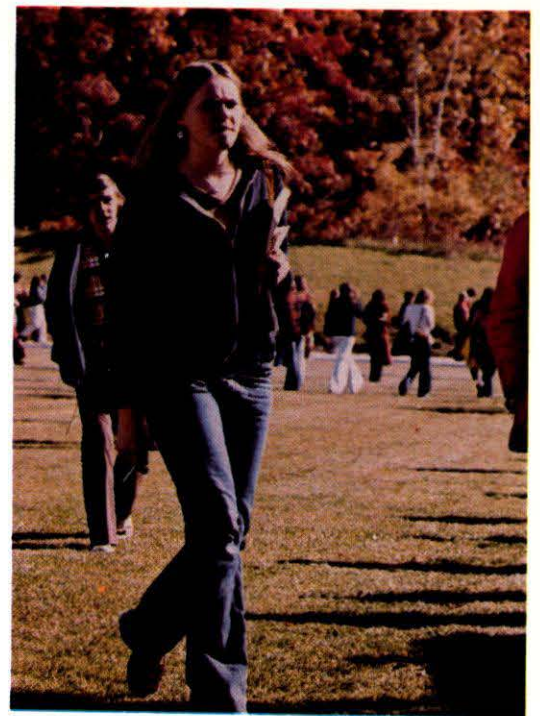

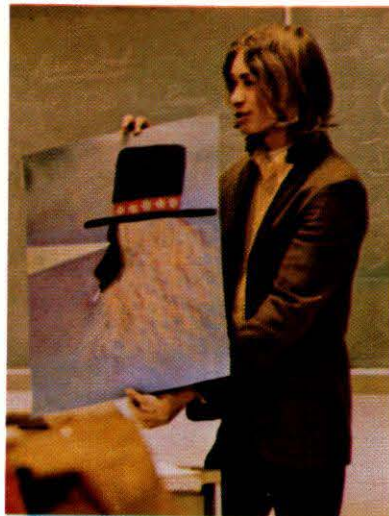

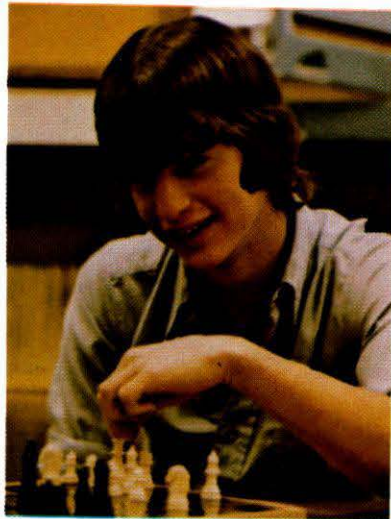

if we are true
to plan

our statures touch the skies.

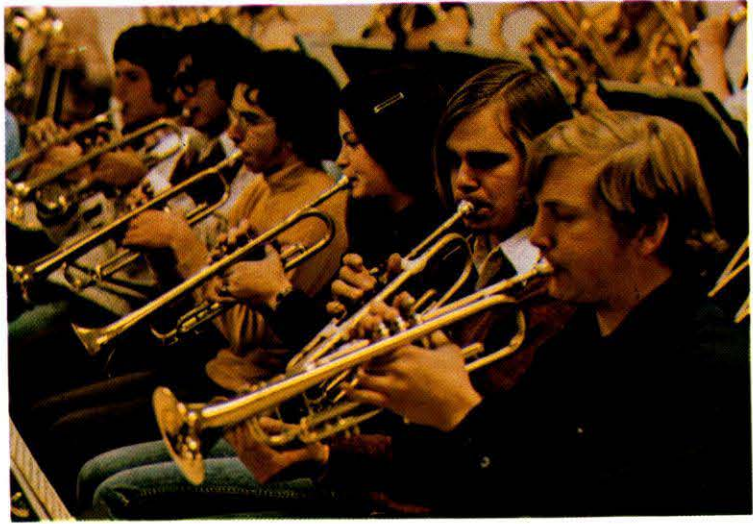

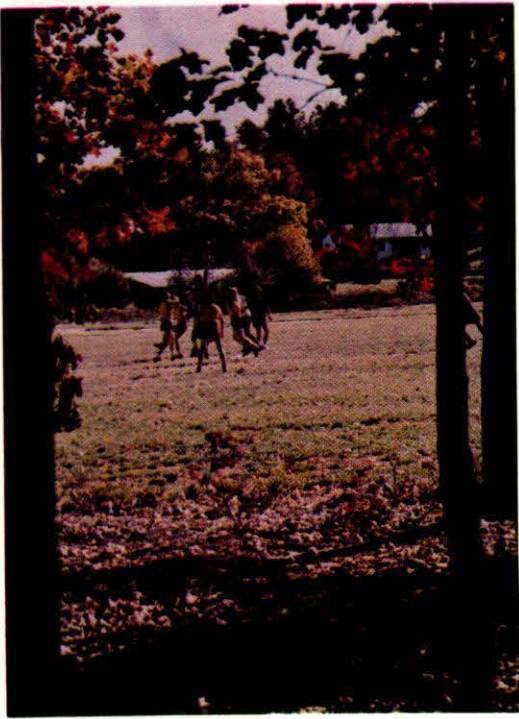

Emily Dickinson

We all live under the same sky,

but we don't all have the same horizons.

Konrad Adenaur

We arrive upon this earth

alone

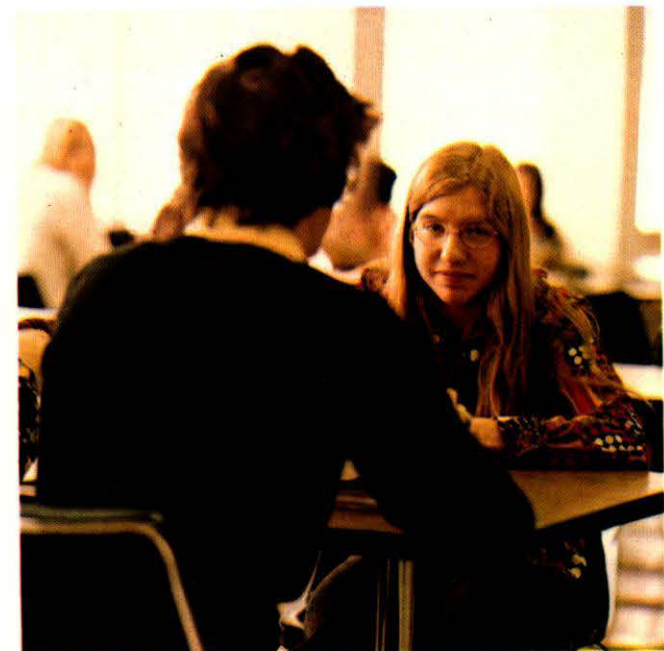

we depart

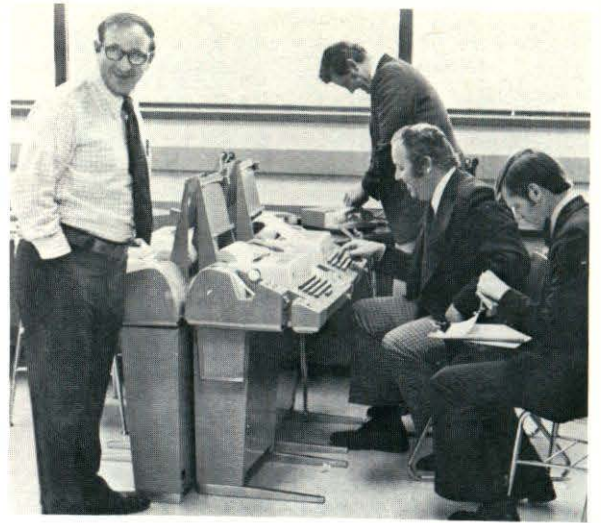

alone

this time called life

was meant to share.

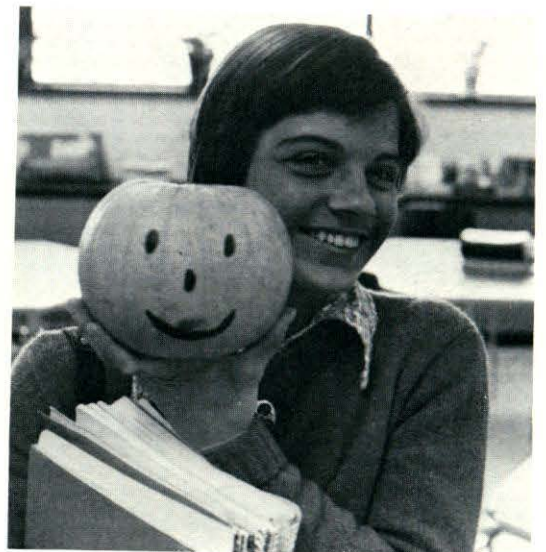

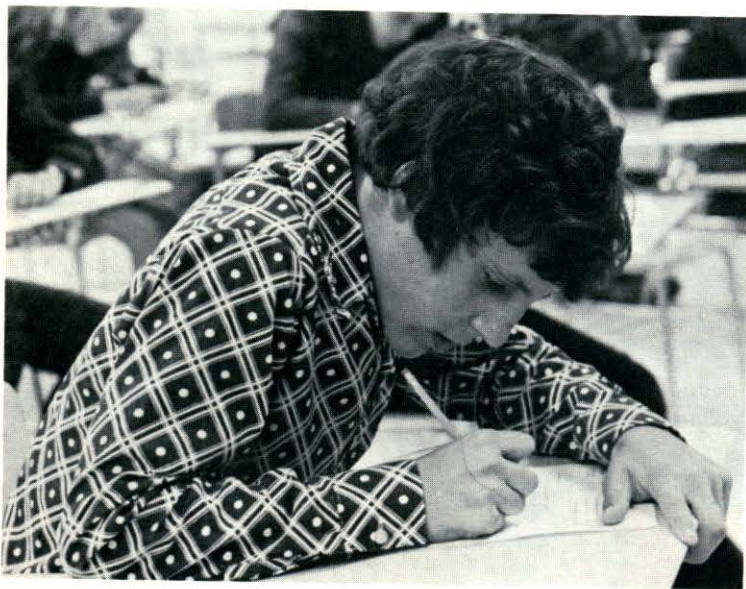

Walter Rinder

The windows of my soul,
I throw wide open
to the sun.

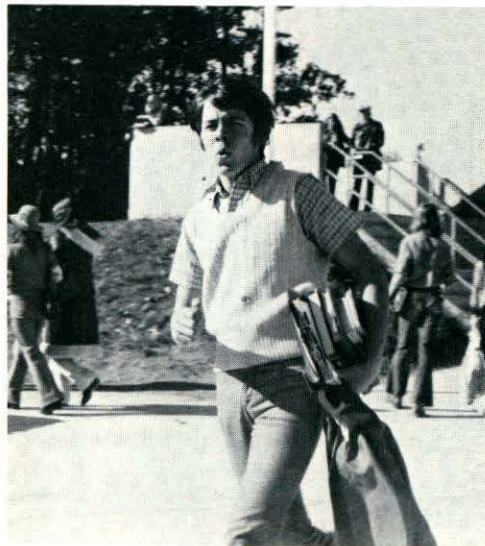

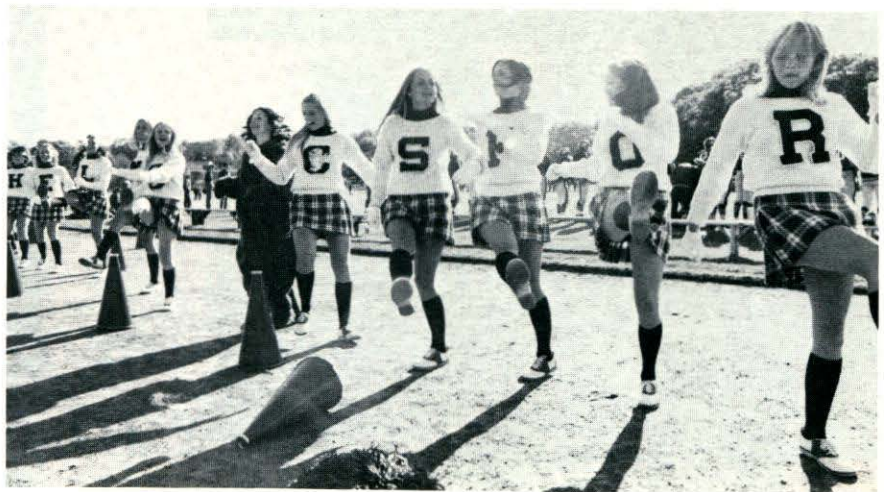

John Greenleaf Whittier

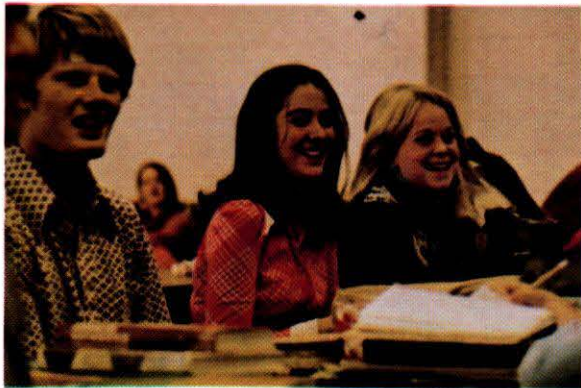

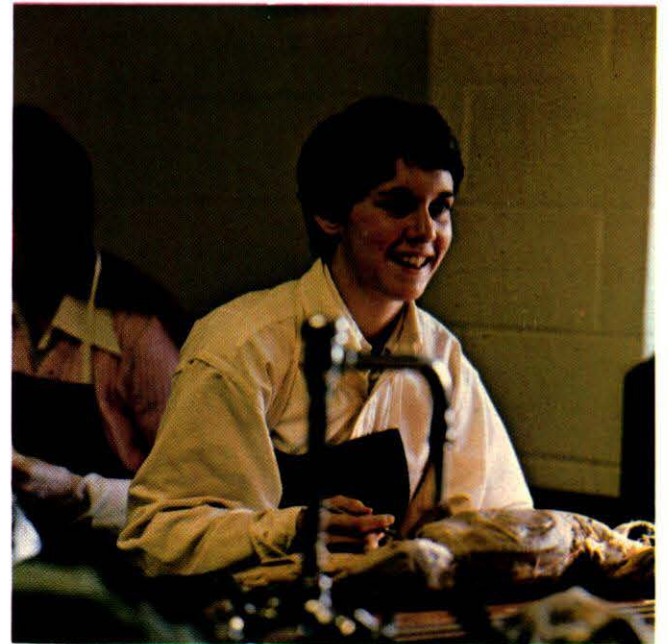

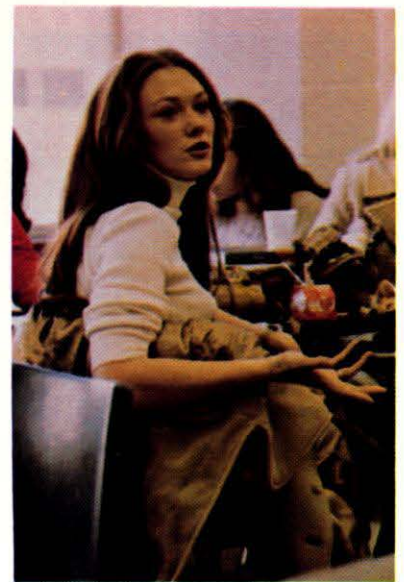

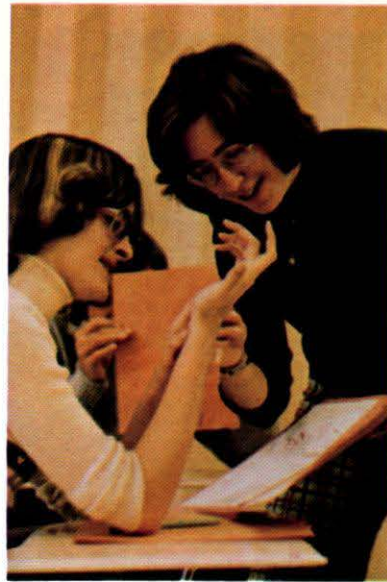

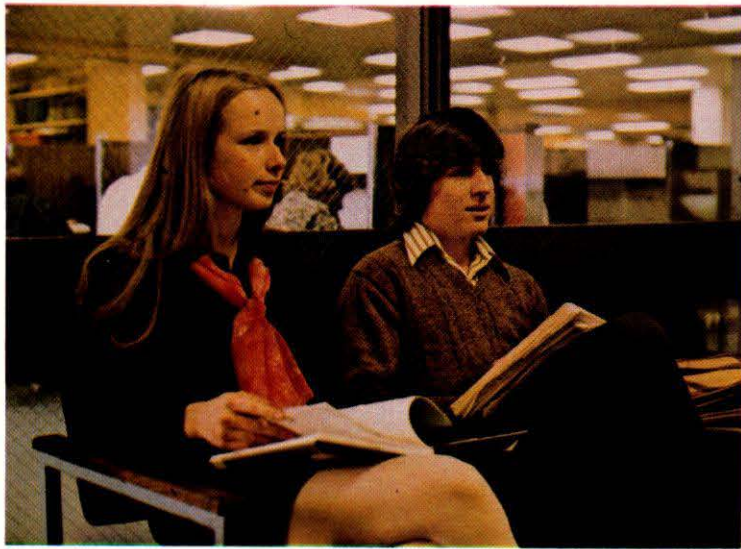

Years wrinkle the skin,
but lack of enthusiasm
wrinkles the soul.

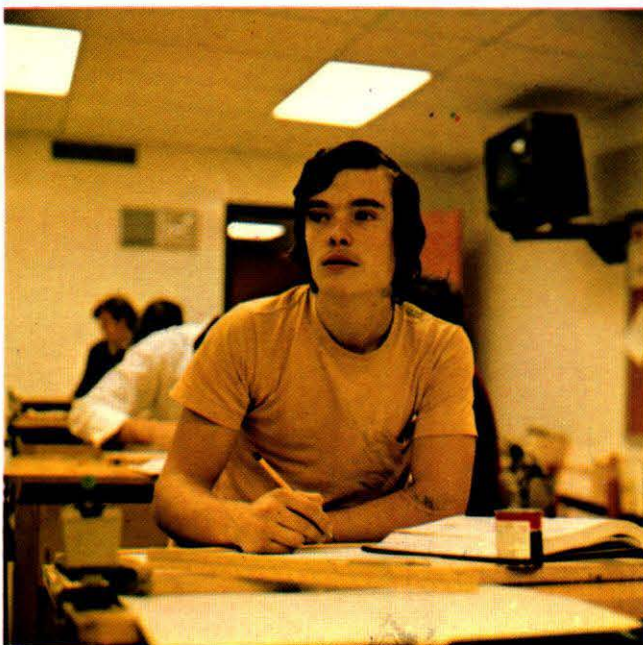

Joe Applegate

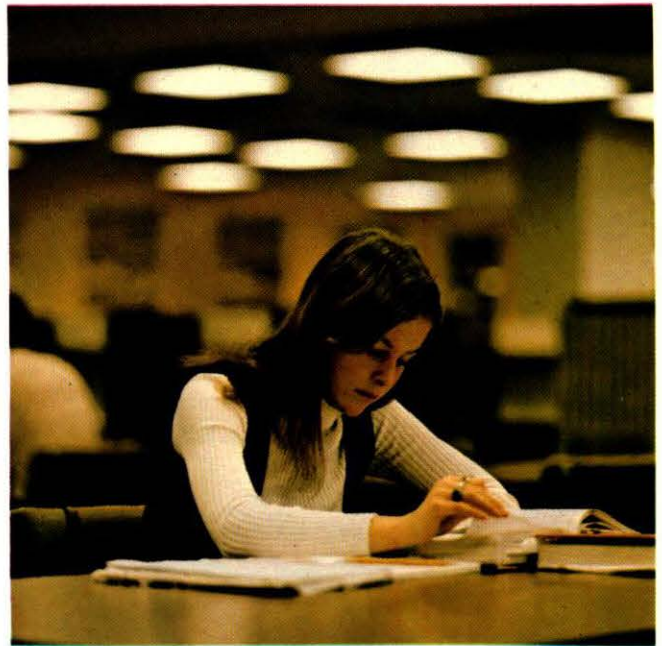

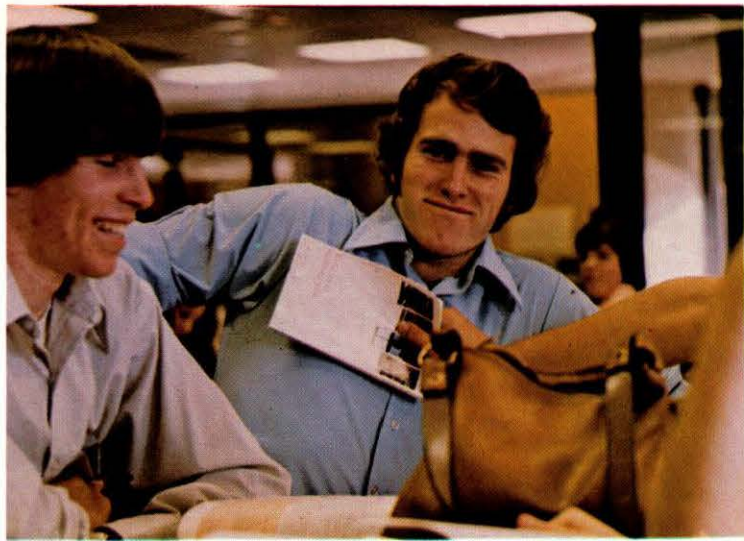

Let us not look back in anger,
nor forward in fear,
but around in awareness.

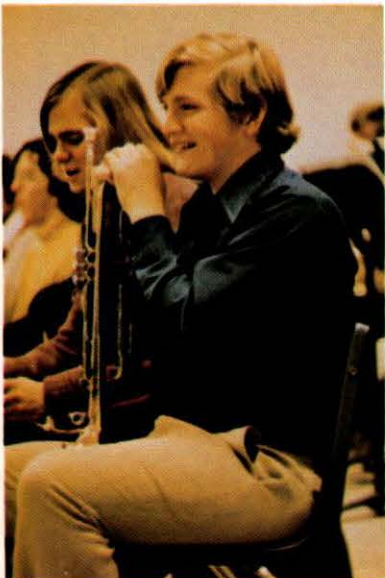

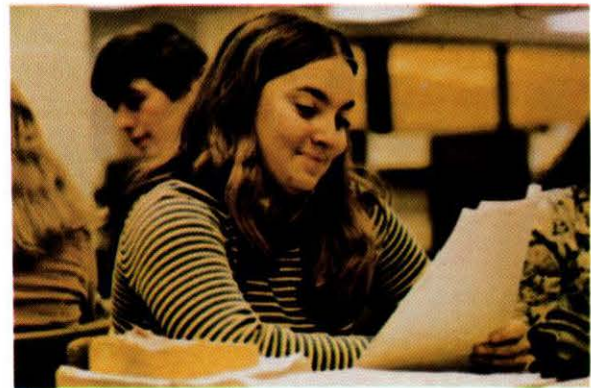

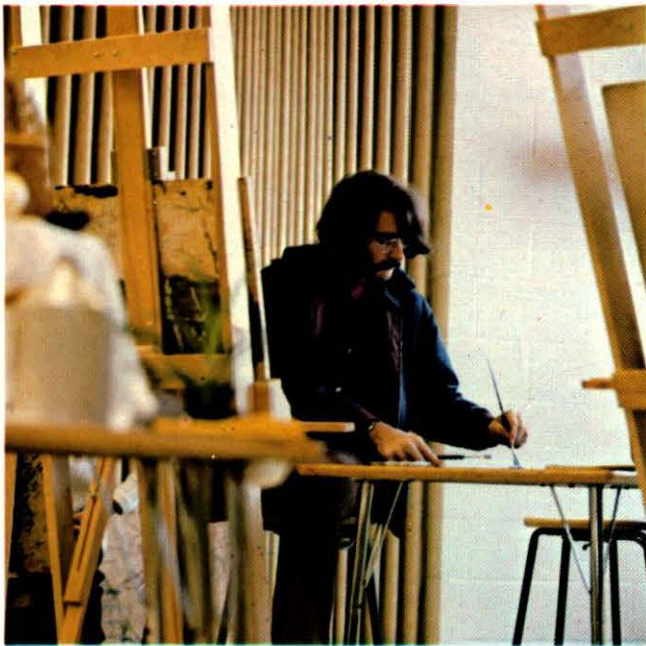

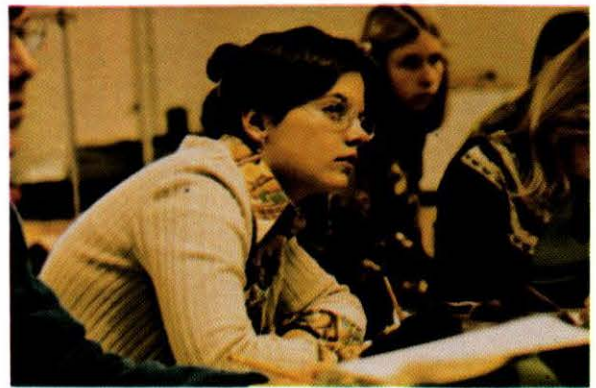

James Thurber

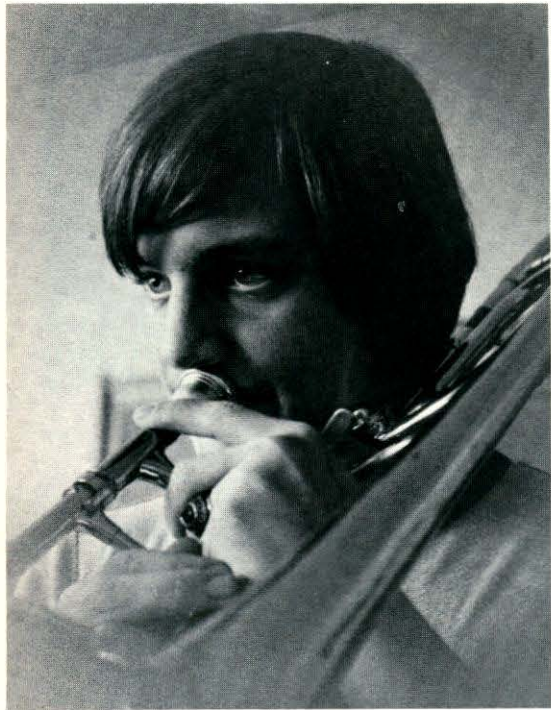

Hopes are but the dreams
of those who are awake.

Pindar

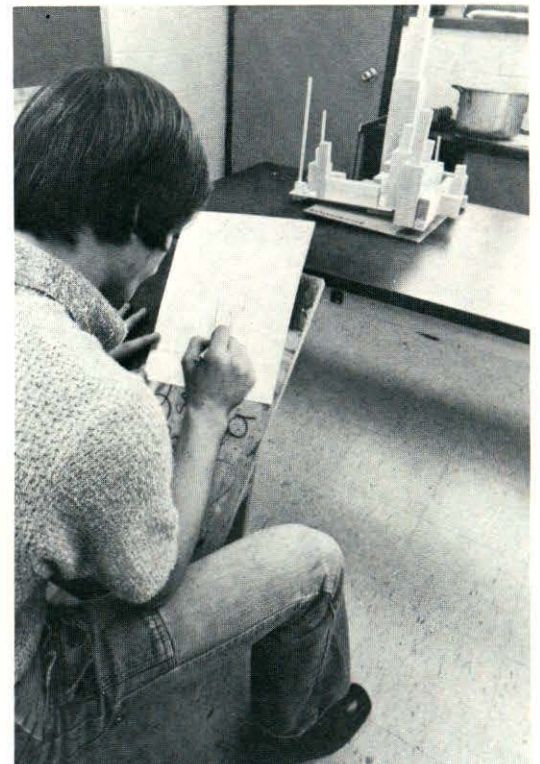

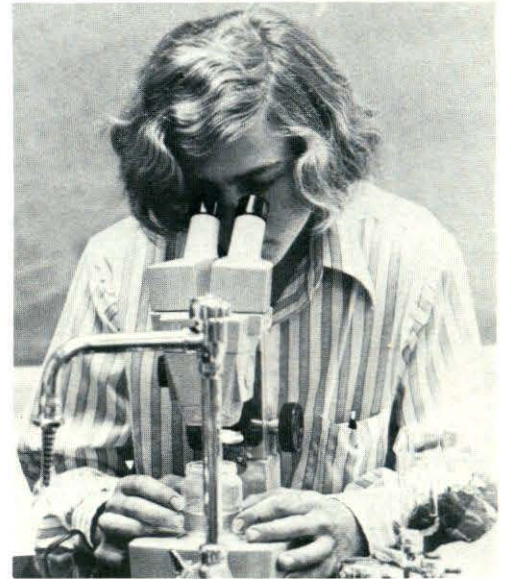

How monotonous
the sounds of the forest would be

if the music came only
from the top ten birds.

Dan Bennett

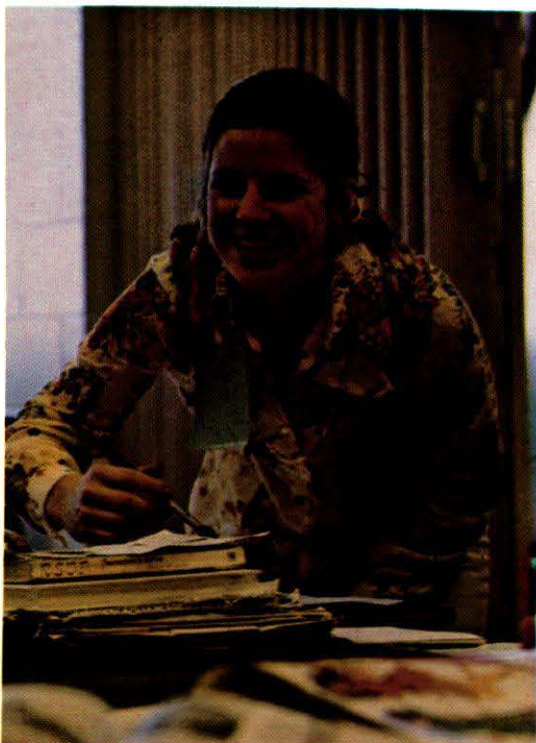

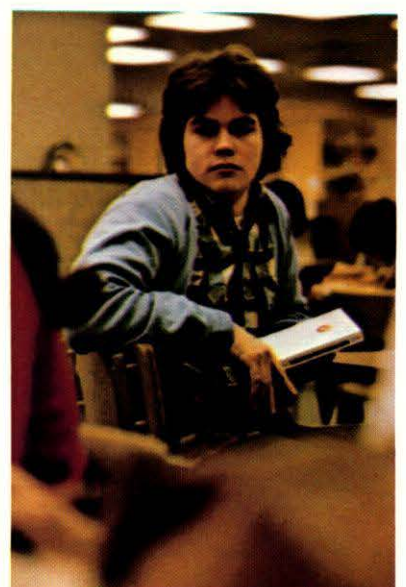

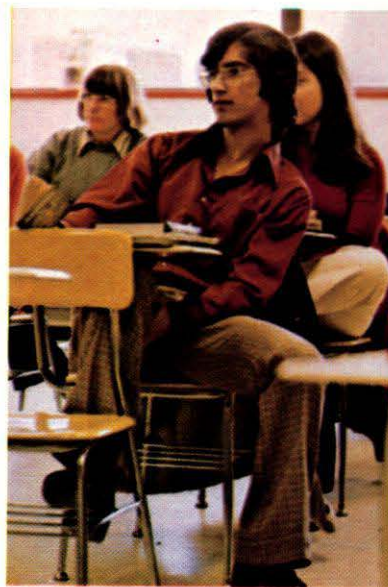

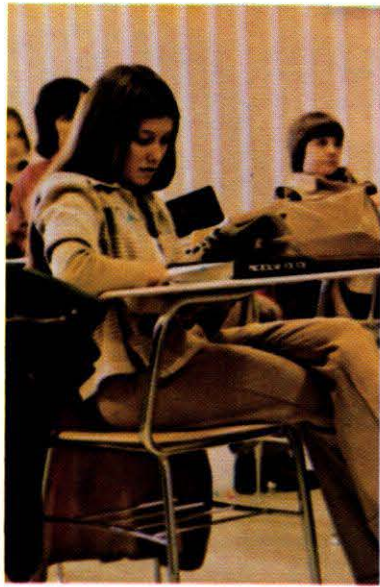

Every individual has a place to fill in the world.
and is important in some respect.

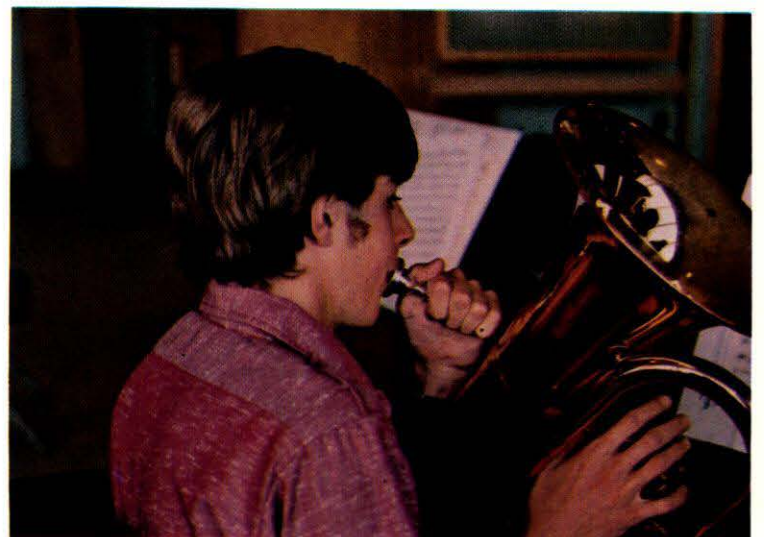

whether he chooses to be so or not.

The secret of education lies in respecting the pupil.

Ralph Waldo Emerson

It's only the beginning . . .

From the time the idea of a new high school had been proposed, until the school finally opened in September of 1974, George Simonian's thoughts and unending efforts concentrated on the school. He took a dream and shaped it into a reality. Through hours of work and despite many obstacles, Mr. Simonian has been, in a sense, the father of this incredible building. Therefore, we, the first graduating class of the new high school, proudly dedicate the 1975 Lion to our principal, George Simonian.

DEDICATION

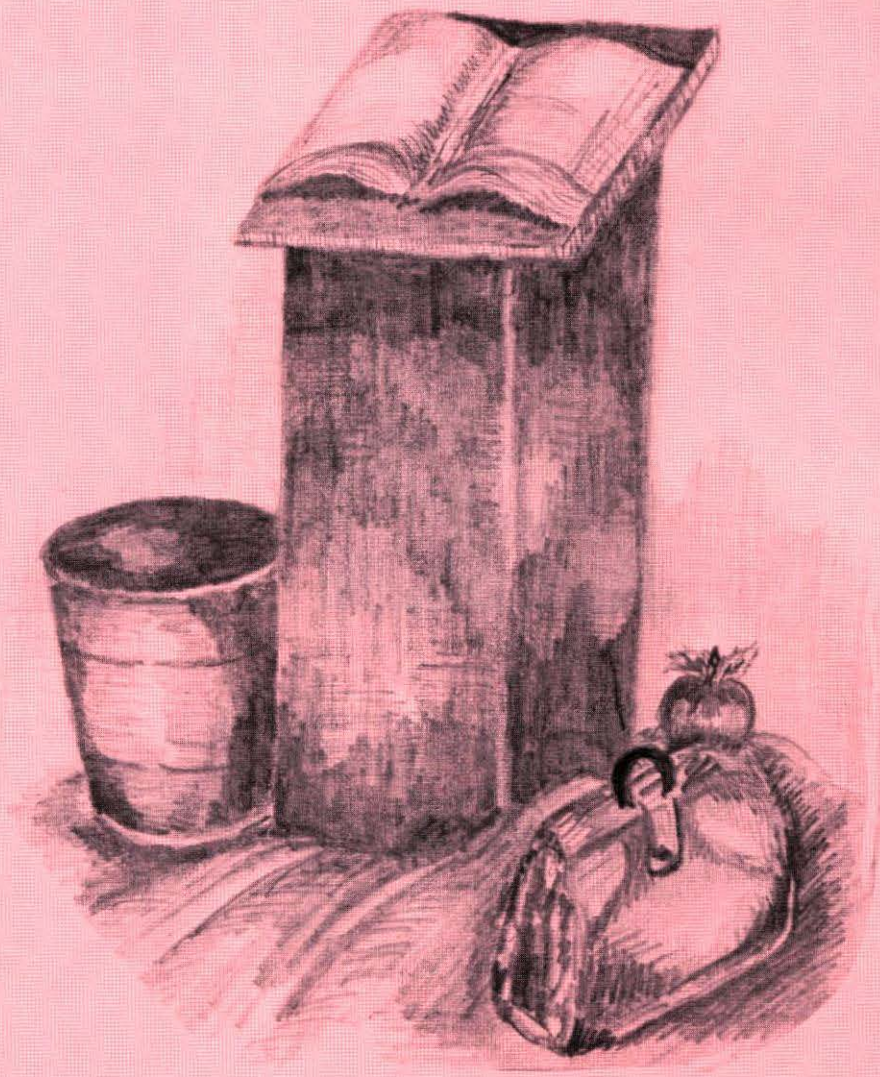

The door to tomorrow opens and it is today. Students have already rushed through the door and made this building home. Students and teachers who waited in cramped quarters on tedious schedules breathe and spread in sprawling white halls and well-equipped rooms. The door swings wide and yesterday's dreaming, planning, and long anticipation is over and today we dedicate our new Chelmsford High School. Dedication ceremonies were held on Sunday, November 24, 1974 in the spacious new gymnasium, during which the articles included in the cornerstone were explained. Principal George Simonian presented the school with obvious pride to the townspeople of Chelmsford. Remarks included those by Student Congress President Ann Bolger and Selectman Bruce Freeman.

KEY CLUB

Contrary to popular belief, the Key Club does not make "keys." The Club engages in serving it's school and community in any way possible. This year the Key Club operates the school elevator, has dances at the Elk's Hall, and helps the children of Camp Paul. Each year the club gives a scholarship to a worthy candidate. Dining at Skip's Restaurant and attending conventions are also highlights of the club's activities.

Nothing spectacular — just an idea, a thought, a dream maybe. Little children; little boys, little girls, like you find anywhere — but special children less fortunate. Some bigger children — young adults really, all CHS students of Spanish — more fortunate, willing to share. Every Tuesday — getting cookies and juice ready, heading for Lowell — the Spanish American Center it's called. Reading, writing, playing cards, laughing, crying maybe —. Behind the scenes — adults, big people; teachers, drivers, supervisors, committee people — each in his won way, lending a helpful hand. People involvement — people commitment. A nice way for two cultures to meet.

Within and Without

The other things necessary for this education is the willingness to learn from everything and everybody, the openness to new things.

Real growth in art and life comes to us from the outside as well as from within, comes to us from our relationships with other things and other people.

It does not come to us from within or from without, but from within and without at the same time, so that we must always be building bridges.

Without bridges we go nowhere.

It is the genius of children in this matter that they know how to go out to other things and people, that they know how to build a bridge spontaneously and to establish a relationship easily.

Eugene S. Greissler

IN MEMORIAM

Debrah Kane Class of 1976

EARLY DEATH

She pass'd away like morning dew
Before the sun was high;
So brief her time, she scarcely knew
the meaning of a sigh.

As round the rose its soft perfume,
Sweet love around her floated;
Admired she grew-while mortal doom
Crept on, unfear'd, unnoted.

Love was her guardian Angel here,
But Love to Death resign'd her;
Tho' love was kind, why should we fear
But holy Death is kinder.

TO THE GRADUATES

You will hear, as Graduation Day approaches, much advice and many speeches about the challenges that lie ahead for you. Though such advice and such speeches may sound familiar and, perhaps, somewhat trite, the challenges to which they refer are quite real.

It is my earnest hope that your years at Chelmsford High School will have played an important part in preparing you for these challenges.

As you graduate, to the echoes of class songs, promises to "Keep in touch," and the familiar strains of "Pomp and Circumstance," remember that the larger world beyond the walls of the building in which you have spent your High School years will need all of the enthusiasm, concern, sense of humor, and sense of purpose that you can contribute to it.

It has been my privilege to serve as your Principal. My Good Wishes go with you as you leave Chelmsford High.

George Simonian

"The best thing for being sad is to learn something. That is the only thing that never fails. You may grow old and trembling in your anatomies, you may lie awake at night listening to the disorder of your veins, you may miss your only love, you may see the world about you devastated by evil lunatics, or know your honour trampled in the sewers of baser minds. There is only one thing for it then — to learn. Learn why the world wags and what wags it. That is the only thing which the mind can never exhaust, never alienate, never be tortured by, never fear or distrust, and never dream of regretting. Learning is the thing for you."

THE ONCE AND FUTURE KING

T. H. White
