dedication

beyond the call of duty

It wouldn't be fitting to begin anything for Mr. O'Keefe without a quote or inspiring story.

"small things lead to big things," he says so often; he believes it applies to everything in life. We don't doubt him today or any other day, as he is truly an inspiration to us all.

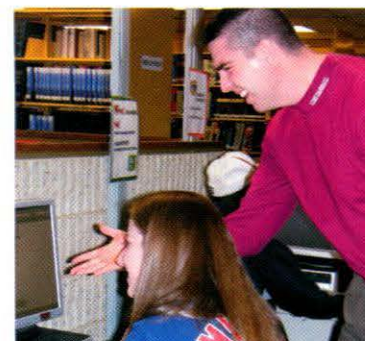

"Mr. O'Keefe is an all around great guy who has built many strong relationships as a teacher and coach. I was very lucky to have Mr. O'Keefe as a teacher and he has impacted me in a positive way. He is a great role model for everyone."

-Michelle Perrault

"For me, he was one of the best teachers I've ever had."

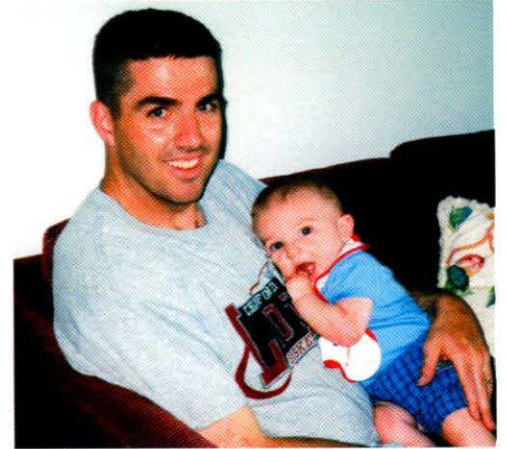

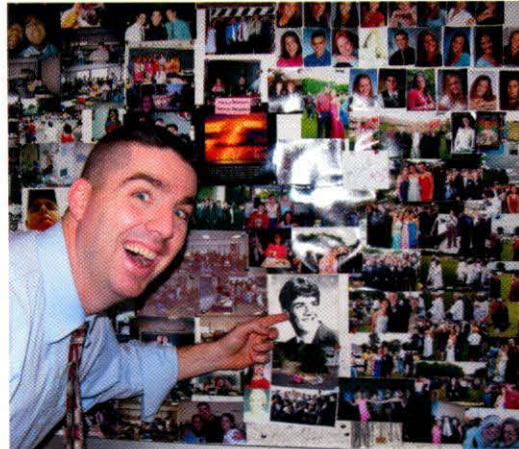

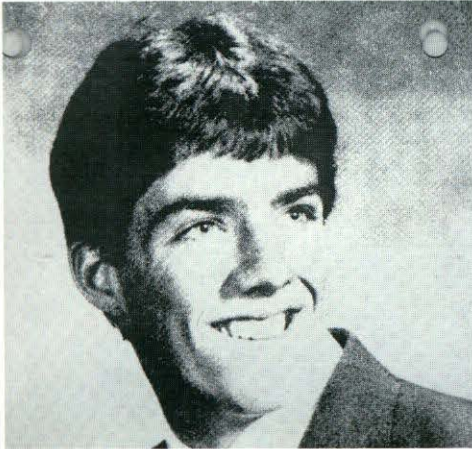

-Ayse Akbulut

As a baseball coach, a loyal fan, a proud father and an enthusiastic teacher, Mr. O'Keefe leaves an imprint on every student to pass through the hallways of CHS. From World History to Sociology, he reaches out to all grades, never failing to remember which student just won a lacrosse game or which student triumphed at Mock Trial. His presence at CHS events and his school spirit are unparalleled, and the respect he has gained as a teacher reaches beyond the students he's taught. Mr. O'Keefe belongs in a category of his own, and the dedication of the 2007 Lion belongs to him alone.

"Mr. O'Keefe deserves this because he respects all of his students."

-Joanne King

mr. o'keefe

"He has such a great personality and unique way of teaching."

-Josh Bondeson

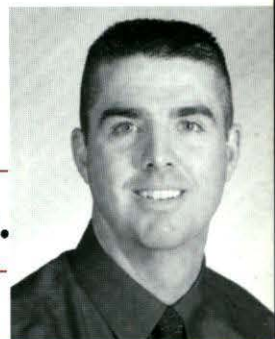

"Mr. O'Keefe opened every class with a quote and an inspirational story. He makes each and every one of his students recognize the potential they have to make a difference in the world and succeed in life. Mr. O'Keefe's enthusiasm and motivation builds the confidence of his students. He is a great teacher, both in and out of the classroom. He prepares his students not only for future grades, but for reality and living life."

-Kara DeFreitas

Thank you, Mr. O'Keefe, for a great four years.

"We are living in a world that is beyond controllability."

beyond words

As the saying goes, a picture is worth a thousand words. Sometimes, we find we're more than that. Every time we walk down the hallway, open our locker, go to class, go to clubs and sports practices, organize events, sit in the student section at a football game or dance into the night, we're doing something new and different. And we know, even when we leave here, those things won't leave us. All students who go to Chelmsford High School quickly learn that they--and CHS as a whole--can't be reduced to a single photograph or single face. It's clear in what we say, what we do, and what we accomplish that we're more than that. We're beyond words.

Reaching Beyond

AT CHS, we don't hold back when it comes to school spirit. Maroon and white overpower the school all year long. Senior class officers reach out to their class during elections in the spring, so they can raise the bar for CHS spirit. As the fall sport season speeds by, our teams press on to get ahead. The Thanksgiving game approaches, and no class holds back when it comes to spirit week games, spirit walls, contests, and theme days. Pep rally takes weeks of preparation, but the classes always exceed expectations.

< TGIF

The self-proclaimed Loud and Proud '06 Football Fans made sure not to miss a Friday night football game.

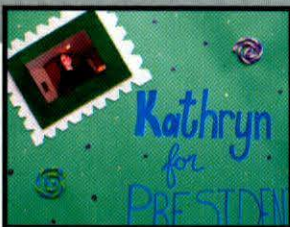

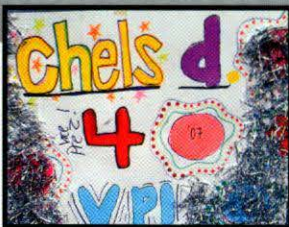

Going all out >

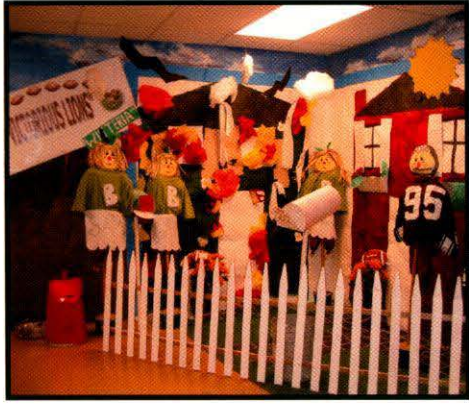

You never know what CHS students will wear next to show off their enthusiasm. The possibilities are endless, but one thing is for sure: maroon and white both day and night!

Campaign '06

The competition for a position as a senior class officer was intense, but in the end it was agreed that all candidates had the potential to bring the class of 2007 far.

< "Desperate Indians"

The wall made by the freshman class of 2010 played off of the hit television series Desperate Housewives. Many agreed that it was exceptionally good for a freshman wall.

Outlast >

The sophomores created their own version of Survivor, MVC style. Exceptional artwork contributed to their second place finish in the wall.

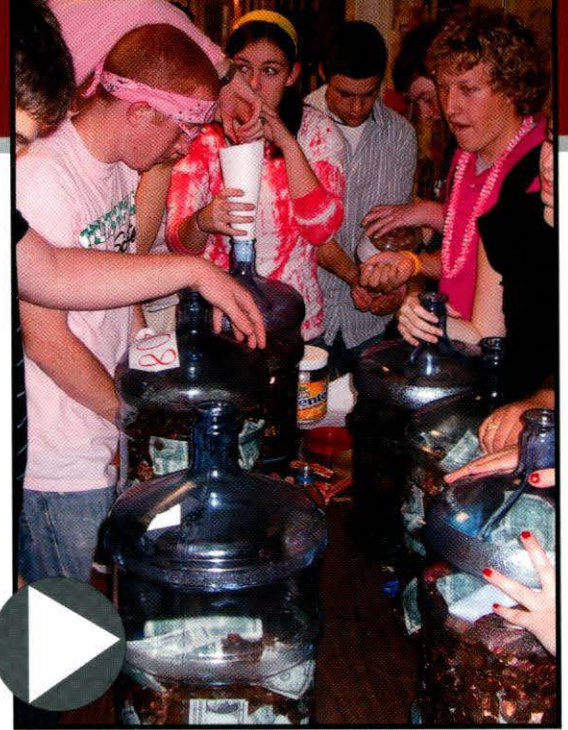

< "Whatcha gonna do?"

The junior class of 2008 took first place in the wall with their "Bad Boys" theme. The life size figures really made their scene come to life.

Lion Pride >

The theme of the senior wall played off of The Lion King's Pride Rock. Music, lighting, and background all conjured up the feeling that "The King Has Returned"

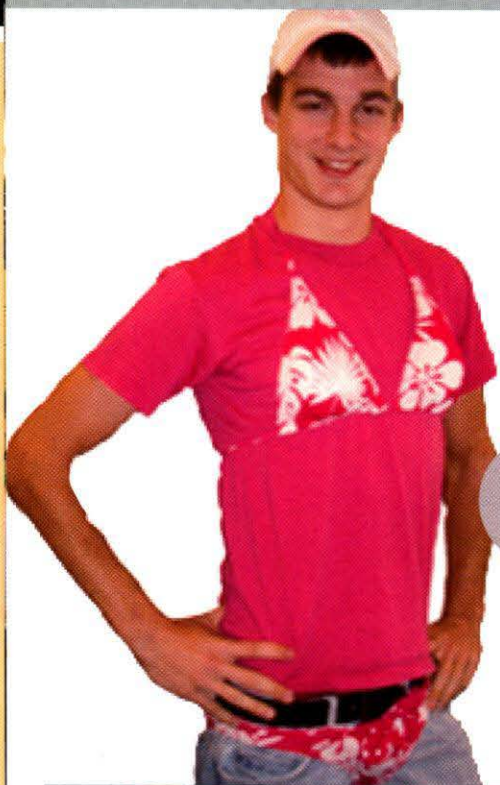

CLASS VS. CLASS.

▶ Classes competed in the Hat and Mitten Drive to gather donations as well as score points for their class.

▶ Classes bought spirit links for 10 cents each. The Student Council made the links into chains awarded to each class at Pep Rally.

▶ Penny Wars can get pretty aggressive- each nickel, dime, quarter and dollar cancels out the pennies collected by each class during school lunches.

Pep Rally Prep

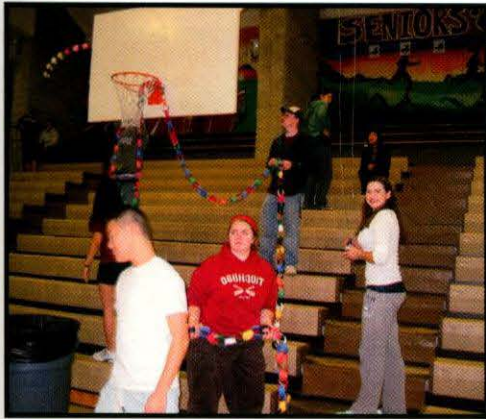

The week before the pep rally doesn't involve much sleep for the class reps. Not only do they have to plan spirit days, but they are collecting decorations for the gym and scavenging for maroon and white while planning secret penny war attacks. The class of '07 seniors were crazy enough to spend an entire night in the school gym, putting together pep rally supplies and rehearsing the senior skit for the following day. Ballons were inflated, music was created, and the gym was decorated by 8:30 the next morning.

The Lions Den student section was out in record numbers for the Thanksgiving Game. CHS students have really set the bar for school spirit especially high this year.

The Thanksgiving Game went into five overtimes this year, leaving spectators on the edge of their seats. Chelmsford came out victorious with 53 points to Billerica's 51, proving our determination to fans and rivals alike.

EXPERIMENT

When we are in class, we are in our own little world. Then, we step out into the microcosm that is CHS, but there is a reason we are called Chelmsford High. The town we live in is a part of our world that will forever be in our minds the way it is now.

BEYOND THESE WALLS

47 | Perspectives

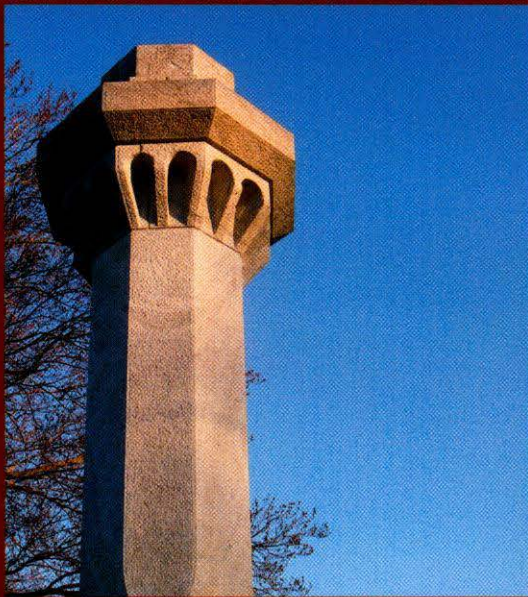

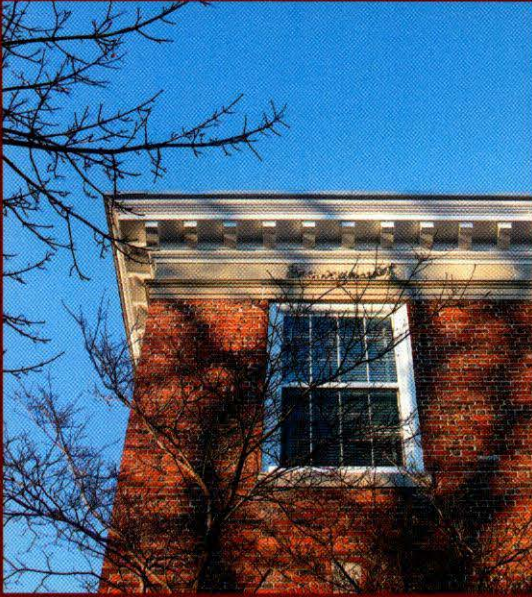

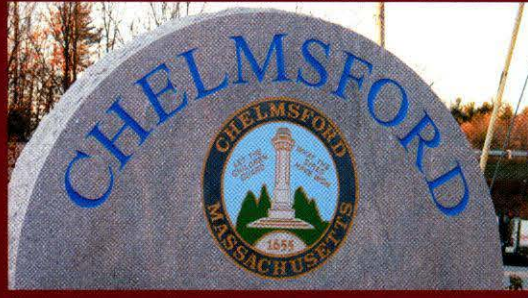

We make jokes about our monument. We have our own ginger ale. We were excited when they mentioned the town of Chelmsford in Johnny Tremain, and we search for likenesses in "The Simpsons." As our lives move forward, we will step beyond the walls of the school and the borders of our town, but we remain connected by the place where we grew up. Dear Class of 2007,

Four years have gone by so fast...so here we are...about to leave CHS behind and venture forward to the world beyond.

Many memorable days have been spent designing spirit walls, setting up field goal punt contests, freezing at chuck-a-puck, painting cotillion walls, filling exam box orders, and running dances.

All the different personalities with the officers and class reps have created a coordination of effort resulting in one success after another.

The class of 2007 has established many new activities like the Saturday night volleyball tournament and a spirit week bonfire, while reviving an old favorite—the powder puff games.

Many have been where you are today and have left with great hopes and expectations. Create your future successes with hard work and commitment. Remember our times here—remember to laugh... be like Buzz and tackle the world...to infinity and beyond!

is the best teacher I've ever had, without a doubt. He makes class interesting with his vast knowledge. If someone asked me what I wanted to be when I grow up, I would say Mr. Lemire.”

“MR. PECORA
had a major impact on my high school career and my life. He's always been there. I had him for my freshman year science class and this year for career ex....it has been a blast.”

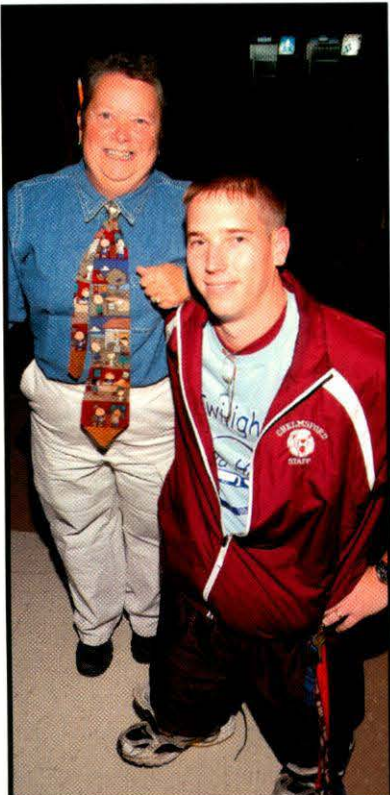

“MR. AMES
has been with us since our awkward, smelly years in middle school. He is one of those teachers that all the girls have crushes on and the boys want to play basketball with after school. I think I learned the most from him.”

“MRS. COLLITON
 ...is the mother figure of our school. She is someone a lot of people have always been able to turn to. She is trustworthy and supportive. She never turns down anyone in need - she cares about all.”

“MR. STEEVES
 ...is one of those teachers that inspires you to learn. He is always positive and helpful. He conducts class with support and humor and a little fun, making many students more enthusiastic about school, and inspires them to aim to succeed.”

“MS. CATALDO
took us to New York City in tenth grade. Not only did she trust us to stay out of trouble, but she sacrificed her sanity to be with us for two days!”

“Mrs. Bickel has worked really hard to help the class of '07 be the best we can be!”
 -Katy Thoene

“Mr. Morris is uniquely connected to the class of 2007. Teaching students from this class as both freshman and seniors, he has truly watched our class grow. This is the first class he has advised, but he has given so much time and effort!”

Senior Amanda Barnes and freshman Annie Cassidy race towards another win for the Lions while their many teammates cheer in the background.

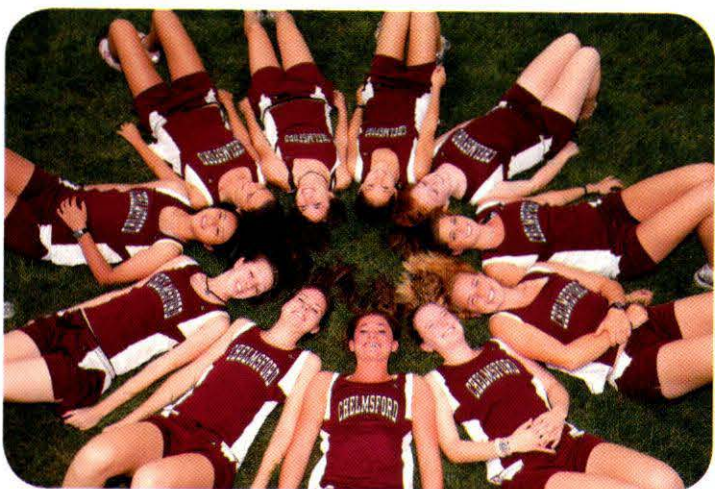

Girls' Cross Country

Senior captains Abby Aker and Ivory Farren with coaches Jack Lang and Krista Byam.

Below, Ivory Farren takes a lead over Haverhill.

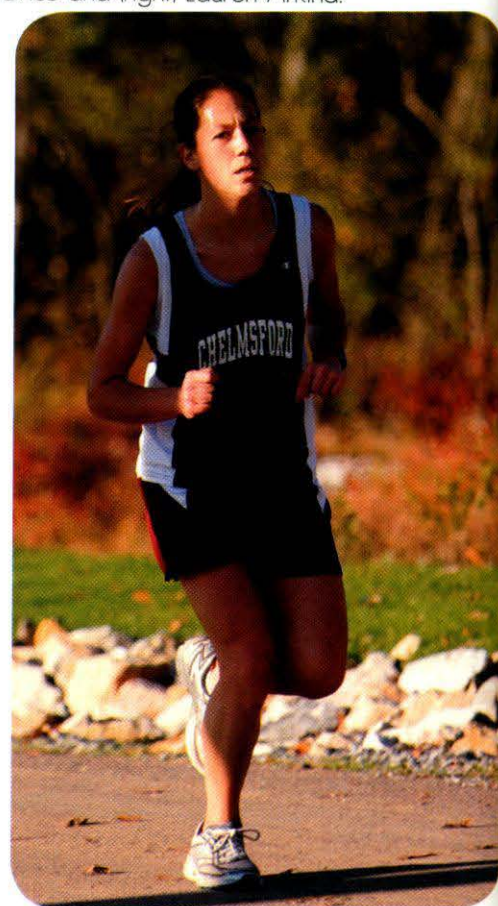

Yo gurlz,

Throughout the course of the season we united as a team and "hurdled" the obstacles. From random haystacks to injured runners, we came together and showed the MVC what our tribe was made of. Despite losing several speedy runners last year, we saw many girls step it up and beat Julie. We carried this determination on to the state meet where we battled against the odds and finished second! During the season, we also discovered our acorn dodging talents. If there were a national championship in this event, we would tool. Each day was full of hilarious and memorable moments. From P-din driving lessons to the singing game on warm-ups, things were never dull. We're unbelievably proud of this team. You all stepped it up so much and showed everyone what CHSXC is made of. Thanks Langsta, Kryzduh, and team for making this season enchanting. We wish you all the best of luck next year, and we will miss you prodigiously.

Love,
Abby and Ivory

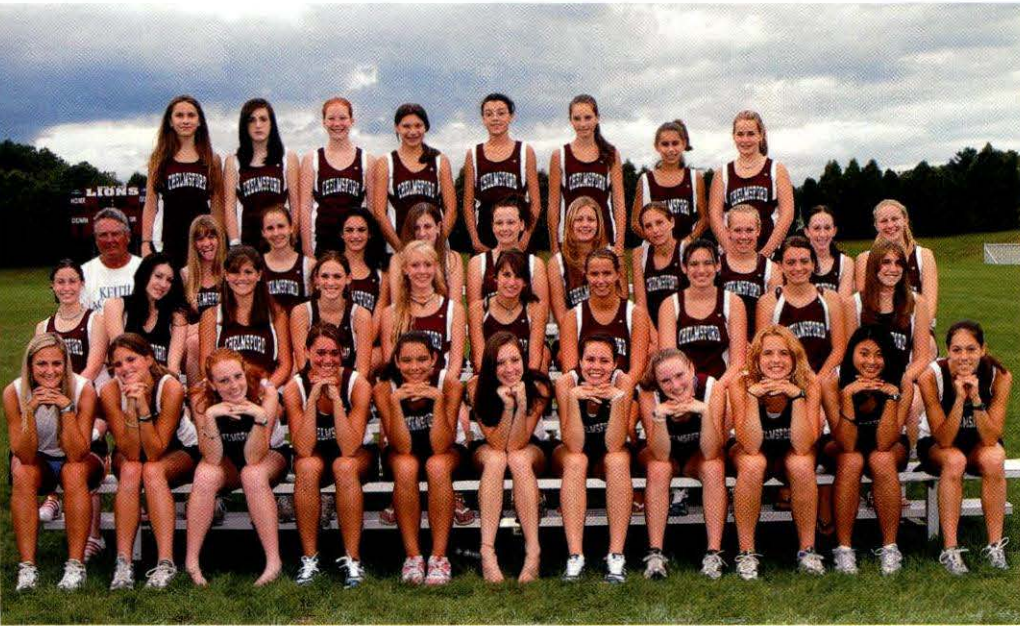

P.S. We're still the best MVC XC team -- EVER!!

Girls,

This season went through a lot of hard practices and had some amazing games. We survived mum runs, six packs, ashleys, and a weekend away with the sophomores. The hard work and dedication of every person made The Machine what it is, and made this season what it was. We love you all, good luck next year.

Girls' Soccer

We played with heart.
We played with soul.
The only problem was
We couldn't score a goal.
We played each game with all our might
Giving each opponent a very hard fight.
Practices were tough, but we gave it our all,
Always on our toes and on top of the ball.
The fun we had was unlike the rest
Thank you girls, for giving us your best.
The season was rough, but we still had fun,
We can't believe it's already done.
We know life without us is hard to believe,
But now it's time for us to leave.

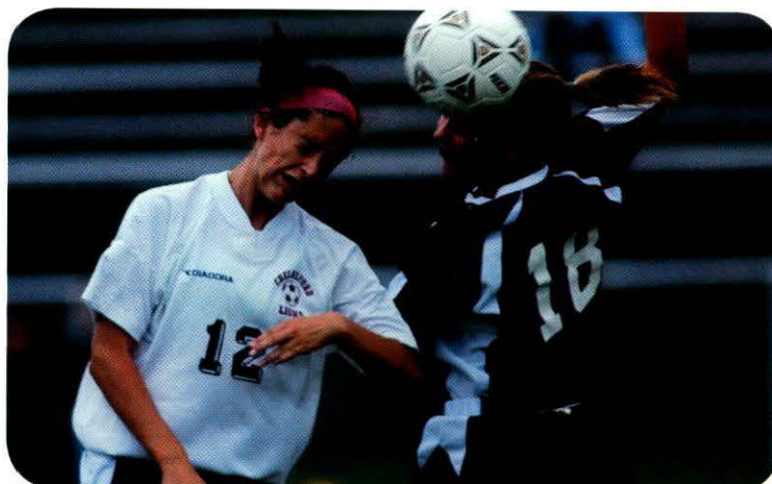

Good luck next year,

relax by the side of the pool.

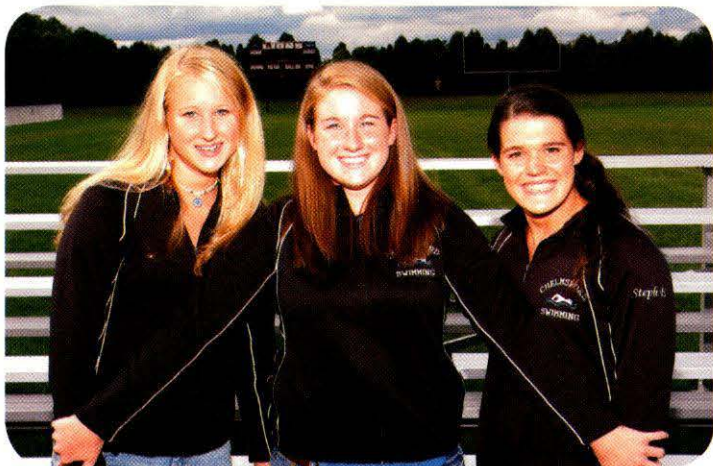

Girls' Swimming and Diving

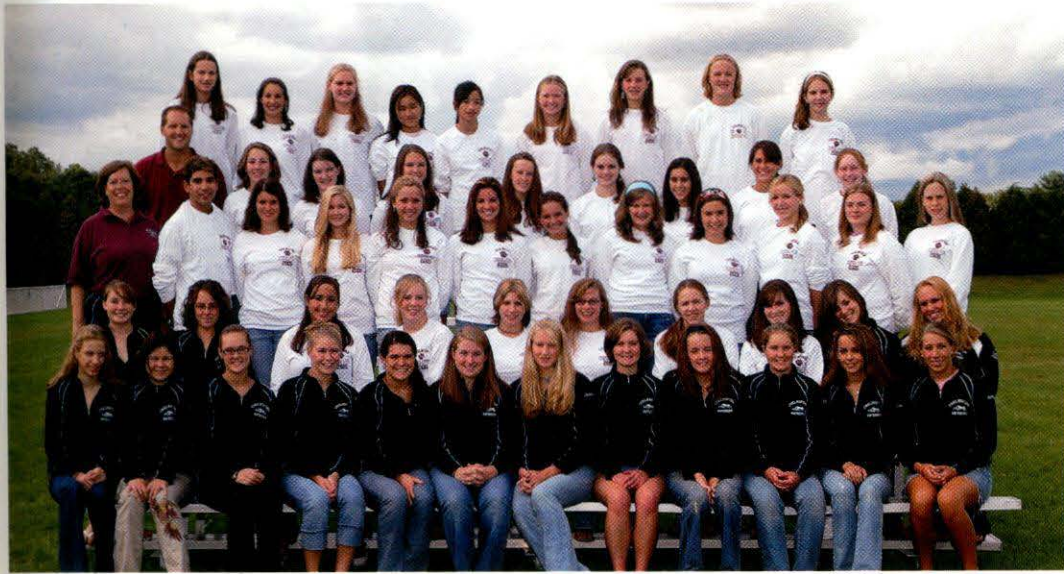

It started always with one week of fun,
But coaches got involved and the work had begun.
Our teeth were chattering, our muscles grew weak
Jumping into the 40-degree pool; it was the heat we would seek.
We spent one night sleeping under the stars
With talent and hard work it was clear we'd go far.
After school there was practice day after day
On weekends aerobics helped us work out another way.
From chocolate fountains to a moon bounce, car washes and more
To movie nights and pasta dinners galore.
Swimming, Andover and Acton, dinners galore.
Even if trust meant putting friendships on hold.
Swimming smart, getting fat, and ending sentences with 'yo'
We out-swam them in the water everywhere we'd go.
In the end it doesn't matter who went home with the crowd
Losing by thirteen points we left without a frown.
The activities and the friendships made everything worthwhile
There's not one day we see each other that we're without a smile.
So good luck next year, we know you'll do great
Thanks for all the memories. Putting us together was fate.

Love,
Erin, Amanda, and Steff

The girls' volleyball team had a great 2006 season and always showed enthusiasm during the games.

Girls' Volleyball

Girls, what a crazy season we had. Never forget clobbering Central Catholic and fashion shows at Coach's. Chad's warm cheese love and Jeanna's painted car. Sarah's leaping and Mepp getting hit in the head. Shan's cowgirl attitude and El's London Bridge. Erica's cute lion costume and Hannah's bandanas. Clancy's pre-wrapped head and Brit always hurting her Butkus. Paige's no sock trend and Kim's neon earrings. Thanks for all the laughs and memories girls. The season was unforgettable.

Love,

Haley and Bria

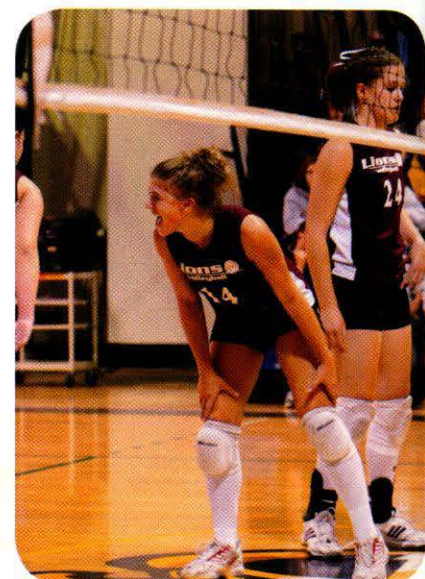

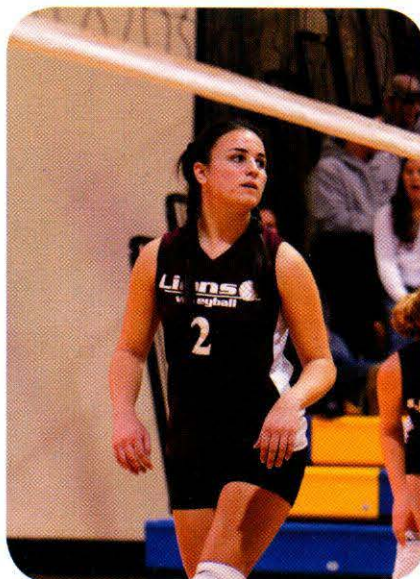

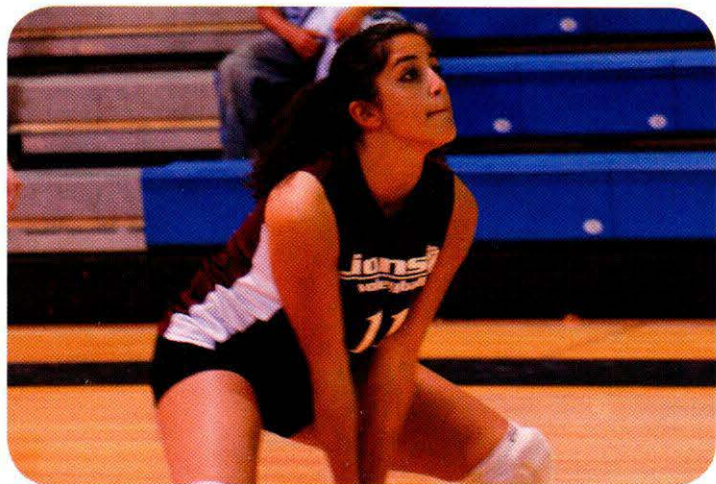

P.S. Watch out for Coach checking your myspace!!

"Loud and Proud '06" is the phrase that has come to represent the loyal fans who come to see us every Friday night. We couldn't have done it without you. "Loud and Proud" is also a phrase that clearly illustrates the attitude of this year's team. We came out loud, we kept our heads high and we left it all out on the field. Thanks for a fun season, guys. Good luck to all you underclassmen in years to come. Stay low and keep those feet moving!

Visual Ensemble

It was a fun season, we have no doubt,
 It will be all you girls ever talk about.
 Eating and having Pixie Stix races,
 Putting too much make-up on your cheesy faces
 Staying consistent and not giving up,
 Girls roll your flags and put them on the truck!
 Bando fun, no chewing gum.
 Everyone stop dropping your flags and guns
 Make sure you look up at the picture, smile til the end
 He will make sure the flag is between your friends
 Laughing with Liz, skipping with Tim
 Everyone always needs a bobby pin.
 Although we yell, scream, and call you pests
 Thanks so much girls, you really are the best!
 Love always.

Boys' Swim and Dive

The 2007 CHS Lions (or if you prefer, stingrays) were a destructive force. I would say we would be a wrecking ball going full swing into a building that was the other teams. Usually we completely demolished the building, but a few survived the force of our mighty swing. Our strength was born of determination, victory, dedication, and annihilation (according to the back of the shirts) or according to Coach Josh, fearlessness, aggressive swimming, confidence, and perhaps most importantly team unity. We all stuck it through the tough practices together, and from that swam our hearts out in the meets...as a team! If anything, we proved how far we can get from working our tails off...Demolition Number One!

Boys' Indoor Track

We finished the season 4-3 with a few kids qualifying for states. We never gave up and improved every week. We worked hard every day and did what the coaches asked of us even if we didn't agree. Everyone gave their all and that's all we could ask. Thanks for another memorable year and good luck next year.

Your Captains,
Brady, Vinny, and The Big Show

Wrestling

Great season guys. We started off a little shaky with some tough breaks but we got over those bumps in the road with hard work and we improved every meet and every day practice. Good times all around, especially laughing at Ricky's stories and moving mats in the truck. Good luck next year guys and make sure you work hard in the off season.

Theatre Guild

The theatre guild performs several plays a year and offers members the opportunity to learn techniques of stage, speech, and movement. In addition to acting, students may participate in backstage activities such as costuming, make-up and set construction.

This fall, the theatre guild presented an improv comedy, The Wedding Party, as one of the many shows they put on.

The theatre guild is always prolific; this year includes the fall play (To Kill a Mockingbird), the competition play, and the student written and directed children's play.

Principal's Advisory Board

Advisor:

Mr. Thomas

Board members meet once a month to be briefed by the principal on developments and situations involving students, staff, and the school, and they provide the principal with information and student questions and concerns. Members are expected to talk to other students to get input for meetings and to share information after meetings. The principal uses these ideas to help develop policies and plans.

You are on your way.
Thinking of you makes us feel good no matter where we are no matter what we are doing.

We are your parents, we are your friends and we will be there for you, even before you know it because we love you and believe in you, sometimes even more than you believe in yourself.

And because of all you are and because of all you do to bring us happiness
We know that the end of this high school experience

A senior in high school, how can this be
It was only yesterday you were home with me.

Before we knew it, you were turning five
This was the year you really strived.
You were ready to go to school
Ready for books and to learn the rules.
We were all there to walk you to the bus
And as you climbed aboard and waved good-bye
We had no idea how fast time would fly.

The years went so quickly as each year you advanced a grade
We were so proud of your hard work and the achievements that you made.

Now your high school years are coming to a close
We could not be happier with the path you chose.

Follow your dreams, reach for the stars
Always be happy with who you are
Be proud of yourself for coming this far.

As you enter this new chapter in your life,
Remember each day
That we love you, Cayray!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Shannon, and Zoe Zoe Kitty

To our precious Katy,

Your beautiful smile lights up our home, and our family. Always stay true to yourself. Your intelligence, independence, and hard work will take you far in life. Reach high, work hard and remember to enjoy and appreciate the little things in life. Always strive for the best you can be, and keep believing in yourself.

You've always been the child who wants to do and try everything, and you excel at everything you do. From horseback riding, piano, Italian, sewing, Irish step, softball, track, skiing, and field hockey, there's nothing you can't do. You're amazing!

Never stop smiling and doing your best.

We are always with you. Wishing all your dreams come true...

My Baby Sis,

Being away at college makes me realize how much I miss you. In fact, when trying to write this message, I had to leave the library and sit in my car because I couldn't stop crying. We are closer than most people think, and I often find myself wishing we could go back to the days of trampoline jumping and arts & crafts. Although those days are gone, there is so much I look forward to doing with you. You are the nicest, most caring person I've ever met, and I am so proud of you. "My sister, my friend."

I hope the days come easy and the moments pass slow
And each road leads you where you want to go
And if you're faced with the choice and you have to choose
I hope you choose the one that means the most to you
And if one door opens to another door closed
I hope you keep on walkin' 'til you find the window
If it's cold outside, show the world the warmth of your smile

I hope you never look back but you never forget
All the ones who love you
And the place you left
I hope you always forgive and you never regret
And you help somebody every chance you get
Oh, you find God's grace in every mistake
And always give more than you take
But more than anything, more than anything

My wish for you
Is that this life becomes all that you want it to
Your dreams stay big, your worries stay small
You never need to carry more than you can hold
And while you're out there gettin' where you're gettin' to
I hope you know somebody loves you
And wants the same things too

Dear Allie,

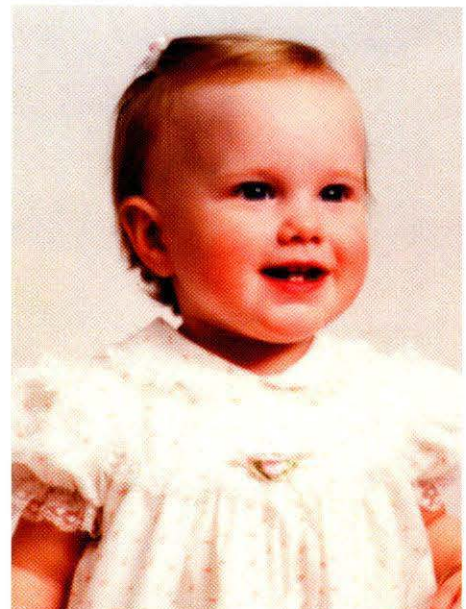

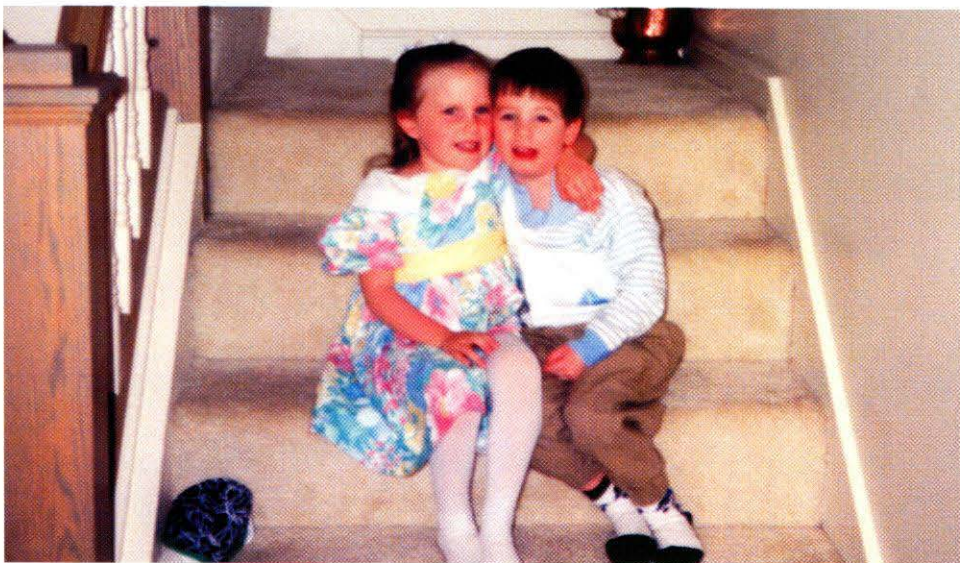

From your first day of Kindergarten (when I cried more than you did) to your last day of high school (when I'll probably do the same), I have always been more proud of you than you will ever know. My wish for you is that you never stop dreaming, that you get everything out of life that you desire, that you never look back with regret at the things you didn't do, and that you choose the paths in life that will bring you happiness. Above all else, please know that I believe in you and always will. Congratulations, Sweet Pea! I love you bigger than the whole wide world.

Love,

Erin Shattuck

Erin,
We could not be more proud of you. You are what every parent dreams of: smart, beautiful, energetic, compassionate, and athletic - the perfect package. Your life has not been easy, but you always seem to rise above any obstacles in your way as if they do not exist, let alone matter. Without a father figure in your life, you were forced to have not one, but four mothers to help raise and guide you in the right direction. If this is the result, I guess we must have done something right. You will be extremely successful no matter what path you choose to go on and we will always be there to guide you! We love you!

Mom, Patti, Dyanne, and Marcia

Melissa Murphy

It seems like only yesterday that you climbed onto the Kindergarten bus and I followed behind, to make sure you were alright. You were... and you haven't turned around and looked back yet! You've had great successes, made great friends, played in hundreds of games and you keep challenging yourself more and more every year. Throughout it all you have been a great daughter and sister. You have exceeded all our expectations... and we can't wait to see what you take on next!

There is so much fun in having two with twice as many points of view. So much alike, forever linked, and yet you're also quite distinct. You stick with each other wherever you go. You have been playmates for as long as you know. We hope this continues the rest of your lives. It's not often a person is born with a best friend for life.

Now look at you both in your cap and tassel ready to make the world your castle. It seems just yesterday you were kids, watching everything we did. Now we're watching both of you graduate, the mature young men we helped create! On wings of knowledge you both will fly; following your visions and rising high.

We couldn't be prouder of you both; we wish you success in all you do. Remember one thing we want you both to know: Our love is with you wherever you go.

*Love you both always,
Mom, Dad, and Craig*

Kate Fahey

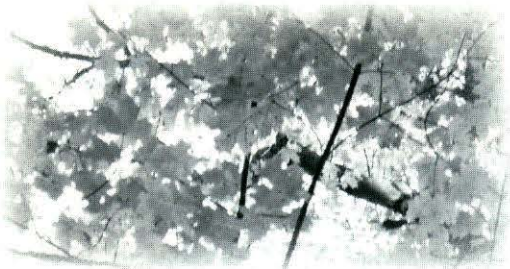

Kate,

You have often taken the road less traveled
Speaking your mind,
And more importantly putting your money where your mouth is,
By giving up your time to help others,
Whether it was someone you didn't know,
Or your friends and family.

We love you, and know that
With you behind the wheel of your own life,
You are going to have one filled with challenges,
Love, laughter and care for others.

Taking the road less traveled, as Robert Frost said, will "make all the difference."

Girls' Basketball

By only two veteran players, but an abundance of energy, our Girls' Basketball started practice under the firm and vigorous leadership of their new coach, Miss Shirley Simpson.

Members of the squad played to the best of their ability, making practices as interesting and profitable as any. Sweet were outstanding players. Nancy Lamb, Alice McCreep at the Littleton Tournament. Co-Captain Nancy Sweet and Margaret Kydd, Barbara Wyle, Bessie Blackie, Dee McCreep, Doreen Danes, Betty Stewart, and Elizabeth Wilder, left. Captains Nancy Lamb and Bessie Blackie, not to mention Vera Bennett.
