Bring me that horizon! As our high school experience draws to a close, instead of looking at what we are leaving behind, let us look to the future, look to the horizon. We have sailed through stormy seas and experienced calm winds. We are setting sail once again, on the next part of life's journey, with all the knowledge that our captains have shared with us. We are ready, so bring us that horizon!

Yearbook Staff

The 2008 yearbook could not have been made without the help of Kevin Dillon. You were always there to help and guide us. You shared our less than intelligent moments. Thank you, Kevin

Thank you to the staff who have worked hard to make every deadline. This book is the result of hours sitting before the computer screen. Amazing work guys!

To Ms. Bickel and Mrs. Davis, thank you for being the advisors of this rowdy bunch. You had to deal with us when we made those mistakes along the way. You were great advisors.

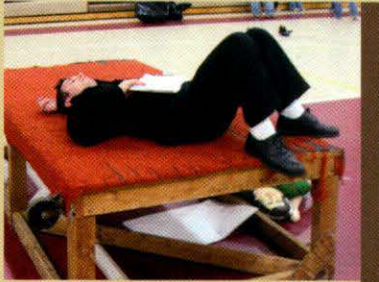

Our deepest gratitude to Brian, Liz, Matt, and everyone at Burlington Studios; your photos have been the lifeline for this book.

Lastly thank you to everyone at Jostens for making this book a reality.

Mr. Genova

Cara Milotte: He tries so hard to make things work smoothly for the class of 2008. He put alot of time and energy into fundraisers and helped out tremendously on things such as Junior Cotillion and Pep Rally. The class of 2008 owes Mr. Genova so much for all his hard work!

Sara Payne:
He has done so much to help our class and he has not given up on our class yet.

Elena Santos: Junior year I had him for chemistry and it was a really fun class. Although he is somewhat new, he is a really good teacher and always entertaining! Mr. Genova has done alot for our class and even though things don't always go well for him, he tries hard to make things work for our class.

Kiera Garvey: Mr. Genova has done so much for our class. He is our class advisor and has done more in three years than most teachers do in four. He is well respected and our class would not be where we are now without him.

Christopher Gamboni: Mr. Genova makes every event the class of 2008 puts on happen. Dances, fundraisers, bake sales, the whole nine yards. Also, he is an amazing teacher and mentor. He is always available for extra help and just to talk.

TEACHER

Mr. Pasquale

Jeremey Velazquez: He is a teacher with the most eclectic blend of personality and genius.

Alyssa Pisarik: He cares about the well-being of his students...not only that they learn Calculus or Algebra, but also that they come out of the class with knowledge about the world, and with a desire to continue learning. He is smart, kind and a very experienced teacher.

- 1) He is the coolest teacher
- 2) He knows so much
- 3) He is CHS's claim to fame (his books)

His class has the most easy-going atmosphere of all the honor and AP classes, but still teaches the students all the skills to pass the AP test with flying colors!

Kim Le

Yeshaswini Mohan: Mr. Pasquale is a great teacher and leaves a great impact on his students. His concern is if we understand the material that he has taught.

Katherine Tang: He is not only dedicated to teaching us math, but also daily information in the local news and around the world.

Amanda Meppelink: Everyone respects Mr. Pasquale because of his long history and support of the school and his vast knowledge. He is by far one of the smartest people I have ever met and I am convinced he could beat Ken Jennings on Jeopardy.

Dear Class of 2008,

Between the classes, the Pep Rallies, the dances, the football games and all other great times we've shared, the last four years have been some of the best of our lives. Being from different schools and backgrounds, there have been times when it was difficult to come together, but we were all amazed at how we managed to put our differences aside and make our senior year one to remember. We've had a blast and we wish you all the best of luck wherever your future takes you! Thanks to Mr. Genova, Mr. Linsner and anyone who has ever helped out at Class Reps.

A New Voyage Begins

Welcome Back to CHS

QUOTES

April Dearborn: My most embarrassing moment was falling down the stairs.

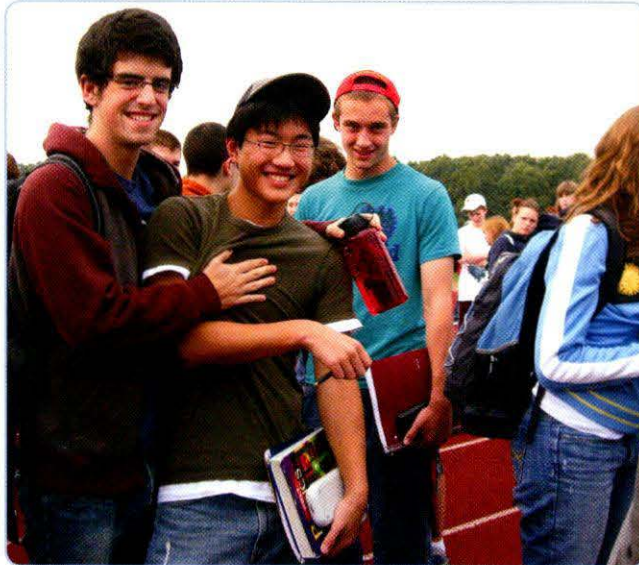

Danielle Couture: My whole history class got up and walked out while I was sleeping!

Sarah Norman: I dressed up like Mr. Branco for tennis.

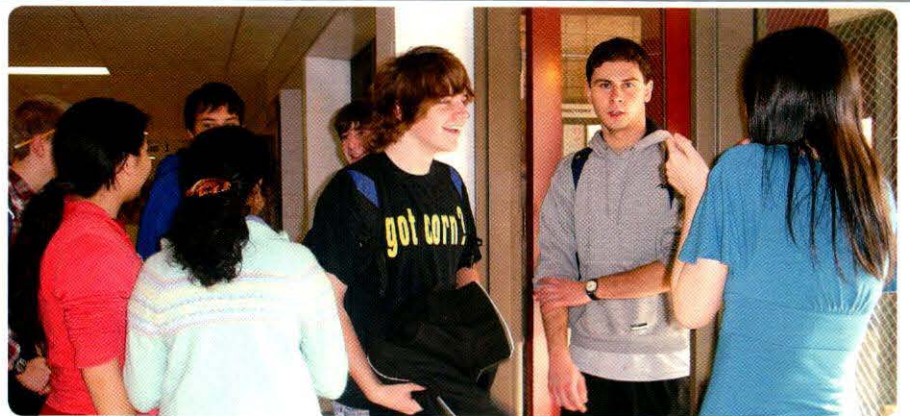

Sal Russo: Some one made me go on the roof, and I went on the roof.

Alyssa Mooney: We had five fire drills in one week.

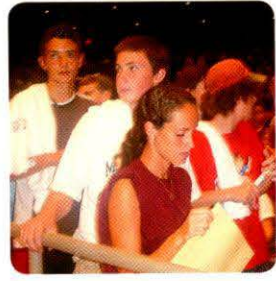

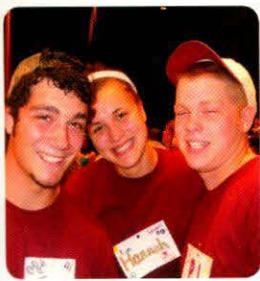

Christopher Gambor: I switched my name for the yearbook picture.

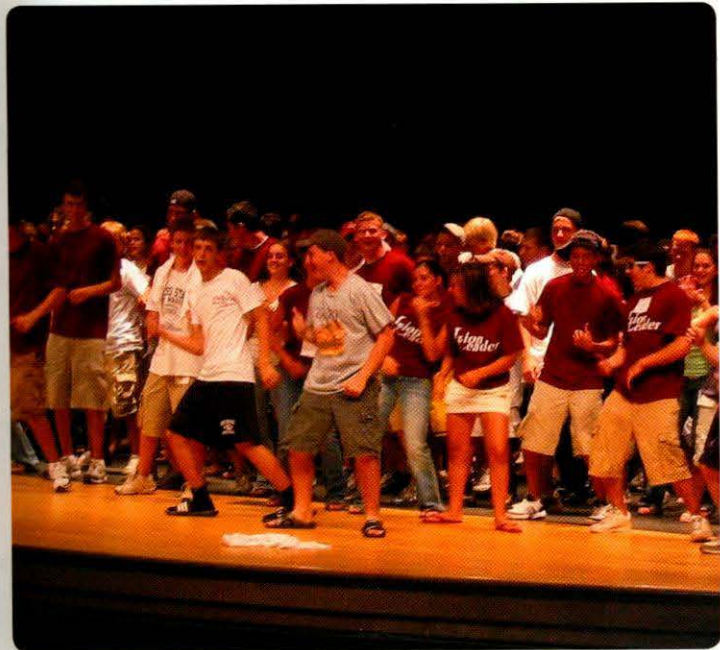

After a two month break, students though wishing for a longer summer, are happy to rejoin their friends in classes or at lunches.

Freshmen Mentor Kickoff

23 Welcome Back

Failure is not an option for my freshmen.

The incoming freshmen received a warm greeting at the mentor kickoff on the day before school, September 4th. Over 1000 people were present at the event. Freshmen met with their mentors and got an inside scoop on high school life: touring the school, finding their lockers, and learning a class dance. The night had a comical and pleasant end when freshmen and their mentors performed onstage at the Performing Arts Center for faculty and parents.

In the Lunch Line

Whether we are having lunch in the cafeteria or at one of the Friday Listening Lunches in the library, lunch is the social scene of the school day. Students gather to gossip, do homework, or enjoy the school's lunches.

The Crucible

November 15-17, 2007

Every year the Chelmsford High School Theater Guild impresses peers and parents with their professional quality performances. They start the year with a dramatic piece and amaze the audience with their talents. This year was no exception, with their rendition of "The Crucible." They convincingly portrayed a town overcome with the hysteria of the witch trials, and drew the audience into the plight of the Proctor family.

Spirit Week

class days pep rally penny war spirit chains spirit walls thank

Spirit Week is a celebrated time at CHS where students of all grades come together to show their school spirit.

Grades compete against each other, and at the end we still come together to cheer on our team against our arch rival, Billerica, at the Thanksgiving Game.

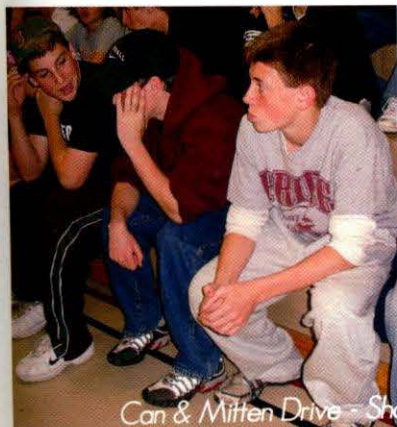

CHS! CHS! Sail to victory, CHS!

2008

Seasoned with 3 years of experience, the seniors in the midst of organizing the dodgeball tournament and dance put together an amazing wall.

2009

The Juniors do not fail to impress with their back to the future wall and successful black attack day. The whole school was somber in black.

2010

Sophomores show high spirits vigorously competing for spirit chains while also gathering their forces to make a phenomenal wall.

2011

Despite being the newbies to the competition, the freshmen start early and end early being the first of four classes to complete their wall.

2009 (Below) The Juniors plan to bring the CHS victory of the 1994 superbowl back to the future. Go Lions!

2008 (Above) The CHS football captains lead the team to victory in a brutal brawl against Billerica like a scene from the movie 300.

2011 (Below) The Lion defends the den with helmets of the defeated teams saved as trophies. Billerica is the next target for the King of Jungle's.

2010 (Above) Captain Jack Sparrow leads the Lion ship to victory claiming the treasure while the Billerica ship sinks to the bottom of the sea.

At the Pep Rally, CHS students blow away the minds of onlookers. Energetic, enthusiastic, and vocal, each class presents its school spirit with the chant, "Here we go, Chelmsford, here we go!" After the weeks of preparations, days of competition, and an hour of vigorous hollering, the school comes together and blows away the opposing team.

Super Bowl Game

December 1, 2007

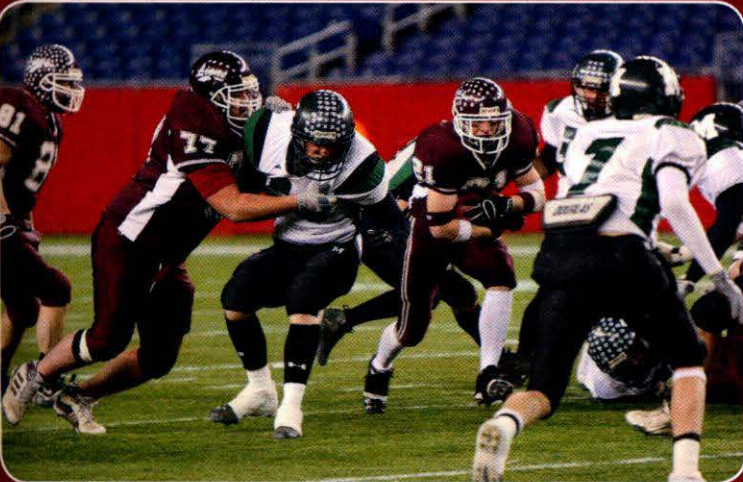

On the morning of Thanksgiving day, the Chelmsford Lions Football team faced off against its arch rival the Billerica team. The Lions decisively defeated the Billerica team and made our way into the playoff.

After a rough start, the CHS team came out the victors in the away game against Wayland High with the score of 23 to 20.

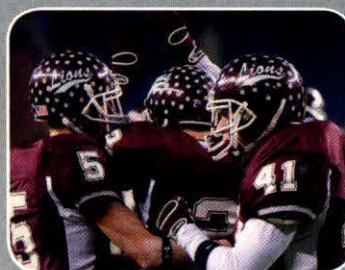

Without losing faith our team persevered and made it to the Super Bowl!

On Saturday, December 1st, CHS students and the football team headed to Gillette Stadium for the Super Bowl against Marshfield. After an incredible and suspenseful game the Chelmsford Lions were victorious with a score of 23 to 20. GO LIONS!!!

Once Upon a Field Trip

January 17-19, 2008

Every year the Chelmsford High School Theater Guild impresses students, faculty, friends and family with a show completely run by the students. The students write, direct and act in this production every winter. This year the children's play saw a group of school fieldtrippers caught in a museum that comes to life at night.

Dear Class 2008,

It has been a great four years here at Chelmsford High School, and it seems like the time has flown by. In your time here you have been many different things: actors, athletes, musicians, and scholars. You have won art awards and athletic championships. You have made spirit walls and hosted dances. Most importantly, you have made lasting friendships. No matter where the road leads, you will always have one common thread: you will always be the one and only Chelmsford High School Class of 2008.

Best of luck in all you do,

Mr. Genova and Mr. Linsner

Here we go, life's waiting to begin. Thanks Mom, Dad, Josh, & Travis. Friends, you made these four years the best yet. Let's see how far we've come.

Field Hockey

Far Right: Senior Lisa DeDonato dribbling the ball.

Dear Team,
2007 was certainly an unforgettable season, on and off the field. Whether it was Dudley in a fat suit, the Great Pyramids, or playing unbelievably against Andover, we came together as a team and finally began to BELIEVE. Together we worked hard, played hard, and did whatever it took to earn our spot as CHAMPIONS in the MVC. From our upsets and injuries, to our triumphs and successes, we didn't let anything bring us down. During those 1080 minutes we learned what it takes to be true field hockey players. Liz, Mol, Brit, Anna, Jenn and Kait. ...thanks for everything. Good luck next year girls, expect perfection, we love you!

Love,
Lisa & Becca

Far Right: Lindsey Howe winds up for a long throw.

Ladies,
We've gotten so close throughout the season. From last year to this year, we have really come together as a team through our ups and downs. We tripled our wins to 6....Woohoo! And our good work ethic limited our coach's chances of giving us diagonals, six packs, suicides, and more! From beginning to the end of the game, we played with heart and finally proved to ourselves that we could win. We've had so many good times from pasta dinners, to dressing up as superheros, and awkward moments at the movies with coach. Ohh and since we recieved the sportsmanship award, remember, "Blood makes the grass grow, KILL, KILL, KILL!" Good luck next season! Keep laughing and stay positive! LOVE YOU GIRLS! Never forget to burn the hole...

"To Achieve what you've never achieved before you must be willing to do what you've never done before"

The fall '07 season was one of accomplishments. We beat Andover for the first time in seven years, we beat the reigning MVC champions, Haverhill, we qualified for the state tournament, and we won an MVC title. Our success can be attributed to one thing, hard work. We worked harder this season than we ever have before and our results showed that.. To continue being successful never settle, always strive to beat your best.

What a great season! October 17th we we stood on the line with Haverhill - we were the underdogs -but 20 (or so) minutes later we were champions! From the 6 am captains' practices (which we know you all loved), to that 6pm workout in the dark, everyone worked their butts off and kicked some grass! Whether it was with Andy Cook, Paul squash, or any of the other friends we met along the way, we always found a way to bring our intensity and determination everywhere we went! It's safe to say we only had one mess up practice this season (which included a broken nose, running the wrong route, being yeld at and crying) which proves that our accomplishments are from the teams heart and dedication. According to the clock this is the fastest CHS has ever had and in our hearts we feel its one of the best teams as well! What is love? CHS XC!

Girls.
This season has been the best and we improved so much. But most importantly we had great team chemistry. From Ellery trying to read our diaries to Hannah asking Satan to lend her a dollar -there were just so many funny moments. There was Erica's high voice which Coach always seemed to hear, and the outsides' nickname of LMS (Leanne, Meg, Steph). Watch out it sounds contagious! Before games MJ ate the quotes and Caitlin feared she would get ink poisoning. Sam was our gold star M.R. and Oh! don't forget Paige is huge!!! Kim was always Kim with her ridiculous comments and amazing intelligence. :) Kelsey was our goofy sophomore and of course there was Carolyn, our quiet but dominant freshman. Thanks again girls for such an awesome! It's one we will never forget. Good luck next year underclassmen! We just want to leave you with one final comment, DIG IT?

Our seasons are all over and we wonder how this can be,
when it seems like yesterday we were swimming in the hypothermic waters of CS&T.
So many months later we still cannot forget,
All those early morning Indian runs and that seemingly endless 500 set.
At our Belmont meet we weren't looking so hot,
But we had time to show 'em what we got.
Every day at practice we were put to the test,
As Josh and Mrs. Kinnett claimed they knew what was best.
And after this reared lactates we could always guess what they had in store.
An IM set that made our appreciation for Josh even more,
All the while on land Mrs. McHugh got us fit,
Working us so hard that days after we couldn't even..ah, sit.
But with our spectacular seniors leading the way,
We were able to keep the competition at bay.
And you girls all proved what you could do,
With a final season record of 11-2.
We're so proud of this team for doing everything you could,
To make our last season all that it should.
Well, we're burning daylight as Josh would say,
And your next season is on the way.
Our favorite group of gals you'll always be,
So how about one last cheer of Lions on three!
Congratulations girls on another great season.
Goodluck next year, we'll miss you all!

We were going to write a nice little poem for you guys, but then we decided that a silly poem just wouldn't be able to come anywhere near colse enough to expressing the awesomeness of us this year. Apples to Apples, dance party practices, camp song sing-a-longs, gangsta rap team dinners, and Cheesey our amazing monkey mascot are just a few of the things we've loved about this season. - "We're not so beastly now, ARE we??"
- The game without a coach
- "There is no pregnancy or drugs on this team." (oh Dawn)
- "You're gunna die"
- "Here's your BASKET, GOODLUCK!"
- Decorating the school and then having it all taken down (against fire regulations)
- C'mon Ashley put your hands up
- GO, GO, GEO

We're so proud of you guys and what we've accomplished this season.

We'll start off with Vanessa. Try not to blush too much when (wink) that topic comes up. Paige, we'll miss work-out Wednesdays when you would save the wolves and if we see that phone one more time. Leanne...

We don't know whose hand you're going to hold next year, Chels. It better not be anyone's. Norms, we loved when you hit the floor after the loud bang, don't worry it wasn't a bomb, it was just Coach. And Clance, we'll never forget your painted white face that day at practice.

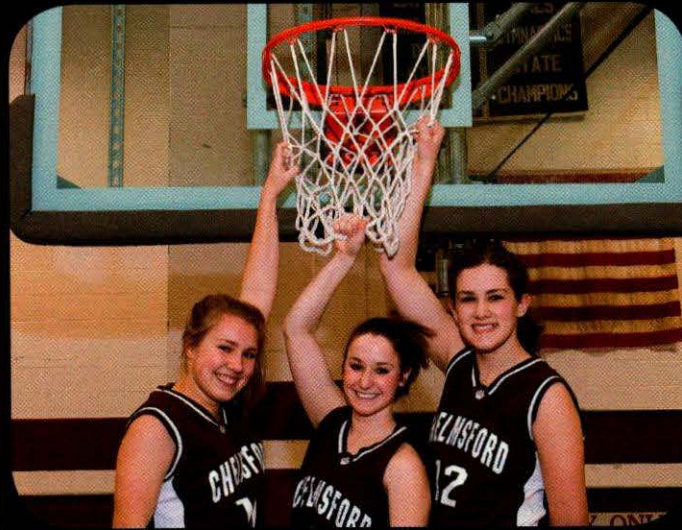

Kelsey you were always there to give us a laugh with your many funny faces. And D we don't think you were ever caught once without your camera. One word of advice Mel, you don't stink.

Thanks for modeling for us that day in the locker room. Jenny...man, you have nice calves. And finally, Kaleigh we will not give you another back rub but you were the best team manager ever.

Thanks for such a fun season, you made it memorable. We will miss you girls. Good luck next year.

Our 2007-2008 basketball season started off with high hopes after a 12-8 season last year that resulted in an MVC championship and a tournament birth. With 8 seniors and 4 juniors, we felt we had the experience necessary for another great year. We didn't disappoint as we again won the MVC title outright with a record of 16-4, cutting our loss total from last year in half. Our record was Chelmsford's best in 21 years, and was a result of all the hard work put in over the off season. Thanks to coach Micol, O'Keefe and D-Dub. Good luck next year $howtime, THISTLE!?, infectious toe, and garbage time.

Girls,
We've all come so far from the beginning of the season. We had mixed emotions about the underclassmen and Kempy at first, but we've learned that their laziness and bad attitudes are what we love most about them. Our obsessive texting and bizarre conversations have brought us closer. We all have our flaws, but we've somehow managed to become an amazing team. Our hard work and dedication has led us to an undefeated season and MVC and North Sectional champs. We're going to miss you so much next year!

Right: The boys warm up before the meet.

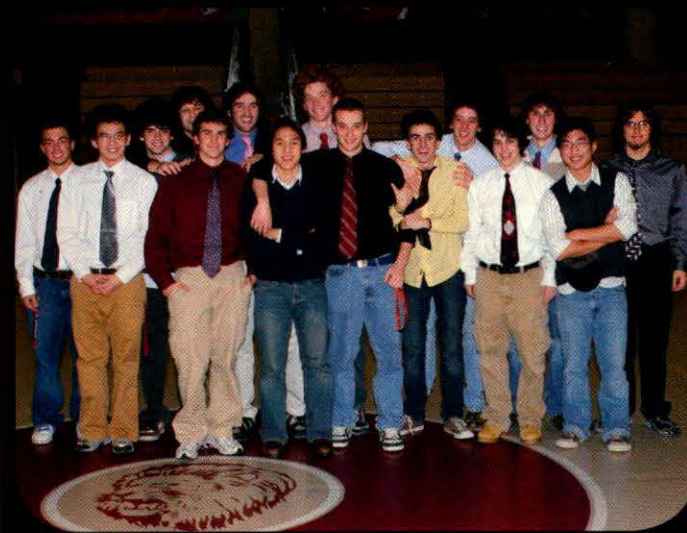

Aww hey guys! Do we even need to say anything? We had an unbelievable season. After regrettably losing the MVC title in 2007 to Andover for the first time in many years, we're sure people were skeptical of the future of the team, but we proved them wrong! This year we trained harder than ever and defied odds to end up reclaiming what was rightfully ours!! (The MVC title) What makes that victory so sweet is that it was a team effort 100 percent. Everyone gave it their all and supported each other. True, being MVC champs is nice, but it's the level of friendship and comraderie that our team exhibited every day that makes us proud to say we swim for CHS. We know next year will be more of the same, and that's a great thing. We'd also like to thank our coaches: Josh Blagg and Chuck Kinnet, as well as our manager Erin Phinney for all of the time and hard work they put in. Lastly, we hope you all never forget the CLASS OF 2008.

EMILY DOSSIN

Dear Emily,

You are everything we ever hoped for in a loving daughter. Since the day we first set our eyes on you and Mom cried, "Oh, Sweetie," you've been caring, compassionate, bright, athletic and successful. We know these wonderful attributes will serve you well in college and beyond. We look forward to following your journey. We know it will be a spectacular ride, and remember, we're always here for you.

We wish you much love and success with our whole best lovin' hearts.

Mom and Dad

Sissy,

Thanks for being everything I could ask for in a sister. You are always there for me and I will always be there for you no matter how far the distance. I have no doubt you will be successful in whatever you choose to do.

Your friend and brother, Alex

"There's two things I know for sure
She was sent here from Heaven
And she's our little girl
As we drop to our knees at night
She talks to Jesus and we close our eyes
And we thank God for all of the joy in our life
Oh, but most of all
For butterfly kisses after bedtime prayer
Stickin' little white flowers all up in here hair...
All the precious time
Like the wind, the years go by

Alyssa Pisarik

From the moment you were born, you have lived life with great passion. Great as a baby, loving to be held, and relishing in things as simple as a trip to Child World, or even a can of black olives. You've also never been shy about expressing what you want, when you want it. "What are we gonna do fun now?" And like me, you are among the greatest of worriers. You are more like me than any of my other children. Perhaps that's why we sometimes drive each other crazy. But know how truly proud I am of you. And never lose your passion for what's important in life. You are so very important in mine.

I love you, Alyssa.

Dad

Dear Alyssa,

You and your accomplishments are a perfect example of what everyone can look up to. You've always been someone who I've admired and appreciated, and I'm very proud of you. As a big sister you've taught me things, cared for me, and loved me. I wish you lots of luck in college. Always know that you are close to me and I love you very much.

Love always,

Your sister Jennie

Dear Alyssa,

Not only are you a great sister and role model, but you are also a great captain. You always know what to say to encourage me to try as hard as you do, or make me laugh when I'm having a bad day. Being on your team has been the best experience because I get to be included in your world, and understood by someone who has already gone through the physical and mental struggles of being a runner. As the middle children in the family, I feel as though we can relate to each other because we are squeezed together in the sandwich of sisters. Good luck in college, and promise me you'll stay the same Lissy that inspires me and shares her each and every thought with me, every day. Love you, and always will!

Yours forever,

Kristi

"A daughter is a little girl who grows up to be a friend."

I am so lucky to have such a wonderful friend in you Alyssa. Your beautiful smile lights up our lives (no wonder Grandma called you sunshine). Your intelligence, diligence and determination will take you far in life. I am very proud to be your mom. Always stay true to yourself and remember to take time to appreciate the little things in life. Believe in yourself.

I love you,

Mom

Alyssa,

You have always been my best audience. When you were little, you laughed at anything I said that remotely resembled a joke, no matter how ridiculous or dumb. You believed what I told you without a doubt, even if it was something silly like salt coming out of the bottom of the salt shakers. You went along with every game that I made up (and dictated) and hardly ever complained about getting second choice with Barbies, American Girl dolls, and stuffed animals. Everything was peaceful and exactly the way I wanted... that is, until you got a sizeable and influential opinion of your own. As you've grown, I've watched you develop into a determined and motivated person.

You seize challenges that arise in school on the cross-country course and attack until you reach your goals. Then you set new goals. You devote yourself completely to everything you set your mind to, and I can't wait to see where it takes you in life. I'm really amazed at your ambition and energy, and no matter what you end up doing, I will be supporting you every step of the way. I'm excited because I get to be your audience now. Congratulations Lissy, I love you!

Always,

Beth

Dearest Alyssa,

Mom and Dad

KRYSTA LYNN WICKSON

We have watched you grow
Since the age of seven
Into a beautiful young woman
The experience has been like Heaven

Your smile can brighten up your days
We have been blessed by your presence
In so many ways
You're smart, you're funny, and caring too
Our family would certainly
Be lost without you

You are "my sister"
And my best friend too
I'm so thankful
To have you

You are "my daughter"
And will always be
A shining bright star
On our family tree

Congratulations and Good Luck

We love you forever,

Dear Greg,

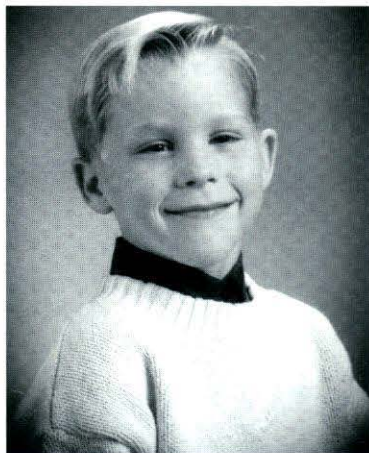

As you complete your journey through your high school accomplishments you leave us with no doubt of your imagination, athleticism, ingenuity, and, most importantly, your creativity. You remind us always that "Speech is power: speech is to persuade, to convert, to compel. It is to bring another out of his bad sense into your good sense". (Ralph Waldo Emerson) We are so Proud of your accomplishments, and, as you ride the train of life, make many stops, and you will be successful
