PUBLISHERS NOTE

This directory contains public information gathered by an actual door-to-door canvass and is compiled in a way to insure maximum accuracy.

The publishers cannot and do not guarantee the correctness of all information furnished them nor the complete absence of errors or omissions, hence no responsibility for same can be or is assumed.

The publishers earnestly request the bringing to their attention of any inaccuracy so that it may be corrected in the next edition of the Directory.

INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL INDEX

R. L. POLK & CO., presents to subscribers and the general public, this, the latest edition of the Lowell City Directory, which also includes Billerica, Chelmsford, Dracut, Tewksbury, Tyngsboro and Westford. (In all, R. L. POLK & CO., and its affiliated companies publish more than 1,300 different Directories).

Confidence in the growth of Lowell's industry, population and wealth, and in the advancement of its civic and social activities, will be maintained as sections of this Directory are consulted, for the Directory is a mirror truly reflecting cities and communities to the world.

The enviable position occupied by R. L. POLK & CO.'S Directories in the estimation of the public throughout the country, has been established by rendering the best in Directory service. With an unrivaled organization, and having had the courteous and hearty cooperation of the business and professional people and residents, the publishers feel that the result of their labors will meet with the approval of every user, and that the Directory will fulfill its mission as a source of authentic information pertaining to the area.

Four Major Departments

The four major departments are arranged in the following order:

I. THE BUYERS' GUIDE constitutes the first major department of the Directory, printed on yellow paper. In the first section of this department, grouped under appropriate headings, are included the advertisements and business cards of firms and individuals desiring to make a complete presentation of their products or services. Following this is the Classified Business Section, which embraces a list of the names and addresses of all business and professional concerns of the city, arranged in alphabetical order under appropriate headings—a catalog of all the activities of the city. The Buyers' Guide represents reference advertising at its best, and merits the attention of all buyers and sellers seeking sources of supply or markets for goods. In busy and diversified communities the necessity of having this kind of information up-to-date and always immediately available, is obvious. The Directory is the common intermediary between buyer and seller, and plays an important role in the daily activities of the commercial, industrial and professional world.

II. THE ALPHABETICAL LIST OF NAMES, of residents and business and professional concerns is the second major department, printed on white paper. This Directory aims to show the name, marital status, occupation and address of each adult resident, and the name, official personnel, nature, and address of each firm and corporation.

III. THE DIRECTORY OF HOUSEHOLDERS, INCLUDING STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE, is the third major department, printed on green paper. In this section, the numbered streets are arranged in numerical order, followed by the named streets in alphabetical order; the numbers of the residences and business concerns are arranged in numerical order under the name of each street, and the names of the householders and concerns are placed opposite the numbers. The names of the intersecting streets appear at their respective crossing points on each street. Special features of this section are the designation of owner occupied homes, the listing of telephone numbers, new householder symbols and Zip Code numbers.

IV. THE NUMERICAL TELEPHONE DIRECTORY is the fourth major department, printed on blue paper.

Community Publicity

The Directory reflects the achievements and ambitions of the community, depicting in unbiased terms what it has to offer as a place of residence, as a business location, as a manufacturing site and as an educational center. The publishers have placed copies of this issue of the Directory in Directory Libraries, where they are readily available for reference as perpetual and reliable advertisements.

The Lowell Directory Library

Through the courtesy of the publishers of the City Directory, a City Directory Library is maintained in the offices of the Chamber of Commerce, for reference by the general public. This is one of many Directory Libraries installed in cities and towns throughout the United States and Canada through the courtesy of your publisher.

The publishers appreciatively acknowledge the recognition by those progressive business and professional people who have demonstrated their confidence in the City Directory as an advertising medium, with assurance that it will bring a commensurate return.

R. L. POLK & CO.,
Publishers.

Common Sense About City Directory Circulation

THE TRUE VALUE of advertising circulation is circulation consulted.

TO BE EXACT by actual survey in twenty-four average American cities by actual count each Polk Directory averaged three and one-half consultations for each business day.

TO BE CONSERVATIVE we will eliminate the sixty Sundays and Holidays when no tests were made.

FOR EVERY THOUSAND DIRECTORIES sold there will be an average of three and one-half consultations for each book for THREE HUNDRED and FIVE days, therefore $1000 \times 3\frac{1}{2} \times 305 = 1,067,500$.

BIRTHPLACE OF THE INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION

Incorporated as a Town March 1, 1826, a City in 1836

The Third City Incorporated in Massachusetts

In 1820, the portion of East Chelmsford, Massachusetts, later to become Lowell, was mostly occupied by small family farms. A few small mills were also located along the Concord River and supplied the flour, grain and lumber to the local area.

East Chelmsford's natural advantages included the Merrimack River, Pawtucket Falls and the Pawtucket Canal, built in 1796 for transporting goods around the falls. Between 1822 and 1850, this tremendous water resource was harnessed through a series of canals to power the developing textile community. Beginning with the Merrimack Mfg. Co. (1822), the Lowell mills could soon supply the cotton materials so greatly demanded by the American trade. In 1826 East Chelmsford was incorporated into the town of Lowell. Named after Francis Cabot Lowell, a Boston entrepreneur credited with combining the cotton manufacturing processes within one mill structure, the town soon became incorporated as a City (1836). A railroad was connected from Boston to Lowell in 1835 to aid the rapidly-growing community's transportation problem.

Lowell, Massachusetts became known as the "City of Spindles". The workforce, initially, came from the farms of New England. Young, single Yankee women made their way to the new textile center to supplement family expenses and experience if only temporarily, the advantages and benefits of city life. Immigrant labor supplemented, and eventually replaced the "mill girls" as the dominant workforce in the city. Today, Lowell boasts representatives of over forty different ethnic groups within its boundaries.

Among the many prominent citizens who emerged from the 150 year history of the city are Benjamin F. Butler, Civil War General and Governor of Massachusetts; Frederick T. Greenhalge, Governor of Massachusetts; Charles H. Allen, first Governor of Puerto Rico and Assistant Secretary of Navy under President McKinley; Lucy Larcom, "mill-girl", author and poet; his Eminence William Cardinal O'Connell; General Hoyt Vandenburg, United States Air Force; Jack Kerouac, beat-generation novelist; Miss Bette Davis, actress and author.

Lowell's School System contains more than 13,353 students with another 4,443 students attending the parochial schools of the City. Lowell's Public School System includes 19 K—16th grades; 4 K—8th grades; 4 junior high schools, 6th to 8th grades; one high school and The Greater Lowell Regional Vocational Technical High School designed for 3,000 students.

The Catholic Archdiocese of Boston supervises in the city 14 parochial schools from kindergarten through college preparatory in St. Joseph's High School and Keith Hall.

An important aspect of local and regional education is the University of Lowell, established in 1975 by the merger of Lowell State College and Lowell Technological Institute. Since the founding of the two neighboring schools, L.S.C. in 1894 as one of the first normal schools in the state for teacher training and L.T.I. in 1895 as an internationally known textile school, both have developed in philosophy and curriculum.

The University of the state supported school now includes colleges in Applied Health, Education, Engineering, Liberal Arts, Management Science, Music and Pure and Applied Science. Included in those colleges are some 33 Baccalaureate level disciplines and 25 offerings on the Master's and Doctoral level.

Programs at the University in Chemical Engineering, Industrial Technology, Meteorology, Nuclear Engineering, Plastics Technology, Radiological Health Physics, American Studies and Environmental Science are the only state courses on the Bachelor's level in New England.

A division of Continuing Education on both north and south campuses of the University serves the area with an evening school and four separate summer sessions. Tuition cost for Massachusetts residents is $800 annually.

The 96.5 acres encompassing the campuses of the University represent a dollar investment exceeding $100. million, with most construction completed in the last 15 years. The two campus library centers house over 280,000 volumes in addition to being the only repository for federal government publications north of Boston. Faculty on the school number nearly 450 of which approximately 50 per cent hold Doctoral degrees. The University maintains a close relationship with the Lowell and Merrimack Valley communities.

Industry—Lowell, once known throughout the world as a leading textile manufacturing city, has gradually become the home of industries with broad product diversity. Although textile manufacturing is still carried on, the area has entered the space age with many large electronic firms moving to Lowell.

The City of Lowell is well served by these public utility corporations, the Massachusetts Electric Co. and the Colonial Gas Company. Telephone service is furnished by the New England Telephone Company. The Boston & Maine railroad furnishes transportation in freight and passenger service and many interstate bus lines use the city as a terminal.

Lowell is an ideal location for industries of every type. The city's transportation needs are furnished by the newly formed Greater Lowell Regional Transportation Authority, and an up-to-date bus service transports workers from their homes to the downtown shopping area and industrial plants.

The Lowell Sun, published each afternoon, and the Lowell Sunday Sun have national and international news services, give the city its news along with two radio stations, WCAP and WLLH which has an FM affiliate. Lowell's trading population is estimated at 387,000 persons, and the city is an ideal shopping center for a number of cities and towns north of Boston.

Industrially, the city has tremendous advantages for any manufacturing business. Its close proximity to the large markets in the East; its excellent highways and transportation facilities; its large labor force all serve as an inducement to the manufacturer seeking a location with such attributes. Its supply of good water for power and process is not only excellent but plentiful and practically unlimited. Soft water is becoming more and more important in the industrial world today and Lowell has, in the Merrimack and Concord Rivers, an almost endless supply of such water. Lowell also has a modern sewer system and is in the final stages of building a new multi-million dollar sewage treatment plant.

Lowell Historical National Park—Lowell is the country's first urban national parks, calling for nearly $50 million in public funds to develop the city's industrial past into an educational showcase. The original canals and mill buildings will be preserved and rehabilitated, and the city's downtown core will depict a scene from the 1800's with gas lamps, cobble stone streets and refurbished buildings.

The Chamber of Commerce will welcome inquiries and is desirous of contacting business firms interested in knowing the city's possibilities for the successful and profitable operation of their businesses. A businessperson seeking a New England location should place the city of Lowell foremost on his list and write to the Northern Middlesex Chamber of Commerce & Industry, 144 Merrimack St., Lowell, Ma 01852, for full particulars.

Out of Sight--Out of Mind

☆ Out of Business ☆

The importance of keeping firm and product names in the public eye is recognized by all business men. It is astonishing to see how a firm or product, however meritorious, will slip into the limbo of the forgotten if not persistently advertised.

The City Directory is the natural medium for keeping a business or product name in the spotlight. Insist on being well represented in its pages.

History

Billerica was incorporated as a town on May 29, 1655. Asa Pollard who lived in North Billerica was the first man to fall at the battle of Bunker Hill. A few of the points of interest are: the site of the aqueduct over the Middlesex Canal, the Historical House 1723, which was the home of Henry Cummings, pastor of the First Parish Church for sixty years, Sabba Day House 1765, First Parish Church, first built in 1797, Manning Manse 1696, Solomon Pollard Tavern 1682, Old Howe School 1852, Site of the John Roger's family Massacre by the Indians, Old Corner Burying Ground and many interesting old houses.

Samuel Parker patented the leather splitting machine which made the New England leather industry (shoes, etc.) possible. Harriet Rogers born in 1834 was the principal of the Clarke Institution for Deaf Mutes at Northampton from its organization in 1867. Francis Faulkner in 1811 began the manufacture of woolen goods and the Faulkner Mill is still operating. He left the Faulkner home to be used as a kindergarten and still is. Dr. Zadok Howe came to Billerica in 1816 and spent the rest of his life here. He died in 1851 and by will endowed the Howe School. Thomas Talbot who established the Talbot Mills was a man of high integrity. He signed the ten hour law while governor in 1879. Mrs. Joshua Bennett had erected the Bennett Public Library in 1880. Billerica has many industries including the Boston & Maine repair shops also the B & M offices. Honeywell Inc., New England Nuclear Corp., Johns Manville. Billerica has Housing for the Elderly and the Bay State Rehabilitative & Nursing Care Facility for children and young adults.

Population—31,174 (1980 Census).

Assessed Valuation—real estate—Approximately $264,959,525. Personal property—approximately $10,364,400.

Education—Schools 8, pupils 9,872, teachers 569, associated with Nashoba Valley Technical High School.

Fire Department—63 men, 5 fire stations, 5 engines, 1 ladder truck, 1 rescue truck, 1 standby engine, 1 brush truck.

Police Department—47 men, KCF 703; 15 mobile units.

History

The town was named Chelmsford, after the town of that name on the river Chelmer, in Essex, England, and was incorporated in 1655. Historically, Chelmsford has been strategically located for through transportation. The Old Middlesex Turnpike took the travel to and from Boston on the direct route north. Wagon trains of produce, merchandise and supplies were constantly passing through Chelmsford. Many of the drivers stopped for the night at the Adam's Tavern in North Chelmsford, or at the Old Middlesex Tavern. The Middlesex Canal was for a time the most important route from the sea to the back country.

Deposits of lime, granite, clay and bog iron have been important to the economy of the town during its history. By 1817 granite quarrying was one of the most active businesses in the town and Chelmsford granite was in such demand for the public building of the growing nation and the quarries were unable to keep up with the orders.

The friction match was patented by a Springfield man and Mr. Byam purchased the whole patent, introducing the friction match to the public in 1837. Ice harvesting, manufacture of brick, glass (Chelmsford glass is now a collector's item), gunpowder, scythes, and Bowie knives; weaving of cotton cloth in the early 19th century, and woolen cloth somewhat later, were among the other early industries in Chelmsford.

With a population gaining by 1,000 per year, Chelmsford is now primarily a residential community of homeowners and commuters. The town has its own weekly newspaper and home delivery is also available from the Lowell and Boston newspapers. Chelmsford is a part of the Greater Lowell metropolitan area.

Statistical Review

Form of Government—Open Town Meeting—5 selectmen/Executive Secretary.

Population—21,249 (1980 Census).

Assessed Valuation—Approximately 31,205,100.

Education—Schools 6, pupils 3,951, teachers 263, associated with Greater Lowell Reg. Voc. Tech.

Fire Department—30 men, 4 stations, 9 engines, 1 rescue truck, 1 ladder truck.

Police Department—44 men, KTC—808, 7 mobile units (9 portable units).

History

The town of Dracut was incorporated in 1702. The land originally was a possession of the Pawtucket Indians and was wild and uncultivated.

In the early days, the townspeople engaged mostly in agriculture, with some mining done in one of the sections of town. In 1865 the Mills known as the Beaver Brook Mills, at the Beaver Brook Falls employed 250 people. The Stevens Mills also employed many people of Dracut at that time.

Some of the names of the early settlers in Dracut were: Edward Colburn, Samuel Varnum, both of them came from Ipswich, John Varnum, Joseph Colburn, Nathaniel Fox, Ebenezer Goodhue, Josiah Richardson and Thomas Parker. All of these names are well known in town today, with streets and schools named after them.

The mills are gone today, farming is at a minimum as Dracut continues to grow in population with many stores, shops and restaurants throughout the town.

Statistical Review

Form of Government—Open Town Meetings—5 selectmen/Executive Secretary.

Population—24,635 (1980 Census).

Assessed Valuation—Approximately $223,859,640.

Education—Schools 7, pupils 4,722, teachers 303, associated with Shawsheen Valley Regional Vocational Technical High School.

Fire Department—50 men, 6 engines, 1 ambulance, 3 stations, 4 dispatches, 9 units, 1 rescue, 1 utility truck.

Police Department—44 men, 7 mobile units, KBS 967.

History

The town of Tewksbury was incorporated in 1734, and was originally a part of Billerica. The separation became necessary because of the distance people had to travel to worship on the Sabbath.

Samuel Hunt, who is recognized as the "Father of Tewksbury" was born in Concord and in 1689 settled near the conflux of the Merrimack and Concord Rivers.

Tewksbury is the site of several greenhouses and once was labeled as the "Carnation Capital of the World". Tewksbury State Hospital and the Tew—Mac Airport are also located in this growing town.

In the early days of Tewksbury, farming was the major industry with many farms and orchards spread throughout the town. It wasn't until the early 1900's that an ink factory and tannery were built in the town. The population has almost tripled since 1950. The current industry is mostly electronic firms. However, many shopping malls, restaurants, schools and churches, and historic sites can be found in this rapidly growing community.

Statistical Review

Form of Government—Open Town Meeting—3 selectmen/Secretary.

Population—5,683 (1980 Census).

Assessed Valuation—Approximately $40,622,355.

Education—Schools 4, pupils 1,208, teachers 69.

Fire Department—54 men, 1 brush truck, 1 rescue, 3 stations, 8 units, 2—1,000 gallon pumpers, 2—750 gallon pumpers, 2—300 gallon pumpers. Full time chief, "on—call" department.

Police Department—11 men, 3 dispatchers, KSS—222, KFF—22 Low Frequency, KYR—950 High Frequency.

History

Tyngsborough's history begins long before its incorporation as a township in 1809. It was originally part of Olde Dunstable whose petition for township was granted by the General Court in 1673. Among the original petitioners at that time was the Hon. Johathan Tyng, in whose honor the town of Tyngsborough was later named. At the outbreak of King Philip's War in 1675, the Tyng Family remained on their farm when all the others in the settlement had returned to places or refuge nearer Boston. Tradition says that in 1697 Hannah Dustin, escaping from her Indian captors, stopped for food at the home of Johathan Tyng.

In 1741 the boundary was established between Massachusetts and New Hampshire. Those living east of the Merrimack River at Tyngsborough became part of the First Parish of Dunstable in 1747, and the part of the District of Tyngsboro in 1789. At the close of the Revolutionary War, the town was divided into two parishes, each having its own house of worship. The First Parish in 1809 became the Town of Tyngsborough. In 1789 Madam Sarah Tyng Winslow, for whom the Winslow School is named, donated $5,000 to the First Parish to be used for the betterment of school and church.

In 1873—74 Iron Bridge was built at Tyngsborough Center over the Merrimack River, and in 1932 the new bridge was completed. Although Tyngsborough is much smaller in size than most of our area towns, population has increased considerably, along with the establishment of some industry in town.

WESTFORD

Statistical Review

Form of Government—Open Town Meeting—5 selectmen/Executive Secretary.

Population—13,434 (1980 Census).

Assessed Valuation—Approximately $77,066,998.

Education—Schools 8, pupils 3,185, teachers 192, associated with Nashoba Valley Reg.

Fire Department—74 men, 8 trucks, 2 ambulances, 1 ladder truck, 4 stations, 11 units.

Police Department—22 officers, 7 mobile, WBF—973.

History

The town of Westford was incorporated in 1729 and was originally a part of Chelmsford and was known as West Precinct. The name was changed to include parts of both of these, thus came the name Westford. One of the first settlers in Westford was Solomon Key, who settled there about 1664.

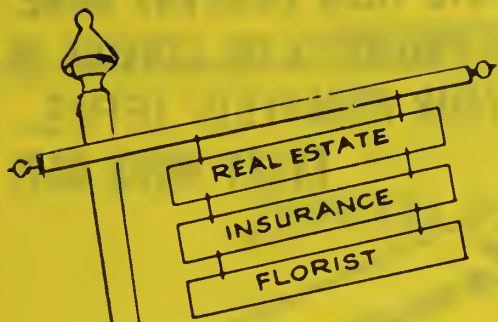

Westford Academy, built in 1792, is being restored into a Town Museum. Westford has the distinction of having the oldest secondary school building in New England and probably in the United States. Levi Hedge was the first Preceptor in 1792 and was author of a book on logic, that was printed in many languages around the world. Another preceptor at a later date, was John D. Long, who later became the Governor of Massachusetts and Secretary of the Navy.

Westford fundamentally was an agricultural town, with many orchards and poultry plants. At one time, Westford was known as the "Blackberry Town of Massachusetts".

Industry also had its place in making Westford a prosperous town in which to live, with the Fulling Mill at Brookside, Forges at Forge Village, the Horse Nail Factory and the Worsted Mills, along with several saw and grist mills. The machine shop at Graniteville is still an active industry today. The coming of the railroad in the 1840's stimulated the quarry industry and developed the village of Graniteville. Murray Printing is now the place of the Abbott Worsted Mills and Commodore Foods takes the place of the Fulling Mill or Moore's Woolen Mill.

The charm of the old houses, the far off views of the mountains and the tree lined streets and common still remain the beauty of the town and tell something of the peace and tranquility of the good old days.

Saint Patrick Cemetery

Saint Mary Cemetery
 90 River Road
 No. Tewksbury, Massachusetts

TO OUR CATHOLIC FAMILIES:

The Church has always taught that the human body is the temple of the Holy Spirit. In keeping with this belief, the Church has directed that sacred and blessed places be provided for the burial of Her faithful departed.

St. Patrick Cemetery in Lowell and St. Mary Cemetery in North Tewksbury are two such interment facilities, provided by the Church, for our Catholic families in the Greater-Lowell area.

You probably haven't thought too much about burial arrangements, but selecting a family burial place, before the need arises, is a very wise and sensible thing to do.

If this type of pre-planning makes sense to you, call Mr. Merritt at 458-8464. He will be pleased to assist you in any way he can.

Sincerely yours,

Rev. Msgr. Vincent A. Jakul

President and Chief Executive Officer

1. Public and private cooperation between government and business have worked for 11 years to focus the attention of the world on what can be done to restore the heritage and economic stability of the nation's first planned industrial city.
2. High technology has grown more than 50 per cent in the past five years. That provided more than 6000 new jobs. The total high technology employment of 16,000 was almost 25 per cent of the labor area's total employment.
3. Disposable personal income per household in the Lowell Metropolitan Area (SMSA) has increased from $9,185 in 1973 to $32,538 in 1983. That's higher than the State, New England and National averages. The total DPI for the SMSA is $2,205,978,000. Greater Lowell ranks 23rd highest in disposable income per household among 318 markets nationwide. (Editor & Publisher 1983 Market Guide) Retail sales in the Greater Lowell area are estimated to be $1,007,037,000 in 1983.
4. The incredibly positive story of Lowell's revitalization has resulted in media coverage nationwide and prompted officials from at least 12 states and six foreign countries to visit Lowell to see first hand how this evolution has been effected.
5. More than 200 industrial expansions between 1977-83, added more than 10,000 jobs and more than 10 million square feet of expanded industrial space. There have been $60 million in Industrial Revenue Bonds approved in the past three years.
6. The Lowell National Historical Park brought 500,000 visitors to Lowell last year -- with expectations of 1 million each year within six years. Each spent an average of $16, adding more than $8,000,000 to the local economy last year alone.
7. In seven years the area banks have increased their loans and deposits by more than $3.2 billion.
8. Wang Laboratories has become the region's largest employer in history, with 10,000 local employees. Among the 450 manufacturing firms in the Greater Lowell area are the corporate headquarters of Prince Macaroni, Courier Corporation, B&M Railroad and Joan Fabrics. More than 100 construction or renovation projects have been accomplished in the central city during the past few years.
9. The involvement of scores of citizens, civic, religious, ethnic, cultural and social groups has provided a year-round series of festivals and recreational activities available to every segment of the community -- and its visitors. In 10 years, more than 600 events in 41 festivals have been held.
10. One of the nation's newest universities, the University of Lowell, with one of the highest placement records in the United States, now enrolls more than 14,000 students in its seven colleges.
11. Unemployment in 1973 was 13.8 per cent, one of the highest in the nation. Since that time it has been reduced below 4.7 per cent, consistently below the national average.

Study all directory advertising invoices carefully

Business and Classified Directory publishers under various names have flooded our mails for several years with solicitations resembling City Directory invoices. Most such solicitations state that they are not invoices, but nevertheless business people frequently overlook this and process them for payment.

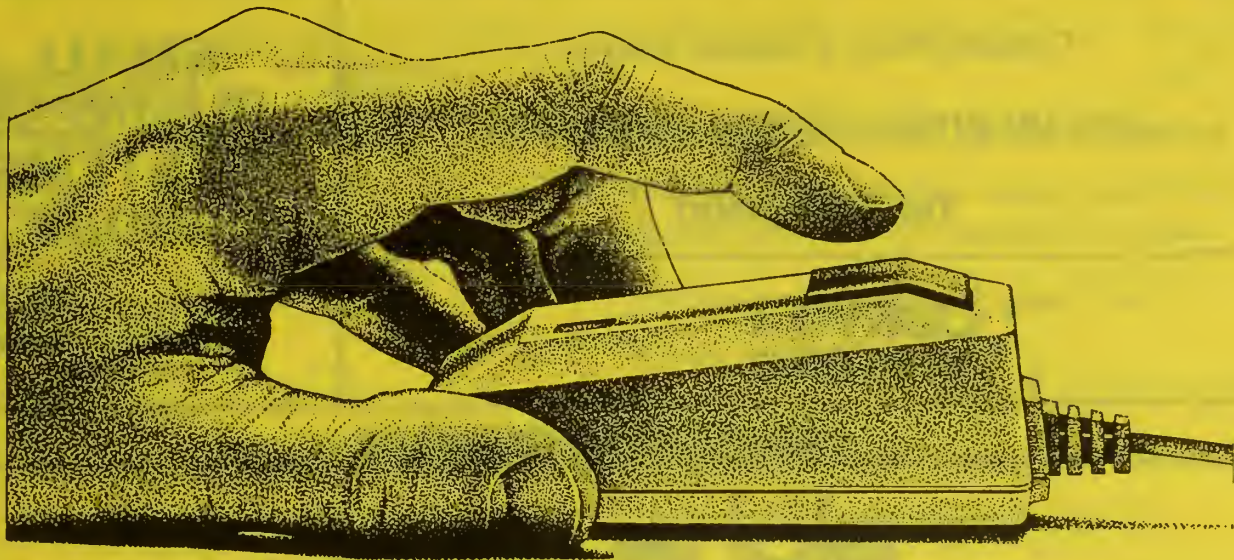

What seems like an invoice may really be a carefully worded proposal for service— of an indefinite nature— and questionable value—to be rendered in the future, if you pay in advance. If in doubt, check with your local Better Business Bureau, or your established City Directory publisher.

Before you invest, investigate!

Office automation. Without intimidation.

If you're a little uneasy about buying computers for the office, here's a suggestion:

Buy Apples instead.

Specifically, the Apple Macintosh™. This business computer is no more intimidating than a mouse.

Because it utilizes the incredible mouse technology of pictures and pointers, pull-down menus and windows.

So if you can point, you can make the Macintosh™ do anything you would expect computers to do.

Word processing. Spreadsheet calculations. File listings. Even IBM® terminal emulation.

Along with some things you'd never expect business computers to do. Like drawing diagrams, graphs and illustrations.

So come in and see us for a simple demonstration. Without intimidation.

St. Joseph's Hospital responding to Lowell's Health Care Needs

St. Joseph's Hospital was originally established in 1840 as the Lowell Corporation Hospital, the nation's first industrial hospital, to care for the city's mill workers.

Today, St. Joseph's continues to respond to the city's needs as a community hospital offering comprehensive medical/surgical services.

- Regional Dialysis Center for the Merrimack Valley.
- Merrimac Dialysis Facility — the first hospital-owned, free-standing dialysis unit in the state, opened in Merrimac, Massachusetts in 1982.
- Maternity Services — opened the city's first birthing room in 1983.
- Associate Resource Hospital — medical control for the Tri-Hospital emergency response Advance Life Support program.
- Emergency Services — 24-hour physician staffed emergency room.
- Tufts Associated Health Plan Member — a Health Maintenance Organization linking St. Joseph's with a network of 9 Greater Boston health care providers.

“Business as usual” is not our usual Business.

We discovered a long time ago, that “business as usual” is not the attitude to have when selling insurance. We should know...we’ve been selling and servicing business clients for over 115 years.

Each business situation is unique unto itself. Although, for example, a manufacturing operation and a service company have certain similar needs, careful attention to their differences is most important.

We won’t sell you a pre-packaged insurance program and then disappear into the woodwork until the next premium is due.

Our policy is to carefully review your business requirements and develop a comprehensive program to satisfy them. We make the extra effort because we are professionals and we know that a satisfied client is a loyal client. We would be happy to talk with you about your business insurance. Why not call us today?

ATTENTION RESIDENTS

CORRECT INFORMATION

IS VALUABLE TO YOU!

Cooperate with the City Directory enumerators to see that your name and those of your family are correctly listed in each edition. Your name, listed correctly in the City Directory, is a great asset. This has been proved thousands of times, especially in cases of employment application, proof of residence, questions relating to citizenship, applications for welfare assistance, distribution of mail, etc. Be better established . . . be on record as a local citizen by seeing that your name is not missed, or incorrectly listed in the Directory.

Out of Sight--Out of Mind

☆ Out of Business ☆

The importance of keeping firm and product names in the public eye is recognized by all business men. It is astonishing to see how a firm or product, however meritorious, will slip into the limbo of the forgotten if not persistently advertised.

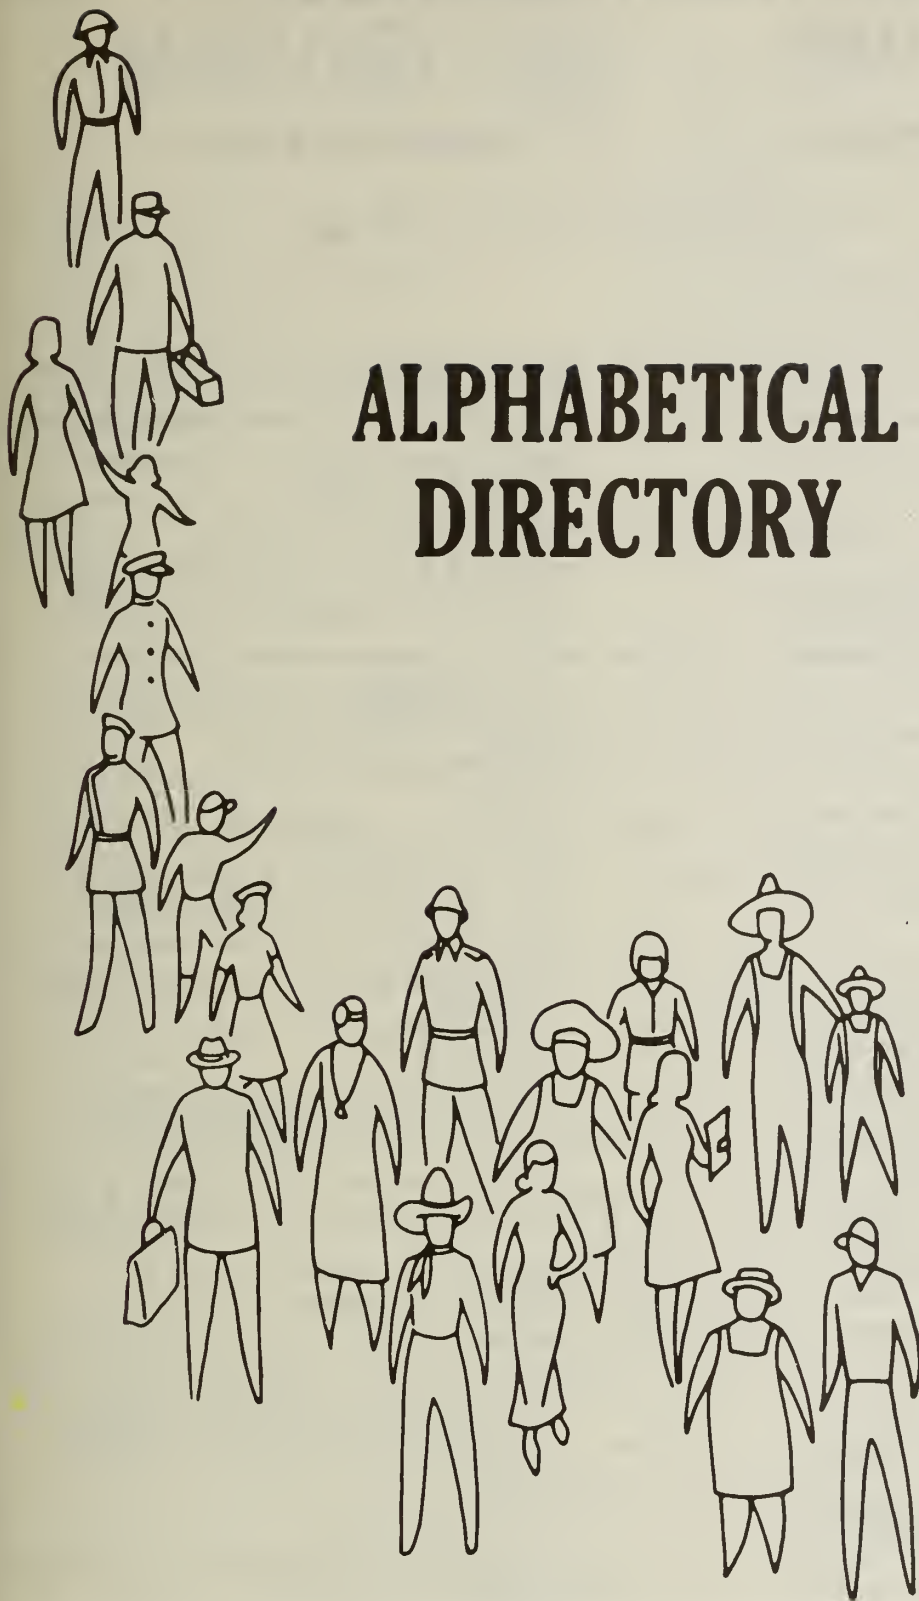

The City Directory is the natural medium for keeping a business or product name in the spotlight. Insist on being well represented in its pages.
