1980 LION

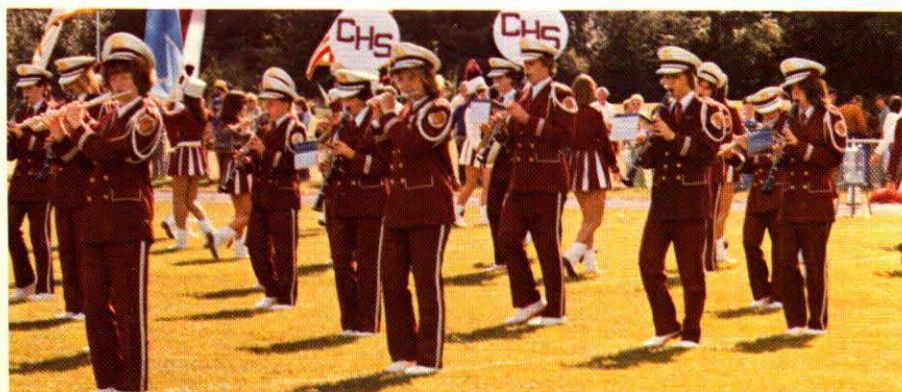

Yesterday is already a dream,
and tomorrow is only a vision,
but today, well-lived,
makes every yesterday a dream of happiness,
and every tomorrow a vision of hope.

Introduction 4

Ded-i-cate (ded-ih-kayt) v. (ded-i-cat-ed; ded-i-cating) 1. To consecrate; hallow; set apart. 2. To give wholly or earnestly up to. 3. To inscribe or address a work to a patron, friend, etc., as a compliment. — ded-i-cate adj.

Empty chairs and vacant places
soon will be filled with other faces;
New will come where old have gone,
Eternal change goes on and on.
— Harold Brigham

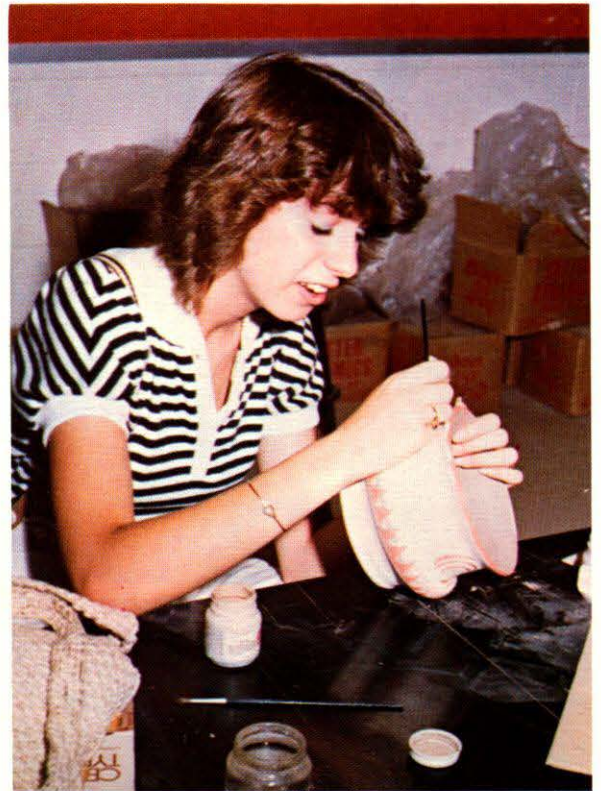

If you have one true friend, . . .

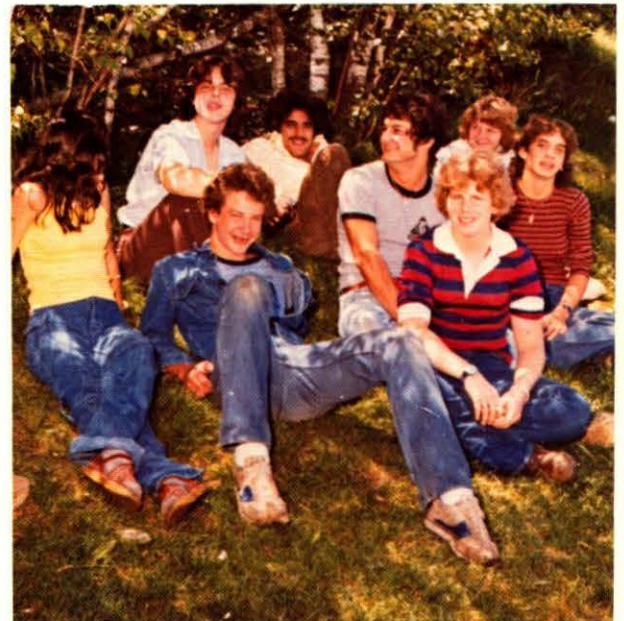

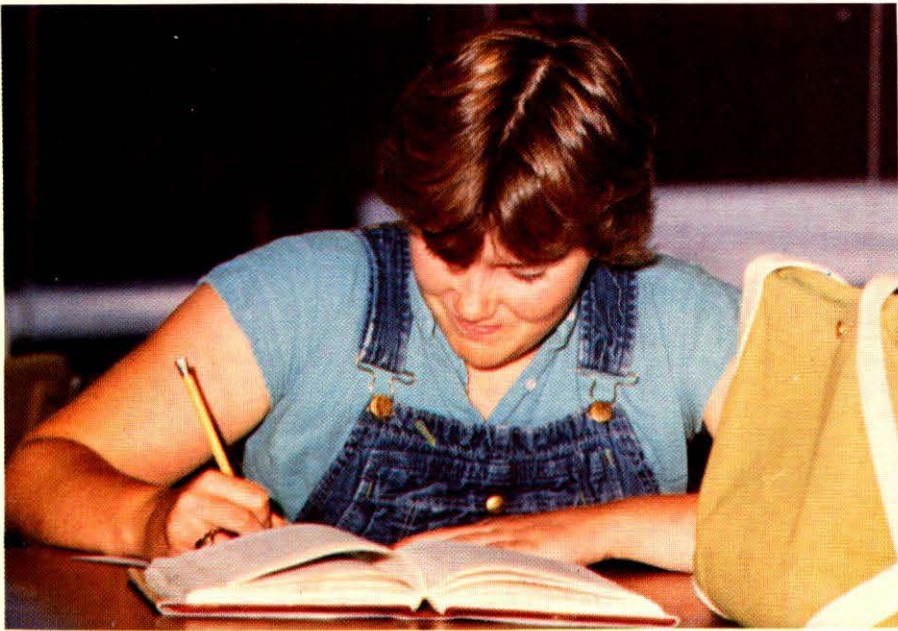

. . . you have more than your share.

Do not remove a fly from your friend's forehead with a hatchet.
— Chinese Proverb

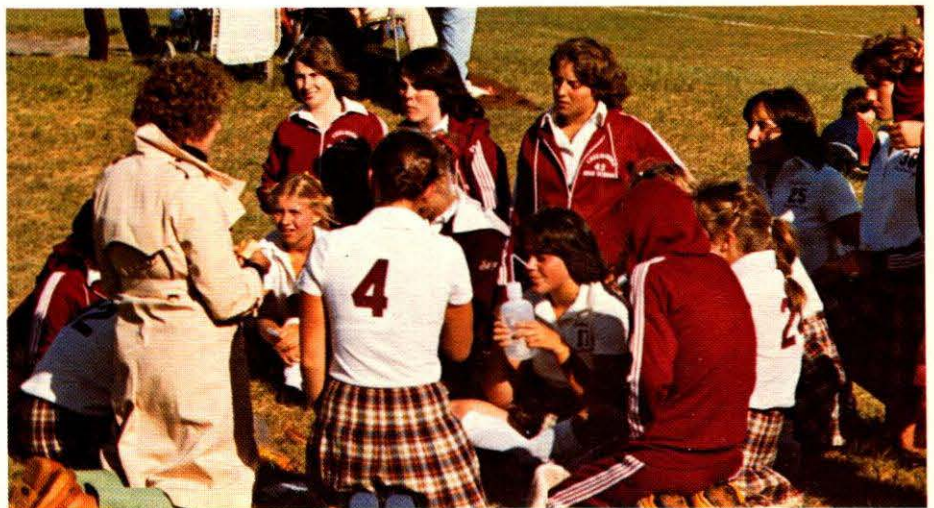

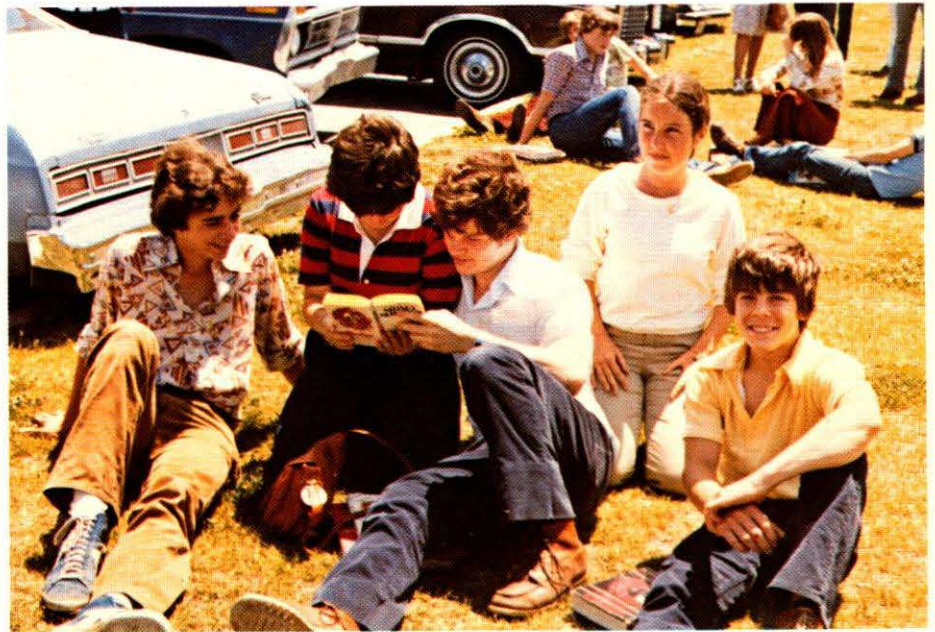

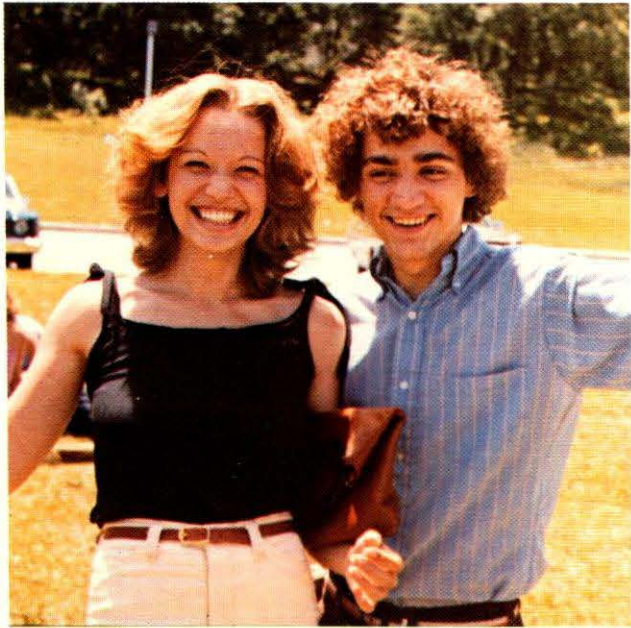

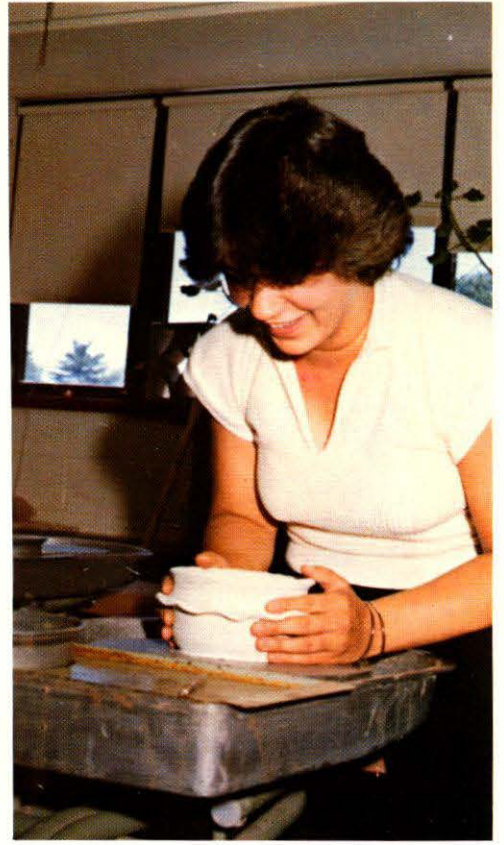

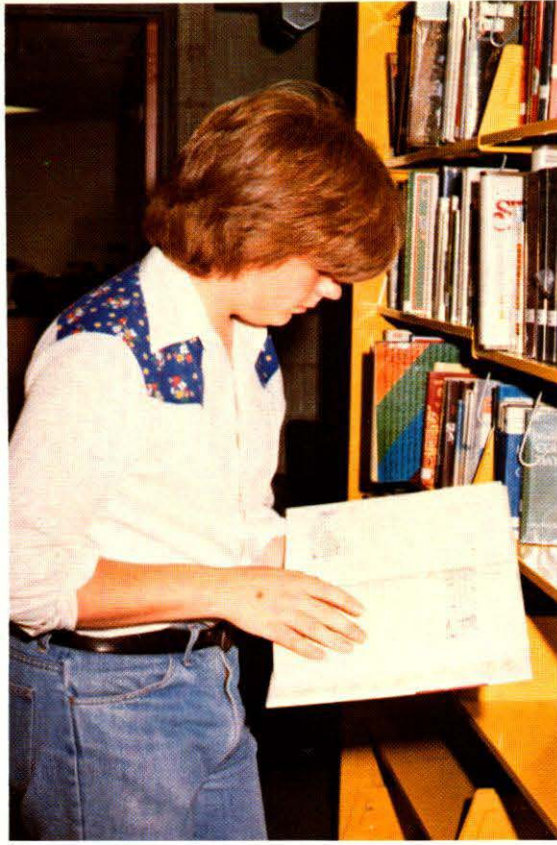

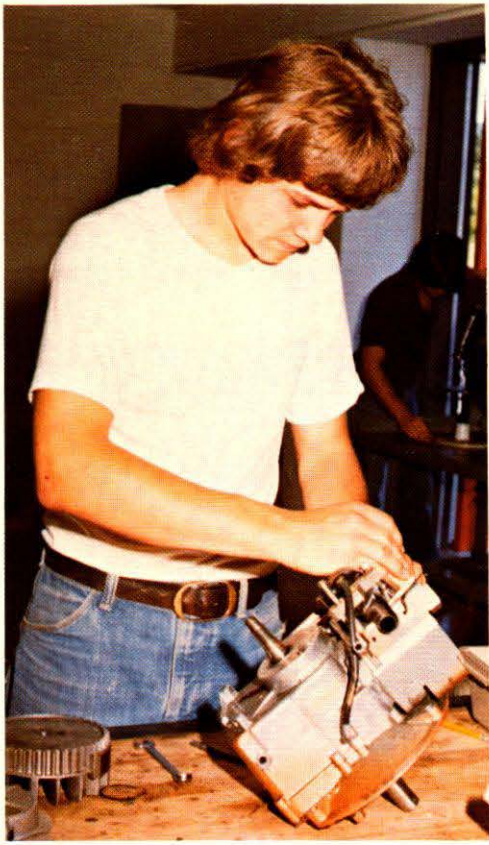

Sleep is death enjoyed.

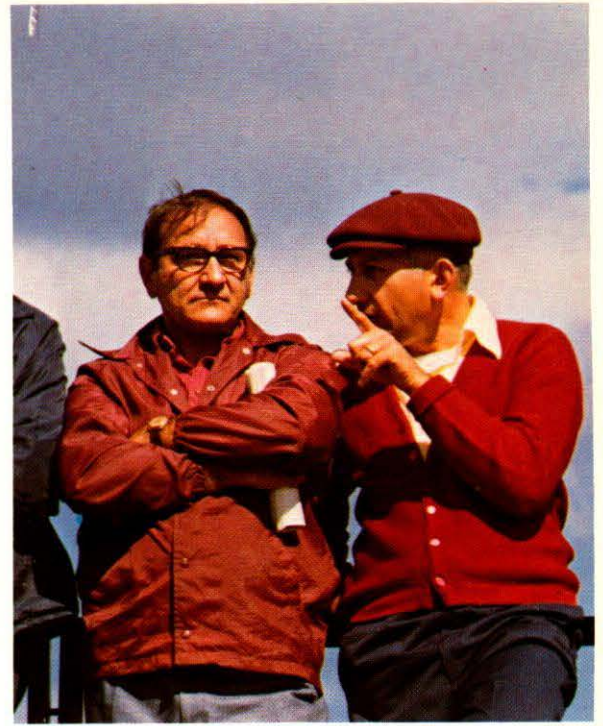

After enough time has passed, all memories are beautiful.
— August Strindberg

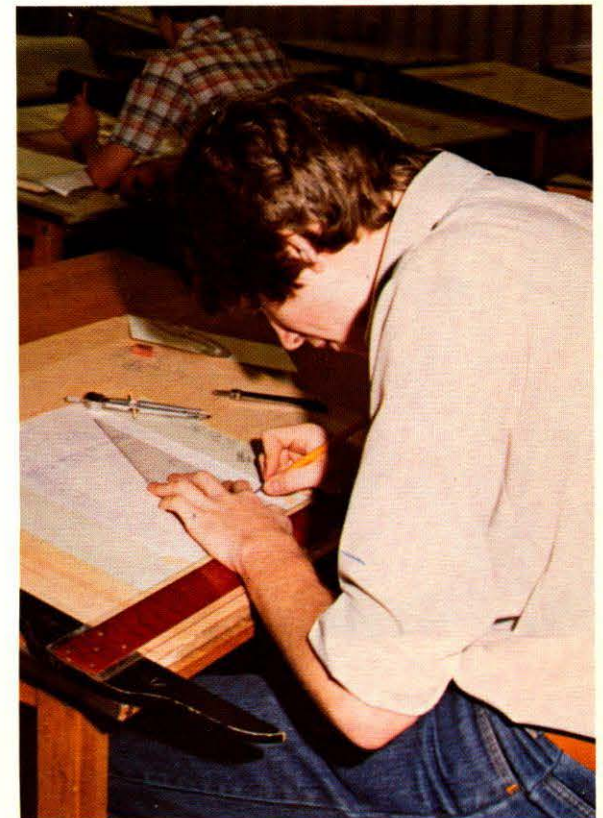

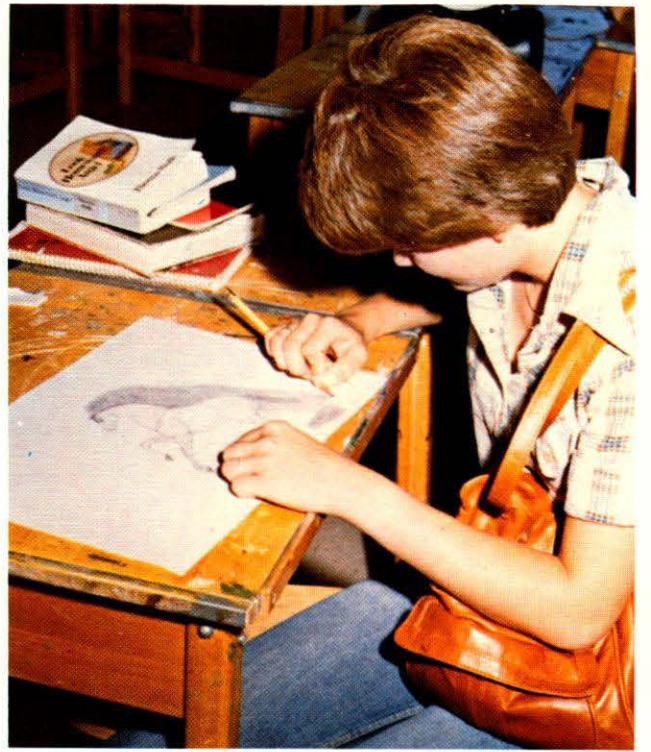

Act, that each tomorrow find us farther than today.

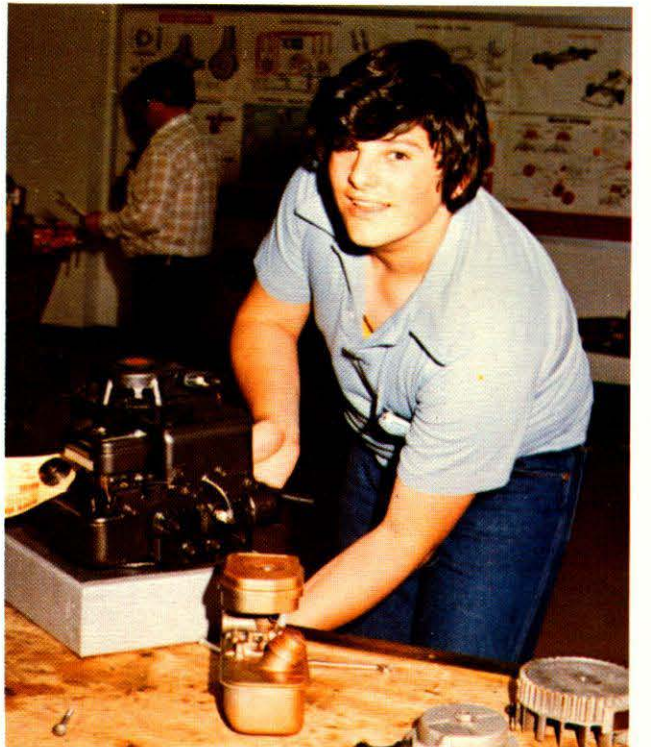

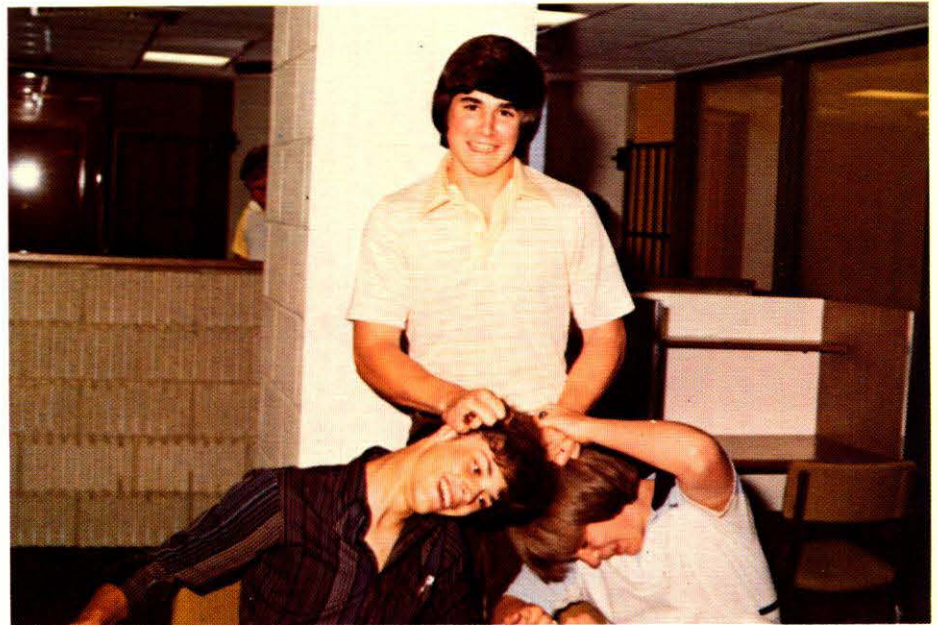

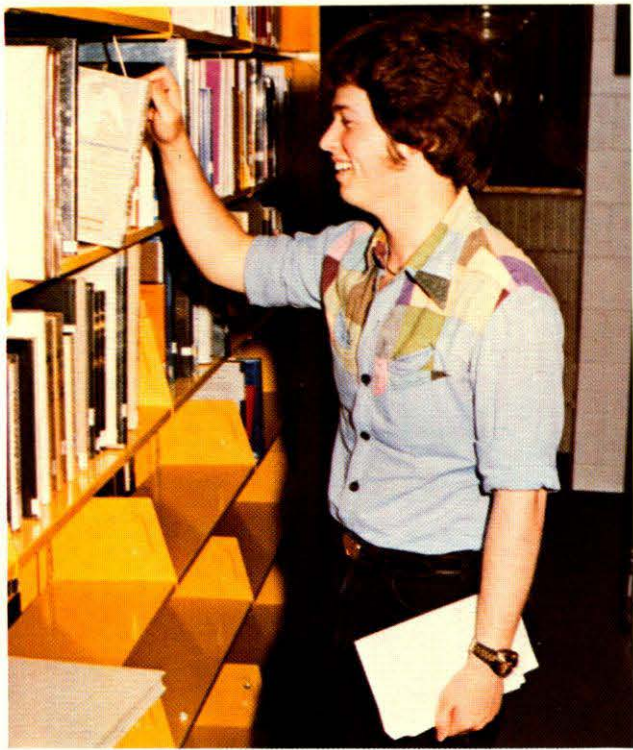

The sense of existence is the greatest happiness.

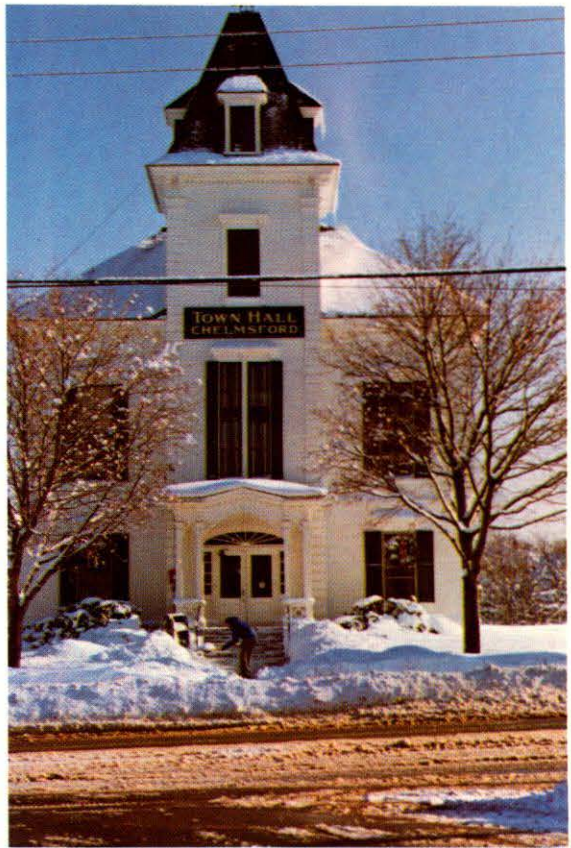

How beautiful is youth
How bright it gleams,
With its illusion, aspirations,
dreams . . .

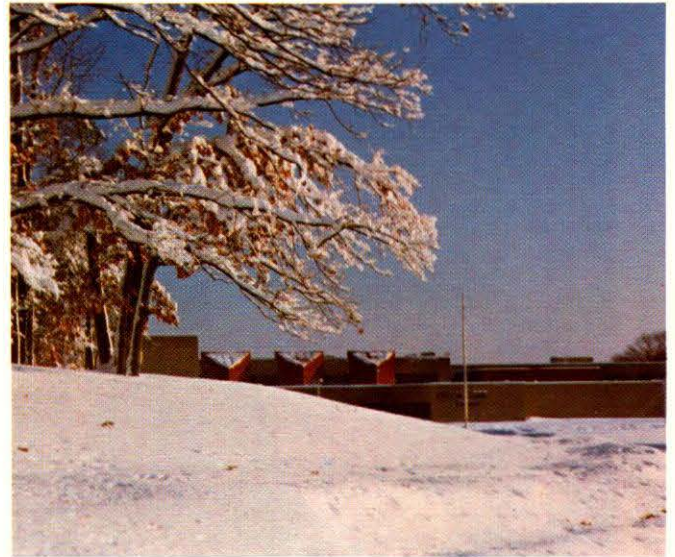

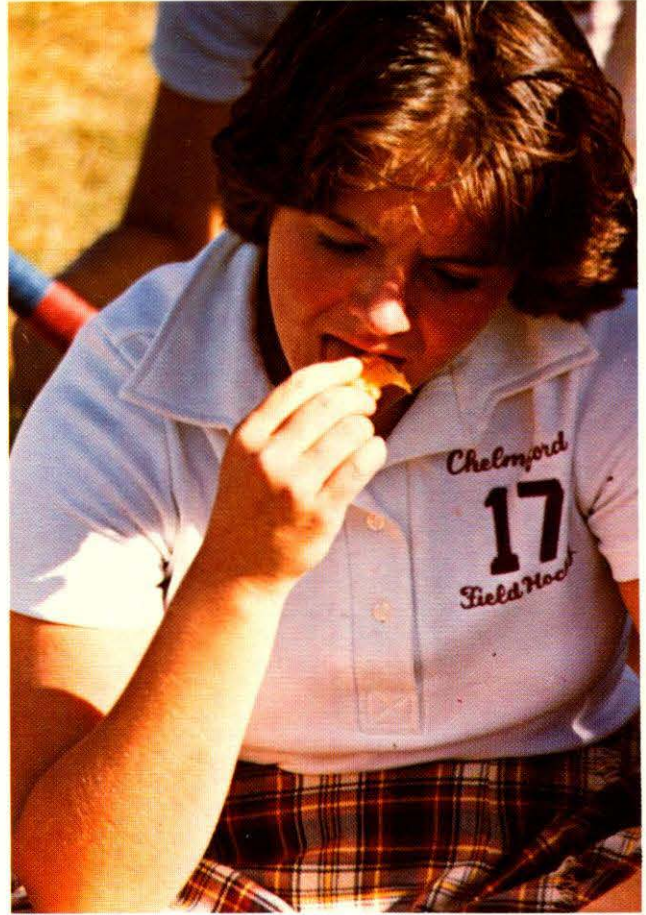

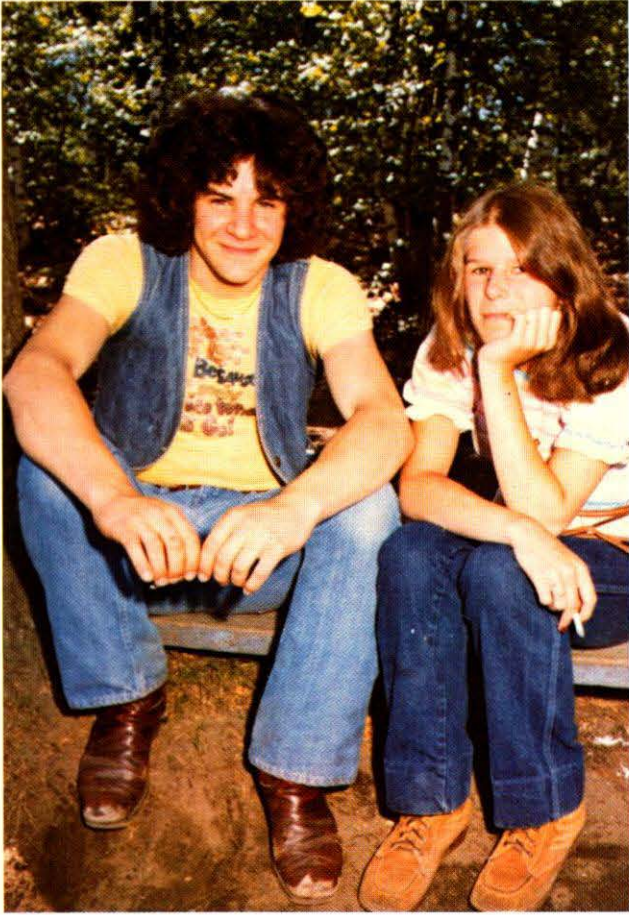

Book of beginnings
story without end!
Each maid a heroine
and each man a friend.
— Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

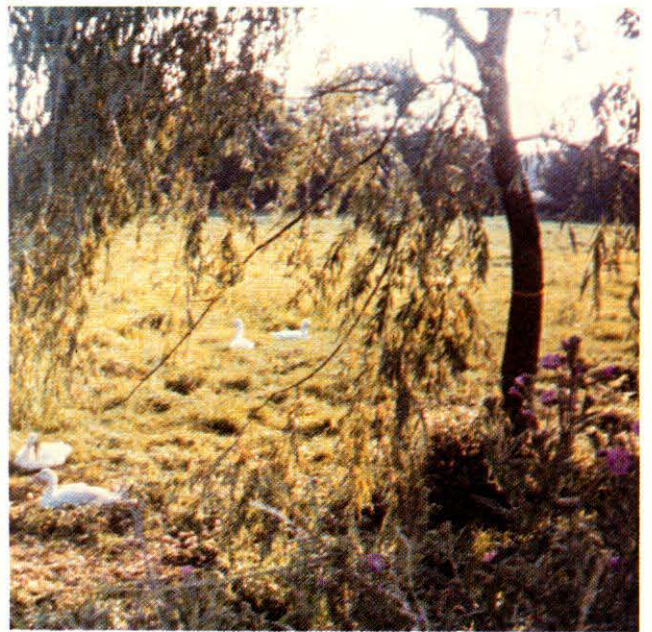

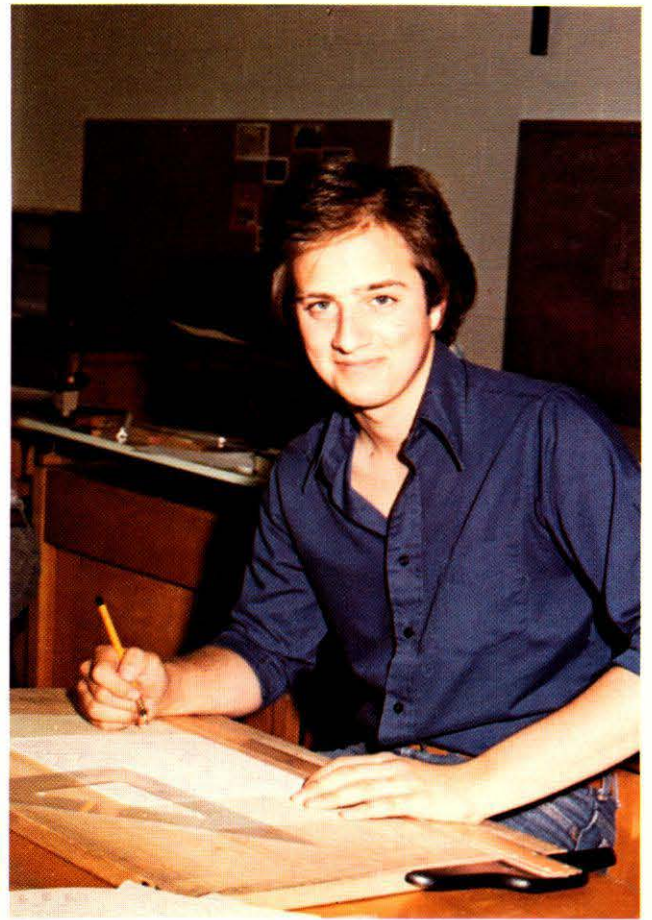

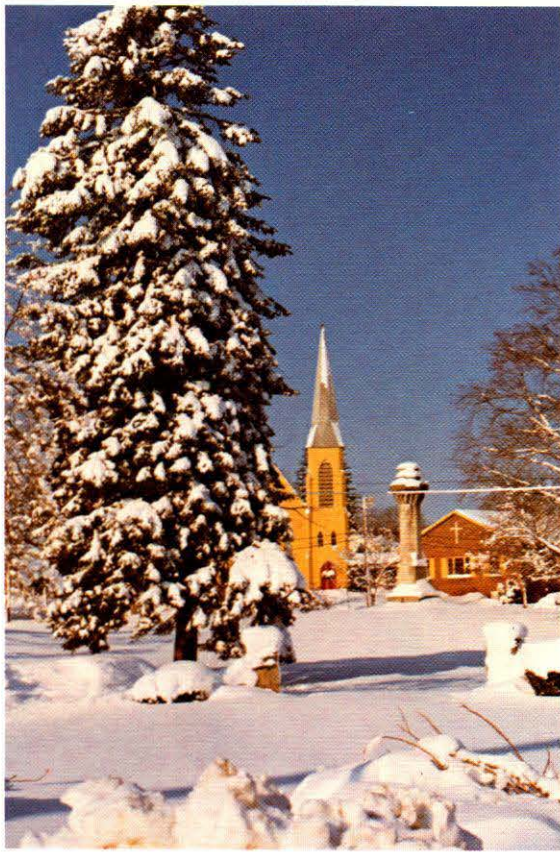

Just because a path is well-beaten is no proof it's the right one.

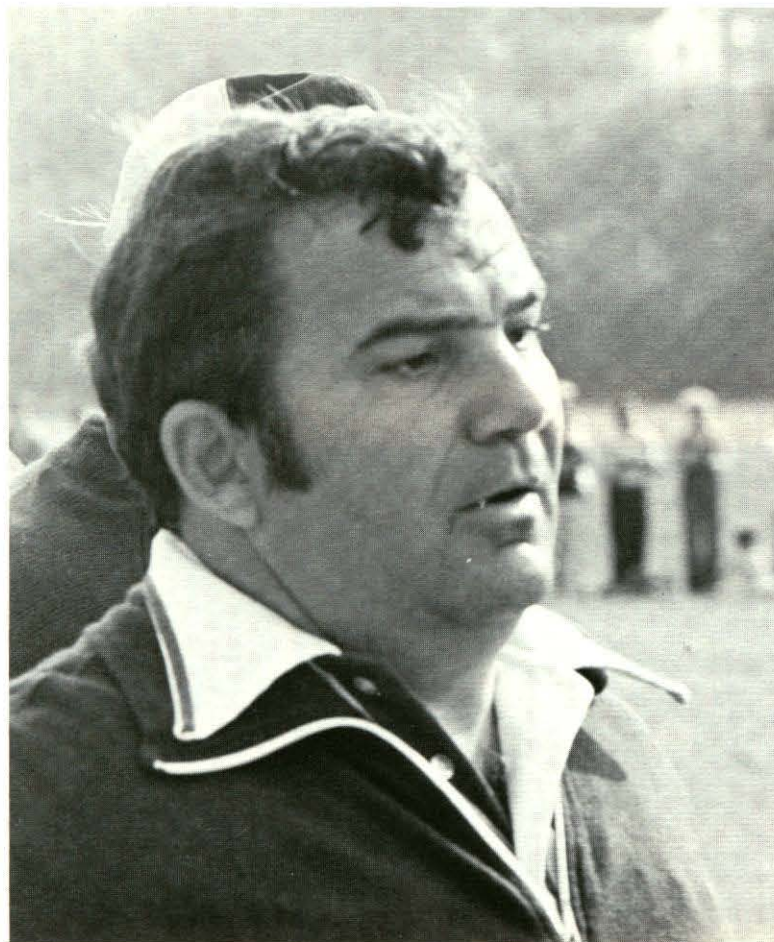

Friends are like flowers in the garden of life.

The purpose of accumulating knowledge is to use that knowledge to think.

Dedication

The senior class of 1980 sincerely dedicates the 1980 Lion to Coach Tom Caito.

Mr. Caito has always been extremely supportive and encouraging both on and off the playing field. Although our class now leaves CHS, Mr. Caito's influence will certainly be remembered gratefully.

A Few Words To Propel Us Onward . . .

Past

One may return to the place of his birth, he cannot go back to his youth.
— John Burroughs, "The Return"

Look not mournfully into the Past. It comes not back again. Wisely improve the Present. It is thine. Go forth to meet the shadowy Future without fear.

— Longfellow

In the carriages of the past you can't go anywhere.

— Maxim Gorky

Those who do not remember the past are condemned to relive it.

— George Santayana

The passing minute is every man's possession, but what has once gone by is not ours.

— Marcus Aurelius

Present

Real generosity towards the future lies in giving all to the present.
— Albert Camus

Happy the man, and happy he alone, He who can call today his own; He who secure within can say, Tomorrow do your worst, for I have lived today.

— John Dryden

We can see well into the past; we can guess shrewdly into the future; but that which is rolled up and muffled in impentrate folds is today.

— Emerson

Every situation — nay, every moment — is of infinite worth; for it is the representative of a whole eternity.

— Goethe

The word "now" is like a bomb through the window, and it ticks.
— Arthur Miller

Future

Man is not the sum of what he has already, but rather the sum of what he does not yet have, of what he could have.
— Jean-Paul Sartre

The future is like heaven — everyone exalts it but no one wants to go there now.
— James Baldwin

We know what we are, but know not what we may be.
— Shakespeare

There is nothing like a dream to create the future. Utopia today, flesh and blood tomorrow.
— Victor Hugo

After us the deluge.
— Madam Pompadour

As we leave Chelmsford High School, we leave behind the people and events that have shaped our lives. We take with us the memories of our friends and the good times we all shared. The pages contained in this book will serve to reinforce these memories for eternity. We also take with us a pride and confidence in ourselves that could only be gained at Chelmsford High School.

The time has come for us to chose the paths that our lives shall follow. Some of us have found our home here, never to leave, while others seem to have outgrown Chelmsford, leaving here and traveling to faraway places to start new lives. Though we may never meet again, we will never forget where our roots are.

"It's a long road, and a little wheel, and it takes a lot of turns to get there . . . For the never-ending highway beckons to the rolling stone until He, who knows all, calls the wayward drifter home."

College Day

On October 2, 500 members of the senior class participated in a college day at Merrimack College. Over 70 colleges were represented, and many aspects of their programs were described.

Bloodmobile

On October 26, 1979, the class of 1980 held a very successful blood drive collecting 125 pints of blood. The 1000th mark was reached for a total of 1022 pints of blood donated by Chelmsford High students and faculty in the past 10 years. Special appreciation should go to all those people who helped to make this year's bloodmobile one of the best. Congratulations.

American Field Service is an international exchange program. The club at C.H.S. is just a part of the whole A.F.S. chapter of Chelmsford. A Core group of interested students, as a club, help support and encourage the foreign students in their courses, activities and throughout their experience.

Ike Rauvola, Agnes Guhl

Agnes (from Switzerland) and Ike (from Finland) will both graduate with the class of 1980. They have been involved and very active at Chelmsford High in such things as American Studies, Drama, Orchestra, and Art. As a Club we have all learned from and enjoyed knowing Ike and Agnes. We wish them the best in life, always.

On behalf of all the 1980 editors I would like to express sincere gratitude to the many people whose contributions have helped make the 1980 Lion a success. The following people have been extremely generous in giving their time and effort to the Lion:

Production Staff: Lynne Waldron, Diane Murray, Nicki Gonsalves, Peter Skillin, Rick Vigeant, Collette Russell.

Business Staff: Susan Balian, Lisa Deely, Audrey Unger, Michelle LeClair, Lisa Mercier, Barbara McDonough, Mary Cervantes, Beverly Masters, Leslie Tucker.

Typists: Tammy Boucher, Judy Shea, Holli Herget, Maureen Marcin, David Smaldone, Lynne Waldron.

Student Photographers: Doug Jones, Chris Borden.

Special appreciation to Markus Lewis for the cover design and to Diana Shuda, Lynne Waldron, and Chuck Atkins for their art contributions.

I personally wish to thank my fellow editors and our advisors Mr. Venuti, Mr. Donovan and Mrs. Donovan for their commitments. Thanks to Guy Garon of Hunter Publishing Co. and Jack Kelley of Burlington Studios for their invaluable services.

I hope this yearbook will rekindle many fond memories of 1980 and our unique experience at Chelmsford High School.
