A Performance of a Lifetime

Some of us are athletes; some of us are musicians. Some of us are actors; some of us are dancers. Whether we are on the playing field, in a concert hall, in front of a curtain, or on stage, we are all stars. Each one of us has graced Chelmsford High School with his or her presence. As our senior year winds down, may we all remember the past four years as a performance of a lifetime.

A Shining Star...

CHRISTOPHER MARK RESLOTO

"You think back at Chris, and you're not sad because it's over, you're happy because it happened."

--John Bertalami

"Chris probably packed in seventeen short years more goodness, more happiness, more love of life than people who live until 70."

--Mr. Doherty

"Chris was one of the kindest and most caring people I have ever met. The memory of Chris can not be reminded in just a singular page of our book. His strength of character was something not many could achieve. Remembering Chris is the first thing I want to take with me from high school."

--Megan O'Reilly

"Chris Reslow never gave up.. He would always try to make you laugh, no matter what was going on. He still affects my life today whenever there is something that I need to do that is hard, I think of Chris and how he tried.

Rez 4 life." ---Joe Davison

"Chris was an outstanding person, peer, and friend. He would cheer up peoples' days that he didn't even know. He lived everyday to the fullest and never let his cancer get in the way of anything."

--Lyn Nebalski

"Chris was a great kid. He always had a smile on his face and something positive to say. Never once did I see or hear about Chris ridiculing anyone or putting anybody down. He was a great kid, and he will always be in everyone's heart. R.I.P. Chris." --Dennis Bent

December 14, 1982 - June 19, 2000

"Chris was one of the few people I knew that loved every second of every day." --Dave Birrow

"He was the sunshine in everybody's life." --Wendy Keefe

"Freshman year was when we all started hanging out after a CCD class, when I told him a bad joke and he told me a bad joke and from then on...there you go." --Bill Phelan

"He truly loved us all and did anything to help. He showed us more about strength and love. He had no fear."

--Amy Leavitt

Staff Dedication...

MRS. BICKEL

Some teachers would look completely silly dressed up in a Tigger costume. But not Mrs. Bickel. During the past four years, the Class of 2001 has seen her in almost every imaginable situation possible. She has been at the Powder Puffs cold yet still cheering, at the Pep Rallies screaming and yelling, and at the dances telling people how nice they look. Although small in stature, she has the biggest heart possible. For the past four years, she has poured her heart and soul into making the Senior Class as successful as it is today. It is because of all the support she has provided the Senior Class, that Mrs. Joyce Bickel is honored with the dedication of The 2001 Lion.

"She has helped us out tremendously and has more than just done her job as Class Advisor. She has reached out to our class individually and as a whole and I believe she deserves to be recognized." --Tina Kotsios

"Mrs. Bickel has been a great advisor for the Class of 2001. She has done so much and dedicated a huge amount of time towards us. This lady is great" --Bill Campopiano

"She is an outstanding teacher and friend to all. Even though we only have her for a portion of our high school career we can't get rid of her. She hounds us about college, about homework not even for her class, and she acts as a friend to me and anyone else that needs her superb advice. She has always been there for me when I need a hug when I'm feeling down or to give a high five when we won our meet. She's the best." --Gerry Loisel

"As class advisor Mrs. Bickel has stuck with us all four years. She is well respected by the Class of 2001 and has donated so much of her time to making each event the most memorable. Our class would be lost without her!" --Lauren Sullivan

"Mrs. Bickel has had to play a very demanding role this year and she plays it very well. She's always walking down the halls greeting students with a big smile on her face. Mrs. Bickel has worked very hard to make our year successful, so I think she deserves this dedication. It will be a way for the Class of 2001 to say thank you." -- Ashley Campbell

As the Class Advisor, Mrs. Bickel is often seen late at night counting money, painting wierd objects, pulling out trees, or eating French pasteries. She has done many crazy acts to assure the Class of 2001 have a terrific four years of high school. What is even more amazing about her is that she still maintains a sense of overall school spirit. She is always willing to help other classes if needed and can boost more school spirit than any student or staff member.

At the beginning of the school year, The 2001 Lion staff found itself with a problem. It was advisor-less, both of its previous advisors no longer worked for CHS. A call for help for was soon sent out, and Mrs. Bickel immediately expressed interest in the position. After assessing her time commitments, she became an advisor to the yearbook. Since then Mrs. Bickel has played a large role in the success of The Lion, and without her things would be very different. This dedication alone is far from enough appreciation for all the work she has put into producing the yearbook.

CLASS REPRESENTATIVES

"For the both of us, it has been such fun!!! We have watched so many of you grow up and develop into fine young men and women who are ready to accept the challenge of the bigger stage. To the Class of 2001, we extend our thanks for sharing a piece of your life and leaving us so many fond memories.

This class will be remembered for it's strength, focus, commitment, and oh so many laughs.

Be forever young, and the world will be a brighter place."

Joyce Bickel and George Pollard, Class Advisors

MEMBERS: Beth Bates, Jensen Bohaker, Becky Buckley, Ashley Campbell, Phil Chao, Lindsay Degnan, Evan Dunn, Jessie Falardeau, Poorna Gadhia, Julie Gagnon, Foram Gosalia, Caroline Gulde, Beth Herrmann, Shana Hicks, Adam Hirbour, Brian Holland, Adam Jordan, Andrea Leczynski, Jen Lin, Sayda Mallette, Beth Mara, Jeff Martin, Anouch Matevossian, Molly Morse, Megan O'Reilly, DJ Plourde, Jill Rodgers, Tiffany Saragian, Kavita Shah, Nick Spinello, Meagan Swanson, Amy Ubele, Doug Wakefield, Dan Yang

CLASS OFFICERS

Class of 2001

Looking back on entering Chelmsford High School as timid, awestruck freshmen, we remember the excitement of experiencing all that this new environment had to offer. Beginning with the MORP and the fall sports season, the spirit and togetherness of the Chelmsford High community quickly came alive. We demonstrated what could be accomplished when a group of people came together for a common purpose, whether it be on the field, in the classroom, or in a student organization.

As members of the Class of 2001 we have played together, won championships together, rehearsed together, and faced defeat together. We are lucky enough to be comprised of a number of gifted athletes, musicians, artists, scholars, and poets; yet, as individuals, our successes have been great and noteworthy. As a whole, our triumphant moments will live on forever. We will never forget the pride and feeling of accomplishment that went along with our success in the magazine drive, or the prowess and domination of our invincible Power Puff team. What is most admirable, however, is that we have put our strengths to use for the betterment of our class and entire high school community, and the success that we have accomplished as a unified whole far outweigh our individual successes.

We entered the journey alone, hesitantly making our way on unfamiliar turf, looking for bonds and fearful of the barriers. Yet, as the four years have eclipsed, we find that this journey has not been made alone; our friends, family, and teachers have been our guides, companions, and at times, saviors. These years have been fleeting, but glorious. From our first spirit wall to our last dance, we were always together, as classmates, acquaintances, and finally, friends. We would like to thank the Class Representatives for their dedication and hard work. We would also like to thank Ms. Bickel and Mr. Pollard for their benevolent guidance, for without them, the Class of 2001 could not have been as successful. Finally, thank you, Class of 2001; we wish you the best of luck in pursuing your dreams. As we move into the next stage of our lives, we would like to share with you the most important words of wisdom we have learned over the past four years:

"Vision without action is merely a dream. Action without vision just passes the time. Vision with action can change the world."

Doug Wakefield, President Lindsay Degnan, Co-Vice President Evan Dunn, Co-Vice President

DRESS REHEARSAL

Student Life

April 29, 2000

A NIGHT IN PARIS

A red carpet and glittering lights illuminated the path as the students of Chelmsford High School awaited a romantic Parisian evening. Inside, a table full of pastries, cheeses, and crackers satisfied those waiting for a table. Through a garden walkway, many happy couples could be seen dancing the night away as laughter filled the air.

As the evening came to an end, the students left sadly but looked forward to their last year of high school. Although the event lasted for just one night, the memories will last for a lifetime.

Jill and Chrissie show off their killer smiles and hot spring fashions.

Hey Drew! Do you know that you have the Eiffel Tower on your head?

Vicki's pretty blue eyes sparkle with anticipation for the annual Junior Cotillion.

Awww! Aren't Jim and his princess cute when they smile?

Becca and Dave take a break from all the dancing to smile for the camera.

All decked out in spectacular attire, Mike, Scott, and Rob pose before the big night.

Stacey and Shana are ready to add another special evening to their memories.

Katie and Scott are all smiles as they pose for a picture.

Who needs boys? This group ditched their dates a long time ago.

MORP

Even with the stresses and worries of the new school year, the students of Chelmsford High still understand that a major part of high school is having fun. So pack 800 excited students in a single cafeteria, and you get the infamously melted wax floor and sweaty walls of the CHS MORP.

For the seniors, this MORP marked the end of their last year performing at CHS. But, for the freshmen, it was the beginning of their turn to light up the CHS stage. However, for four hours everyone forgot all their worries and danced the night away.

Katie and Becca are so excited for their senior year they can't help but jump for joy during the first dance of the year.

Who says that girls are the only ones who like 'N Sync? Here are Brian, DJ, Steve, and Andy dancing along to "Bye, Bye, Bye."

October 28, 2000

HALLOWEEN DANCES

What would a performance be without incredible costume design? The seniors, being the stylish students they are, displayed their immense creativity through their Halloween costumes. From the infamous blue men to the questionable nuns, each costume was a big hit. After all, the class of 2001 knows how to dress for a part!

It's a bird, it's a plane, it's...STEVE!

Who are we gonna call? Who else? Ghostbusters!

Lynn, Meagan, and Molly glam it up "Coyote Ugly" style

Hmm...what exactly are Doug and Dan putting in that witch's brew?

Amy's afraid of the big, bad wolf? Never!

Dress Rehearsal..

CHS SENIORS

Brian shows Elizabeth and Drew how much money he really has, while Adam looks on with a wistful look.

Becca and Katie will always remember the good times they had at the Friday football games.

Stefan is swept off his feet by the lovely Shannon Taylor.

Nikki and Tanya concentrate on the camera instead of getting to class.

Chris takes time off from his class to show us that the seniors are always number one in the school.

Yum Yum! These great chefs prepare a delicious waffle breakfast. Do you think we could have a little bite too?

Good times at the MORP

SUPERCATS

Here are some of our finest performers posing for the camera. Everyday, these actors play their part to the hilt -- why else would we have voted for them? They each have mastered the fine art of improvisation, making up the rules as they go. Whether they are most stressed or always smiling, our class has recognized them as being the best at what they do!

SPIRIT WEEK

All four classes of Chelmsford High School rallied together once again with hopes of winning the Thanksgiving Day Football Game. The entire week, students brought in cans, mittens, hats, and of course, pennies trying to prove their dominance over the other classes.

Overall, the Seniors won Spirit Week, even with an upsetting lost to the Juniors in the Spirit Wall. This led the Chelmsford High Lions to a 13-12 victory over the Billerica Lions, ending their regular season at a perfect 10-0.

The undefeated Seniors celebrate after winning their fourth straight Powder Puff Game.

The Class of 2001 makes their annual entrance into the gym for the Pep Rally.

December 9, 2000 WINTER WONDERLAND

The air was brisk and smelt of roasted chesnuts. People dressed in their finest attire swaggered up the walkway with gay smiles on their faces. Upon entrance into the lovely cafeteria, smells of pigs in blankets and lovely sweets floated happily through air and lit up the faces of all the happy attendees. Giddy laughter and joyous chuckles resonated throughout the night as chaperones, adults, and students boogie downed to the happening music.

Strike a pose! Dewey and Lily pause for a quick snapshot.

Chrissie and Ben smile for us while waiting for their official dance photo to be taken.

Pam and Liane add another night to their growing CHS memories.

This trio of friends gathers together during the annual Holiday Dance.

Colorguard

Thirteen girls took the fields
 Right away our friendship was sealed
 With a lot of practice, laughter, and tears
 It was all worthwhile with the home crowd's cheers

Poorna's busy schedule always kept her running
 But, hey, at least her college resume will be stunning.

Ayla always stayed to put our flags in the bag,
 And Katie never let her smile sag.

Vanessa's now known as 'Ladybugs'
 Lora wished for some drummer hugs.

Erica's too cute for her own good.

Amanda told her stories of the ghetto 'hood.

Meredith blossomed and came out of her shell.

Jenny's questions we could not quell.

"The Dunn-ster" guided us and cracked us up

Always lettin' us know 'wassup'!

Your 3 Cap-i-tans would just like to say

We love you so much, and we wish we could stay.

Erin Burns
 Chrissie Pariseau
 Jennifer Atkisson

The three co-captains, Jen, Chrissie, and Erin, pose with their coach, Mrs. Dunn.

Row 1: Chrissie Pariseau, Erin Burns, Jennifer Atkisson
 Row 2: Erica Owen, Ayla Akbulut, Lora Clark, Poorna Gadhia, Jennifer Swain
 Row 3: Amanda Seibert, Vanessa Grasso, Katie Lane, Andrea Marr, Merideth Main, Coach Maureen Dunn

The Colorguard enjoyed every moment together, including the long bus rides.

Majorettes

This season has been fun. Even though we were a small team, we managed to make the best of it. We may have had some hard times, but as a team we got through them. I wish everyone luck in the future, especially Michelle. Thanks guys!

Shannon Taylor

Shannon embraces her coach and buddy, Mrs. Dunn.

Amanda concentrates hard to avoid smacking a saxophone with her baton.

The Majorettes advance onto the field for the Halftime show.

Michelle and Lauren relish the feeling that comes after a great performance.

Row 1: Coach Maureen Dunn, Shannon Taylor
 Row 2: Casey Kinney, Kristin MacDonald, Darsi Decker, Sherianne Kinney
 Row 3: Lauren Buono, Michelle LeBlanc, Amanda Sendelbach

Boys' Cross Country

Cross Country runners endure extreme physical and mental pain on a routine basis during intense distance, speed, and hill workouts. They leave many to wonder, "What is the point?" The answer can be found on race day when victory is achieved. For the CHS Boys Cross Country team in 2000, this was a thrill which was experienced often. Thanks to the efforts of all the runners, notably Seniors Steve Orr, John O'Connor, Gerry Loiselle, Chris Eynatian, and Andy McGuinness, and Juniors Mike Ryan, Phil Putis, and Dave Muzykewicz, the team finished undefeated and won the Merrimack Valley Conference for the fifth consecutive season. We performed at the state level also, finishing third at the Eastern MassDivision 1 meet and sixth at the Division 1 All State Meet.

Thanks to Coaches Durk and Crane for a terrific season, and good luck to everyone next year!

--Captains Steve Orr and Chris Eynatiananda

Row 1: Coach Crane, Brian Holland, D.J. Plourde, Andy McGuinness, Chris Eynatian, Steve Orr, John O'Connor, Coach Durkin

Row 2: Coach Lang, Nick Lamplough, Mike Ryan, Josh Reinhold, Tim Hardy, Steve Call, Joe Ryan

Row 3: Gerry Loiselle, Philip Dutis, Dave Muzykewicz, Tim Gorham

Captains Steve Orr and Chris Eynatian led the team under the guidance of Coach J.J. Durkin.

Steve and Phil lead Chelmsford to another Cross Country victory.

Okie sits and waits for the beginning of another meet.

Steve takes a stretch break before running in a big meet.

Girls' Cross Country

Cross-Country season of 2000 has been that best

This year's team was small
But that didn't hurt our performance at all.

Together we worked hard
Striving to keep our title
We refused to be beat
Day after day, week after week
Land, Crane and Durk have been there for us

Never will we forget our BBQ's and pasta dinners
Thank you girls for a wonderful season
Remember H's Quality not Quantity!
Love your Captains
Sarah, Krista and Stephanie

Stephanie Malsbury, Coach Crane
Row 2: Emily Dubner, Kara Gillette, Erin Ivers,
Lauren Eynatian, Amanda Hennessy
Row 3: Alyssa Campbell, Colleen Fleming, Lauren
Holmes, Jessica Chao, Pam Stone, Lauren McHugh

Captains Stephanie Malsbury, Sarah Fleming, Krista Byam, and Coach
Lang led the girls on a path to glory.

Captains, Sarah Fleming and Krista Byam stride together as they prepare to race their most challenging meet of the year.

Junior Lauren Eynatian runs strongly against Andover.

Field Hockey

Dear Team,

We started off great. Our trip to Brewster was a blast. We came together and won every game. Throughout the season we had some great games and some tough losses, but in the end we played with our hearts. Each day we came to practice and tried our best. It wasn't easy, especially when we had to "complete the Mom Run", but everyone worked their hardest and stuck it through. Each teammate has given us more memories than we can count. We'll always remember pinatas, the rumble between Coach and Meg, beating Lowell in our stadium, the many team dinners, and Coach's treat at Papa Gino's. Thank you Coach for teaching us more than just field hockey and putting up with us everyday. Good luck to the girls next year! You guys are the best!

Love,
Kate, Katie, Annie

Football

Over the years of a young football player's life, his dream is to make it to the championship. Whether it be for the Pop Warner program, or in high school, it is always a goal. Well, over the past 14 weeks we have worked our way to a 10-1-0 season, a league championship, and a trip to the Superbowl. The past few months have been fun and exciting. Whether it came down to the wire versus Central or watching the half-time show at Methuen, we always kept a smile on our faces. Good luck to all of the underclassmen in seasons to come, and thanks to all of our supporters. And a special thanks to our teammates.

--Captains Evan Dunn, John Kydd, John MacIsaac, Barry McDonald, and Mike Tousignant

The Lions cheer for their very successful football team to get another win.

Boys' Soccer

The season started off with four losses. I'm in love with your mom. After our bad start, we only lost two times. Leading the team with 36 goals was Stephen Silk. He led the team to a great victory in the State Finals. If it were not for the teams unity and devotion, the season wouldn't have been fun. Thanks homies.

Girls' Soccer

As soccer season started, it seemed that everything was new, With Coach Ann at the forefront, we had lots of work to do, After a week of practice, our bodies sore and aching, We looked ahead and knew the MVC was there for the taking. Running, sprinting, panting, we worked hard everyday, We played "whistle to whistle" as coach would always say. Lauren and Lindsay led the pack and always picked tails in the toss, They thought they were so big and bad, but Coach showed them who was boss. Becky had no breaks, so we plowed through many teams, Each and every win brought us closer to our dreams. Molly scored us "clutch" goals while Michelle made all the saves, Becca always seemed to "let things go", but Coach was still her fave. Julie was our stopper and dropped opponents on their rumps, Although things ran quite smoothly, we had our share of bumps. Our winning streak was slighted by the Middies and the Redmen, But we got our wits about us and stopped the invasion of our Den. With a small school division title and a state tournament berth, We had finally proven to all that doubted what CHS soccer was worth. We left a respectable season behind us, so we ended with good cheer, Good luck to all in seasons to come thanks for an unforgettable year!

Hey Ladies,

Thanks for a great season. We've had a blast! It's been filled with so many memories that will be with us forever. Always remember the great times we had, the crazy driving to Water Country, fun-filled games after AB (Yeah baby! We did it again.), the bonding games at pasta dinners, and revenge at the State meet. The team was stacked with talent from A to Z. None of us could have done it without the great support from each other. Of all the years that we've been on the team, we've felt that this was the best. Everyone had an awesome season. Being so close, we considered everyone part of the "family". Come on... we went through "hell" together! Our goal to be the greatest we could be was accomplished in the end! Revenge is SWEET! Good luck next year! We're going to miss you ladies!

Girl's Volleyball

Focusing on the State Tournament, we knew our ability from the beginning. With rugged competition in our league and the knowledge that we were the team to beat, we had to work harder than ever. Our individual skills were strong from the beginning, but our teamwork would prove to carry us to our goal.

A winning season is what we hoped for. With help from our "blocking fools" dominating the net, and our defensive specialists diving for balls, our offense was off to a roaring start. Off of their perfect pass, our setters' magical hands stole the show. You never knew where the ball was headed, but when it got there, it was "Hammer Time". With all of these skills combined, the opponents were forced to surrender to the Lions.

With Coach Dana DeFillippo's inspiration on the sidelines and on the practice court, we were always determined to work harder. Coach Karen LoCoco's brilliant advice for key plays helped us win games. The Big Nick's manly hits at practice prepared us for our strongest competition. Stacey's organized management and cheerful spirits held us together.

Fighting through the competitive league and our rival, Andover, we captured the MVC title and finished the league with an almost perfect record. Dancing through the beginning part of the Tournament, we clenched the North Sectional Title. With this in mind, we were determined to go to States. But with a surprising loss to Newton North, our hopes were diminished. But our fun memories will live on and always remember that:

"The greatest test of courage on earth is to bear defeat without losing heart."

*Turco, we wish you could have played the whole season with us, but your inspiration and encouragement through the season was just as helpful! Good Luck Next Year.

"There are only two options regarding commitment, you are either In or you're OUT. There is no such thing as life in the middle." Never ending hours in the gym, rips the size of quarters, and rolls and rolls of tape proved that the entire team committed itself to be the best that it could be. Our season started off on a high note after a win over Masco with an impressive score of 130.5. This score boosted our hopes for the rest of the season. I'm sure our competition has wondered why we looked so good so early on in the season. We just let them think that it was because of our new leotards, but in reality, we have more depth this season than ever before. As seniors, we would just like to thank the team for an unforgettable year and to wish everyone the best of luck next year.

Coach Benson, Mike Pray, Matt Mulrooney, and Matt Parquette led the team through a great season.

Matt briefly wonders what the bright light was before finishing up.

Mike flew past like a butterfly, but stung his opponents like a bee.

George Lee, 'nuff said.

Matt plunged his way past many opponents.

Vin leaps into the pool at the start of his lap.

Boys' Track

"Ode to Track"

When the track was covered with snow
 We ran in the parking lot
 When it got a really cold outside
 We dressed "appropriately"
 When vacation practices were scheduled
 We didn't go (sorry Lenny)
 When we were faced with long, boring,
 bus rides,
 We had sing-a-longs.
 Shot putters...Keep up the hard work?
 Morais: Portuguese pride can only take you so far
 To Durk, Lang, Lenny, Casey, and Chamberas:
 Don't Retire
 We threw up and passed out a lot
 (especially Chip)
 But was it really worth it?
 For those involved we were just kidding,
 But, in all honesy, thanks for a great season!

-Chris Andrews, Jim Shannon and Chris Eynatian

Coach Lang and Rapone with Captains
 Chris, Jim, and Chris were faced with many difficulties this year.

These twelve seniors faced their challenging year with much Lion dignity and pride.

Girls' Track

Winter Track, 2001,

The past four years were lots of fun,
 "Langer Shuffle" and snowball fights,
 "Lion Drills" and running tights.
 Hills on Pilgrim were never fun, but better than a "snotters run."

Shot Putters really knew how to throw,
 and distance girls ran through the snow.

Hurdlers jumped with lots of grace,
 and Sprinters always won the race.
 We'll never forget the years that passed,
 Good luck next year, and have a blast!

Love,
 Amy,
 Molly,
 Sarah,
 Krista

These beautiful seniors anchored the team.

Coach Lang and Rapone, along with esteemed Captains Sarah Fleming, Amy Ubele, Molly Morse, and Krista Byam led their team to a great finish.

Wrestling

At the beginning of the preseason, no one gave us a chance. Everyone said it was supposed to be a rebuilding year. But, with the help of strong underclassmen, we were able to win our third straight sectional championship. States are just around the corner, and we're sure to do well. Most of all we would like to wish the best of luck to all the returning wrestlers, and we look forward to seeing you keep the winning tradition alive.

Sincerely, your captains,
Evan Dunn, Greg Gervais,
Steve Hawkins, and Brian
Viglione

Senior captains Brian Viglione, Evan Dunn, and Steve Hawkins returned to lead the wrestling team in an attempt for a third consecutive state championship.

Captains Evan Dunn, Greg Gervais, Steve Hawkins, and Brian Viglione with Coaches Rich, Moreau, McClure, and Ducharme led the wrestling team through many tough practices, matches, and tournaments onto another highly successful season.

Steve Hawkins gives his opponent a lift.

Evan Dunn drives his opponent into the ground and into complete submission.

Hawkins uses some intimidating tactics to overcome his foe.

Defending state-champion Brian Viglione conquers yet another opponent.

To laugh often and much . . .
To win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children . . .
To earn the appreciation of honest critics
And endure the betrayal of false friends . . .
To appreciate beauty . . .
To find the best in others . . .
To leave the world a bit better
Whether by a healthy child, a garden patch, or a redeemed social condition . . .
To know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived . . .
This is to have succeeded.

As the curtain closes on the final high school year of the Chelmsford High School Class of 2001, I hope our four years together have been filled with countless memories, good or bad, happy or sad. Between September 3, 1997 and June 9, 2001, we have flourished and grown from awkward, young freshmen to mature, wiser seniors. This yearbook is my attempt to capture as many memories that fit within 280 pages.

All of the following people contributed to The 2001 Lion, and it is to them I owe a huge thank you. First of all, to Brian Holland for spending his time on the little lions. Also to the Activities Editors, Kristen Frazee, Foram Gosalia, and Tiffany Saragian, because their overall dedication to the yearbook saved me many hours of work. Bethany Carey and Liz Seibert, the Artists, whose fabulous artwork appears throughout the book. To Jean Sun, for her work as Business Editor and to Business Editors Sherry Chen and Jen Li who provided many laughs and corrected their pages over and over again. Faculty Editors, Keri Littlefield, Lauren Sullivan, and Tim Yip also put so much effort into their pages. To General Staff, Carin Segal and Sarah Towsley, for their work, and much thanks to Min Lin for her undying commitment. Next, Literary Editors, Kim Ang and Jensen Bohaker, who corrected several pages. Photographer Jamie Kahl for her shots and Val Burns for her dedication. The Sports Editors, Jeff Martin and Brian Meenaghan overcame many difficulties in their pages. Also to Cindy Peng, Underclass Editor, Caitlin Kane and John Kolba for their numerous hours. To Julie Gagnon, my Assistant Editor-in-Chief, a very deserving thanks for her unquestioning support and hard work. Finally, the biggest thanks go to the two Advisors who didn't know what they were getting into when they signed up. To Mrs. Marcotte for her much needed impeccable grammar and constant enthusisam and motivation. And to Mrs. Bickel for spending many late nights and weekends slaving away hungry in the yearbook room.

Whether the various members of Chelmsford High School's Class of 2001 scatter or stay together, always remember these four years, our Performance of a Lifetime.

Sincerely,

Vivian Cheng
