LIONS IN THE LIMELIGHT

The past four years have been the opening act before the feature presentation of our lives. Each of us has been waiting for the day when the spotlight will finally shine on us. That day is drawing nearer and nearer, and as we approach it, we may feel stagefright, but in the end, we will know that we are better prepared because of the people we have met here. So re-read your lines, and when the curtain finally opens...go ahead...step into the limelight...

Class Officers

05

The Class of 2005 is extremely lucky to have such a dedicated and hard-working group of reps. We couldn't have pulled any of it off without the amazing Ms. Cobery and Mrs. Sweet. Coming together at crucial times, we put on some incredible spirit week walls, fundraisers, and not to mention the most beautiful Cotillion CHS has ever seen. Such a diverse group of people came together and worked hard for our class, and in the end it has all paid off. We wish everyone the best of luck in the future.

Feature Presentation

Congratulations Class of 2005! Over the past four years you have matured and prepared for this day: graduation. Now, as you begin the next chapter in your lives, we wish you the best and greatest success in your future endeavors, but hope you come back and visit Chelmsford High School often during your travels.

These past four years we have enjoyed being your advisors, and we will keep many memories close to our hearts. We will remember the Harry Potter wall, Boxing-Glove Basketball, our Old Hollywood Cotillion, and our bittersweet senior week. Without your spirit and support, these memories wouldn't have happened. We want to thank you for being part of our lives and making our job a rewarding experience. We would especially like to thank the Class Officers and Class Representatives for sacrificing their personal time and their endless efforts to benefit the Class of 2005. We will miss you all.

Love,

IN LOVING MEMORY
Thomas J. McCumber

One gift, above all others
 God gives to us to treasure
 One that knows no time, no place
 And one gold cannot measure.
 The precious, poignant, tender gift
 Of memory that will keep
 Our dear Thomas ever in our hearts
 Although God gives him sleep.
 It brings back long remembered things
 A song, a word, a smile
 And our world's a better place
 - - - because
 We had him for a while!

Maybe

by Danielle Walsh

Maybe if I had said something,
 Maybe if I had stepped in
 Maybe if I had looked closer,
 Maybe this wouldn't have even begun
 Not this time, not with you.
 Maybe if someone had told me,
 Maybe if I had seen your act right through
 Maybe this wouldn't have happened
 Not this time, not to you
 It's probably too late now,
 And I wish I could tell you
 That if you had just come to me,
 I would have seen you through
 But it's much too late now, yes, it's true
 For here I stand, within earshot of you
 But my cries will never reach your ears,
 And because of this,
 My heart is torn in two
 It's too late for action,
 And feels too soon for goodbye
 So maybes come and go,
 And then I'll surely cry
 Goodbye, dear friend, Goodbye

Mommily wommily - We're strong enough to get through anything... Thank you for being not only the best mom I could ask for, but also for being my best friend too. We've been there for each other through some pretty rough times, and I have to say, you're my hero... Love you Mom!

Dad- as much as I would like you to think that I'm all grown up, I would like nothing more than to be a little girl again, and to have you read to me before bedtime and have our little talks like we always did...Thanks for that, Dad, Love you

Jamie - you've taught me so much about life: how to see the beauty the world has in store... we've been through so much growing up, it's hard to believe how far we've come...and I wouldn't have wanted to share it with anyone else! Thanks Jame...love you!

Nonnie - I have to say thank you, not only for being such an important part of my life, but also for being such an important part of my mom's life. I am so lucky to have her, and I know she is the person she is because of you. You have made me a much better person, and my life has been so much happier because you were in it. You'll always be with me ... Love you Non!

Steen - we've known each other since...forever, and we'll ALWAYS be best friends. It's nice to have someone who understands me and all my weirdness...and is weird too! Good luck in everything you do!
Love you Steen!

SO MUCH TO CELEBRATE

Lights, Camera, Action

Girls' Cross Country

On November 20, 2001 we stood shoulder to shoulder with the finest cross country runners the 10,555 square miles of Massachusetts had to offer. We had all been on the line before, and that day, the seven who found themselves lucky enough to represent their team, knew that twenty five others had helped them through six months of training, culminating in this race. There are no sidelines in this sport. We had encountered much opposition, but always rose to overcome it. Through the summer months, we fought ourselves, tested our will, motivation, and drive; we conquered searing summer days when we skipped the beach and postponed the popsicles to hit the streets for a run. We succumbed to the crazy notion of 6am practices (they were fun?). We went to camp, ran a little, frightened a few hundred fellow campers from the northeast region, popped E-Doss' first blister (tear), won the triathlon, met a few friends, a few future husbands, and some nuns, endured a week's worth of camp food, and yes, we got superfreaky. At the outset of the season, we battled with our prospects. We had a title to defend, and we were met with the realization that we would need to come together to do so. The pack was born with the unleashing of Apis, who was guided by a mirage of Victor in every race. The former 'tree huggers' decided that they had both a voice box and a larynx, and that the trees were not as good of friends as other human beings. One former hugger got a little too comfortable with human interaction. Both huggers improved drastically throughout the season. Apis might have felt the trees were a tad lonely with the absence of their huggers, so she spoke to them readily, sometimes in Spanish if they were lucky. Kate and Pis, b found and lost Pierre, and spent endless hours impressively choreographing four beats of song with a move akin to the spirit finger. Tiana was always ready to work up a sweat. The TP queen re-claimed her throne. Marlee had an unbelievable senior season, taking on the challenge of stepping into a gap, running her heart out in every race. The professor was a constant optimist and a hard-working, four year veteran. Miss and Liz Cha-cha-boo-chieid their way through the season, but Liz actually abandoned her pon poms and ran a race. Thanks for a great season. We love you and will miss you all,

Meg & Christine

Boys' Cross Country

Boys-

Thanks for an awesome season. An 8-1 record is very impressive. Everyone worked hard and gave it their all every race. No one ever complained, from 8-mile Crane Trains to pull-ups and "reg-lifts." We also had a good time with things like hasseling "Baker," and the very competitive leaf game. You guys are looking good for years to come. Keep working hard, and remember "NPA." P.S. "e" 2.8 mile races aren't for girls.

Your captains,
Jon and Phil

Senior Captains Jon Kalinoski and Phil Slabine and Coach Jim Durkin lead the Lions through a strong season with an overall record of 8-1. The Lions placed third in the Conference meet and finished fourth in the Division 1 State meet.

GIRLS' SOCCER

Ladies, in our four years of High School, we have never been so close with a talented group of girls as we were this season. We had our ups and downs, but we proved to everyone that we could do it, and we did. We are so proud of all of you! Don't ever forget Laura's crash with the goal post, Trish's huge amounts of food and KELLYYY!! Bick's juggling skills and the bee costume, and Mandy's car crew and the...dead squirrel? Also, remember to always beep beep wave when you see pedestrians. And if you ever have heartburn, just ask Banana for turns. Ash beats up goalies and shoots her shot rockets and thanks a ton, Mango, who kept us from doing more foundations at practice. Braids done by Cecca always meant good luck and Kirsten never held back from telling us about her BAD days. Elise wanted to be the sister that made the good cookies while Abby miraculously scored 2 goals in 1 minutes. And last but not least, don't forget how Annie's vampire laugh made you laugh for hours. We have sooo many more good times that could fill this whole yearbook, but we'll leave you with the best of luck next year and that we LOVE YOU GUYS!! On 2 together...

Girls' Swimming & Diving

What can we say,
 Our season rocked,
 From the second we flew off the starting blocks.
 Finishing 11-2 in the MVC, not too bad,
 Along with all the good times we had!
 Remember hell week, 12 x 200's, and "frog-filled" Russell Mill,
 Lactates, AB, and our pasta dinner's fill.
 We'll miss our swimmies and divers forever,
 But just remember we're 3rd place in the state and always getting better!
 So keep swimming on,
 Take care of Mrs. Kinnet, Kelley, and Josh,
 And never forget to show AB who's boss!

Football

Ten years from now, people are going to look back on this season and ask, "How did they do that? How did they go from 0-2 with only one returning starter, to winning ten straight games and making it to the superbowl?" Well anyone who knows anything about Chelmsford football will have the perfect answer to that: "It's Chelmsford, it's tradition." High school football is on full tilt here in Chelmsford, winning 5 straight league titles. Keep up the tradition, underclassmen, and make it six! The memories we made this past season are going to stick with us for the rest of our lives and are going to be some of the best we've ever going to have. Nothing will compare to the come-from-behind win against Andover and sending the Indians back down 129 with their tails between their legs.

Those of you who weren't on the team...you just wouldn't understand.

Meghan Suzanne Curran

Meg, determination, strength, discipline, purpose, these are all words that describe you. Remember when you and Erin were little, and Dad and I would set up obstacle courses around the yard, and you guys would race around the house? That was your first race at the age of 5. We always knew you would do great things. We are so proud of all the things you have accomplished. Most importantly the person you have become. Always be yourself and continue to seek and find perfection in everything you do. Strive always for the best, you truly deserve it. Keep that fiesty spirit and that wonderful passion you have for things that are important to you.

Reach for the stars Meg ... just might find a universe.

We love you,
Mom and Dad

CONGRATULATIONS PEGGY

PEG OF MY HEART

You have been called this
More than once or twice
The saying is so true
For it is so precise

The goodness you possess
Comes shining through
In all the things
That you do

You're kind heart, and playful spirit
Are only a couple of reasons
People are drawn near it
Independent, honest and straight-forward too
Are just some of your attributes
That make you, you.

Good luck and God bless you
In all that you do
Peg, your one of a kind
Babe, we love you. "Nana"

Forever, Mom, Dad, Corey, & Darsi

MEGHAN CURIRAN

Meg,
My partner in crime, it's difficult to convey what an important person you are to me and how proud I am of all of the success you have embarked upon. Your dedication to winning in every realm and your selfless leadership skills has spawned that same dedication in everyone around you, and because of that, the Cross Country banners that now attire the gymnasium walls, hang there because of you. Good luck in college next year, I have no doubt that you will continue to attack every endeavor with your same passionate dedication and perseverance. Just know I'll always be there to cheer you on. Chelmsford High School only got to have you for four years, but I get to be your sister for a lifetime. I consider myself so fortunate to call you my sister; but even more fortunate to be able to call you my friend, my best friend.

"Watching" the World Series with Warren 1986!

Colleen:

*You have brought us pride in so many ways
Now we'll recount the best of the days*

*When you were small you had silky long hair
"Locks" to this day, you still handle with care*

*You treasured a bunny you slept with at night
"Don't take him away or I'll put up a fight"*

Some kids drag a blanket 'til they are quite old Colleen doesn't sleep without bunny to hold

*At the age of seven you discovered your voice
Uncle John's wedding, your debut of choice*

*How many teens can say that they've sung
For President Clinton and crowds by the ton*

*For thousands of fans at Fenway Park
At Gillette Stadium you too made your mark*

*It's safe to say singing's your passion
Then next comes make-up, jewelry and fashion*

*Oh how the years they have flown
You're a young woman, my how you've grown*

A Fenway all-star - 2004 !!

Colleen Ferry, 17, a senior at Chelmsford High School, sings the national anthem at Fenway Park in Boston on Sunday before the game between the Red Sox and the Texas Rangers. It's the fourth time she has sung "The Star-Spangled Banner" at Fenway.

*The places you've traveled, the things you have seen
The Pope in Italy and Vineyard so green*

*Family vacations, sunrise and sunset
A boxer named Holly, the family pet*

*Nana and Warren, Mom and Cait too
Uncles and Aunts, all so proud of you*

*As your high school years come to a close
What comes next, we can only suppose*

*At eighteen years old, you've got so much ahead
And you'll fondly look back on these times that you led.*

Lauren Margaret Gauthier

Dearest Lauren,

"I hope You Dance"

(Ronan Keating Lyrics/ Le Ann Womack Song Lyrics)

"I hope you never lose your sense of wonder,
You get your fill to eat but always keep that hunger,
May you never take one single breath for granted,
God forbid love ever leaves you empty handed,
I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean,
Whenever one door closes I hope one more opens,
Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance,
And when you get the choice to sit out or dance,

I hope you dance.... I hope you dance,

I hope you never fear those mountains in the distance,
Never settle for the path of least resistance
Living might mean taking chances but they're worth taking Loving might be a mistake but it's worth making
Don't let some hell bent heart leave you bitter
When you come close to selling out reconsider
Give the heavens above more than just a passing glance,
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance...

I hope you dance.... I hope you dance...
Dance....."

As you graduate, I know you will dance.
For the "dance" of life is in the journey, not the destination;
Take time to enjoy the exciting journey that lies ahead.
You have given me much joy and you are much loved.

We will always be here for you.
God bless and keep you along your journey of life...

DANCE!

With much love, Mom

Lauren,

As your little, big sister, I have always felt I was supposed to be the role model for you to follow, but I think we have it a little backwards. You are the one I look up to with admiration and much respect. So strong, smart, brave, loving, I could go on forever, those are just a few of the hundreds of amazing qualities you possess. I only wish the best for you because that is what you deserve. Thank you for being my role model, my best friend, and my sister:

Denise McClure

Denise,

It's tempting to say that now your life really starts - because in a way, that's true. But that would fail to acknowledge all that you've already accomplished. We're proud of you for many reasons, but our biggest hope is that you'll grow to be proud of yourself. You'll make mistakes like we all do, but you'll be worthy of forgiveness like we all are, so remember to forgive yourself. We love your strength, your generosity, and your sense of humor. But most of all, it's your integrity and appreciation for what is just, that makes you most special. An old Led Zeppelin song goes: "I live for my dreams and a pocketful of gold." That's great; but we hope your dreams make the dreams of others come true too. Knowing you, that would make you even happier.

We're honored by your love,

As Ken and I sit here and write you this letter, we realize you are ending a wonderful chapter in your life and starting an even better one, and we are so proud of you. As we watch you grow day by day, I realize you're not my little girl anymore, the little girl I used to drive to dancing and softball, or the little girl that used to say no when it was time to go to bed. Ken doesn't see that pre-teen that came into his life at the age of 12 with her little attitude. What we see now is a young woman that has made us proud. You have become a young woman that has conquered all the negatives in her life with family issues, a move out of a city that you grew up in, adapting to your new surroundings with optimism and confidence. Sam you have become a winner, yes a winner. You have accomplished things that most people will never know. You have taken on responsibilities that most people wouldn't, and you have always tried your hardest at whatever you have done. As we write this today we watch you on your journey into a college education, a career, and many other future endeavors that will cross your path. Ken and I can honestly say, we are not worried about your future because we know as parents how strong willed and disciplined you are. We are so proud to watch you enter this new chapter in your life, Sam, and please know we are here to support you all the way. Always remember no matter what you accomplish in life or all the people you influence, you will always be that special little girl that we dropped off at dancing or that pre-teen that wanted to be a great softball player. You will always be that strong willed young woman that made it in life and overcame negativities from the past. We love you Sam and again are so proud of you. We hope that you had a wonderful senior year and look forward to all your future achievements because knowing you, there will be many more. Good luck sweet-heart, and always remember how proud we are of you and how much we love you. We love you.

May the good lord be with you
Down every road you roam
And may the sunshine and happiness
Surround you when you're far from home
And may you grow to be proud
Dignified and true
And do unto others
As you'd have done to you
Be courageous and be brave
And in my heart you'll always stay
Forever young

May good fortune be with you
May your guiding light be strong
Build a stairway to heaven
With a prince or a vagabond

And may you never love in vain
And in my heart you will remain
Forever young

I'll be hoping that I served you well

You have always had such big dreams for your life and such a strong desire to be of service to this world of ours, to increase the happiness, welfare, and virtue of humankind. Bean, follow your dreams, be proud of your convictions, and love whatever you do; in this, you will have lived life to its fullest and had much happiness.
