The 2011 Lion

Mr. Russo has done an amazing job as one of our Class Advisors and has helped our class reach all of its goals.

He gives all he possibly can to his students.

Mr. Russo is a great teacher that runs his class so that we like it but still learn things.

Throughout the past 27 years working at Chelmsford High School Mr. Russo has spent the time and effort to make every student that he talks to succeed in whatever they do. Not only is he an awesome teacher but he is also a wonderful advisor, a great coach, and an even better person to be around. He joined our other class advisors this year with everything from helping plan events to letting us use his room for Class Reps meetings. If you ever need anything Mr. Russo is the guy to go to, maybe just to brighten your day or maybe to be that ear that listens and gives you advice. We at CHS are proud to have someone as helpful, caring, and trustworthy as Mr. Russo.

Teacher Dedication

How do we describe Mr. Russo....

Mr. Russo has been involved in the CHS community for 19 years from coaching in the beginning to teaching now.

Whether you're a freshman, sophomore, junior, or senior, the class reps work hard to make sure each class has something to be proud of. Even if it's the freshman completing their first spirit wall, or the seniors putting the finishing touches on prom and senior week, all the class representatives want is for everything to FALL INTO PLACE.

Winners

Cara Galica, Megan DeNovellis, Brittney Decicco, Jackie Donovan, Liz Baraldi, Erin Corbett, and Ally Knightly pose in various costumes.

Whitney Doiron, as a Keebler Elf, is quite content with her cookie in hand.

The resemblance is clear, Pat Doherty is almost identical to his father, Dean Doherty.

Danielle Candelieri, Hannah Schulze, David DeNovellis, Amy Sennott, and Ashley Pieciewicz pose as monkeys in a barrel.

Jenny Proscia is looking snazzy with one of her favorite hats and ties.

Don't let the skirts fool you, AJ Rotella, Jimmy Mace, and Pete Lawlor are tough ladies.

Above: Amanda Marcotte, Taylor West, Kasey Butler, and Nick Govoni are all looking fly, hitting up the dance floor and striking a pose.

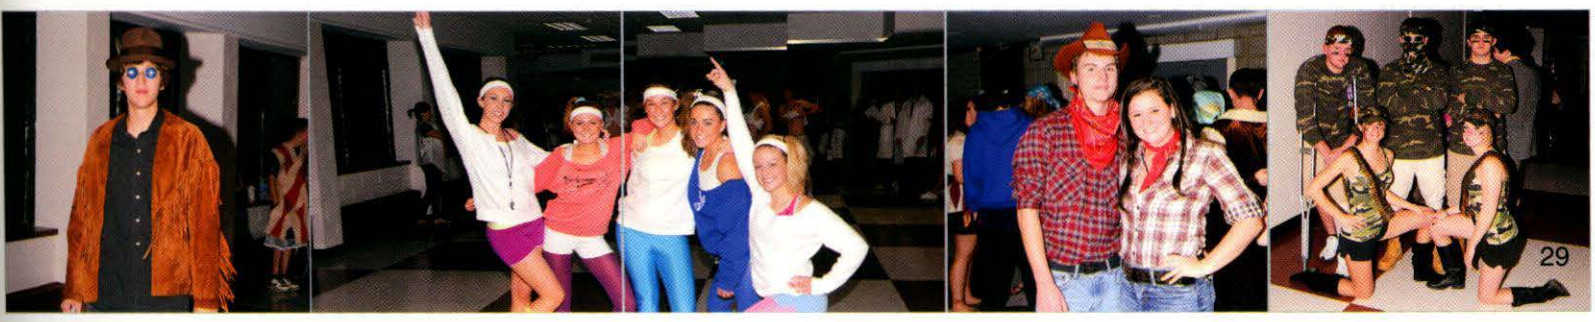

Brittany Smith, Hayley Rennie, Michelle Lamoureux, and Mollie Hamel are aliens from another planet, with their impressive costumes handmade by Mollie herself.

Justin Olson is a clear John Lennon look-alike in his retro outfit.

Kelsey Doherty, Rhea Urbaniak, Cara McCartin, Alanah Busby, and Meaghan Tuttle are getting some exercise in as they jazzercise.

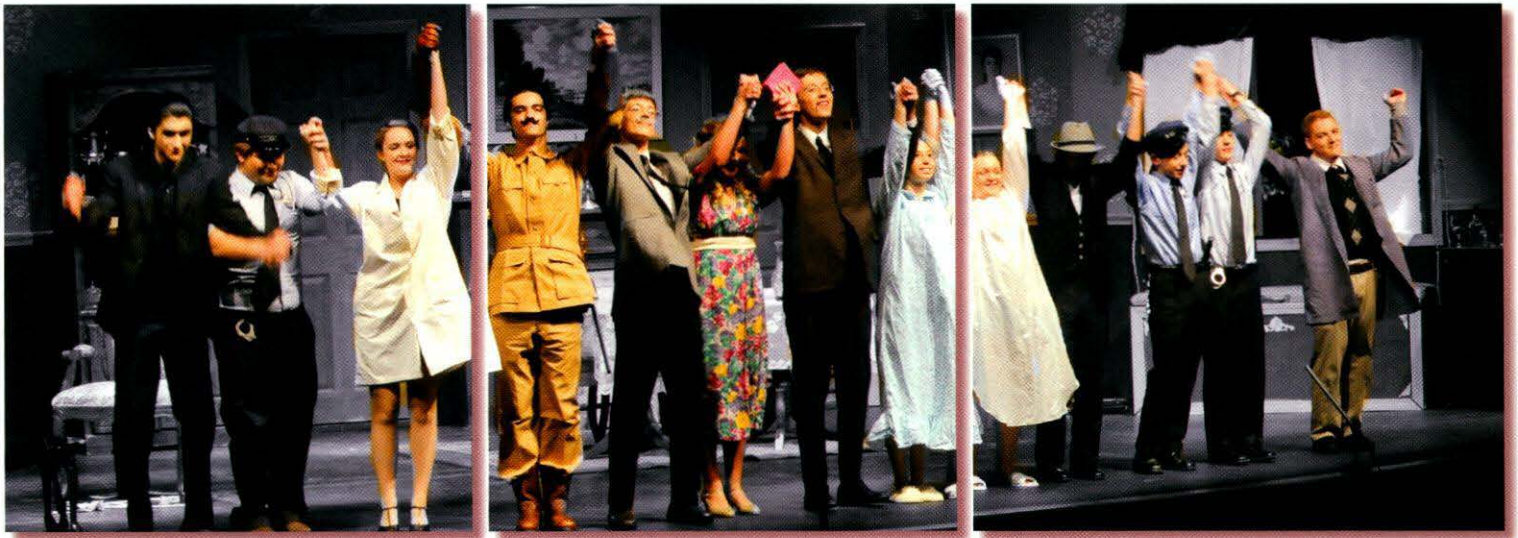

Brian Rose and Brittney Decicco are one good duo as they pose in their cowboy/cowgirl costumes.

Scott Morrison, Eric Cue, Collin Clancy, Ally Knightly and Cara Galica don't have trouble blending in with their Army attire.

Spirit Week

One of the definitions of falling into place is when things happen in a satisfactory way, without problems. Every year the whole school comes together with no problems in order to bring out the spirit from within. The spirit is expressed through the competition between classes to claim the ultimate title, spirit week champions. It starts with spirit days which this year included black attack, formal day, tie-dye day, and toga day. The competition gets really strong, especially when it comes to penny wars, spirit links, and the can drive. Those who wanted to give their class an edge in the competition attended the fall play of Arsenic and Old Lace. Every point counts, even when playing boxing glove basketball. To add a little bit more fun into this already special week, the spirit dance is held every year. The week ends with the best part of all, pep rally. Cheering your class to victory and also cheering on your fellow classmates to achieve goals in their sports really shows how spirit week causes students to fall into place at Chelmsford High. The Chelmsford Lions ended spirit week perfectly with a win against Billerica on November 25, 2010.

Senior Polls

Many said their most memorable CHS experience was all of the Spirit Weeks and Pep Rallies they attended.

An overwhelming number of seniors said that the friends they made in high school and the awesome staff are what they will miss most from their four years here.

Most seniors' obvious choice of favorite Spirit Week event is Pep Rally.

Majority ruled that Kiss 108 is the favorite radio station.

Seniors say that their favorite reality tv show is Jersey Shore.

Although we have many wonderful murals at CHS, the favorite of graduates the fish mural in the stairwell.

My funniest moment was rescuing Rob Massey from the science wing bathroom during Pep Rally '09!

My most embarrassing moment was having to go to the hospital after being hit by a yo-yo.

"To be great is to be misunderstood."
You have your way. I have my way. As for the right way, the correct way, and the only way, it does not exist.

Brianna Raymond winds up for a powerful kick.

Thanks girls for a memorable season. Although we might not have had the best record, we made up for it by running around Graniteville. We definitely had a lot of fun at the "pasta parties" as Coach called them. We came together as a team and bonded sharing a lot of laughs. Work hard and best of luck next year!

P.S. we are still waiting on the free ice cream.

*Dear Lovely Lady Lions,
Even with the recruit of only two freshman this year we definitely brought XC back-yeah! With team sleepovers, demolishing the boys on TP night, and a Bad Romance at Foss, (or should we say, a few good ones?) we became closer than ever this season. Even races couldn't separate us; our large pack was like no other, helping us to a nearly undefeated season. Everyone knows how hard it is to leave this team; ask Mr. Lang who just couldn't say no to another season! We'll always remember the crazy runs we've had with miles of smiles (especially from Casey).*

So good luck girls, and seniors: we're off like a herd of turtles...but the grove will always be our home <3

HAPPY BIRTHDAY LADIES!

We had an awesome and successful season. We made it all the way to the North Sectional Semi-Finals. Thanks for all the laughs and unforgettable memories. It wouldn't have been the same without each and every one of you...

Molly, did those quotes taste good?

Julie, thanks for always giving 100% even when Kendall didn't come to your team dinner.

Shelly always lead the sing-a-longs on the bus.

Jackie, our power hitter, you really stepped it up this year. Oh, and you dropped your pocket.

Meg the monkey or MS, always kept us entertained; and no, you can't sing the National Anthem.

Donovan blocked a boy, and it was amazing.

Was something funny Brooke?

Jen, we're so happy you joined our family this year, you really committed to your position.

Kristina and Lauren, stop gleeking on each other.

Shannon and Shelby, you're going to be great next year, good luck. Make us proud!

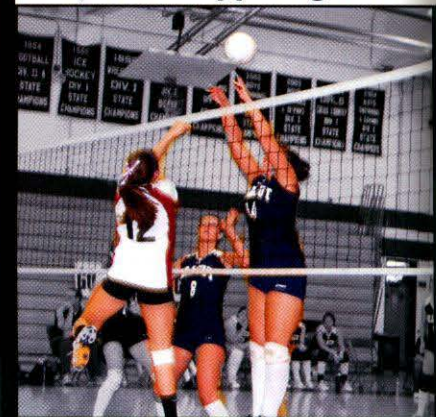

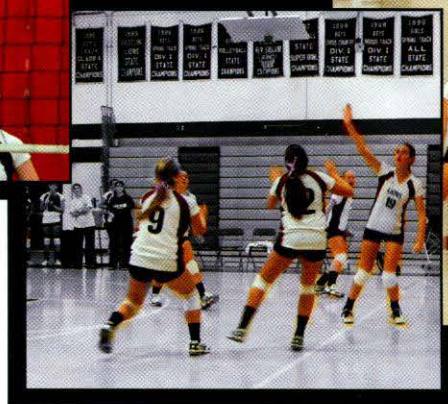

Dig Deep. We love you.

Girls' Swimming and Diving

Sophomore Nikki Santhana-krishnan eloquently dives into the pool.

From the heat of Hell Week to the cool of the pool,
Our team was more than ready by the first day of school.
From running for flamingos to blitzing around town
We knew it'd be hard for any other team to bring us down.
CHS dominated against AB, proving that Forever on the Dance floor we will be.

We sure were lucky our team was so strong because everything that could, seemed to go wrong.
But we were resilient when practice got tough, and kept on going when the going got rough.

Thanks to Mrs. Kinnett, Big Al, and Tom,
When it came to meets we were the bomb.
MVC's sure was a blast, showing the league that we could swim super fast.

At Sectionals and States we proved this once more, as our hard work showed when it came to the score,

Our crazy freshman were new, but they caught on fast,
And the sophomores proved they were a blast!

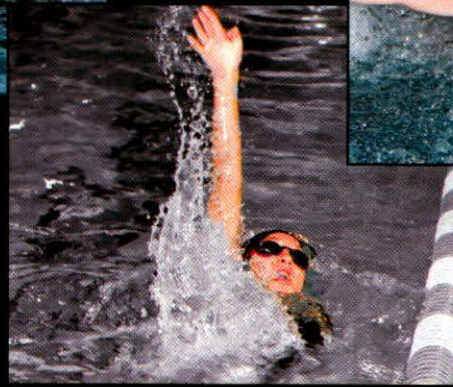

The juniors were small but mighty as ever
And seniors we will remember these four years forever.

Make us proud next year ladies, we love you!

Chs Marching Band

Hey Band!

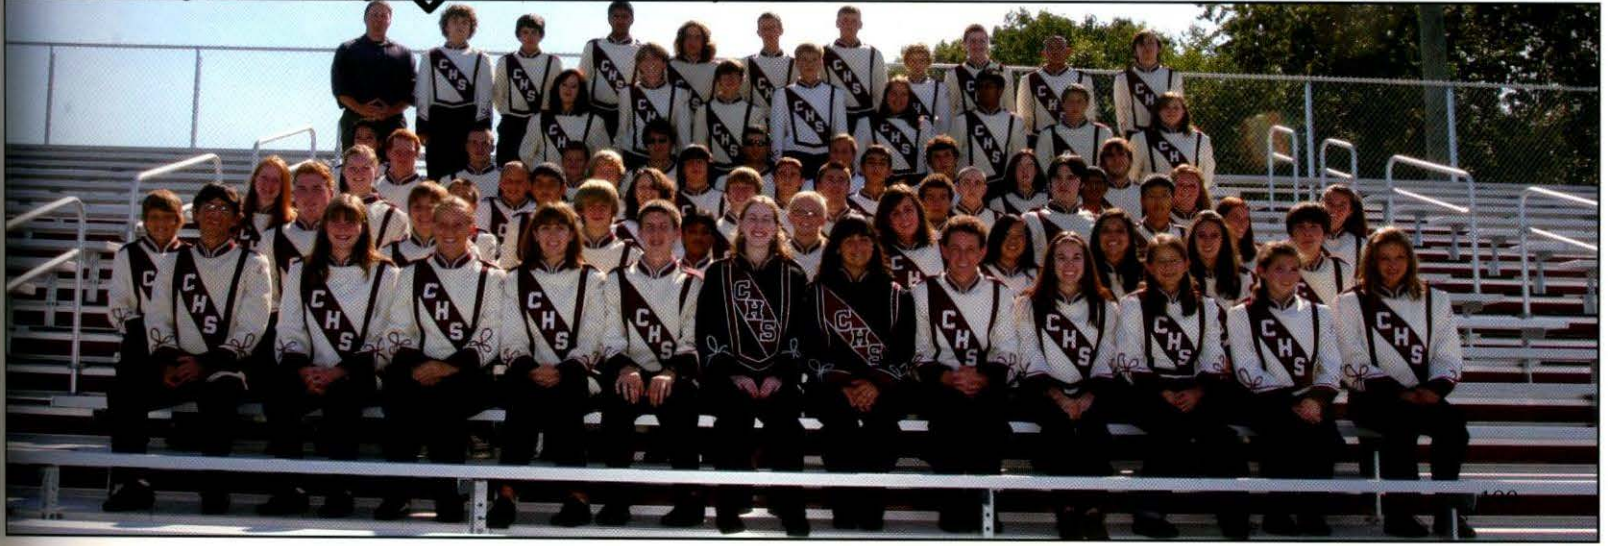

This season was Unbelievable . Was it the real life, or was it fantasy? :) Think about your performance at the end of band camp, and then think about Thanksgiving. It was cold, but you played, danced, and marched with intensity and enthusiasm like never before. You should all be so proud of yourselves. You have truly become a tight-knit band family. You have grown musically. And we aren't exaggerating when we say that you guys are the best band Chelmsford High School has ever seen. Throughout the season, we had audience members from both Chelmsford and the away teams singing along to Bohemian Rhapsody and raving about our halftime show. One woman even asked to shake our hands she was so impressed. You guys, however, are the ones who mesmerized the audience. YOU power our eyes with pride and make us love band. Because of each and every one of you, being a drum major has been the most rewarding experience either of us has ever had. It was the best feeling in the world to see all of your eyes filled with as much pride as ours.

Thanks for such a great season - do it again in the years to come! Although a new crop of bandos will enter the high school, band will never change. It is now your turn to make the band experience special for them. Just remember: BAND IS FUN! JUST. HAVE. FUN!

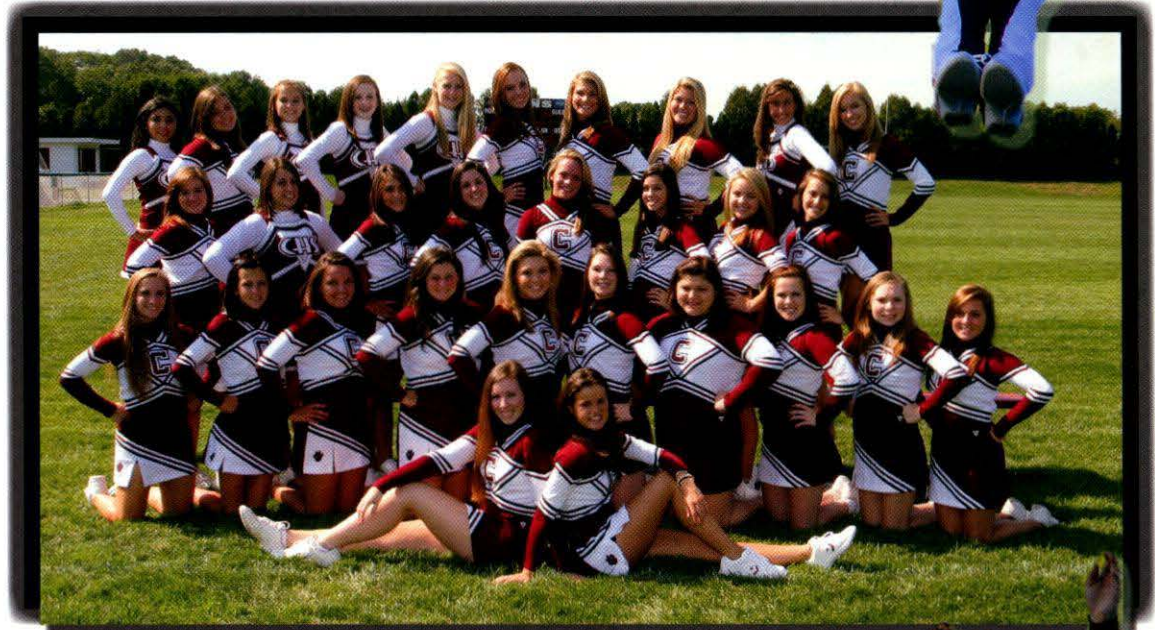

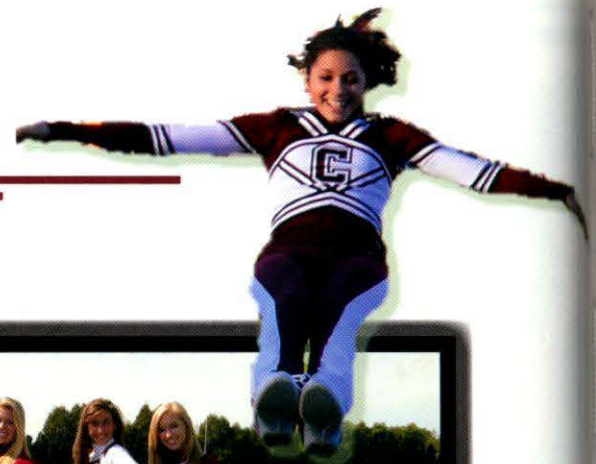

Eyes with pride,
Bre and Leah

ColorGuard: twirl it

Captain's Letter

Senior Ginny Walsh stands tall and twirls her flag.

Hey Guard,
I wanted to start by saying that I am so proud of the work you all have done this year. It has been an amazing experience to get to know you all. I'm glad that we've bonded as closely as we did and I hope next year you guys have plenty of movie nights and sleepovers and become an even closer team.

This year the shows we performed were fantastic, not because the band sounded good or the show included vocals and dancing, but because the Guard was together and performed amazingly. You all did so well keeping time and memorizing the routine. I never had to worry about anyone and you all helped each other become better twirlers.

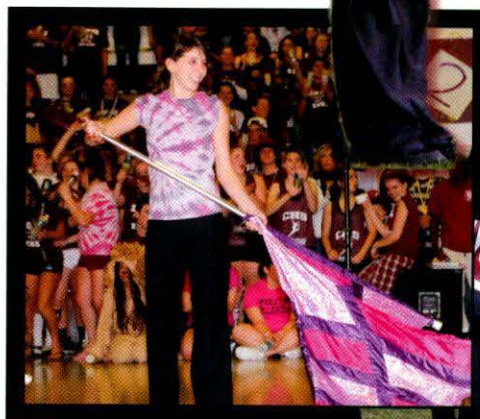

The flags looked stunning this year and the twirlers were a truly memorable sight. I was so happy to see the performance and to be apart of such a great team. I wanted to thank you all for naming me captain and giving me a year to remember. I also want to thank the coaches for creating wonderful routines and preventing me from really setting myself on fire.

I hope you all continue to do Colorguard and excel at it, I know you can! I'll always be there watching.

1...2...3... Guard, Guard, Guard, ha!
Love your Captain,
Ashley Groves

Hey Guard!
It was such a wonderful experience getting to know you all! You guys are the sweetest people I've ever met and I loved getting to know you this year. Remember, you can do anything you set your mind to! I'll miss you all and I can't wait to see your smiling faces on the field next year!

Girls Basketball

Junior Jen Janiak prepares to shoot a foul shot.

Ballers,
We had a GREAT season! We came a long way, from forgetting to bring balls to our first game to making States and earning MVC champs! And we'll always remember the great times we had, it wouldn't have been the same without each and every one of you!

Danielle, no matter what time practice was you were ALWAYS tired. Donovan if Shruthi can't get you into Yale, we wish you luck at Guinness University. Amanda's lucky maroon pre-wrap got us through some close games, but it wasn't lucky enough when it came to Alena's driving... It wouldn't be an away game if Kendra didn't forget something, Rach thank god "Sherrill" could drive to all those team dinner huh? Wait, did Beth walk to practice? We always tried to impress Shruthi with our immense vocabulary, Clancy is the fastest and will always be the fastest, but nice try Jackie. Abby never went hungry with all that food in her locker, and Maddie try not to get too embarrassed when your Dad yells at the reffs.

Love,

Hey Guys!

This season was filled with up's and down's peaks and valleys. But no matter what happened, win or lose, we were having fun just being together as a team. TK Warrior, the greatest dunker in practice and only practice. Nick Martin, concussed, but never skipped a beat. Zach "Z-money" Hayes, # 5 on the court, # 44 in our hearts. Arron Wilkus, who always put the coaches in a good mood. Ty Brown, the work horse of the team. Corey Evg, running the show and the player's captain. Colby Emanouil, always keeping the team loose with his practical jokes. T-Joy, always going out to kill the other team. Pat, who officially cannot miss threes. Matty Coughlan, here I'd like to apologize for your shoes and jacket. DJ B-rett, coming off the injury strong improving all year. EVG, your welcome for all the rides. And last but certainly not least, the fan favorite, our emotional leader, EDDIE MONEY!

To all the coaches, and especially you guys, my teammates, thank you for making this season something I will never forget.

Your Captain,
Matt Daniels

Gymnastics: go BIG or go home

Sophomore Aekta Shah competes.

It seems throughout the gymnastics team keeps getting smaller and smaller. Somehow, we still manage to go 10-1 with only about 8 of us competing. Although at times we were short gymnasts due to "ankle injuries", we stuck together as a team and worked hard so we were still able to come out with a win. We would like to thank Dawn for always keeping practice interesting...we will never forget those lovely conversations that would take up all of practice. Darren...spring break here we come! Good Luck girls next season and remember...we are who we are.

Ski Team

Susan McQuade rushes down the ski slope in a race.

To all of the CHS Skiers,

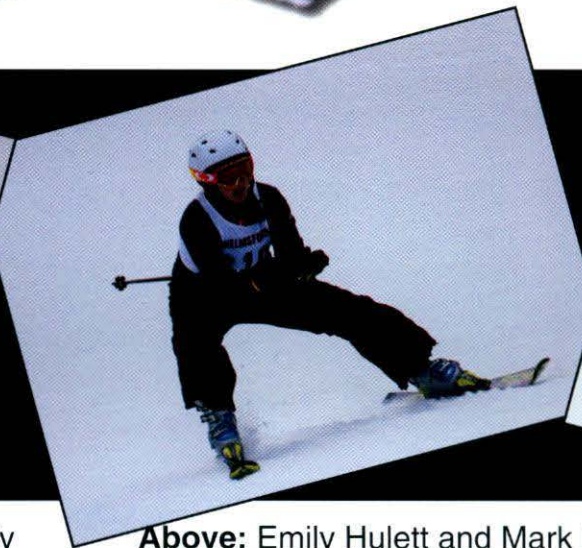

Congratulations on another successful season! Whether it was goofing off at practices while waiting for our turn, eating all the food before we raced, or acting out at Chili's- we created some great memories. We always managed to have a lot of fun and worked hard at the races as well.

As your captains, we are so proud of each and every one of you for putting forth your best efforts on the slopes. It was obvious to see how many of you pushed yourselves to move up a spot or two on the line-up each week. Thanks for everything, Coach King, we appreciate everything you did for us this season. Good luck next year to our newcomers and veterans, and especially to the upcoming captains. We'll miss you next season, but no worries- we'll be back to visit!

Love,
Alie and Anthony

Boys Swimming and Diving

Hey Guys!

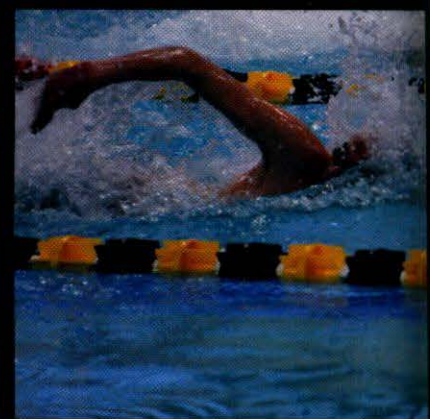

We will start by saying this season shows the value of teamwork and commitment. We began as a group of 33 boys with a wide range of swimming abilities and concluded as a team with a single goal and an enormous drive to win. Following the dual meet season, we went on to win the MVC Championship for the fourth year in a row and sent a large number of swimmers to Sectionals and States. A big thanks to our coaches, Tom Wright, Craig Vitale, and Allen "Big Al" Thomas who were at practice everyday helping us to improve. Good luck to the team next year and have a great season.

Defying Odds Means Everything.

Love,
Josh and Nicholas

Girls' Indoor Track

Sophomore Kristen Lahaise with her long stride was a vital member to the relay team.

Hey Trackies!
 It's definitely safe to say we had a pretty outstanding season; one of the most successful seasons in a while. We may not have won every single meet but we kept them all pretty close and had a bunch of girls go to States, All-States, and even Nationals! (congrats to you girls on the Nationals DMR team!) The thing that made us the most successful this year was that we were all focused and competitive; however, we also still remembered to have a great time and a had a great turn out for practices. (even on Christmas Eve and New Year's Day! haha) Thanks girls for such an amazing season! Love you all and good luck next year!

Shruthi Srinivas is looking intense on the field.

To the Bunch of Idiots:

We are such a dysfunctional family... together we fight, together we win, together we lose, and together we sing - and we look good doing it. When it's game time we can take it serious but we know how to have fun too. From the ribbons we wear in our hair to the massive amounts of food we eat both on and off the field, it's no surprise that we're the speediest team in the league (thanks to Richy and Lison). We win for the team, and not for ourselves. Go Lioons.

How 'bout that season,

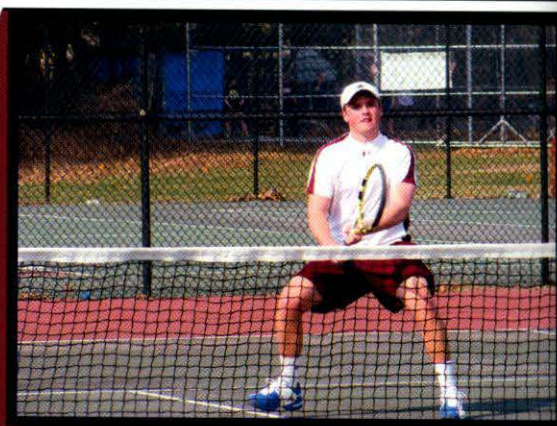

Rise above the expectations and finally defeated Andover for the first time in 10 years. Many kids came a long way which will definitely help the team next year because eight seniors are leaving. Special thanks to coach Shupe and his dedication to the team over the course of our years playing for CHS.

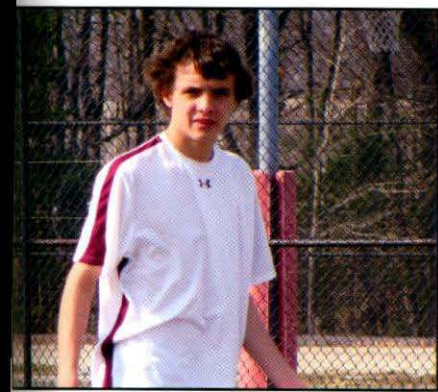

Good Luck next year,

Jared Ayotte

I hope the days come easy and the moments pass slow
And each road leads you where you want to go
And if you're faced with a choice, and you have to choose
I hope you choose the one that means the most to you

If one door opens to another door closed
I hope you keep on walking 'til you find the window
If it's cold outside show the world the warmth in your smile

More than anything, my wish, for you, is that this life becomes all that you want it to

Your dreams stay big, your worries stay small
You never need to carry more than you can hold
And while you're out there getting where you're getting to
I hope you know somebody loves you and wants the same things too
This is my wish

I hope you never look back, but you never forget
All the ones who love you, in the place you left
I hope you always forgive, and you never regret
And you help somebody every chance you get
I hope you find God's grace, in every mistake
And you always give more than you take

Our Love and Best Wishes to Jared Ayotte, Mom, Dad and Taylor

Colin Clancy

Dear Colin,

It is with great pleasure that we, Meg and Cam congratulate you on your graduation from CHS!!! From your perspective, it must seem like it took forever to get here. From ours, it seems like only yesterday that you made your grand entrance into this world...in the wee hours of the morning on the 4th of July almost 18 years ago. You came in with a very loud bang yet you emerged perfectly healthy and no worse for the wear. We breathed a sigh of relief and thanked God for the miracle we named Colin Patrick. Almost 18 years later, we're still thanking God as we take stock of the fine young man you've become.

Over the past 15 years, we've had the pleasure of watching you grow as a person, a student, and an athlete...as you evolved from that little 3 year old boy who "stole 2nd base" (literally) to the young man that played 2nd base at the HS level. Your dedication and perseverance have rewarded you well and we couldn't be more proud of what you've accomplished both on and off the field. Your quiet strength, gentle spirit, unassuming demeanor and great sense of humor have remained consistent throughout the years. These are virtues that make you a great teammate, friend, and such a treasured part of our family.

As you graduate, we want you to know that we are proud beyond measure of what you've accomplished and the wonderful person you've become. You have a bright future ahead of you and we're excited to watch it unfold for you. Look forward to it with a dime in your pocket and always remember that we love you...to everywhere and back.

Love always,

Mom and Dad

18 years... Where has the time gone? How can we begin to tell you how special you've been... Always a positive inspiration; Thank you! Michigan, a new home and friends, and you; always an encouraging voice; Thank you!

Three years later and another move, new school and friends.

At last back to Chelmsford for high school. Always a smile on your face; Thank you! We have enjoyed every hockey game, lacrosse game, little league baseball game, michigan soccer championships, and the many memories of waterskiing and lake fun.

Thank you for sharing your friends! So many great laughs, fun and memories!

Keep your incredible self confidence and positive attitude. It will carry you!

We love you so much!
Mom and Dad

Anthony Omobono

Holly Swissler

Holly,

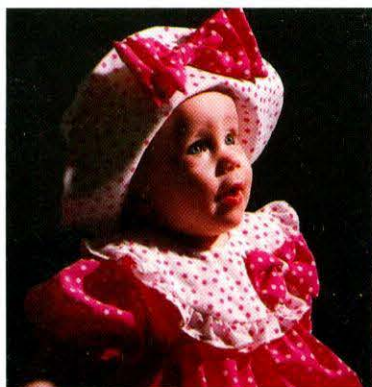

Congratulations on your graduation from CHS! All of your hard work and dedication has paid off. Mimi would be so proud of you and the person you have become. You are an amazing intelligent, funny, beautiful, thoughtful and caring young woman. I want to wish you luck as you begin the next chapter of your life in the fall when you head off to college. I hope you always follow your dreams, no matter where or how far away they may bring you. I will always be there to support you. Holly, reach for the stars and never change the person you are. You can accomplish anything you put your mind to and never let anyone tell you otherwise. Study hard, meet new people, have fun, and enjoy the next four years of college. I truly hope you make lasting memories and friendships that will remain with you forever. Thank you for being such an amazing daughter. I have cherished every second with you since the day you were born. I am so very proud of you!!

I love you,
Dad xoxo

Brendan McDonough

"While we try to teach our children all about life, our children teach us what life is all about."

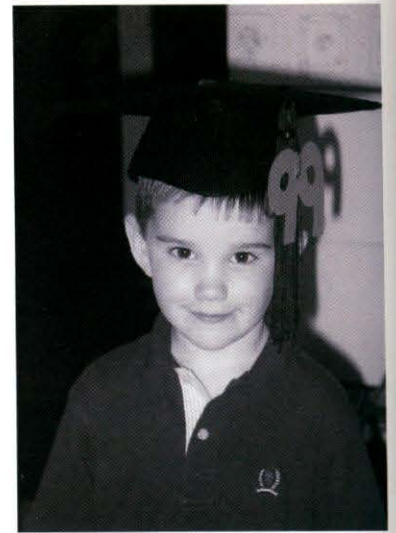

Brendan,

I could not have asked for a better son. I am so incredibly proud of the young man you are, and the young adult you are well on the way to becoming. Being mom to you and Kelly has been my greatest joy. You both have taught me so very much about embracing life through the darkest times. You are so much like your Dad with your compassion for others, your honesty and integrity, your genuine love of life as evidenced in that smile and your "from your toes" belly laugh that is so contagious! Your athletic ability and sportsmanship...just like Dad. You have lived your life like a baseball game...You have "never let the fear of striking out, keep you from playing the game." Watching you play has brought me such pride and joy...so continue to play smart, swing for the stars, run hard, steal those opportunities when they happen...the future is yours...GO FOR IT! And remember, I am your biggest fan and cheerleader, and #42 will always be with you.

We love you to the moon and back again.. always, Mom and Kelly

Andrew Arthur Loiselle

No words can describe the wonderful memories, the pride and the love that we have for you. You have made us all so very proud. There is only one person that can make you truly happy and that person is us.

Stay focused and have fun with the rest of your life. Laugh often, Dream Big, Reach for the Stars! We love you very much Drew and wish you the best in all you do.

Love your family,
Dad, Mom, Brianne and Matthew

Tara McMahan

Congratulations Tara!
We are so proud of all you have accomplished. We love you and wish you a successful future...

Love-

*In your eyes a special love shines back at me. And it shines for all who come to know what a special, caring and amazing young woman you have become. You've come so far, so fast-too fast for my liking- but you are on your way to so many great things. Know in your heart that I am so proud of you and I am with you every step of the way. I wish I may, I might, have you for eternity...
Love, Dad*

I've had so much fun watching you grow from a wide-eyed, talented freshman to a self-assured, successful senior with the potential to do amazing things. I can't wait to see what you can achieve as you take on the world. I know that if you believe in yourself like I believe in you, you can do whatever your heart desires. Remember that no matter where you go or what you do, I'll always be cheering you on. Lucky for me; friends come and go, but sisters are forever. Love you!
Lyssy

*My third granddaughter. but not so in her beauty and charm. Her winning smile and her compassion light up the darkest room. Not to mention her achievements in her academic and track record. Most of all I value her respect and values of life. A very proud grandmother.
Love and God bless.
Grammy*

Your sweet gentle nature, your steadfast determination, your impressive accomplishments, and your wonderful sense of humor have made me proud to be your mom. You are a special gift. Everywhere you go your positive energy and beautiful smile light the way. Always believe in yourself, follow your heart. May all of your dreams come true.
I love you forever and always,
Mom

You've been the greatest role model and friend from day one and all through our high school years together. I don't know where I'd be without you, but I really don't wanna know. I'm so lucky I had the privilege to be on the same team as you, and in the same family! And as you know, even when you move on to greater things and leave the team, I'm still on your side and together we'll always be a team. Wherever life takes you, I will be close behind, supporting you every step of the way. Go get 'em Kristi, I love you big sister!
Jennie

Congratulations! I'm so proud of you. Your accomplishments throughout high school speak for themselves, but what makes me happiest is your cheery optimism and passion for everything you do. You teach me so much through your drive and spirit. Follow your dreams; I can't wait to see where they take you!

Graduation is an exciting time to celebrate the lessons learned, adventures shared, and the special moments of yesterday. Tomorrow begins an incredible journey filled with infinite possibilities and exciting opportunities. Aim high, stay focused, and make it count. A challenging future will bring many rewards.

Remember that patience and perseverance have a magical way of making difficulties disappear and obstacles vanish. A goal is a dream with a plan and a deadline; and with your drive and determination, we know you will achieve any goal you set.

We wish you a lifetime of happiness and success. Have fun and laugh often. Also know that we are so very proud of you. Be true to yourself, follow your dreams, and don't forget the road home.

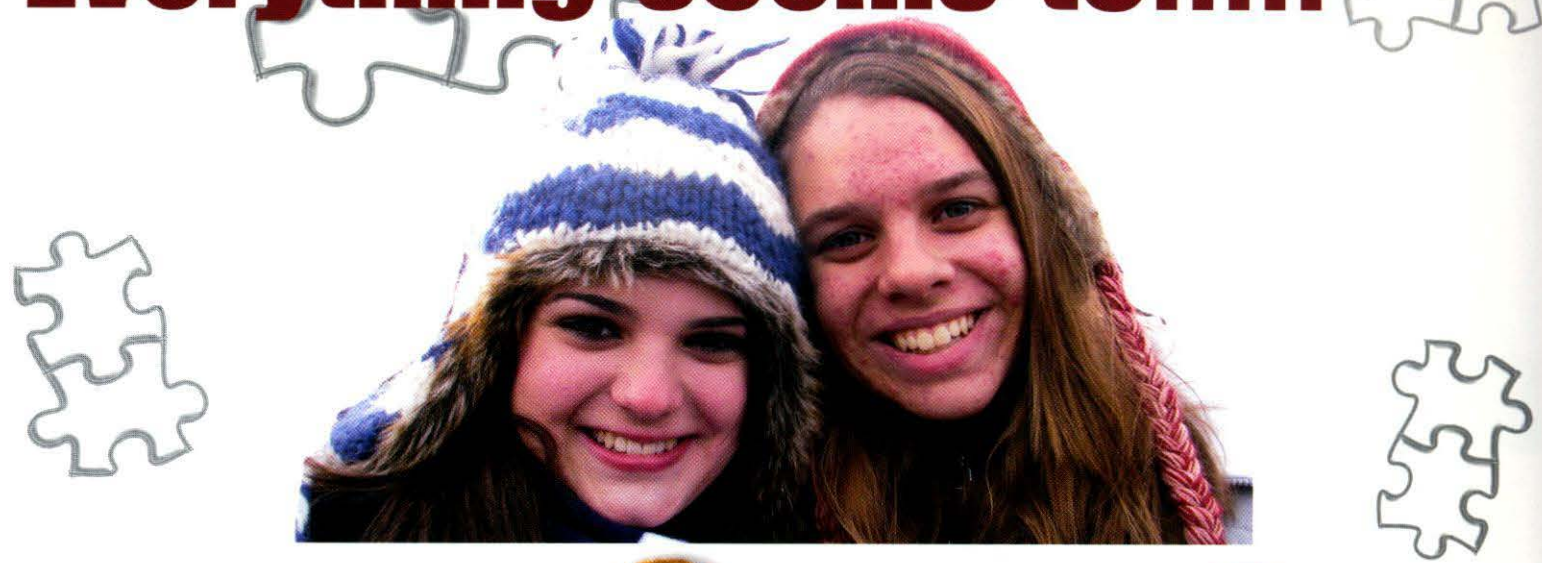

With all our love,

To the Yearbook Staff from Ms. Bickel

I would like to thank the 2011 yearbook staff for making my last yearbook as the advisor the best that it could be! It looks awesome! So much time and effort was put into this book and you can definitely tell. Good Luck next year! Thank you everyone!

To Ms. Bickel from the Yearbook staff

The yearbook staff would like to thank Ms. Bickel for everything that she has done for us this year. She has helped us every step of the way. She may have been retired this year but she was at the school when she could be or only one short phone call away. If she wasn't in the school she was at home always on the phone with Josten's, Joy, or Paul working the behind the scenes parts of the yearbook that you never really hear about. The advisors next year have some big shoes to fill. We will miss you next year, come back and visit. Good Luck Ms. Bickel!

From the Yearbook Staff to Paul Erasmus

The 2011 yearbook staff would like to thank our Josten's rep Paul Erasmus for everything that he has done throughout the year. He has been there for us through thick and thin. He has come to numerous 3 hour long meetings and has helped with every little thing that we could not figure out. He gave us advice that we loved and included in the book along the way. He always put up with us and never got aggravated no matter how many times we asked the same questions. So the yearbook staff would like to give a big thank you to Paul for everything that he has done! We could not have done it without your help and guidance.

To the Class of 2011 from the Yearbook Staff

CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF 2011! You did it; you are graduating high school! This year's yearbook staff put in HOURS of hard work, attended a TON of meetings, and completed LOTS of editing to make this yearbook for you. We hope that it sums up your senior year and helps keep those memories that were created throughout the year alive. How you experienced your senior year all depends on who you are, and where you fall. Where did you fall? Clubs, athletics, or theatre guild. High School all depends on where you fall! Remember, that with anything in life, things always seem to fall into place. Good Luck in whatever life brings your way!

To the Yearbook Staff from the Editors

Amanda, Jackie, Amber, Anthony, and Emily would like to thank the entire yearbook staff for all the hard work and dedication throughout the year. To be completely honest, there were points that we wanted to fire you all, but truth be told we could not have completed the book without you. You have spent hours making this book the best that it can be and it has definitely surpassed our expectations. We hope you enjoyed being a part of the yearbook staff this year despite the many sassy facebook messages you received or hours that you worked. We enjoyed working with you all. So, thank you for everything you guys have done this year. The book definitely looks amazing!! :) Good Luck to you all next year!

Lots of love,
The Editors :)
