Mr. Doherty has been an active member of the CHS community since he was hired as an English teacher in 1979. He became the Dean of Emerson House in 1995 and he has stayed in that position ever since. Many people may not realize that throughout his 34 years at CHS, Mr. Doherty has been a coach of the girls' soccer, indoor track and softball teams, and a class advisor. In addition to coaching at the high school level, Mr. Doherty has also coached youth soccer and softball in the community where he had many 2013 seniors on his teams over the years.

Lions win in a pitch

By GERRY CALLAHAN

WILMINGTON - The Chelmsford High softball team was one pitch away from possible elimination in the state tournament yesterday.

But instead they managed to nip Arlington, 4-3, in round three of the tournament to earn a crack at Merrimack Valley Conference foe Tewksbury in the finals of the Eastern Mass. Division 1 North Sectional.

The incident, which could have bounced Chelmsford from the tourney, happened just after pinch hitter Tracy Mitchell delivered a clutch base hit in the top of the seventh inning.

Chelmsford coach Joyce Bickel attempted to re-enter designated hitter Mary Sullivan as a pinch runner. Arlington complained that this violated the substitution rules, but after close scrutiny of the rulebook by the umpire, it was determined that it was only punishable if a pitch had been thrown.

Before play resumed, Chelmsford quickly corrected its near error, replacing Sullivan with "Dean Doherty is one of the biggest supporters at CHS. He is always at every event and supporting every team"

Students know that they can see Mr. Doherty about anything, and always leave with a handful of jolly ranchers and valuable words of wisdom.

"He was right when he said that my four years at high school will fly by"

"I feel that he really understands us"

"He's kind and never fails to show that he cares about our class"

"I can honestly say I've never heard a negative word spoken about him"

"He is an essential part of CHS"

"He has watched us all grow up and left impressions on many students"

"I don't know what the school would do without him...he keeps things under control"

"He has always been there to support our class and keep us in line in a positive way"

"He has dedicated so much of himself to us" why did you choose to nominate Mr. Doherty?

"He is fair to everyone and gives people the respect that he expects from them"

"He is always there for me when I need someone to talk to. He is so supportive"

"Because of the amazing advice and insightfulness he always provided me with"

meet the principal

Principal Caliri with Dean Gallante, Dean Doherty, and Dean Blagg

mr. caliri joined our community this year when he took over for retiring principal o'bryant. he is a 1990 graduate of chs.

what is your favorite memory as a student at chelmsford high? there are so many memories, it's hard to pick one. the common denominator in all of these memories was that they were special because of the people i was with, and the friends that i made. that was the nice part about chs...still is. because of the traditions, the pride, and the support in the community, you are always made to feel part of something special. and you never forget. just today i was walking out of the building, and i ran into a former classmate i hadn't seen in ten years. we just started chatting like it was yesterday. those connections, i'll never forget.

did anything surprise you about your first year here? i've been amazed with how respectful, welcoming, and committed our students are to one another, this school, and this town. what speaks the most to me is the outpouring of support and selflessness that our student body and faculty demonstrate in support of people in need. from the tragedy in sandyhook, to the fire at woodcrest, to the support of a student battling disease, the school community never ceases to impress, amaze, and surprise me.

what is your favorite part of the position as principal? interacting with the students. whether it's through casual interactions in the hallway, classrooms, or at drop-off in the morning, or more formal celebrations such as the student of the month lunches or other awards ceremonies, the best part of my job is being able to see students. it grounds me, and reinforces our collective commitment to all of your success.

what is your favorite tradition here at chs? this is a tough question. there are so many traditions here at chs. in my first year back as principal, i think that there are two that stick out for me most. first, the nhs induction ceremony brought back so many memories for me - the candle lighting, the maroon robes, the encircling of the pac...it is really quite special. secondly, and most importantly, chelmsford pride is still alive and well at chs. students, faculty, and community members all believe in this place, and proudly wear their maroon and white in support of all things chelmsford. it's really a special place, and continues to amaze me.

is there anything you would like to say to the class of 2013? you're my first graduating class, and i will always cherish and remember you. you've made me feel welcome. you've heeded my request from the very beginning about being the model citizens of this school. when i've asked you to step up and take on more leadership and responsibility, you've met every expectation. given your accomplishments here, and the legacy you've created, i have the utmost confidence in your future success. you have made me proud, and i wish you well. congratulations, class of 2013, and thank you for all that you have taught me in my first year.

A trick of the eye

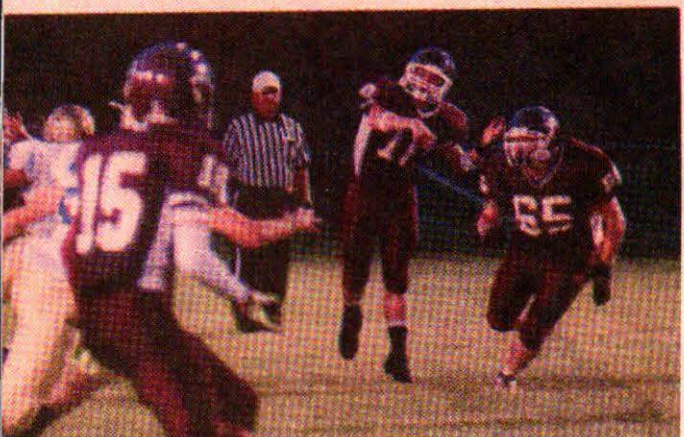

Over the summer, Chelmsford High School senior and part student Emily Moreau created a beautiful "window" mural in the principal's secretary office at the high school. This mural is a "trompe l'oeil," which is French for an artwork that fools the eye. Her realistic and convincing mural appears to open up the cinder block wall through a window that reveals the CHS front hallway on the other side. Emily plans to study art for a future career.

Lions still fearsome

Chelmsford field hockey squad MVC power again

By Caroline Frengillo

CHELMSFORD — The roster changes from year to year, but the list of goals for Chelmsford High's field hockey team heading into a season never varies.

Under the direction of long-time head coach Maura Devaney, the Lions have been consistent winners, routinely challenging for the Merrimack Valley Conference title while always qualifying for the state tournament.

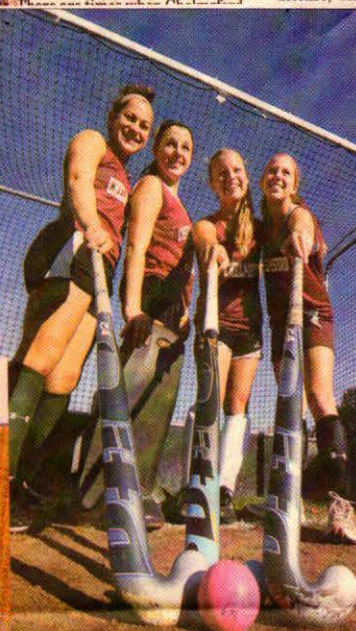

Devaney has been calling the shots on the Lions' sideline for 16 seasons, guiding Chelmsford to six league titles. Few field hockey programs in the area even match the Lions' sustained tradition of excellence.

There have been many memorable autumn runs for the Lions, who have made the state tournament exit every season for over two decades. While winning is the norm in Chelmsford, this fall's edition of the Lions has been playing as if it's been touched by magic.

With only four seniors on the team, the blend of experience of veteran maturity and youthful exuberance has enabled Chelmsford to head into the home stretch of the regular season with a 12-1 overall record and a 10-1 shot in MVC Division 1.

"We're very happy about our success this year," said Devaney. "I speak with the girls and tell them to enjoy this and the excitement that comes with winning some big games. But they have to remember that team was 1-4 during the regular season last year. We've been in the state tournament for at least 21 straight years and it may be even longer. I just haven't looked into it."

"We have an awful lot on tradition to build from. Not just on winning, but the traditions that make this program so successful. All the player-work players get at the beginning of the season, every player has a quote about our tradition and all of the records. So they see it on everything."

a message from the advisors

mr. acheson & mr. fall

letter from the Prez

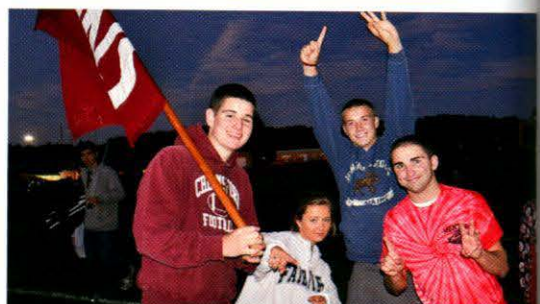

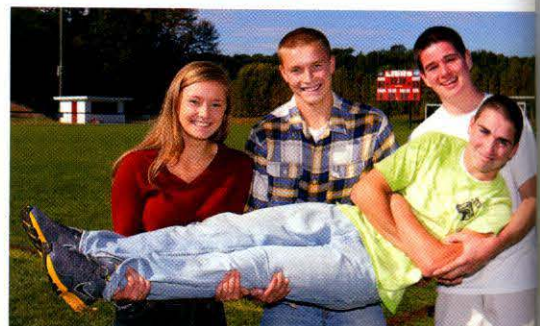

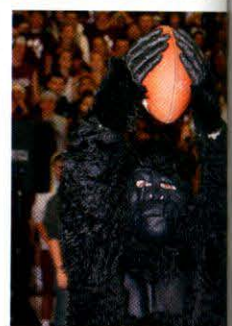

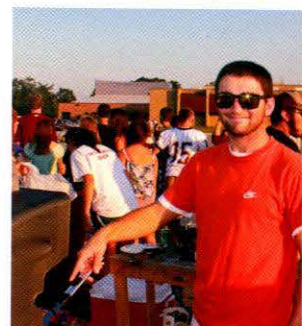

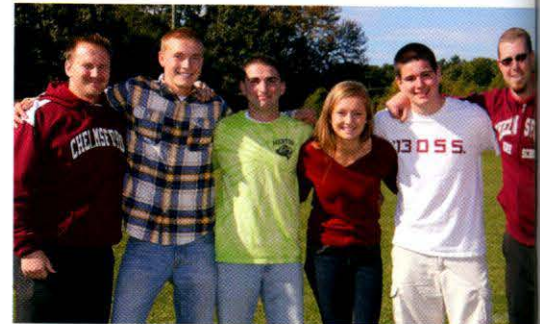

To the class of 2013,

We did it! Four years ago we couldn't even imagine that this day would come, but it finally has and now we're all wondering where the time went. The memories we've made and experiences we've had will never be forgotten. Who could forget that amazing comeback to dominate spirit week? Or that Night at the Oscars? We've certainly left our mark at CHS, whether it be through tradition or paint on the floor in Mr. Falls' room! Being elected by you guys was such an honor and it was a truly wonderful experience to help you have a memorable senior year. I just wanna say thank you SO much to Mr. Acheson, Mr. Fall, and Mrs. Kender. Those nights spent at the school till 10:00 and the endless fundraisers couldn't have been done had it not been for you three.

To Ben, Craig, and Mary none of what we accomplished this year would have been possible without you guys. I genuinely could not have asked for three better people to work with. Even though times got rough and stressful, we managed to do it. Finally, to the class reps, THANK YOU! The four officers couldn't have done this alone. Congratulations Class of 2013! Remember to keep your head up because you'll always be '13osses!

With Love,

Daniel Pires

To the members of the Chelmsford High School Graduating Class of 2013:

Four years ago, most of you walked into Chelmsford High School as small, timid children not knowing what to expect. From there, the world began to open up to you. You have become pioneers, adventurers, and leaders as you have overcome many challenges.

As freshmen, many of you started off unsure of who you were as a student, a person, and as a class. As part of your growth, you didn't sit back and watch as things changed around you but you got involved. As you progressed into your sophomore year, you showed maturity by your increased activity within the school. Many of you began participating with Class Reps, Theater Guild, Music, Sports, and other activities. Your junior year, you saw a culture change. PLUS block changed, school dances changed, and the school went through the NEASC process. Most importantly, you as a person changed. A vision of your future became more evident. Thoughts of what will happen to your life after high school began to take shape. You began to understand your role in the school as a student, as a person, and as a class. Leadership was now something you were starting to take on.

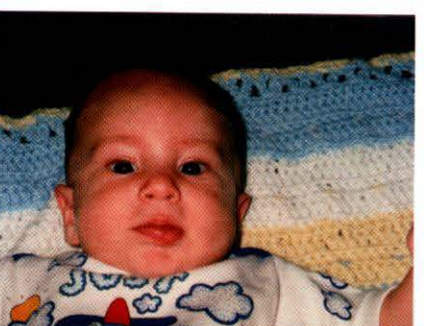

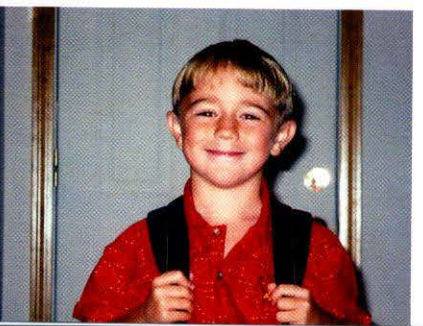

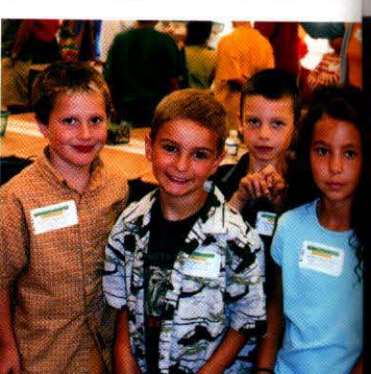

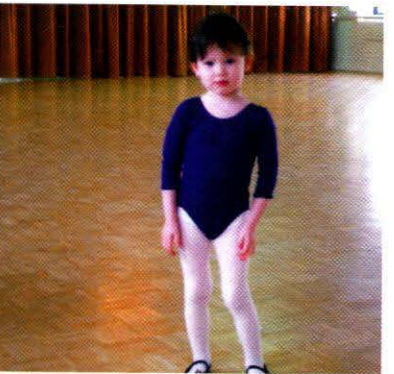

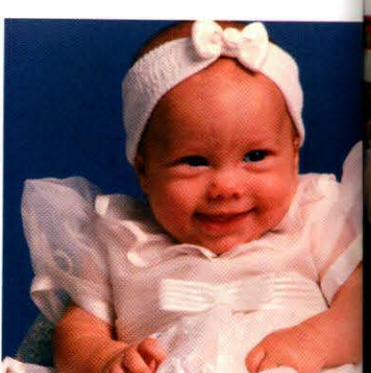

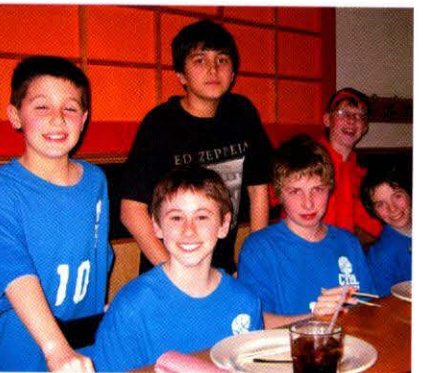

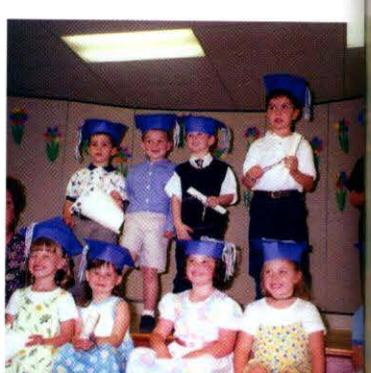

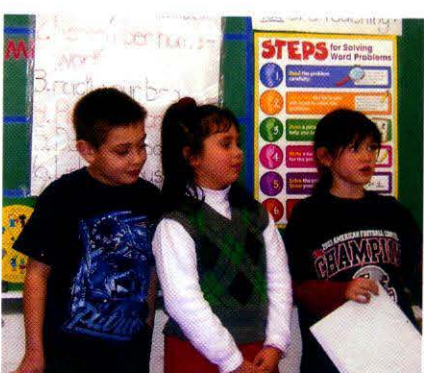

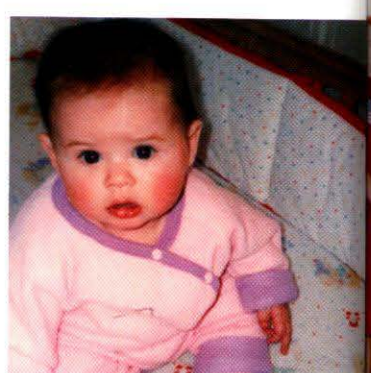

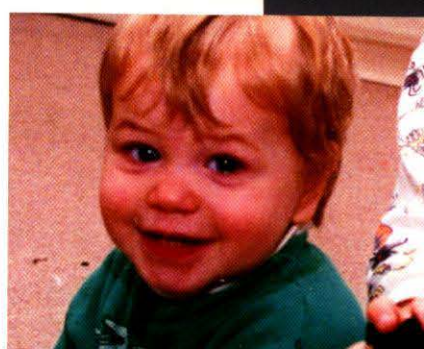

Change did not stop as you became seniors. Mr. Caliri joined the school as the new principal. The pure nature of being the eldest students in the school forced you to become leaders. You embraced this challenge and because of this, you have been a big factor in changing the culture of the school. You have introduced new fundraisers, held new events, and have encouraged your underclassmen peers to be better students and people.

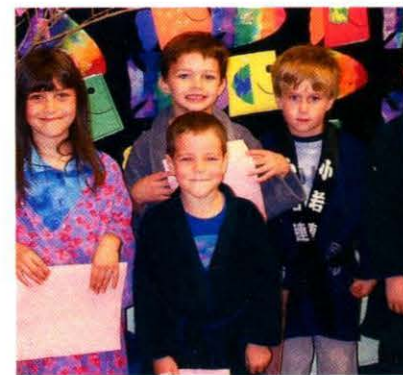

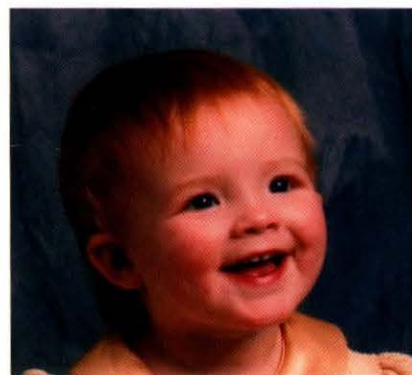

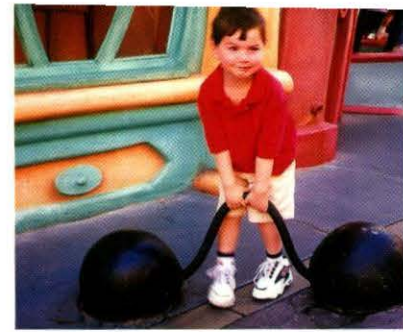

As your class advisors, we are proud of you. We know that as you leave Chelmsford High school, you are going forward to become the leaders of the future. Your time here at Chelmsford High has given you the ability and skills to take you wherever you want to go. Adulthood is upon you. We challenge you to be the best person you can be. We challenge you to be amazing.

Best Wishes,

Mr. Acheson and Mr. Fall

captain's letter

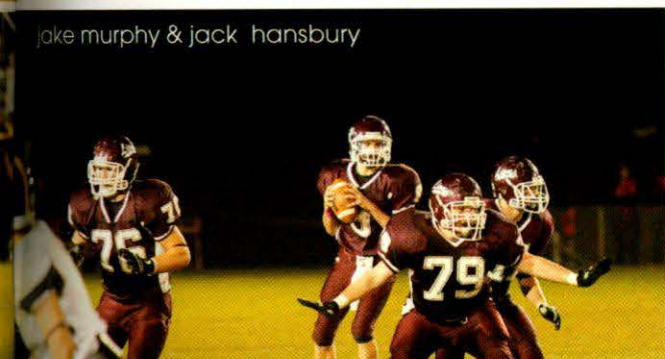

throughout the year there were many ups and downs. we had our wins and we had our losses. but most of all, we stuck together as a team. we were able to get the win on thanksgiving and have a winning season for the 17th year in a row. football is a game of respect, hard work, and dedication. we honored all three of these qualities on and off the field this year. thank you to all the coaches for helping us to grow and mature as men. good luck to the underclassmen. "we ride together we die together."

captain's letter

we know it's been a bumpy ride... but it ain't ova (for you...). we know some days were rough, but we managed to get through day by day with a lot of hard work and dedication. we learned through experience that anything is possible. each and every one of you has the potential to do great things, and we know you'll accomplish it all. you ladies have taught us commitment, perseverance, and most of all empathy. we had each others' backs every step of the way. between group text messages, double sessions, and captains' practices, we can truly say we have been through it all. never forget girls, dawn is center. and "never let the fear of striking out keep you from playing the game."

W it's hard to believe the season is over, but the memories

 T rebuild our team. constant set-backs lingered throughout T the season, but we pushed through to grow into a family.
 T we put the odds behind us as we entered the W tournament and knocked off cambridge. our biggest L challenge lay in the next game: facing topped-ranked W masconomet. far and away the most exciting game all hey xc girlies, its been such a memorable season from early mornings at great brook and crazy nights at foss, to being one of the standout teams of the conference. we're so proud of everyone's hard work and dedication to this sport and our lovely team. we will miss jamming out to tswift, our wild overnight meets, eating too much at team sleepovers and destroying the boys' houses with tp. remember to keep up the team cuteness and that sticks in a bundle don't break.

people have been running since the beginning of time. this year was the beginning of our time. let's break it down: 8-2 regular season, 2nd at mvc's, 8th at all-states, and most importantly, we can call ourselves the eastern mass state champs for the first time in 25 years. the road to success wasn't easy, but 5 minutes of front, lean, n' rest doesn't even compare to the thrill of victory. this fall was one we'll never forget. we had the biggest team, but also the tightest team. we have no doubt you guys will see dramatic improvements in the seasons to come. as for you seniors, always cherish the days at the grove with the boys. it is something you may never come across again. remember, when you want to succeed as bad as you want to breathe, you will be successful. run hard, breathe easy. love dan, nick, and matt although there were many ups and downs, we did have a great season this year. we worked together as a team. we kept our heads up and fought through the challenges that awaited us. gold can go either way. some days we play awesome, and some days we don't. the encouragement our team showed towards each other is something we will never forget. we managed to put the losses behind us and keep pushing ourselves to get better. there was never a moment when someone wasn't laughing or making jokes and we are going to miss that. we had a great season with all of you and we wish you the very best in the years to come. thanks for everything!

oh how we remember those days in hell all the work was so worth it, as only time would tell.
 from meets, practices, and pasta dinners we became so close not only that, all of our victories we were able to boast.
 we had some good times,
 like when we swam in sandy, which should have been a crime.
 no one could forget when we slammed AB, and we were stunting like mufasa for everyone to see.
 our practices were rough,
 but we proved that we were tough.
 all season long, we obsessed about swimming dusk till dawn, and ladies, always remember, keep calm and swim on. hollurr.

at the start of the season no one really knew how this season was going to turn out. the basketball program has never had such a young team before. not only were we young, but we completed the season with a 10 player , which is unusual for chelmsford. with only three upperclassmen, we did not let this keep us from qualifying into the tournament. having a rough start to a season was difficult to overcome, but we did it. putting our losses aside and focusing on playing as a team lead to our growing of wins. i'm so proud of all the underclassmen who stepped up and gave all their effort. i wish everyone the best of luck through the rest of their high school careers.

chs basketball: it was a great year and we had a lot of fun, from many trips to brickhouse, to the games, we came together and enjoyed playing basketball. we worked hard this year and we'll definitely be back to watch you next year. getting a bill grant elbow to the nose was not a highlight of the season but ben got a really cool mask out of it. overall we were a pretty athletic team demonstrated by jomny morse's agility and reflexes. this season we learned a lot about basketball, life, and the breakfast menu at brickhouse. (the brickhouse breakfast sandwich is highly recommended.) anyways, we enjoyed playing with you and we wish you luck in the coming years. adios chrissy, want any bread? love, eric, adam, and ben we've had a great year. dealing with all types of adversity and situations we've found ways to pull through. it's been fun and all the great times we've had, have been unreal. over the last few years we've put chs hockey back on the map and built the program into what it is today. keep working hard and stay focused and take advantage of the opportunities presented to you, especially in the off season. you have the potential to make big things happen, and it goes by fast so make the most of it. build up c-rod and stick together as a team. this season's been a blast, and we'll miss you guys. good luck next year. tear it up! love bish, daws, and banks.

we are proud to have been able to spend our last year with such a great group of girls. despite a few losses, we were able to show individual improvements and grow closer as a team. our team spirit and positive attitudes took us a long way and each runner, jumper, and thrower grew stronger every day. those long days at the reg and intimidating team laps around the andover track left us with memories we'll never forget. keep up the good work, have fun, and remember to run fast, jump high, and throw far!

dear trackheads,

it's been a great season. somehow, we managed to string together one of the most dedicated squads the school has ever seen and all that dedication paid off. to all you underclassmen, think back on this year's success and try to create an even better team. for you seniors, we hope you realize how far you have come and that you never forget your finest days on the track. for everyone, track or field, always remember that this sport isn't about wins and losses; it's about working hard, staying hungry for that new PR. if you do that, you will never lose.

congratulations on another great season boys! we were a small team, but we made up for that with our hard work, determination, and positive attitudes. starting off the season with a loss was tough. from that loss we learned from our mistakes, so by the time we swam BC high, we beat them for the first time in chs history. we then went on to have a winning season. the countless number of fives and all the yards we swam, adding up to miles of laps in the pool all amounted to one thing: success. it wasn't easy but we made it. we're proud of you boys and all your accomplishments. thanks for a great season full of awesome memories. good luck next year! defying the odds means everything.

JONATHAN FAIRBANKS

How do you measure the growth of your son?

In the number of: hours on the ice, teammates who became friends, inches grown, GPA, broken bones, hockey sticks, wins, losses, lacrosse points???

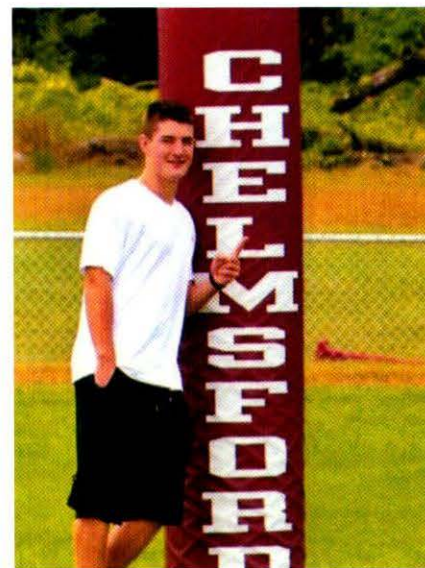

Or is it the immeasurable qualities he has shown when he gets back up and challenges himself with goals and achieves them?

Vince Lombardi said, "The measure of who we are is what we do with what we have."

No matter what your dreams may be Jonathan, you will always have a loving, supportive family with you every step of the way! Go for it!

We love you and are so proud,

Annie Murphy

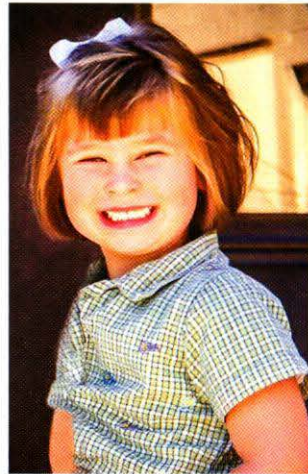

From the moment you joined our family nothing was ever the same. Your sisters went to school to make friends, you had friends before you were crawling. You went to all their games but never watched any of them. With your big eyes and your quick smile, you lived in a world as big as your imagination. You drew pictures, and wrote stories and dreamed your dreams. You swept us up with your enthusiasm and confidence. You have always been your own person, made your own choices and never apologized for being You. Now you are ready to go off and live your dreams. Always remember we are here for you, ready to cheer all your successes!

Love, Mom, Dad, Melissa & Bridget

Kayla Regan

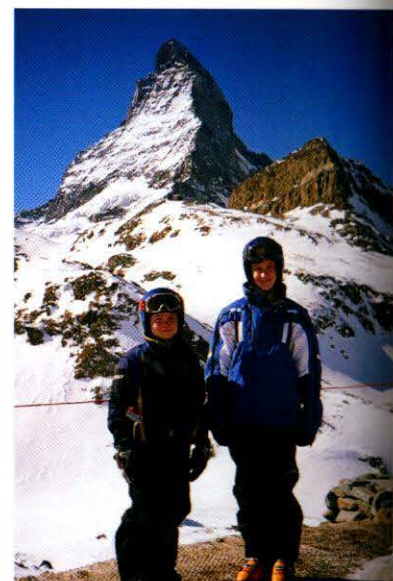

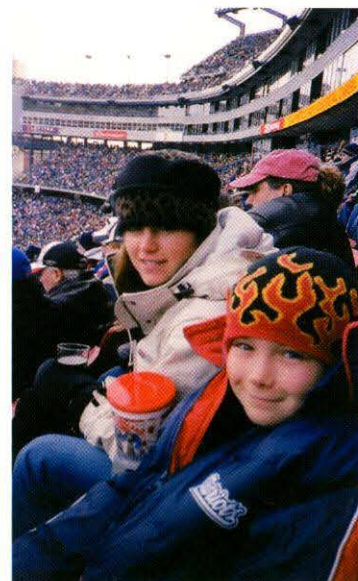

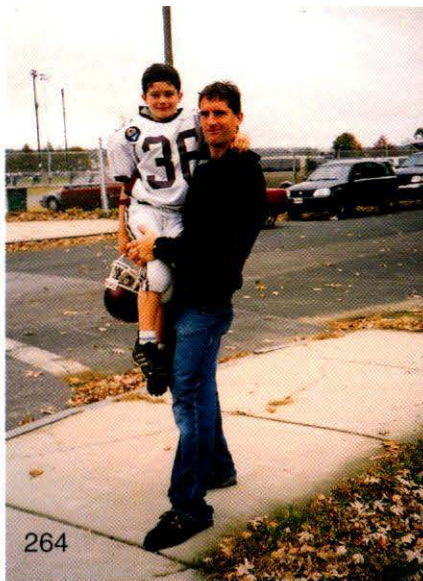

You are everything a parent and sister could ask for; you are smart, you have strength of character and you are genuine. Your determination will drive you to succeed throughout your life. May you always be as proud of yourself as we are of you! We love you so much, Dad, Mom, and Alyssa

In 2000 it was "look out Kindergarten here you come". . .
You learned to read "Jillian Jiggs"
Over the years you've written fun stories and read even more;
projects galore. . .
You have entertained and acted with glee; Cinderella, Sweet old Abby with Wine, Annabelle "Schlock", and Nora too. . .
You are our shining star!
"Oh the places you'll go. . . will you succeed?"
Yes you will indeed - 98% guaranteed!"

Zachary Straeffer

Dear Zachary, Zach, Z, Z-man, Bud, Boy-o, Baby Zachy,
Hard to believe we're here...your senior year. High school has been such a great time for you! Academic success, learning and growing and becoming so confident in your abilities in both theater and TV- it's been amazing to watch. We are so proud of you and all that you have accomplished over these four years, and look forward to seeing what comes next. We will miss your quiet basis, but wish you happiness, joy, and satisfaction in the years ahead. You light up our lives...time to go into the world and light up some others!

With all our love,
Mom and Dad

Jennie:

You have grown so much over these past four years into a beautiful, intelligent, and mature young woman. Despite this and all of your accomplishments in the classroom and on the track, you remain forever young and wring the most fun out of each and every day. I don't think anyone in the world laughs as easily or enjoys life as much as you. Hold on tight to your spontaneity and always treasure each day as you do now.

Love,
Dad

Jennie, you may share a lot in common with your sisters, but never doubt for a second that you are incredibly special. Your brilliant smile, your optimism and your incredible determination to reach your goals will surely take you far. Always remember to believe in yourself and trust your heart. "All we have is this life so make it what you want." ~ Colbie Caillat

Love,
Mom

Jennie Pisarik

Jennie,

Congratulations! I can't wait to see what's in store for you in your next life adventure. I really admire your determination, your passion, and your spirit. Keep working hard, make the most of everyday, and most importantly, never stop smiling! Love you lots!

Beth

Jennie- I can't believe how much I've gotten to watch you grow up over the years: from my baby sister that i refused to take my eyes off of for even a second, to my best friend who, when I do take my eyes off of, does amazing things I never could have imagined that baby would do. "Stay strong" as Crane would say, and you will go so far- just never forget to come back, cuz i love you!! SO proud of you!

Love,
Lissy

Jennie, no one in the world could ask for a better friend than you: your carefree attitude toward life and constant consideration for the people around you can brighten the dimmest of days. Always carry that with you. I'm so glad to call you my best friend and sister.

-Kristi

My youngest granddaughter, I can't believe how fast you have grown up before my eyes. You are intelligent and beautiful like your sisters before you, but you are truly special because of the person you have grown into inside and out. Always treasure your family's love and God's. I am so proud of you and love you more than you could ever know.

Love,
Grammy

Austin Collias

Austin,

In elementary school you made a sign and taped it to your desk that read "Austin Collias Never Gives Up".

I love you so much and watching you blossom into a young woman with such talent fills me with joy. I am so proud of you. The world is so lucky you were born. Go get em!!! Love, Nonnie

Watching you grow up has been an incredible experience for me. Your qualities of strength and endurance; and the love and compassion you have inside of you are qualities that will carry far in life. You have made my life full of adventure!! The endless times of waking up at 5:00 AM to get to the rink; or a soccer tournament, or the times spent in the car dancing with you, or watching you sing at the top of your lungs to all the wrong words are memories that I carry fondly. You are an amazing daughter that I cherish immensely. I eagerly look upon watching you take the next step in your journey. You are a force to watch. Love, Mom

Kyra McNamara

You have made us so proud for all of these years! From an early age you have had a can-do attitude with the discipline to follow-through! We have enjoyed watching you grow into the lovely person that you have become. Keep your positive spirit, and always believe in yourself!! We know you are ready to take on the challenges that lie ahead! Work hard, play hard! Way to go test pancake!!

All our love,
Mom, Dad, Kinsey, Sadie, Abby too!

Stevie McLeod

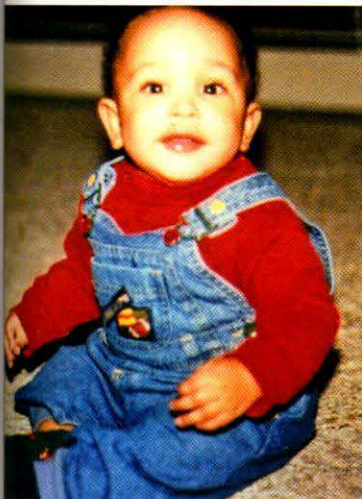

Stevie, Since you were old enough to read and hold a ball, you have experienced just about every sport there is and enjoyed each one. The long days on the ski hill, on the field, and in the classroom have taught you that with dedication & perseverance you can achieve anything you want. You are a true gentleman, kind and compassionate. We are so proud of who you have become and look forward to the next chapter in your life.

We love you so much,

Mom & Dad

Stevie, I know I told you that your 4 yrs at CHS would be the fastest, but I had no idea what I was talking about - College is even faster! I know you'll love St. A's. Guess you'll always just be "stuck in colder weather." Grampa would be proud! Love, Kris

Zachary Lattimore

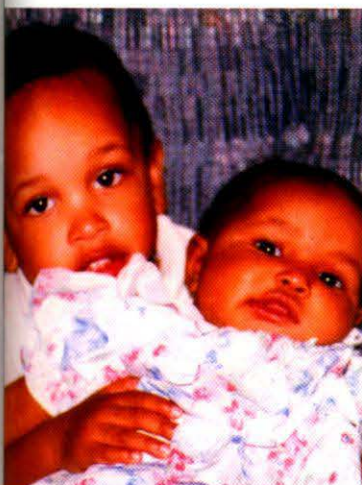

Zach,

Looking back over the years,
It is hard not to shed a few tears

To see your accomplishments and how well you have done
In academics and sports, we're proud to call you a brother and son.

It's hard to believe you're all grown up, now
On your way to college and leaving Mass....WOW!

From Nike pants and polo shirts and sometimes an afro too,
Throughout the years you weren't afraid to express a style that's all you.

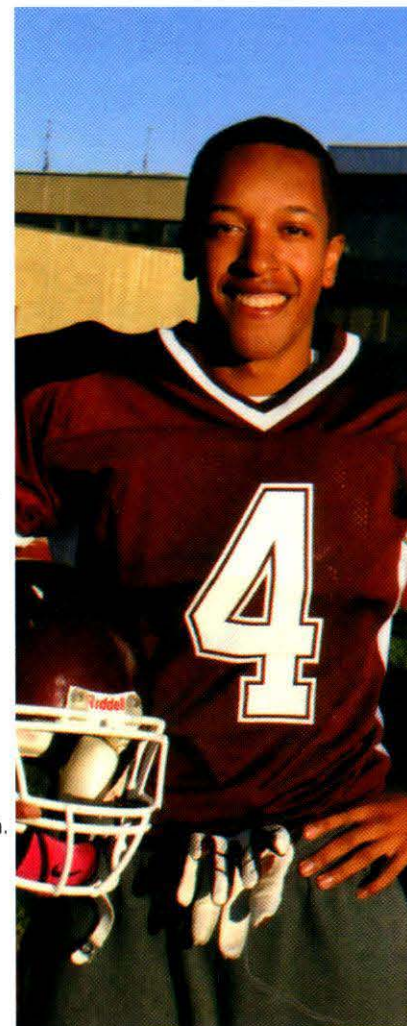

Football, track, lacrosse and basketball,
You played your sports winter, spring and in the fall
You were dedicated and committed to them all.

You were a great Big brother to your little sis, Jill
She will be alright for you've watched over from the beginning until.

Most important with all the things you needed to get done
You remained focused with your studies and still managed to have fun.

You have made long lasting friendships during your time at CHS
And on your journey to college we wish you only the very Best.

Love & Blessings, Dad, Mom, Lexy and Jill

Elizabeth Nawoichik

Congratulations B!
Over the years you have challenged your intellect and displayed your athleticism. You dared to choose your own path and set your own goals. Time and time again you have proven that hard work is often its own reward. You're an amazing girl and you have made me so very proud! I have no doubt that your future holds many great achievements!

Love you so so much,
Dad

Collin McLeod

Collin it is so hard to believe that you are graduating from high school already. Seems like just yesterday you were catching bullfrogs on family camping trips and playing in the sandbox with your Tonka trucks and bulldozers. We couldn't be more proud of you son! Your perseverance, determination and sense of self have been truly inspirational over the last four years. Celebrate your accomplishment!!

Life is an adventure and yours is just beginning. Remember to always believe in yourself, never be afraid to go outside of your comfort zone, keep smiling, be true to who you are and continue to work hard at whatever you do.

Collin, be sure to share your humor, kindness, respectful character, love of nature, curiosity, eagerness and willingness with the world, as these are just a few of the wonderful qualities you possess, and they will get you far!
Congratulations!

We love you forever and always. We are proud to have a son and brother like you.

Aekta Shah

Congratulations Aekta!

Wow...how time flies. We all are very proud of your accomplishments. We know you have worked hard to get to where you are in academics as well as in sports and other extra curricular activities. We are amazed how you were able to do gymnastics, dance, pole vault, yearbook, NHS, class reps, and many others activities while keeping up the grades. We also know you will do just fine in college. Remember, college years are some of the best years of your lives so take some time to enjoy. We are confident you will do great in whatever you decide to pursue as your career. Finally, as someone you know well wrote: life is like ___ paper. It is up to you how you want to fill it up.

MUNRO, PROM 2013?

Spongebob, what do you normally do when I'm gone?
 Patrick: wait for you to get back

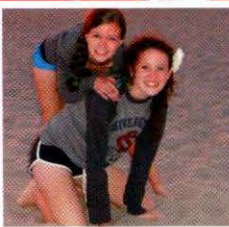

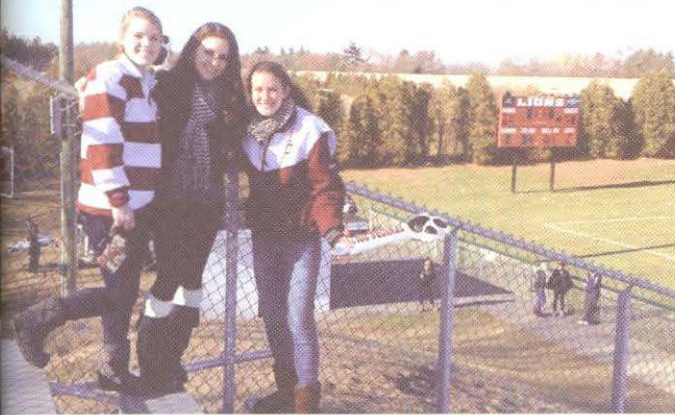

It is too hard saying goodbye so I will settle on saying thank-you. The people shown on this page are just a handful of the wonderful people who has made me smile- and I love you all for it. So thank you family, friends, and faculty for helping me throughout the journey. I couldn't have done it on my own. Now off we all go into the world of the unknown! Good luck everybody and always remember that we are (and always will be) lions. xxooxx, Emily (Emmy, ET, Turn)

▲ Footwear Moonlights as Basketball Coach

Sensors in the soles of Nike+ Basketball shoes track the wearer's every move and sync stats to the player's iPhone.

▲ Jeans Are Anything but Blue

Traditional blues are timeless classics but the newest skinny denims feature bold colors, feminine prints and modern patterns.

▲ Glitter Gets a Foot in Fashion's Door

The trend for "glitter shoes," featuring sequins and sparkles, includes glue-it-yourself sneakers, sky-high designer platforms and everything in between.
