

A
Lion's TALE

THE LION 2015

To the class of 2015,

We grew up listening to the words “once upon a time,” reading tales of princes and princesses, and being assured that they all lived happily ever after—but what they don’t tell us when we are young is that we are all the heroes of our own stories. Our lives are blank pages ready to be written. At Chelmsford High School, our stories intertwined and no matter where our future chapters take us, we will forever be the Class of 2015. Our time together is embedded in the bindings of this book. This is our story—cherish it. Cherish the friendships and memories made here at Chelmsford High...but may your lives hold many new and remarkable adventures to be written.

Making this book has been quite the experience and quite the challenge, but I have honestly loved every second of it. I hope you enjoy it as much as I have enjoyed creating it for you.

Congratulations everyone, and good luck wherever your story may take you. You all have bright futures to be written.

*Thanks for the memories,
Nicole Wrobel*

This Lion has a tale to worth sharing.

Mrs. Loiselle, also known as Señora Loiselle, is this year's recipient of the yearbook's dedication. Each year, the yearbook is dedicated to a Chelmsford High School faculty member who has served both as a mentor for the graduating class and a representative of the qualities most sought in a teacher. Over her 25 years at Chelmsford High School, Mrs. Loiselle has earned the respect of both her students and her colleagues. Mrs. Loiselle teaches several levels of Spanish, and in addition to her success in teaching the language, she has been lauded by students like Kayla Loycano, who refers to her as "my mom in school" because she is "so caring and willing to deal with my problems that occur inside and outside of the classroom." Mrs. Loiselle is a teacher who takes into consideration the struggles that her students endure and overcome, and never hesitates to award praise when deserved. It means a lot when a teacher cares about and understands their students. In the words of Tanya Dimitrov, Mrs. Loiselle strives to "get to know us each on a personal level." When the school day ends, Mrs. Loiselle does not leave with the rest. Instead, she stays to advise the Class Representatives that she has been responsible for since 2011. Now seniors, her Class Reps have loved having the opportunity to work with her. Over the years, she has contributed her time and wisdom to guarantee success for the Class of 2015. Treasurer Zach Davidson has worked closely with Mrs. Loiselle and credits our class' success to her influential role as an advisor: "She always thinks of the things we don't, so that no details fall through the cracks." Her co-advisor, Mr. Craig Vitale, also has only good things to say about working with her. He believes that "her dedication to the class is amazing and it's incredible how much she cares." Though he did not start advising the Class of 2015 until their sophomore year, Mr. Vitale recalls that Mrs. Loiselle excelled at "accepting me and using my strengths to serve the class." Mr. Vitale reminds us that "she can't wait to see her students' success."

Mrs. Loiselle is quite a legacy in Chelmsford; she was raised here and graduated from CHS. She met her husband in our very halls, and like many students over the years, was employed by the ice cream stand we now know as Sully's. After graduating from Fitchburg State, Mrs. Loiselle returned to Chelmsford to teach. She has taught at both Parker Middle School and the High School. Mrs. Loiselle is a loyal Chelmsford resident. She is a regular supporter of all things Chelmsford, including high school football games, where she can be seen on chilly fall nights, decked out in her maroon. For all who have had the opportunity, it has been an honor to work with and be taught by Mrs. Loiselle, whose passion for her life's work can be summed up by her own response to a query about her favorite aspect of her job: "The students, and doing what I love most, teaching."

For Mrs. Elizabeth Loiselle

"Mrs. Loiselle wasn't just the teacher we would visit to talk about our day. She was also the one who stuck with us through four years of ups and downs and we couldn't have survived it without her."

- Kevin Reidy

"I nominated Mrs. Loiselle because she is the head of our class reps and I talk to her everyday about anything—she loves to see all her students."

- Emma Cunningham

"Mrs. Loiselle has helped the Class of 2015 so much throughout our four years at Chelmsford High School."

- Maria Heider

"Mrs. Loiselle has done SO much for this class from the very beginning."

- Shannon Nagle

"I nominated Mrs. Loiselle because she has been a dedicated class advisor and has done so much for us as seniors."

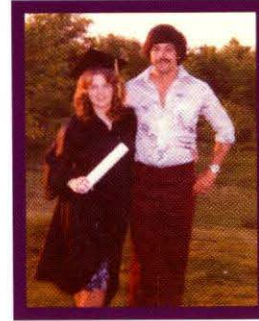

- Fiona Busser

"Mrs. Loiselle has done so much for our class and was also an awesome Spanish teacher."

- Kristen Der

"Mrs. Loiselle has worked hard with all of Class Reps to help make every year of high school memorable for the Class of 2015."

- Gabby Perrin

"I cannot think of a single person more deserving of this dedication. Mrs. Loiselle has supported every single one of us from the minute we walked through these doors freshman year and I have no doubt that we will all have her support long after we graduate. I was lucky enough to have her as a teacher twice, and she is honestly the reason why I took five years of Spanish. A dedicated teacher and overall lovely person, Señora Loiselle genuinely cares for her students and each and every one of us—a rare trait to come by. Over the years, Señora Loiselle has encouraged me to strive for success and be a better person. I cannot thank her enough for all the support, dedication, and kindness that she has provided me and this class."

hough each had their own triumphs and failures, together we told our school's story with pride.

"When I was younger we used to go back to visit my aunts and uncles and cousins in Bulgaria. I always loved those trips. I just remember riding my little tricycle around in circles on the porch of my grandmother's house. Oh, this is bringing back memories."

WHAT MAKES

"Ever since I started singing when I was seven, Monday night lessons have been my personal escape. The rest of the world stops for a half an hour while I learn about myself and my voice. Some nights I've left in tears, others in utter joy. But it's become one of the only constants as my life changes around me."

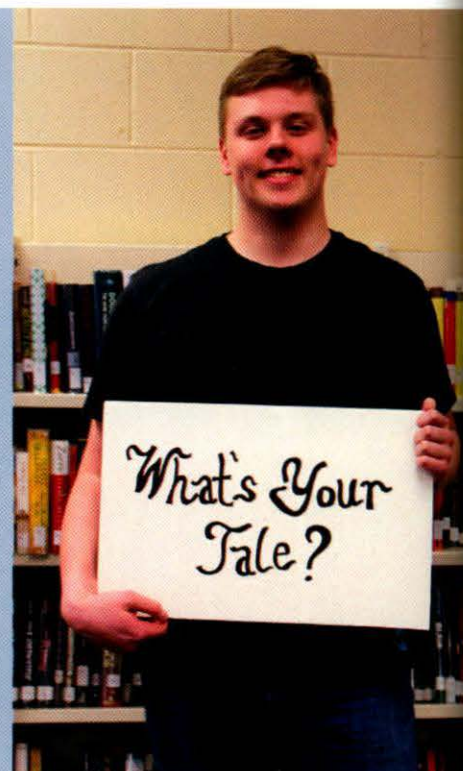

Sydney Baron '18

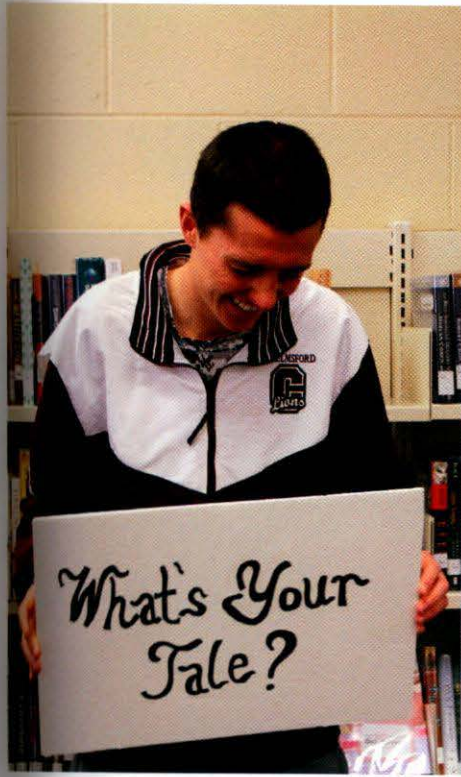

Singing

"My family flies in from all over the country every fall for the Thanksgiving Day game. Football has been a huge part of my life and it has taught me a lot about respect and leadership. It's nice to get to show that to my family."

Joey Marcotte '15

Football

"You know, I used to really not like racers. Now I'm one of them. It was really eye-opening to experience a totally new aspect of something I've been doing for so long. I even got to take on a leadership role. It's made these winter months really fun."

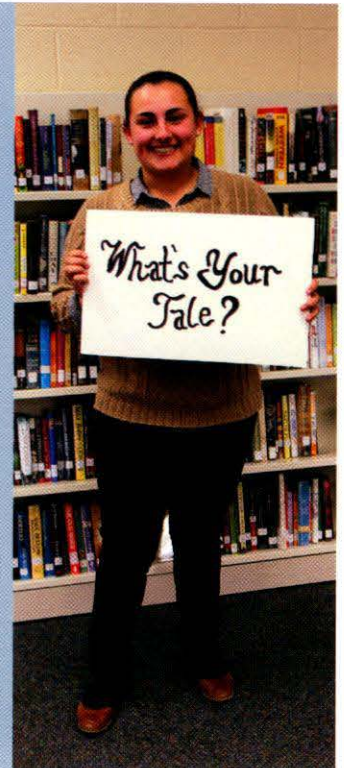

Owen Jordan '15

"We all have the ability to leave behind a legacy. The legacies we leave don't have to be huge like curing cancer, or creating world peace. I believe it is most important to be positive, accepting, and kind. That is the legacy I intend to leave no matter where life takes me."

Nikki Bettinelli '15

Optimism

YOU, YOU?

"One of my friends convinced me to join backstage crew last year. I got to meet a lot of people and do a lot of new things. I've spent a lot of time painting sets. It's something I had never seen myself doing."

Robert Lin '15

"High school has shown me how important it is to be self-aware. Change your friends, change your clothes, change your attitude. Always work toward who you want to be, but be aware of who you are becoming."

Every fantasy has its share of duels - battles, rescues, and daring quests to the dragon's den to slay the dreaded beast; however, our battles were fought on the turf, and our opponents couldn't breathe fire. In fact, our opponents couldn't have beaten us, even with the help of magic powers.

A Letter From Your Captains

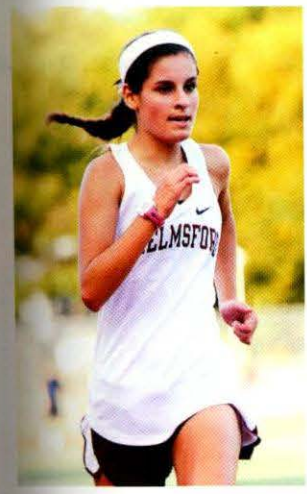

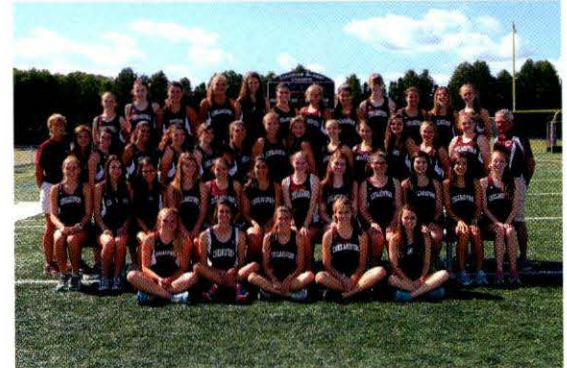

We would like to thank everyone for giving it their all this season. Not only did we become a better team on the field, but we became closer as friends. This season was filled with ups and downs but we never gave up. We couldn't have asked for a better group of kids to spend this year with. We will never forget this season for the rest of our lives. All the comebacks we made just showed our "never say never" attitude. For next year, just remember to play every down like it's your fourth. All the injuries we had this year showed that it can all be over at a moment's notice. Above all else, have no regrets.

Love,
 Your Captains: Jack Hansbury #79, Campy #8, Philly #13, AP #9, O-Mac #59, Jillet #24, Russo #3

To our team/family/squad, A Letter From Your Captains

We are so proud of you for putting in all the hard work, from summer workouts, to long runs, to field loops. We killed those voices that told us we couldn't, those people that laughed and said "good luck," and we rose to the occasion. You have all brought something so special to our team that makes us who we are. We love and are proud to call each of you our teammates.

"Believe in yourself and all that you are. Know that there is something inside you that is greater than any obstacle." Running has taught us many life lessons through our years on the team. Moving towards your new life, we wish you all the best of luck, and hope you'll keep all these lessons with you. Running is a mental sport that teaches determination and strength, which you can apply to any aspect of your life. You guys are hard working people and we know you will all go so far in life. Accomplish your dreams and never forget...squad.

A Letter From Your Captains

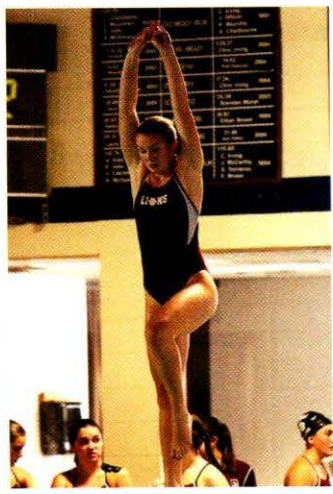

Well boys, it was an incredible journey this fall. A journey that started over the summer with the sun relentlessly beating down over us; a journey that built friendships, character, and toughness. We ran with sweat in our eyes and determination in our hearts. We ran field 1000's and countless hills with sand filled shoes. We ran with shaved legs, we ran with hairy legs, but most importantly we ran with each other, and for each other. We went 8-2 in dual meets, placed 3rd at MVC's and we weren't done there. At States, with 7 athletes running on the course and dozens of others whizzing around it, shouting encouragement, our team placed second and moved on to place 8th at All-States. Our team has been glued together by thousands of miles, hours of planks, and a couple dives in the mud on the baseball field (so worth it). We made CHS proud, we made Crane proud, we made Joey proud and we made the Carson's proud. We love you boys. And remember, if you're not with the boys, you're against them. FTB.

A Letter From Your Captains

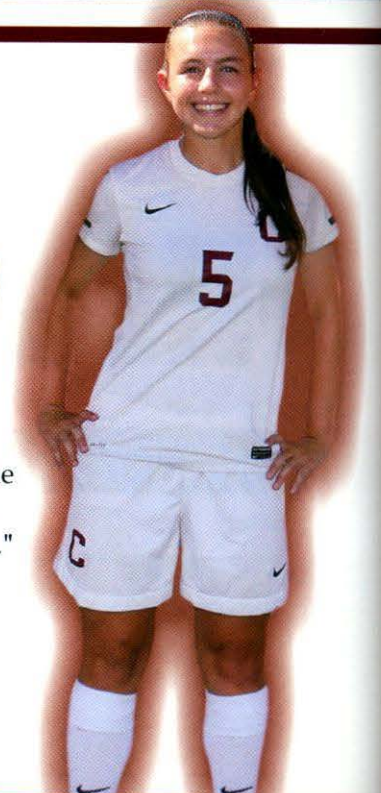

The season started with tabata, dripping sweat,
 By the end we knew it was a season we would never forget.
 We went to the Owl Diner a record number of times,
 And put up with the YMCA's special type of slime.
 Mrs. Kinnett's 200th win came real quick,
 With the help from our 5 coaches, Shauna, and Caitlin Klick.
 At the scavenger hunt the freshman came out to play,
 But it was the seniors that crushed the pasta dinner buffet.
 Will miss you more then you'll ever know,
 I'm sure you're sad to see us go. :)

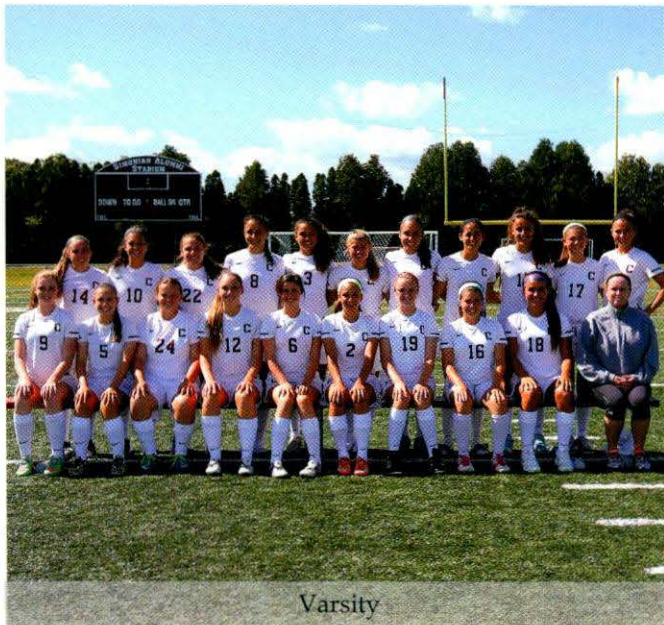

Thank you girls so much for an amazing season! We could not have done it without you!

Dear Team,

We are so proud of each and every one of you for everything we have achieved this year. This season was an amazing ride and we wouldn't want to have spent it with any other group of girls. Congratulations on our 18 shutouts in 23 games, and we know you guys will do even better than that next year! Congrats on making States for the fourth year in a row and competing in the Division 1 North Finals! We have come such a long way since the beginning of the season, and seniors especially—we've traveled great distances since freshmen year! You guys are the toughest group of girls we know and we are positive you'll go all the way next year. Good luck, we will miss you guys so much but we will be back at your games to support you! Stay RELENTLESS.

A Letter From Your Captains

To The Squad,

This year has been the most fun season we have played here at CHS. Everyone that we have grown up playing with was together for one last year, heightening our passion for the game. We played with grit all year long, sometimes losing tough, but never giving up. That grit paid off with a memorable comeback against Billerica in the fog, and a fourth-straight tournament berth. We started trends in warmups, and saw our underclassmen start a new era of excellence. Coach Cal kept us under control all year, starting the new tradition of a coach brunch and bumpin' T-Swift tunes. We wish the best to our rising seniors—enjoy every moment of next year's season and never take it for granted that you get to play for your school; it goes by quickly. To our fellow seniors: we hope you keep your love for the game alive and wish you the best of luck in the future.

Thanks for a great season boys.
Your captains,
Ryan Ashness, Alex Hill and Evan Smith

To the greatest team we could ever ask for,

What a crazy season we had! We improved so much from last season and we should be proud of what we accomplished. We came together with a fire and a passion to make big moves in the conference this year. Everyone had a major role in helping us to have a very successful season! We are so proud of all of you! The bond that this team had was something else and you girls left us smiling every single day. We will never forget any of the memories from spending every second of the season together. Thank you, girls, for making our senior year one of the greatest and most memorable. To the underclassmen, keep the Good Vibes coming and kill 'em next year!!

We are so glad we got to spend our last season with all of you! Through all the injuries, one after another, to driving Coach insane at times, it was the best season we could have asked for. CHEERLEADING

A Letter From Your Captains

Oh, how time flies. It seems like just yesterday we joined the cheer team as freshmen and now we're handing over our poms to you, the future captains. We know that you will do a fantastic job leading the team through whatever new obstacles that come your way. In addition to keeping spirits up and motivation high, you will lead the team to achieve greatness. We are true athletes and now it's your job to show everyone that it's not easy and we work extremely hard. The success of any sports organization relies on strong participation and practice but also solid organizational skills by its leaders. However, we have found that even more important is frequent and clear communication to the team. Next year, we will truly miss you all and you can count on us visiting. We're more than just a cheer team and we love you girls so much! Always strive for perfection and excellence.

Love,

A Letter From Your Captains

Dear Colorguard,

As your captains, we are so proud of you girls. This season has been extremely tough and stressful for all of us. Without a coach, we joined together and tried to make the best routines possible. Which, in the end we didn't think came out so terrible. We wanted you to know that we are proud of you for working together and coming out as strong as ever.

Amy- We want to thank you for helping out with most of the routines and always being a pleasure at practices.

Haleigh- We want you to know that even though things haven't always gone so smoothly, it's because you obviously care about the group as a whole and we love that.

Sierra- Our favorite rookie - we would like to thank you for working so hard to learn everything this year, and being spectacular at it.

Most of all, we want to thank you for the best season possible. This has been a great last year with you ladies. We love you tons and know you will do fantastic things in the future.

Much love,
Tori & Shelby

HEY BAND!

First off, this has been the most memorable season in our CHS Marching Band history. The show was not easy for any of us, but the amount of focus and dedication you've all put into it was unbelievable. To all the Freshman and Vets: thank you for continuously making this band the best it has ever been! To all of the Seniors, thank you. Thank you for everything you've done for this band. You have been improving this band since day one of your Freshmen year and it has really shown. Lastly, this goes out to everyone, this band is a family, a family of great musicians, hard workers, and caring kind Bandos that can accomplish anything! As Mr. Sexauer always says "Don't make this last performance the best you have ever played" so whether you are graduating or continuing on as a CHS Bando never stop improving because you are all capable of so much! And remember. Eyes, with pride.

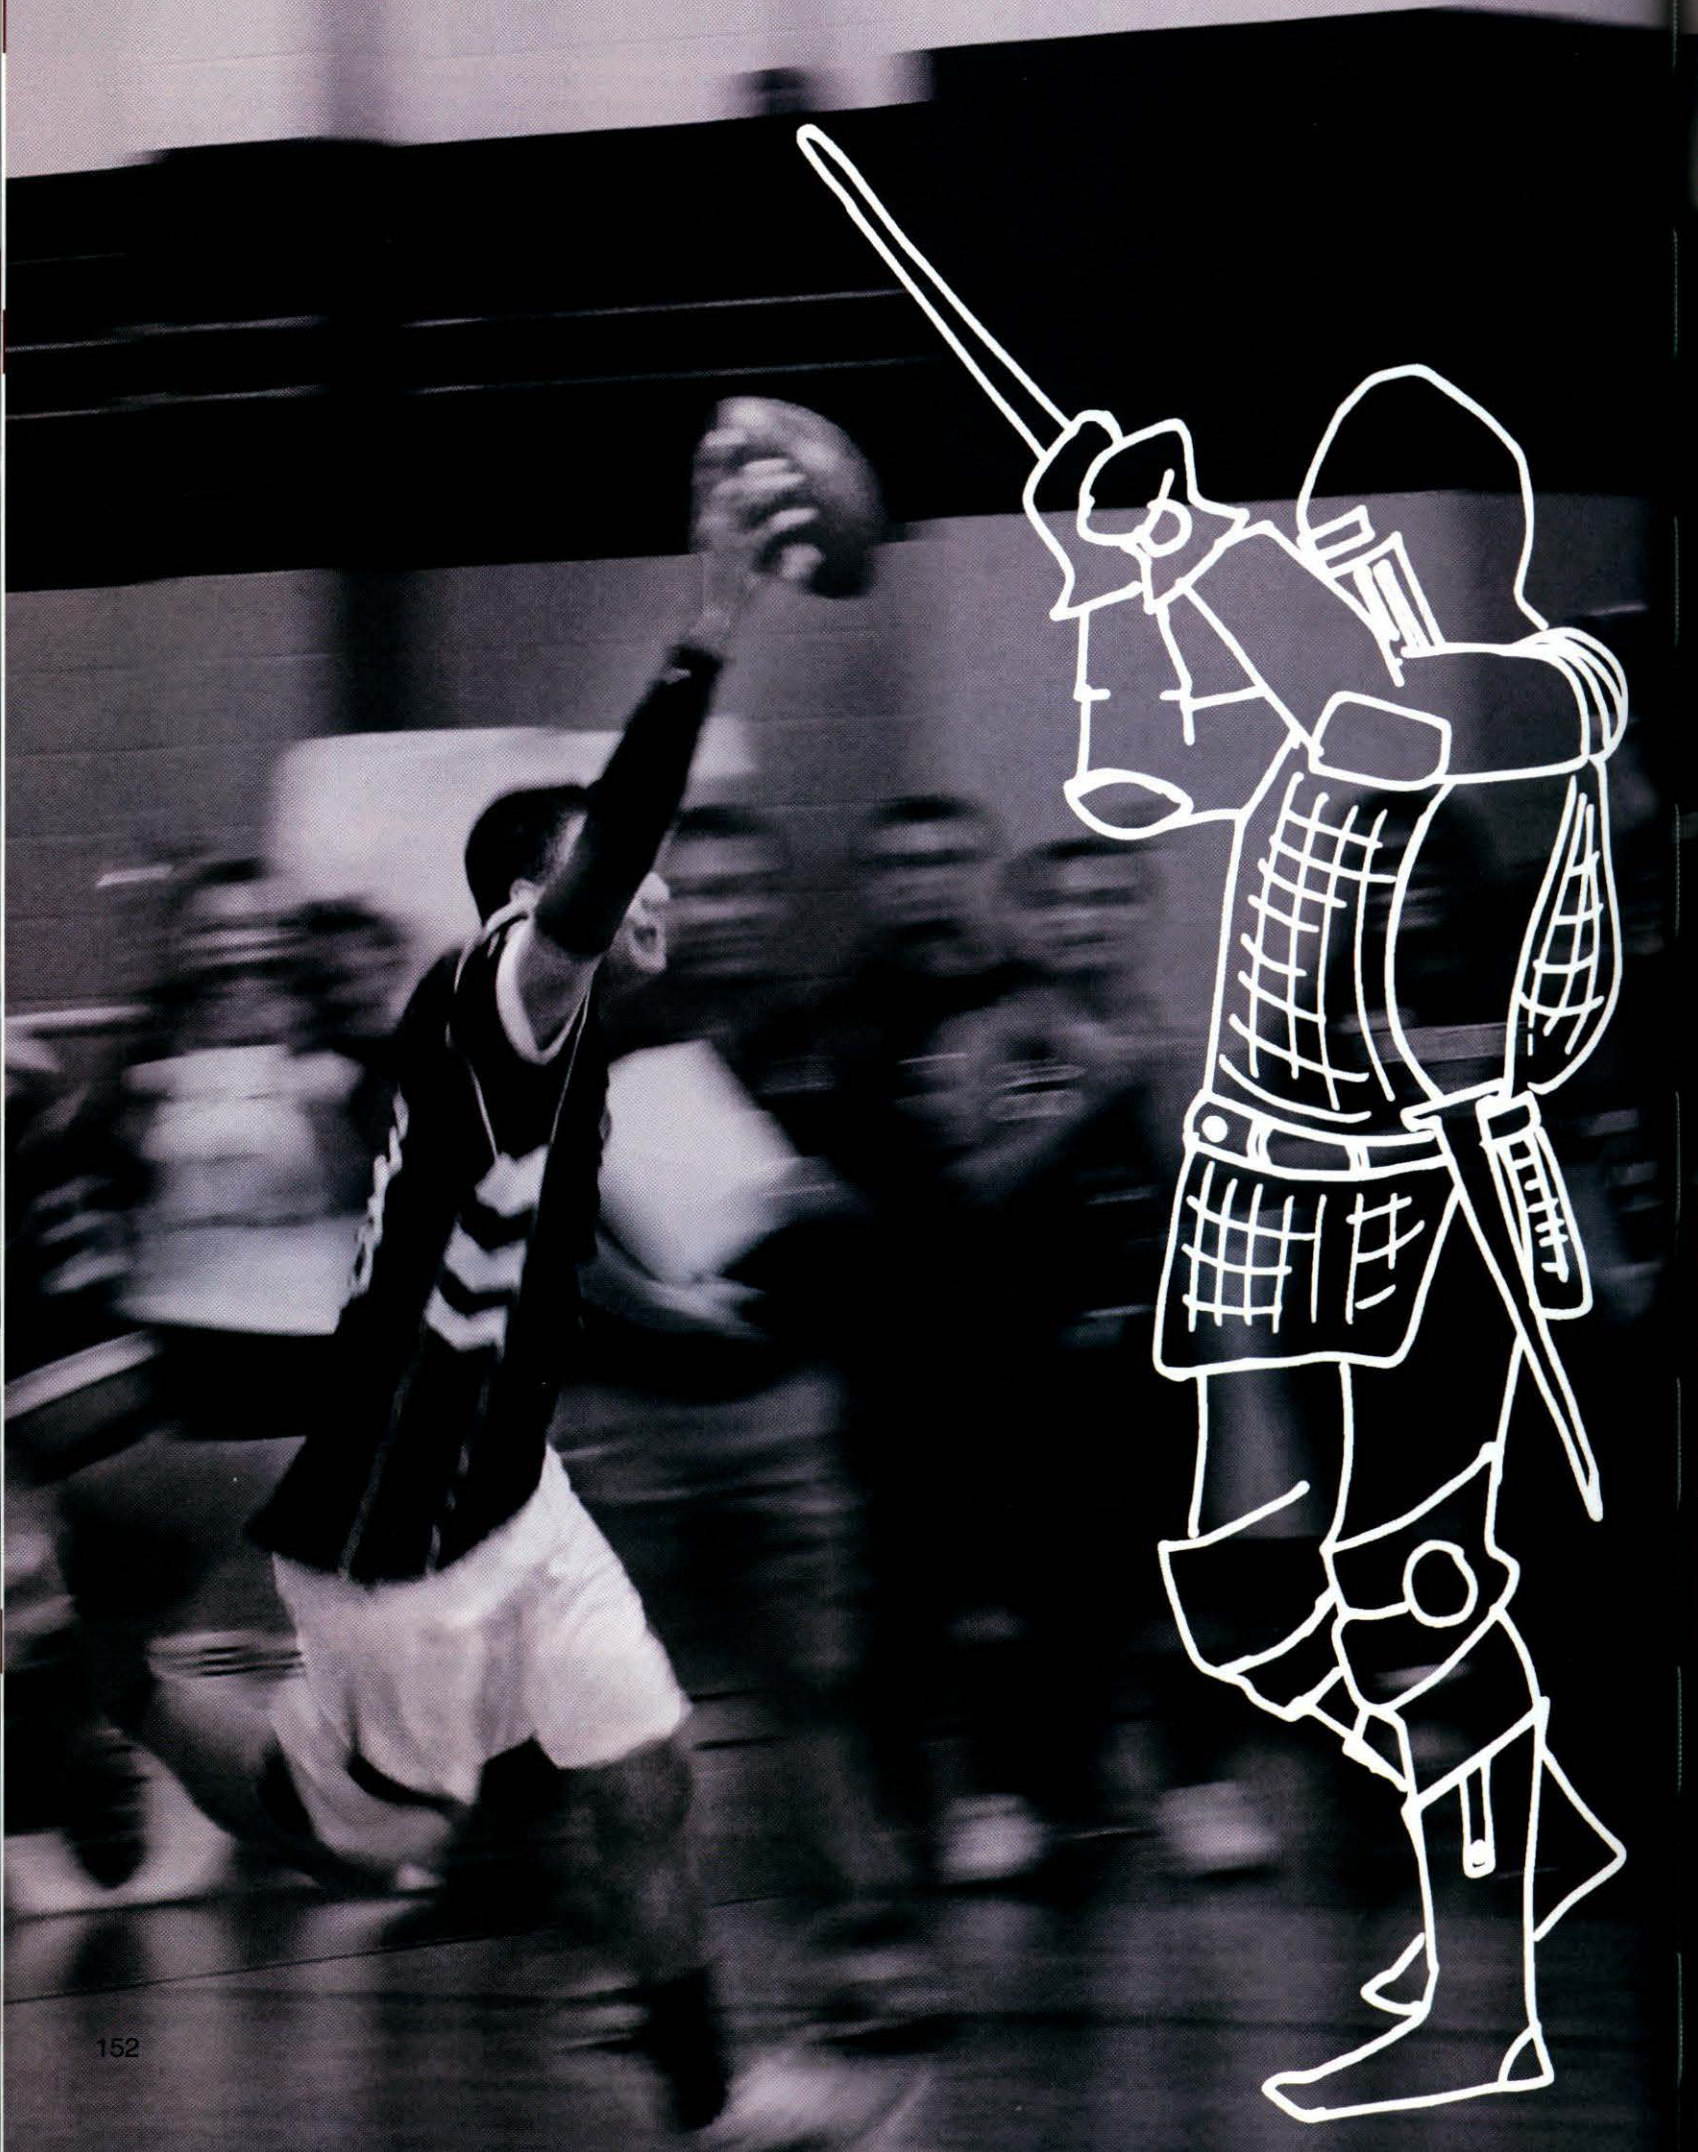

Much love,

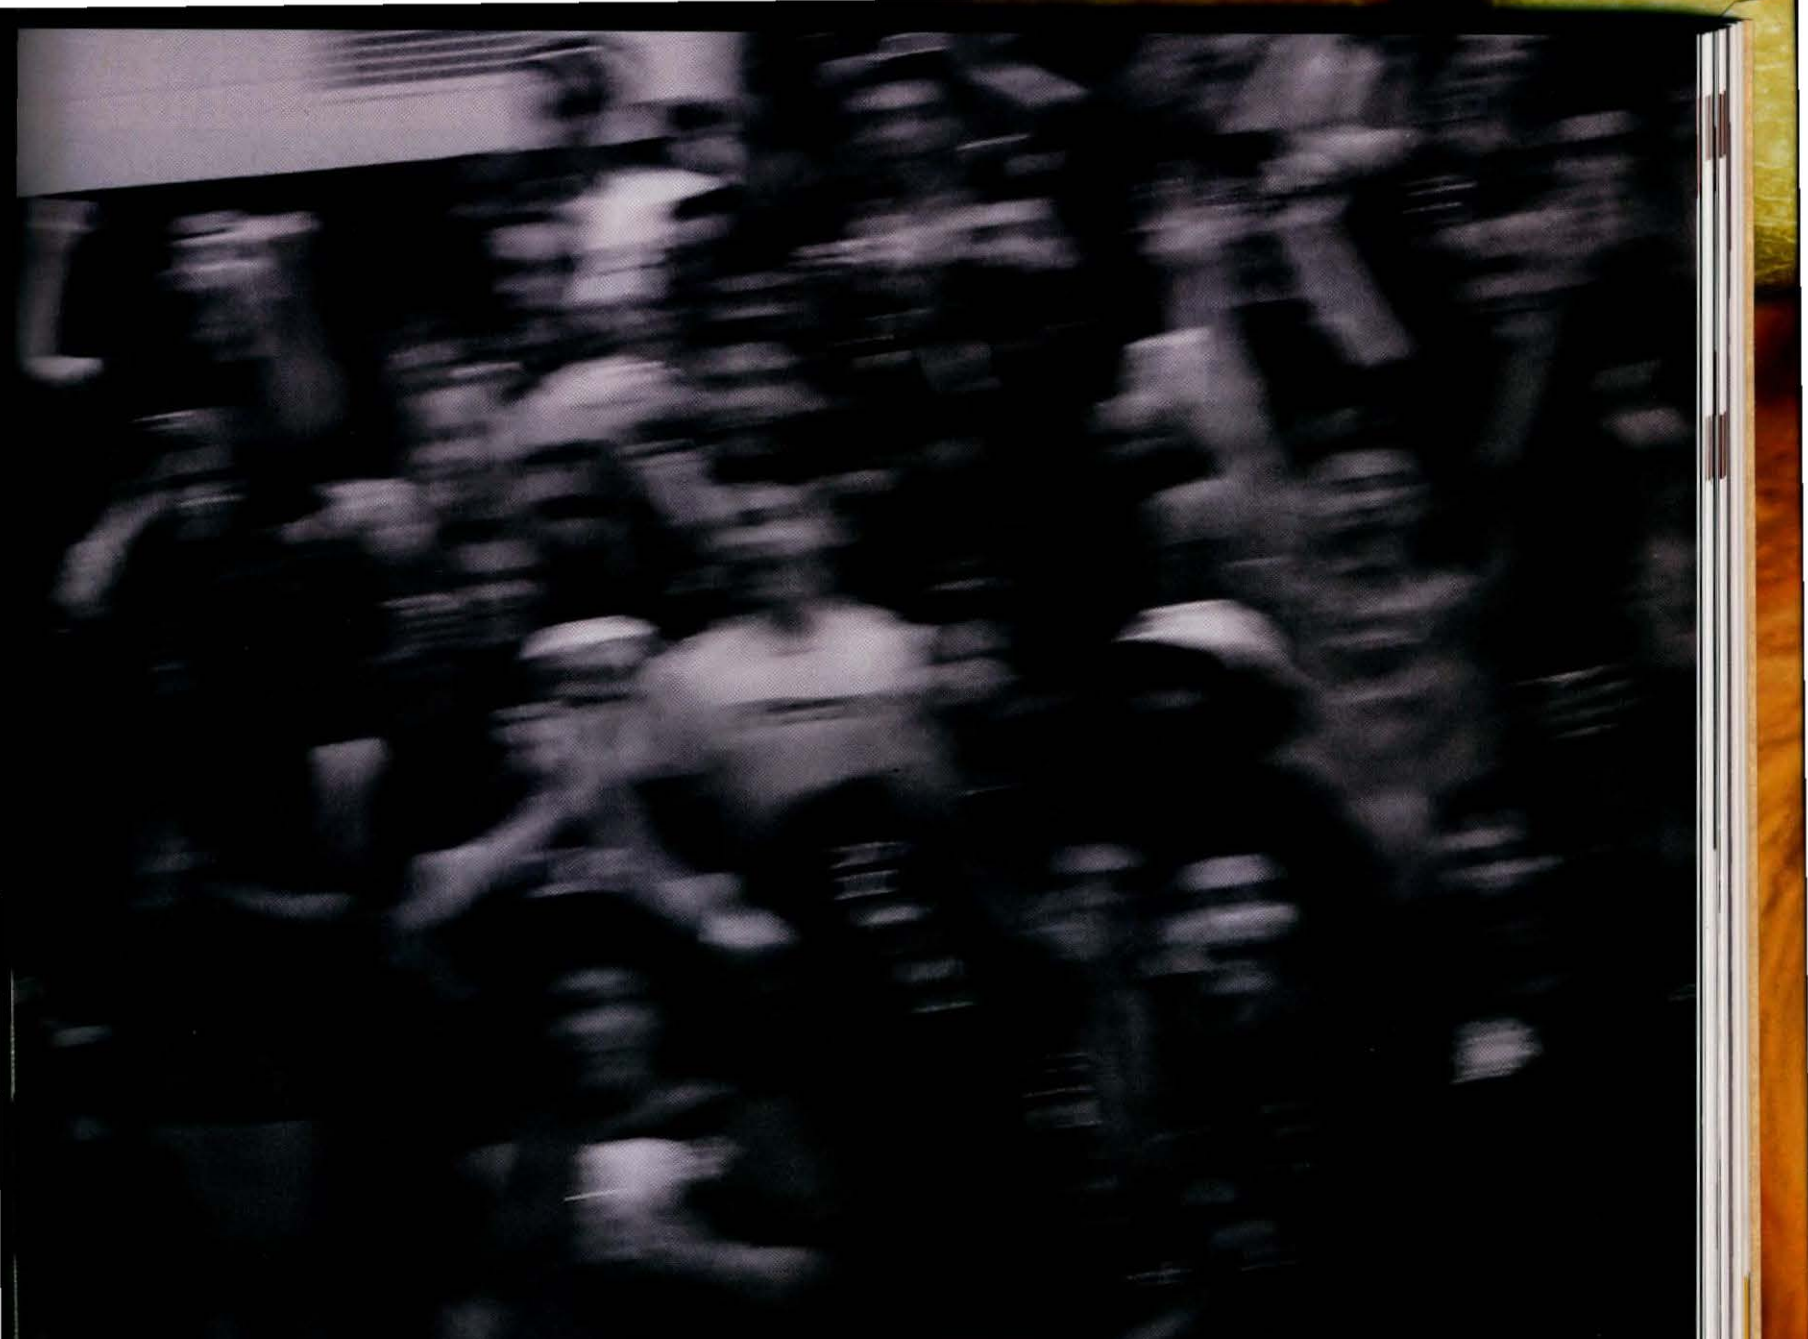

Your Drum Majors: Josh, Charlotte, Nikki

The ball was snapped, and I watched Jack lob the ball back to me..it felt like the ball was in the air for hours. After I made the catch, I may have made history-- but more importantly, with the help of my 70 brothers in maroon and white, my dream came true. I could thank them millions of times, and it still wouldn't be enough."

A Letter From Your Captains

Dear Team,

We will never forget the memories we made with all of you. Whether we were on the court or off, we always managed to have a good laugh. We never gave up when the odds were against us, and when we came together we did amazing things. From captain's practices, to running clinics, and our Friday night Olive Garden dinners, we were able to bond as a team. Individually we were capable of great things, but together nothing could get in our way. Attitude and integrity were the fuel that produced results this season. Everybody made an impact on this team and without that we wouldn't have had the success we did. Thanks for such an unforgettable season! We love you girls, best of luck next year.

Sara DaSilva and Patricia Blumeris

Playing in the MVC has its ups and downs— injuries really hurt us this season but we fought hard anyway. Not many teams can say they've beaten Andover two years in a row. Even when things looked bad we always played our hearts out. Seniors, we had a great eight years playing together. We made so many memories, shared so many laughs, and we wouldn't trade it for anything. Underclassmen, it was great to see you guys develop as players. Use everything you've learned the past few years and keep working hard so you can accomplish some great things next year. Ball Don't Lie.

Great job this season girls! We are so proud of everyone. This season we saw everyone set new PRs and come back to break them over and over again. We even won a couple meets, too! We owe a huge thanks to our amazing coaches: Silk, Lang, Mangan, Richter, Russo, and Lenny. Run fast, jump high, and throw far! Good luck next year ladies, and remember: give it all you've got, and leave it all on the track!

Citius, Altius, Fortius, is the olympic motto. It translates to "Faster, Higher, Stronger." That is the goal we as a Track Team strive to achieve. Over the course of the season we ran hills, broken 600's, repeat miles, and had countless hours in the weightroom. We worked hard as a team to help each individual improve their times and distances. Sweat stung our eyes and we even threw up. Our muscles were tired and we went home exhausted each day but we came back with a fire in our stomachs. As each day passed we all saw our personal goals come into view. No matter how big or small the goals we set, they were met. Remember... Citius, Altius, Fortius.

This year we had the biggest team we've ever had, but by the end of the season, we were like one big family. You all kept us laughing at practices and races, and always made a bad day better. We're all so proud of how far everyone has come, and how supportive you are to your teammates. This is a team we will never forget, and one that we will miss very much. Keep making us proud in the years to come, and ski fast!

We want to thank you all for such a great season. Your hard work proved that together we are a stronger team than anyone could have imagined. We couldn't have asked for a better way to end this season than by watching you guys kill it at MVCs. We overcame a huge point deficit and shocked every team in the conference with a win. Thank you for the awesome memories. We can't wait to see what you guys can do in the future. Couldn't have asked for a better season boys. Always come out swimming.

WRESTLING

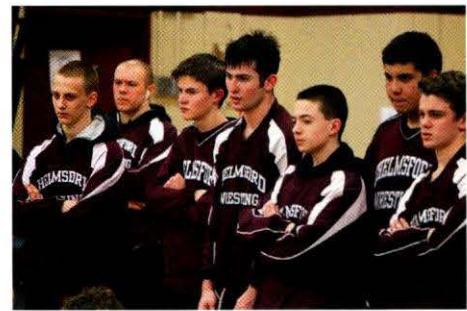

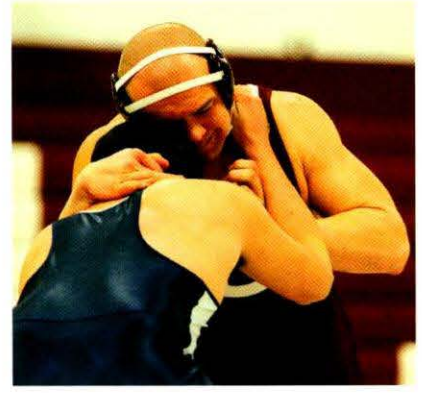

A Letter From Your Seniors

To the boys,

Here's to "the grind". Who needs team dinners? Wrestling requires everything you have – physically and mentally. Wrestling for Chelmsford has been a unique and incredible experience to say the least (we're not sure if the anecdotes are appropriate so we'll leave them to the imagination – we're looking at you, Kevin). Wrestling has become such a huge part of our lives over the last four years and we're glad to have been a part of it, all four of us... there were like forty of us at the beginning of freshman year and now four remain. Seriously, what happened? Good luck next season guys! As always, give em da bidness.

To all our teammates that made this year memorable. Thank you so much for making this year one to remember. It was by far our best season of hockey yet. Next year all we ask is that you guys get revenge on Westford. Never take a second out on the ice for granted, because you dont know how fast the seasons fly by until it's your last game. Take care of Gerg for us, and please find out who Kevin's girlfriend is. We love and will miss you all so much and would like to wish you the best of luck next year.

A Letter From Your Captains

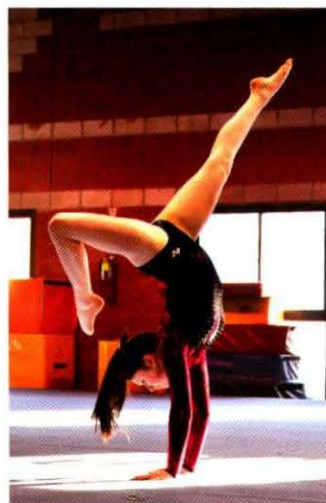

To the Guys,

It's been an awesome season, and throughout it all we went through some pretty big obstacles along the way. We worked hard with one another every day at practice, and bonded like brothers on and off the ice. The most important thing that happened this season was realizing what a gift it is every day to be able to hit the ice and enjoy the game with one another. With Coach sick, it opened up all of our eyes to what the most important aspect of the game is—how we can translate the game into our own life and become better people, deal with adversity, and overcome obstacles. Love all you guys.

SOFTBALL

A Letter From Your Captains

Dear Team,

First, we just want to say how proud we are of you. We put in so much work in the off-season and it really did show. We love that we were able to work our butts off but still have a ton of fun. We're glad we showed everyone who's boss and dominated the MVC! We love how you guys are such a positive, encouraging, and supportive group of girls, and how we always have each other's backs. You guys are like sisters to us, and it truly has been a pleasure playing the game with you and getting to know all of you. We're really going to miss "hitting a home run" and endlessly belting out songs on the bus on the ride home after a victory. Shout out to Doc! Always remember: "Life's too short, swing the bat."

A Letter From Your Captains

Well boys, it's been a marvelous trip. Many of us have played together since our time as little leaguers, hitting dingers at 110. We spent our Saturday afternoons together digging through the trash for soda cans to return for a nickel. This year, we spent endless hours together, on the diamond, at team dinners, on tennis baseball fields, and on knee hockey arenas. Many of us spent more time with the team than our own family. We persevered through the downs and cherished the ups. We are proud to wear our CHS baseball gear (Thanks Cooney). We are proud to call each other brothers. We wouldn't change a thing, we loved going to battle with you boys each and every game. We became a family, and family is not an important thing...it's everything.

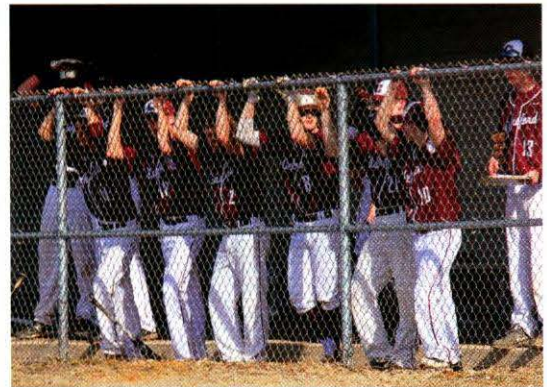

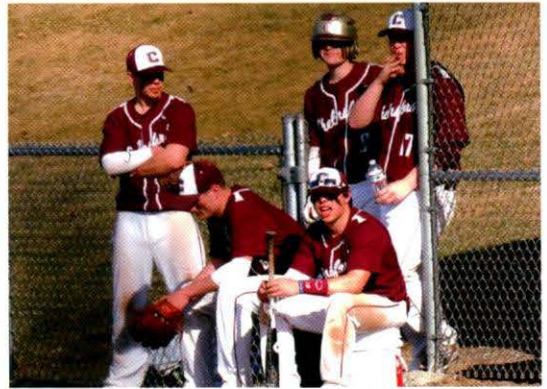

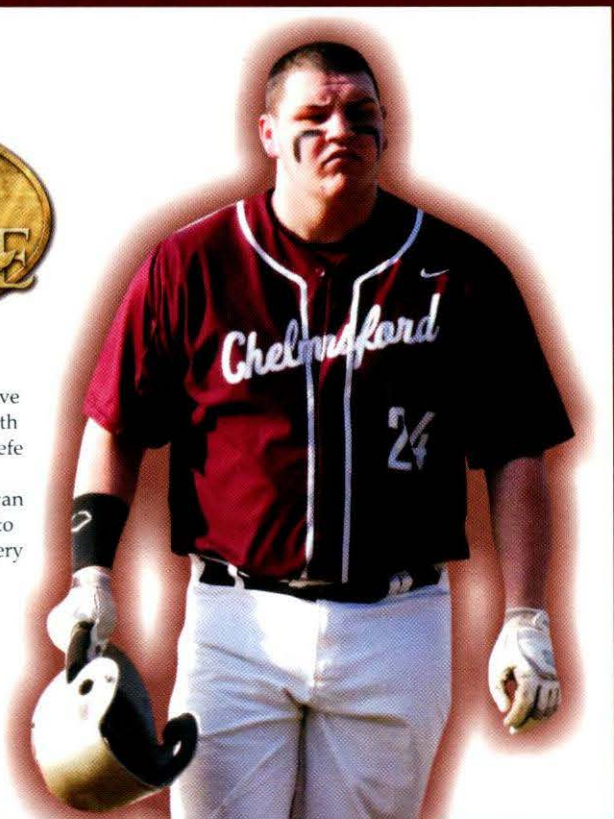

Love you guys forever.
 Your Captains,
 Quinn Cooney and Jack Campsmith

This year was such an important year to us and everyone's determination really showed. We are so glad you guys have the talent to build this program in the years to come. All we ask is for you all to work your hardest and give Chelmsford Girls' Lacrosse a solid reputation. It has been an awesome season. We worked hard everyday on the field, and had a great time together building memories that we will never forget. BOYS TENNIS

A Letter From Your Captains

Congrats on a successful season boys. We started out the season strong. We had positive attitudes as we played against strong teams and we never lost that determination to win. We are so proud of everyone on this team. Everyone improved, from the strongest to the weakest player. We put Chelmsford Tennis back to where it was a few years ago. Us captains are excited to see new faces that are excited to play for our team. Even though our team is small, we still have a fun time hanging at pasta dinners, at practices, and during the matches. Whenever we are in a rut, we can always look to someone on the team to cheer us up, whether it's Hirsch to make us laugh, or "Holy Moly it's Messy Jesse the Panther Foley," to give us a chuckle. We are extremely proud of the transformation this team has gone through and as the seniors of the team, we have made such good memories. Thanks for such a fantastic season!

GIRLS TRACK & FIELD

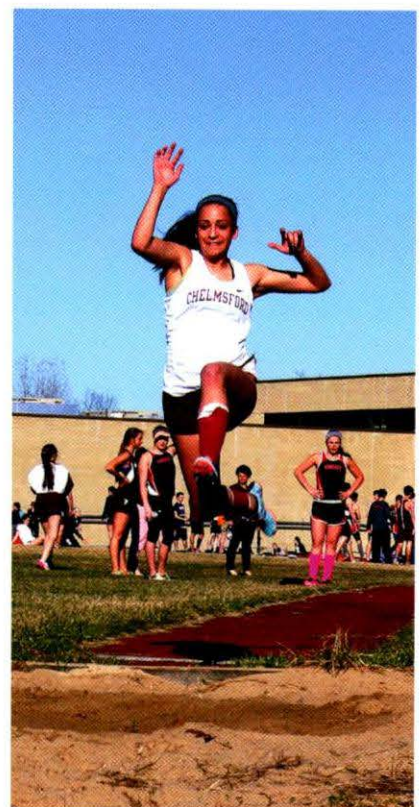

A Letter From Your Captains

Dear Trackies,

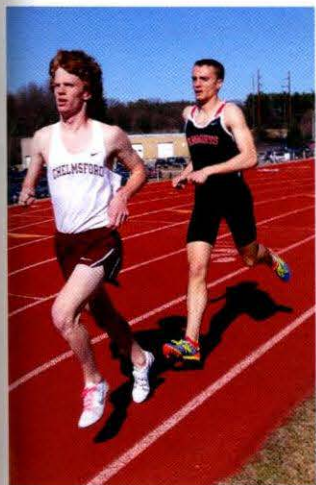

We had a great season! We were off to a slow start with all the snow, but we made the best of it by building snowmen, throwing snowballs, and jumping over snowbanks. It was tough but we had good commitment and pulled through. When the snow finally melted we had a great time! We are proud of everyone for reaching and breaking their PRs. We owe a big thanks to our coaches Silk, Lang, Richter, Mangan, Jowett, Russo, and Vitale. We couldn't have done it without you guys. Good luck next year girls! Run Fast. Jump High. Throw Far.

Dear Class of 2015,

What an amazing four years we have had together. We went from being strangers freshmen year to growing into a close-knit community. Together, we have accomplished so much. Through our leadership, Chelmsford High School has flourished. We have shown spirit and pride for our school at football games, spirit weeks, pep rallies, school dances and Tundra events. Taking a look around, it's easy to see that the Class of 2015 is unlike any other; we have accomplished outstanding things in every area of high school. 2015, you have impressed me with something new everyday, and I couldn't be more proud. Continue growing into successful, intelligent, hard working, and passionate people. Congratulations on four years of excellence. We did it 2015; we made h15tory at CHS. It has been such a privilege to serve as your Class President, and I couldn't have asked for a more dedicated and spirited group of people to lead. As we go our separate ways, never forget the incredible memories we made together.

Your President,
Shannon Nagle

Congratulations Class of 2015!

The moment we have been planning for so long is finally here. You're graduating! Four years have gone by so fast. It's hard for us to believe that we met so many of you as young seventh graders and have watched you grow into mature young adults. You have made your journey through high school and now it's on to graduation. You have all worked so hard to get to this point. The dedication and efforts put forth by the Class Representatives and Class Officers have made our job, as your advisors, a pleasure. As your teachers, mentors, and Class Advisors, it has been both a privilege and an honor for us to work with you, and we thank you all for that. You are about to embark on a very exciting journey. The next chapter of your life will be a time when you begin to become the person you will be for the rest of your life. Follow your passions and always stay true to yourself. Believe in what you can accomplish and you will achieve great things!

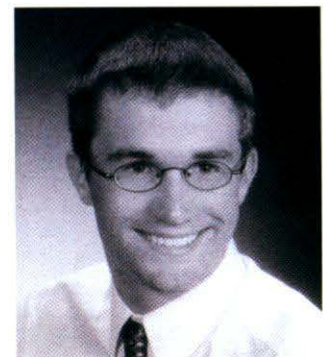

We congratulate you and look forward to hearing about the many endeavors of the Class of 2015!

MEGHAN MATHEWS

It's hard to believe that just 13 years ago, you were getting on the school bus to start kindergarten. There you were with your pigtails and your dimpled smile so excited to start school. From the start we knew you were going to be successful. We knew this because of your ability to always see the silver lining when times get tough, your sweet and empathetic nature toward others which would always help you choose the right friends, and your willingness to be flexible and change course when necessary. Meghan, we have all the confidence that you are going to make your future a bright one. Always remember to live each day to the fullest, take advantage of every opportunity that comes your way, and be brave enough to take chances, no matter how scary they may seem. We wish you the very best in the next 4 years. And as Uncle Phil would say, "It's time to put on your big girl panties." We love you to the moon and back,

MICHAEL SHANAHAN

Michael,
You were born with a brother and two sisters ahead of you, so you had no choice but to hit the ground running, with new faces and new places every day. You'd say, "Where are we going today, Mom?" Congratulations and love from all of us,

CAM CLANCY

Dear Cam,

It's hard to believe that it's 2015 and your high school graduation is upon us. It seems like only yesterday that you were a happy-go-lucky toddler...curious, fearless and adorable...hell-bent on getting into all kinds of death defying mischief whenever opportunity knocked. Looking back, I've come to realize that you weren't really being destructive or misbehaving. You were just curious and needed information about why you shouldn't do the things you felt compelled to do like, "don't put that piece of paper in the toaster oven and turn it on because you could burn the house down." And "don't climb on top of the van because you could fall and break your head." Your love of taking things apart to see how they worked and raiding the pantry to make "potions" were good indicators of what was to come. You were fascinated with "cause and effect" and your shenanigans simply foreshadowed your innate love of science. Your curious nature coupled with your desire to learn was going to lead you in a more constructive direction, out of the pantry, into the lab, and onto a bright future.

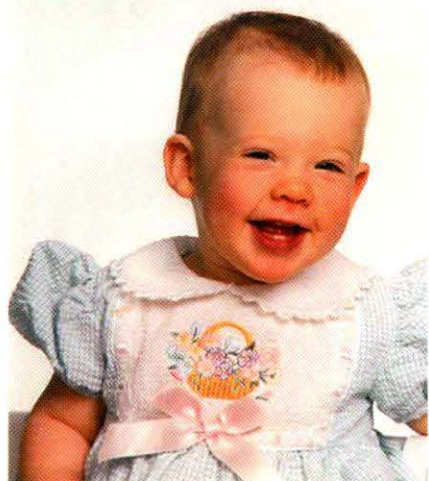

For as long as I can remember, you challenged yourself, not only as a student but also as an athlete. Over the years I have watched you compete and develop athletically on the baseball field, the basketball court and most recently, on the track. You are your own person, you know what makes you happy and you go after it with the same curiosity and fearlessness that I witnessed when you were a toddler. You're a loyal son, brother, and friend. You are open-minded, compassionate, kind and supportive and without a doubt, you're still adorable. You have it all Cam...and it will serve you well.

Not long after the "Pomp and Circumstance," you'll be heading off to college to embark on the next leg of your journey. You stand before a bright and promising future with all of the necessary tools to be a success in your career and life in general. I am proud beyond words of the person you have become and what you have accomplished up to this point. There is a greatness inside of you and I am so excited to see where it takes you and blessed to have a front row seat.

Congratulations to you, Cam!!!
Love you to the moon and back,
Mom
