in memoriam

to the americans who have fought and died during the present vietnam war while in service to their country the 1960's represent a time of concern about the issue of rights. Protests and demonstrations supporting the legality of civil, labor, and student rights have taken place from Berkeley to Boston. There are, however, certain types of rights that are innate and granted to every human being. Because we have been students during this decade of awareness, we should recognize these rights as natural and inborn. Among these rights is...

the right to think and learn right to understanding between friends and nations right to compete in sports, to strive for a goal, to exercise physical and mental activity right to create something practical something earth-shattering something imaginative right to express emotions right to make others laugh right to ask for help and understanding right to argue about important matters a special girl
a special boy or just a friend
right to speak about important matters to defend your rights right to wonder about what lies ahead right to dream

...of all the good times, of all the bad times, in school, with your friends, with your teachers, with your parents...of graduation, of the christmas dance, of the prom...of high ideals, of going to new places, of doing new things...about how things were, about how things could have been, about how things might be...

hey, jude!
she's not there nurse's office people are strange and so are some teachers light my fire chem lab and boys basement dizzy after tumbling in gym sounds of silence history seminar hair on the way to the advisory board born to be wild the administration whiter shade of pale mr. klesaris in driver training sealed with a kiss morning bulletins little green apples for lunch you keep me hanging on waiting for replies from colleges harper valley pta chelmsford pta? slip away to have a smoke working on a groovy thing senior term paper try a little tenderness mr. conrad love is blue and the hamburgers are green the games people play when the teacher is not looking midnight confession after school fun magic bus never on time

Chelmsford High has always been proud of its football squad, and this year was no exception. The team was sparked by the performances of Captain Bob Howard, lineman Ken Carpenter, and back Jim Sink, and by the coaching of Tom Eck, David Kerry, and Gerald Schrock. The Chelmsford Lions fought stubbornly for a standing in the Merrimack Valley conference and placed seventh. Two of the most exciting games were the victories over Methuen and North Andover. The returning players, who will provide the nucleus of next year’s team, look forward to a winning season.

lowest score wins

under the direction of coach ed quinn, the c.h.s. harriers extended their winning streak to 31 consecutive wins. co-captains gary pannabecker and mark finneral, along with the extraordinary steve ralowicz, led chelmsford to an 8-1-1 record. chelmsford’s sole loss came at the hands of billerica, causing chelmsford to lose the merrimack valley conference by one point. however, chelmsford won the conference meet for the 4th year in a row. fine performances were put in by senior mike thompson, junior john strojny, and sophomore ed mcقارر. steve ralowicz holds every course record in the merrimack valley. he finished 3rd at the catholic memorial invitation meet and won the conference meet for the 2nd year in a row. he also finished 3rd in the state meet and 7th when he ran against all high school runners from new england. he has thus far accumulated 15 medals, 6 trophies, and 6 plaques.
The varsity field hockey team had a successful season, finishing with 5 wins, 2 ties and 2 losses which put them in 2nd place. Under the direction of coach Marianne Jarema and the leadership of co-captains Diane Tabor and Pam Eek, the team scored a total of 24 goals in 9 games. Diane Tabor scored the most goals during the season. after making the semi-finals of the state tech tourney last year, the lions under coach roger cummings faced an uphill task of rebuilding this year, returning lettermen were tom penny, bill ingalls, david nastasia and rick scharnberg. after a weak start, the team began to win and won 8 of their last 9 league games to finish third in the league with a 12 and 4 record and a chance in the state tournament for the third year in a row.

the leading scorer was team captain tom penny with a 13 point per game average. rick scharnberg led the team in rebounding, and fred george led the team in foul shooting with a 75% shooting average. bob renshaw and dave nastasia were the other two starters and performed well in the tense ball games. the team finished with a 12 and 6 record, their last loss coming at the hands of holy family in the state tournament. the outlook for next year is bright since only 3 players will be lost through graduation.

The girl’s varsity basketball team, under the direction of coach Marianne Jarema and co-captains Lorraine Swensley and Carole Reedy, won six out of nine games this season. The team’s determination to win gave them the ability to place second in the Merrimack Valley League. Special recognition is given to Janet Saulis, who was the high scorer for the team.

Girls’ varsity basketball the girl's junior varsity basketball team, under the guidance of coach Brenda Dianfilo, has succeeded in tying for first place in the Merrimack Valley League. Their outstanding sportsmanship and performances were inspired by the dynamic co-captains Janie Hoyt and Missy Mayer.

Coach William Christman proved a worthy successor to veteran coach Edward Quinn as he maintained the track team's winning tradition. Competing at the Phillip Andover cages, the Christman Crusaders ran, threw, and jumped their way to a 6-3 record. The team also competed effectively in the state meet as they took 5th place. Co-captains Steve Ralowicz and Chris Worth established themselves as mainstays of the team with Steve Ralowicz totaling 45 points in the two mile and Chris Worth amassing 60 points in the high jump and high hurdles. Other substantial contributors to the team's success were senior miler Mike Thompson, senior 1,000 yarder Mark Finnral, senior 600 yarder Warren Cormier, junior 300 yarders Randy Keating and Dan Heitzman, and senior 50 yarder Dick Gargagliano.

under the fine leadership of coach Jerry Schrock, the wrestling team fought its way through a tough season ending with eleven wins and one loss. The lions easily beat all of their opponents except Lowell, which won by the score of 30-26. In what was supposed to be one of the toughest matches of the year, the lions beat the Winchester wrestlers 45-11. Top scoring wrestlers who led Chelmsford through the season were co-captains Bill Cormier and Bill French, Bob Kleynen, Jim Rich and Dave Tousignant. At the end of the season, Chelmsford defeated all of the teams from northeastern Mass in the Sectionals tournament. Placing first in their weight classes were Bob Kleynen—105 lb. class, Brian Corey—129 lb. class, Bill Cormier—117 lb. class, Jim Rich—147 lb. class, Bill French—154 lb. class, Dave Tousignant—162 lb. class and Steve Jones. Placing third in their weight classes were Howard Smith and Jim McCusker. A week later the lions went to the Mass State tournament and captured first place. Jim Rich, Bob Kleynen, Dave Tousignant and Brian Corey placed first in their respective weight classes; Bill French placed second in the 154 lb. class. After two more weeks of tough conditioning, the team entered the New England Finals. The team placed third out of all the teams from New England. Coach Schrock was recently elected state coach of the year by his colleagues for his work with the Chelmsford wrestling team.
