THE LION

— "A picture shows me at a glance what it takes dozens of pages of a book to expound."

Ivan Sergeevich Turgenev
Ded-i-cate (ded-ih-kayt) v. (ded-i-cat-ed; ded-i-cating) 1. To consecrate; hallow; set apart. 2. To give wholly or earnestly up to. 3. To inscribe or address a work to a patron, friend, etc., as a compliment. — ded-i-cate adj.
"You haven't really gone if the one left behind still remembers you."

— T. Mann
One ought; everyday at least, to hear a little song, read a good poem, see a fine picture, and, if it were possible, . . .

... to speak a few reasonable words.
Goethe
The Moving Finger writes; and, having writ, Moves on . . .

Edward Fitzgerald
The Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam
Stanza 71
The end depends upon the beginning.
Manilus
"Being what you are is more important than being what people want you to be."
— A. Hoffman
A friend is one who knows who you are, understands where you’ve been, accepts who you’ve become — and still gently invites you to grow.”
"What is the use of a book," thought Alice, "without pictures or conversation?"

The Class of 1981 presents
The Junior Cotillion

featuring "The Glee Club"
on Saturday, May 17, 1980
10:30 - 11:00 P.M.
at the Club Centenary

$2.50 (incl. drinks)

[Images of people at the event]
The Class of 1981 wishes to acknowledge with grateful appreciation, and with fond regard, the enormous contribution made by Dr. Thomas L. Rivard during his twenty-five years as Superintendent of the Chelmsford Public School System. The children of Chelmsford have been the beneficiaries of his personal and professional commitment to educational excellence. As his public career draws to a close, we hope that Doctor Rivard will enjoy many years of health and relaxation and the precious private time to pursue his varied hobbies and interests. We know that he will always derive great personal satisfaction from the knowledge that he did his very best at all times and in all situations.

To you, Doctor Rivard: health, happiness, peace and contentment.
Salve atque vale!

It is with great pleasure that the Class of 1981 dedicates their edition of The Lion to Mr. Jack Fletcher.

During our three years at C.H.S., Mr. Fletcher has been a source of constant inspiration to all students in the classroom and in athletic endeavors. Teacher! Coach! Friend! We will never forget you!!

PRINCIPAL'S ADVISORY

Now it is our turn . . . we depart . . . each filled with tenuous plans, sincere hopes, and shining dreams of his or her future . . . a future replete with new vistas, new faces, new challenges. Our lives started here . . . we faced the challenge of growing scholastically and socially. Chelmsford High has taught us to accept responsibility, to work toward our goals, to aim for perfection, to find our place in a constantly changing society. We depart, beaming with confidence and filled with gratitude for Chelmsford High, grasping in one hand our diploma . . .

In the other hand, we cling to our yearbook . . . THE LION . . . A BOOK THAT WE WILL RETURN TO OFTEN OVER THE FOLLOWING YEARS. It is only a collection of pictures, sayings, and signatures, yet the cherished memories that are forever locked in our hearts and minds will return to us each time we skim through its pages. What happened to the Class of 81 these past three years, all that we experienced while growing in these surroundings, is unfortunately indescribable . . . only known to us . . . whether sad, exciting, warm, cruel, or lovely, those times are hidden within these pages . . . ours to remember, eternally . . .

Chelmsford High meant many things to every one of us . . . To some, Chelmsford High was a place to develop their skills in the arts: music, drama, literature, and art, and they decorated our school each day with their abundant talents. To some, Chelmsford High meant “Lion Pride” and they developed into fine athletes that led our school to splendid victories. To some, Chelmsford High was a pressured competition of the minds, and they struggled in scholastics for honor and esteem . . .

To all of us, Chelmsford High was a gathering of our peers. We will forever remember this time that we shared learning, living, and laughing together. For above all things that we found at Chelmsford High were golden friends . . . We may never again feel the warmth and closeness of our peers that we did here in 1981 . . .

"Do not walk behind me,
I may not lead . . .
Do not walk in front of me,
I may not follow . . .
Walk beside me and be my friend . . ."

To those who walked beside me . . .
I love you.
God bless us and keep us together always.

On September 23, 1980, 500 members of the senior class participated in a college day program held at Merrimack College. Over 70 colleges were represented, and many aspects of their programs were described.
STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

September

- Thomas Reagan, Sandy Pannabecker

October

- Laurie Nisco, Edward Maybury

November

- Susan Michaud, John Beaulieu

December

- Leslie Siddeley, Dennis Mahoney

January

- Amy Provencal, David Smaldone
SENIOR SUPERLATIVES

Most Likely To Succeed — Sandy Pannabecker, John Beaulieu

Done Most For Class — Amy Provencal, John Amirault

Most Fun To Be With — Diane Clancy, Jeff Kleppin

Class Clown — Bob Brown, Tammy Graham

Class Flirt — Scott McAuliffe, Laurie Dewitt
Most Musical — Patrice Cody, Ron Barth

Most Artistic — Terri LaDow, Eugene Evon

Most Friendly — Wendy White, Brian Kindian

ONWARD
The time is near when we must leave
We walk ahead and feel relieved
Our times together we won't forget
The special feelings, the people we've met
We helped each other and through it all
We must admit, we had a ball . . .
Barbara McDonough 10/11/80
You only live once; but if you live well, once is enough.

Motto — Class of 1981.
From me to you . . .

I, Rick Arosus, leave Mr. Finerity a quiet homeroom.

Deanna Kaskman, leave with fond memories of CHS. and my sister's love for Rick Brown in the IMC.

Karen Allard, leave the same way I came in — through the front door.

John Amundt, gladly leave behind all the financial debts of my class to the Class of 1982.

Beth Anderson, leave Kathy McManus’ Love Bug.

Ted Andrews, leave Mr. Dinah with many turned knobs and my King’s English.

Spencer Apostolos, leave Chelmsford High — high.

Nicole Arida, can’t leave anything. I don’t have enough space in this.

Karen Ares, leave my sophomore year & my “attitude” to Mr. Quinn.

Dale Armstrong, leave Chelmsford High School with 16 different nicknames.

Ken Asmi, leave all the sports I didn’t get into with my sister, Sue.

Kathryn Arruda, leave Mr. Doherty’s infertility complex in English.

David Atalerton, leave CHS — 3 years of bumbling madness.

Hahahahahahaha!!!

Dana Aufmuth, can’t seem to pen in hand and thought in mind.

Peter Atwood, leave with great memories of CHS. and my friend Mary.

I, Dana Austin, leave with fond memories of CHS. and my friend Mary.

I, Susan Babcock, leave my locker to Mr. Conrad my empties.

I, Paula Ayer, leave CHS to travel the world.

I, Mark Auchy, leave all bad grades to CHS. in the hope they will improve.

I, Paula Atwood, leave.

I, Corrie Dostaler, leave all my excuses for not working harder.

I, Glenn Bean, leave Mr. Conrad my empties.

I, Jeff Belanger, leave Mr. Conrad my empties.

I, Randy Boisvert, leave all the sports I didn’t get into.

I, Tammie Boucher, leave CHS to travel the world.

I, Norman Bickford, leave CHS to travel the world.

I, Geoff Bourque, leave another Bourque to CHS.

I, Dena Bradshaw, leave CHS as an unfinished act.

I, Julie Bowen, leave my slightly old lunches to my little sister.

I, Karen Burke, leave CHS.

"The ideal condition
Would be, I admit, that men should be right by instinct;
But since we are all likely to go astray,
The reasonable thing is to learn from those who can teach." — Sophocles

SPORTS BOWL
Activities
American Field Service is an international exchange program. The club at C.H.S. is just a part of the whole A.F.S. chapter of Chelmsford. A core group of interested students, as a club, help support and encourage the foreign students in their courses, activities and throughout their experience.

The senior class is proud to have Marina (from Italy) and Tete (from Spain) as a part of our graduating class. During their stay here, the AFS club as well as the entire student body have benefited from knowing them, and have enjoyed their friendship. We hope that Marina and Maria have grown from their experience here in Chelmsford. We wish them all the luck and success in the world.

The Photography Club offers its members approximately 3½ hours of time in the darkroom each month. The structure is quite informal; some members have had considerable darkroom experience, but most have had little or no previous contact with the darkroom.

This year the club is somewhat smaller than it has been, but the participants have a strong commitment to learning or improving their processing techniques. Most of the time is devoted to black-and-white film development and print making. Current members have also processed their own color negatives and slides; they are in the process of learning to make color prints from negatives and slides.

Some members will transfer the skills they learn to the construction of a home darkroom, the purchase of an adjustable camera, or the pursuit of part-time employment.

The club charges no dues. To this point, the cost of photographic paper and chemicals has been provided through the activities budget. Students generally purchase their own black-and-white or color films.

While the Photography Club is not a highly visible organization, its members derive considerable personal satisfaction from their participation.

On behalf of the 1981 Lion staff, I would like to thank everyone who has helped to make the 1981 Lion a success. Specifically, the following people have been extremely generous in giving their time and effort to the completion of this book.

Business Staff: Carolyn Kelly, Nancy Latham, Audrey Unger, Darryl Clark.

Student Photographers: Amy Levesque, Diane Murray.

Special thanks to Eugene Evon for his numerous art contributions.

I personally wish to thank my fellow editors and our advisors Mrs. Dunn, Mr. Donovan and Mrs. Donovan for their commitments.

Thanks is also appropriate for Guy Garon, of Hunter Publishing Company, along with Jack Kelley of Burlington Studios and their photographers all of whom I have worked with for over two years. Their invaluable services have been greatly appreciated.

During the school year 1980-1981, I have tried to help capture the many events that will bring back fond memories of CHS. I hope this yearbook will help you rekindle your experiences in ways which will have special meanings to all.
