The 1986 Lion is under way. First, the yearbook advisors, Mrs. Silva and Mrs. Fenton, held tryouts for the many roles. Selected from numerous, talented auditioners, the yearbook cast was chosen: Robina Gangemi, Editor-in-Chief; Susan Duggan, Assistant Editor-in-Chief; Pamela Davis and Melissa MacQuarrie, Lay out Editors; Wendy Rourke and Alana Soracco, Copy Editors; Noelle Boc and Betsey Campbell, Activity Editors; Kristine Carlson and Karen deForest, Sports Editors; Karen Cotroneo and Amy Dudek, Underclass Editors; Michael Backman and Steven Kaplan, Business Editors. What a crew!

Work began right away. What will the theme of the yearbook be? What color will the cover be? What material will it be made of? How about the texture of the paper? Decisions, decisions, decisions! Our heads were spinning. "But this is the easy part," the advisors warned. And were they ever right!

The 1986 Lion has been produced for you. Enjoy every memory we have focused-in on. Like you would for any blockbuster, view and review it. Remember it as one of your favorite productions.

The curtain has drawn on our performance as Editors. We will go on to pursue new scripts and act in changing roles; thus, the process begins again. William Shakespeare said that "the world is a stage, where every man must play a part." We look forward to different careers and abundant successes. We wish the same blockbuster experiences to the Class of 1986.

Break a leg,
The 1986 Lion Editors

Editors prepare for The 1986 Lion premiere.
THIS PRODUCTION IS DEDICATED TO...

Special thanks go to Dean Taranto for his care and support. Without his help, this production would never have been made, much less have been such a success. He was present during our first days of rehearsal at McCarthy Junior High School. He decided to follow our progress by going on location with us at Chelmsford High School. But he is no idle fan. On the contrary, he has been one of the driving forces behind our blockbuster. He always knew how much he could expect from us, and guided us appropriately. We grumbled, but just to keep up appearances. We all knew he was on our side.

No mere stagehand, he gave vital direction on our road to success. Always receptive to our ideas for script changes and off-the-set amusement, he also helped in handling our publicity and negotiating our on-the-set conflicts.

And now, Angelo Taranto, after five years backstage, it's your turn. Smile, because the spotlight's on you!

ROAD TO SUCCESS

We’re going down, down, down. SPLASH!!!

Bob, Warren, and Sean take the plunge. Be careful with those stunt cars!

On the path to stardom. Our stars were already accustomed to cameras years ago.
Jennifer Thorburn... a future star?

As if we didn't know!

The cheerleaders were the life of the Powder Puff.

Are these all for me?

We worked behind the scenes, too!

OPENING NIGHT

It's a world dance party.

Ain't love grand?

Bill, Sean, and Jim toast to a good time.

Thanks for the beginning of many wonderful memories.

Hungry Dancers chow down.

Paul and Rayanne say the dancing is done.
Lori and Mike shared a great time.

Dan poses with his beautiful date.

Karen is just the right kind of dear for Curt.

Look at those dimples!

Karen and Bob jitterbug.

No dates, huh, girls?

No dates, huh, guys?
It was Opening Night, a preview of the Junior Class. The Class of 1986 had been looking forward to this grand occasion all year. It was going to be the perfect day.

Well, who forgot to tell Mother Nature that the Junior Cotillion was May 18, 1985? The morning sun never shone through. The afternoon was dismal.

The Juniors worried. Flowing gowns and handsome suits will get soaked. Hairdos will never hold. Corsages will wilt. Shoes will be all scuffed before the first dance. Oh, no!

Had Mother Nature been told, after all? Magically, the rain stopped. The clouds disappeared. A pink and orange sunset adorned the sky. The evening weather was perfect.

Then the limousines started to roll — sixty, seventy, eighty of them, even more. Gentlemen escorted their ladies through the archways, into a garden of splendor. (This couldn’t be Caf III) There were colorful flowers, decorated trees, and soft lights. The Mayburys supplied the music, but we provided our own romance.

The cotillion was a smash! The juniors received rave reviews. The class had successfully united on opening night; it was assurance that our senior year would be wonderful. Phil Collins sang, “One More Night.” Well, we want more than that — we want one more year. And we promise to do it up right.
And they told me I couldn’t play the drums. Mr. Agostino runs a tight ship!

So that’s what they do in Peer Counseling. Jim and Erik are always smiling in English.
Gee, Moona, do you really think that house will stand?

Mr. Fenton, Gary's pal, helps him out with some math problems.

Come on guys, "Math is fun!"

Some friends get together to do some computing.

Katie and Margie check out some prospective prom dates; Jim wishes he were one.

The great chefs, Mark, Mike, and Rhonda unite!
Our production has a cast of thousands, 2,180 to be exact. But we certainly did not expect most of them to break at the same time! Who will forget mod 11 in Caf I and II this year? It changed everyone's eating habits. The slow eaters learned to gobble, polite people pushed through the lunch and snack bar lines, and the maroon-shirted sat (and stood) next to the leather-jacketed. Mod 11 became the butt of jokes and groans, especially by those who ate any other mod. The fortunate cast members who dined before 11:49 or after 12:10 could take time to select a gourmet cuisine according to their whims. Hamburgers with or without cheese, hotdogs, french fries, peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, subs, French bread pizzas, shakes, and many other international delights were available for those requiring a high caloric intake. For those with a more discriminating palate, a supply of fruits, yogurts, salads and skim milk were provided.

Also for their dining pleasure, those cast members who escaped mod 11 were able to choose their atmosphere. Will it be Caf I, where you can savor your meal while quietly studying? Or do you prefer Caf II, where no one scolds you when you yell with your mouth full?

Chelmsford High School's dining rooms are the place to be. The cafeteria workers have plenty of food prepared at all times of the day, and it is always service with a smile. For the students, it is an occasion to take a well deserved break. It is a time and place to meet a friend, complain about a teacher, cram for a test, exchange phone numbers, or enjoy doing absolutely nothing! Some of our greatest decisions and fondest memories have been made in Caf I and Caf II.
Friends gather in the Caf.

Charlie can't wait to dig into the Caf cuisine.

Mike and Steve are all smiles over the Caf food.

Gee, Charlie, is that bacon in your baconburger?

Work crew takes a milk break.

Matt wonders what type of food he's really eating.
There have been great times spent on the hills surrounding Chelmsford High School. The first hill leads to the parking lot scene. Cars, full of half-awakened faces, drive down the back hill each morning. Students drag themselves toward the building, the weight of books slowing their pace. The first hello lights a spark of life. The pace livens. It's catch-up time on last night's news and cram-time for today's test. The mod one bell rings, and production begins. The pattern now is a comfortable groove. Oh, what a change ten minutes can make!

For some, the most popular hill is the smoking area. Real worries of the students are discussed here. Plans for Friday and Saturday night are made. Stories from past weekends are shared. Best of all, admission to "The Cage" is free — unless you are a freshman. Then it's "to the other side of the fence," and who knows what lurks there?

In no time at all, the bell to end mod fifteen rings. It's back outside. Students disperse — some to the playing fields and others to the parking lot. Now, there's some zip in the students' steps. Finally they can stretch, whether it be for warm-ups or their wings.

No one is upset that the school day is over because tomorrow there will be another one just like this one. There is great comfort in knowing that there is constancy in student life. It gives a sense of belonging. Yes, the hills are alive at CHS, sometimes more so than others!
The girls are enjoying their free mods.

Rayanne, Keith, and Missy like the new "Speed Limit".

Mike, Ron, and Steve have fun during school.

Kay, Cheryl, and Tina study while waiting for their bus.

Sue and Cindy share a joke in the Smoking Lounge.

And they said I had no talent.

Love that van!

Missy and Chris try to escape.
STUDENTS STUDY SCRIPTS

A 118' by 134' living area, wall to wall carpeting, a temperature controlled climate, a beautiful view of the New England woodlands, centrally located — who could resist such temptations? All this and more can be found in the Instructional Media Center, the IMC . . . the library.

Upon entering, one cannot help but be impressed. There are over 35,000 books and periodicals for research and pleasure reading. For one's listening enjoyment, whether it be Richard Burton reciting Shakespeare or Motley Crue singing "Looks That Kill," there are records players, and earphones.

Once you have chosen an activity, you next decide on the perfect spot. Does a quiet, secluded carrel suit you? Or do you prefer to hob-nob in the center?

So far, so good. Then the bell rings. The laws are posted. The enforcers arrive. They warn:

1. Loud talking is not permitted.
2. Food is not permitted.
3. Students must enter at the beginning of the mod and remain until the end of the mod.
4. Students may not leave between mods 14 and 15.
5. Students must enter through Whittier House and exit through Emerson House.
6. Popular records must be checked out by 1:00 P.M.
7. Books must be checked out by 1:45 P.M.

A first offense is punishable by a stare from across the crowded room. A second offense gets you a direct verbal threat. Third time, you're out! Supervised study, here you come.

For those who are law-abiding citizens, the library is one of the most prestigious areas in the school. Aesthetically, it truly is beautiful. The atmosphere is completely conducive to learning. Supplies are infinite. Teachers, librarians and aids are available for academic guidance and direction. There are even Monarch and Cliff Notes to help the desperate! The library is a complete learning center where many a class rank has been improved. Three sincere cheers for the Instructional Media Center, the IMS . . . the library!

Karen says, "The better to see my homework with."

Ann is alone in the library?

Matt finds the freshman seating area.

"Stop talking or you'll get six mods."
Where do the students go to map out their illustrious careers? The Career Education Center, where else? The Career Ed Center is an integral part of every-up-and-coming star.

The Career Ed Center offers many opportunities for college bound and career-oriented students. Every Tuesday and Thursday, representatives from various colleges from around New England visit the Career Ed Center. Seniors are encouraged to visit with these representatives so that they can acquaint themselves with the colleges. Mrs. Lynch even bribes prospective students with passes to get them to come to the center during these hours.

Suddenly a whimper is heard from across the room, "Mrs. Lynch, how do I work this TV?"

"That's not a TV! It's a computer. And you use it to find colleges and career choices that interest you."

The career computer is an important part of the Career Ed Center. It contains every college and university from across the nation. Yes, Alaska and Hawaii, too. Any student can look up career and college choices from disks on file and obtain a printout to take home. Information available on screen or printout tells tuition costs, median SAT scores, and other important information necessary for choosing a college or career.

A new addition to the Career Ed Center this year is the laser disk player. Mrs. Lynch receives disks that have short tips about colleges. This new piece of equipment is a particularly handy index.

The Career Ed Center also has Ms. Nancy Bruce to help aspiring professionals learn about the local business world. Students choose from many job opportunities submitted to the Center. Some students have the nerve to ask, "Do I have to work to get money?"

The Career Education Center is not just for making a college or occupational choice. The comfortable atmosphere encourages friends to gather and talk about the day's events.

The staff of the Career Education Center deserves special praise for the time and effort they unselfishly give to Chelmsford High School students. We may not always show it, but we really do appreciate all you have done for us. And always remember, "Fill out all forms with a #2 pencil!"
THE ROCKY HORROR . . .

It's about time they caught up to you, Chris.

Bob and Sue try to tame the savage beast.

Kiss lends a helping hand.

What did you do this time, Ralph?
Send in the class clowns!

Happy holidays!

Come and play at 200 Richardson Road?

What a perfect cast for a horror show.

We caught Moona Cottontail!
Vote for us or else! We won "Cutest Couple."

Talk about a generation gap!

Andy and Rich say, "We were born in East Chelmsford."

Tweedle Dee and Tweedle Dum have many friends.

Curt gets "Into the Groove."

We're ready for midnight madness.
Raggedy Queenan and Slick Rubin "party."

Where's Rambo?

Harum-scarum, but where's the sheik?

Captain of the Pumpkinheads leaves the dance.

Hitler, before and after!

What a Motley Crue!

Rock and roll just isn't what it used to be!

Doug, Lance and Steve say, "Who you gonna call?"
COMEDY SMASH . . .

Seniors are psyched for the junior destruction.

CAUTION: Low flying cheerleaders.

These fans are enjoying the game.

These seniors have the best view in the place.
Paula makes a run for it.

Juniors enjoy their early 6-0 lead at halftime.

Senior boys cheered their girls to victory.

Sherry and Stephanie discuss the next play.

How do we look?

Chris and Murali head for the Powder Puff.

Seniors plan their attack for the game.

... BECAUSE BABY LOOK AT YOU NOW!
STARS

The Class of 1986 is center stage — in the spotlight. Where did we come from? Where are we now? Where are we going?

As Freshmen we took “pot luck” and were told to wait. We polished our skills. As Sophomores we rode the Log Flume at Canobie. Some of us got tossed off and were told to wait. We polished our skills. At last, upperclassmen! Our Cotillion would be in Cafe II. It was beautiful! We had polished our skills.

We were compared to other classes. You can understudy for a lifetime, but no one can really prepare you for “center stage”. It must come from within. Well, we enjoyed a fantastic MORP, an historical Powder Puff, a record-breaking magazine drive, a glamorous Winter Wonderland. The practice and polishing had paid off.

In this class each member is a “star”. But a larger stage awaits us. Our parents and teachers have provided direction through lessons which we’ve not always found in books, but lessons which added depth to our characters. They have given us the strength and courage to dare to dream of stardom yet unrealized.

We are unique, do not try to copy us. The energy from our “star” comes from the knowledge that we existed, we created, we were the Class of 1986. We looked to each other, we needed each other — and, “What having been must ever be!” Do not regret us, do not forget us, never bet against us. Thank you Chelmsford High School for having allowed us to be.

As the curtain opens once again we see a familiar scene... The Bloodmobile. Anxiety replaces our earlier excitement as we enter the room. This is one of our first true senior events. It is also the first blood donation for many of us. "Is this really worth the effort?" we wonder, sitting with a thermometer in our mouth and our fingers getting pricked. Our nervousness increases! The moment arrives; the needle is inserted. Our fears are decreased as we lie still, squeezing the little blue Nerf ball. Time eventually passes and the nurse informs us that the end is near. We're overwhelmed with relief as she removes the needle so much easier than it was inserted. Quickly we are bandaged by the nurse. We get up with our arms bent to aid in the blood clotting. Munching on cookies and drinking juice happily, we feel proud of our achievement. "How was it?" friends ask. "It was nothing! You should do it, too." We encourage enthusiastically.

The Bloodmobile is an experience that will never be forgotten.

This year 108 pints of blood were donated to the American Red Cross by the seniors and faculty. Good job everyone!!
Kim and Colleen are relieved it's over.

Jeff weighs in.

We gave blood, what about you?

The girls admire Mr. Boucher for giving his 110th pint of blood.

Steve and Tina await their turn.

Mark works hard at the blood-mobile.

Murali says, "Blood is thicker than water."

Kris and Tricia are all smiles about giving blood.

CAST CHRISTMAS PARTY

Amy and Craig danced the night away.

The King (Scott MacArthur), Queen (Pam Darrigo), Court, and Royal Advisors

All right now, line up; girl, boy, girl, boy . . .

And what are you smiling about?

You don't want your picture taken by any chance, do you?

And who says three's a crowd?
IN OL’ NEW ENGLAND

Regina and Mark smile for the camera!

Lean to the left, lean to the right . . .

You’ve got a head on your shoulders, Mark.

“I think we’ll sit this one out!”

“Okay, watch closely: left, right, cha cha cha . . .”

A million-dollar smile!

STARS ON PARADE

Flash those pearlys!

The Three Musketeers? Or the Three Stooges?

Go ahead, Mark, pretend the camera isn’t even there!

Step 87: Connect the red wire to the yellow one.

Checking out the library?
Mrs. Smith gives Scott and Diana gray hair.

Mr. Simorellis points the finger at Scott.

How much is that doggie in the window? Mike tells the guests about a mysterious murder.

Dave could just wring Diana’s neck!

Debbie comes between Matt and Dave.

Chris consoles Debbie.

Mike questions the guests.
Chris and Debbie suspect Diana.

Debbie describes how she discovered the body.

Did Dave kill Diana?

Chris and Mike discuss the murder.

Mike tries to kill Debbie again.

Diana is dead!

Mike is the murderer!

Great job, guys!
TAKE FIVE . . .

Ever seen a bumbling bunch of beachcombers?

Siamese sextuplets connected at the sides.

Keith be limbo, Keith be quick, Keith go under limbo stick.

Don Johnson, Look out!

Uh, Pam and Lisa, you missed your mouths.

Are you in this picture?
... AND GO HAWAIIAN!

You guys don't want your picture taken by any chance, do you?

If you lean in, you'll be in the picture, too?

Hey, Mural! Are those crutches or trees?

Will somebody please wake Darren up?!

"Maybe if I open my mouth real wide . . . "

Kris and Kerri do a cool-a hula.

What a Goofy hat!
INTRODUCING MICHAEL DOYLE AS “THE PRESIDENT”

As the President of the Class of 1986, I was acclaimed the lead of our Senior year production. I was chosen to take responsibility, to guide the class to a memorable twelfth year; and I enthusiastically committed myself to attaining this goal. However, a good lead does not create a good production on his own; he relies on the work and support of the other members of the cast, and that is you: the entire senior class. You were responsible for the successes of the past year. You made it happen. I would like to thank the other officers whose major roles helped me: Michael McLaughlin, Vice President; Susan Haggerty, Secretary; and Matthew Whiting, Treasurer. Without their hard work, this year would not have been possible. I would like to thank Mrs. Queenan and Mr. Morse, the greatest advisors a class could hope to have. Finally, the class representatives must be given enormous credit. It was their time and effort that made this year all the more special.

We all began as Freshmen. We were bewildered by the vastness of the high school and intimated by the numbers of unfamiliar faces. We realized that adapting to high school work and society could, at times, be difficult. For the most part, our first year was painless, though challenging.

The following year as Sophomores, we realized that practice makes perfect, and Clubs became a way of life. The aches and pains of the first year at Chelmsford High were fewer and farther apart.

Our Junior year was laced with serious new concepts, such as SAT’s and college. It was also a year filled with fun and success as we came in overwhelming numbers to our Junior Cotillion. Just beginning to show our class spirit, many of us participated in both the Halloween balloon sale and the beach towel sale. We were proving that we were ready for the main event.

We really began to roll as we entered our premier year — we were seniors at last! This once in a lifetime production was packed with enthusiasm and energy. We rose to the occasion by participating in the successful Halloween Dance and Magazine Drive. Our senior activities, including the Girl’s Luncheon at The Windsor, the Boy’s Luncheon at The Wellington, the Senior Banquet at the Westford Regency Hotel, and our Senior Prom at the Copley Marriott Hotel in Boston will most certainly be credited as the most unique and exquisite of Chelmsford High School. And of course there was Graduation Day at Alumni Field. The hugs, the kisses, and the tears symbolized our four memorable years at Chelmsford High School.

As the finale of our production fades, our cast will disperse in different directions to take on new roles in life. We can bask in knowing that our productivity can never be duplicated. We can also enjoy the glorious memories, which will bring us together time after time.

Unfamiliar ground lies ahead. We will have to adapt again and again. But we are veterans of change and will create other productions in other settings. Good luck in the coming years. Welcome your new roles and be successful in them.

Michael T. Doyle
President
Class of 1986
SPECIAL APPEARANCES

Chelmsford High School is a mass production where everyone performs together to make it work. The members of the Class of 1986 are the stars of the show. However, behind the scenes are the Underclassmen, who appear as Special Guests. Each class has a role to play in the Scholastic Variety Show. The Class of 1986 is preparing to take the place of the stars. Their efforts consist of promotion sales, fund raising, standardized test taking, and the research of colleges. The supporting cast, the Class of 1988, participates in Chelmsford High's production with zeal. They enthusiastically make up a special appearance at school affairs. As they perform their Sophomore role, they gather knowledge for their own chance at stardom. They also help prepare for the variety of activities that Juniors must perform. The Freshmen class of 1989, intern when they enter Chelmsford High School. As coming attractions, they present a view of what is yet to come. These Underclassmen, with specific roles, combine to make the essence of Chelmsford High School. Their special appearances add spirit to our extravaganza.
Chelmsford High School’s students act together to produce a masterpiece of achievement. The seniors, the Class of 1986, claim the leading role as the stars. Behind the scenes, however, is the junior class, the understudies.

The junior year is a preparatory year. Students begin to plan for college, take SAT’s and Achievement Tests, and visit college campuses. This year is also used for raising money for our senior year events. Thus far, the Class of 1987 has earned money through the sales of class shirts, Halloween balloons, Christmas ornaments, posters, and a car wash.

Under the guidance of Mr. O’Shea and Mr. Queenan, the Class of 1987 has worked hard to put forth their efforts so that the final act will be spectacular. Even though the juniors know that it will be many months before they will become stars, they watch and learn. They prepare for senior week and future endeavors. They wait anxiously for that special day when they, too, will achieve stardom. They are continuously polishing their talents because they know that today’s stars will move on to new features, placing the understudies, the Class of 1987, in their year to shine. Just as you read this, it’s limelight time!

No one else is doing their work, Johnine, why are you?
The Class of 1988 has performed its role as supporting cast at Chelmsford High School with enthusiasm and charm. Its members continuously participate in schoolwide activities, adding their excitement and eagerness to all events. Many class members worked to help make senior activities a success by acting as host and hostesses. Behind the scenes, they also acted as clean-up crew.

While performing the assignment of supporting cast as sophomores, the Class of 1988 members have also been understudying — training in particular for their transition from sophomore underclassmen to junior upperclassmen. They have gained valuable experience and have enjoyed their supporting role the past two years. However, the Class of 1988 wishes to blaze its own trail to stardom.

In order to shine brightly, the sophomore class has been willing to take on projects, to work hard, and to settle for nothing less than success. The Soc-Hop was enjoyable. The VIDEO-STAR dance was innovative, fascinating, and exciting. As stars in their own video production, the entire class delighted in the success of this major dance program. The Class of 1988 shared its own acting roles with the entire student body and staff.

The class advisors, Mrs. Linda (Tanguay) Geohegan, and Mrs. Anne (O'Sullivan) O'Bryant, find working with the class to be most pleasurable. It is satisfying to encourage the representatives and to help them lead the class with their fine traits. They are hardworking, cooperative, considerate, and energetic.

It should be noted that while the Class of 1988 has enjoyed taking a back seat, it is preparing to be a most dynamic and memorable graduating class.

“Brian will now attempt to destroy the world!”
The Class of 1989, this year’s Freshmen, made their debut in the first week of September with rave reviews after a two-year off high school run at the McCarthy Junior High. It is predicted that this class has varying and extreme degrees of talent that will complement the three classes already present at C.H.S.

The debut was followed by a gala Pot Luck Supper attended by many of the class’ patrons (parents). The script that night included speeches, music, and questions. The highlight of the evening was a delicious array of foods. Enjoyment was had by all.

The directors of the Class of 1989 were chosen by the cast and are looking forward to a fantastic four-year production. They will work hard to promote the class and swell the box office take to support the activities of the class, especially its faraway but sure-to-be spectacular finale in June of 1989.

With increased activity over the next four years, many stars will shine in all areas of production. Sports, scholastics, service, and fans are all major parts of the screen play that is unfolding. The class of ’89 anticipates a fantastic four-year run, with rave reviews for each year of this hit production.

When we remember our senior year, we will wish that the whole world was as happy a place as was our little corner of it. Chelmsford High School provided tranquility and protection for its inhabitants. We had life aplenty. Not everybody around us was so fortunate, though. Some of us couldn’t cook our food because we lost electricity during hurricane Gloria this summer, but how could that possibly compare to famine in Ethiopia? We experienced a high absentee rate this winter because many students and staff were hit by the flu epidemic, but what about the people who died of AIDS? When we remember 1986-86, we will recall the newsmakers and their headlines. Let’s also remember how fortunate we were to experience the peace of CHS.
Now feeling the loss,
What price do we pay
To bring you back
And let you stay.
Not over the loss,
Or sensing it true,
Though you’ve been gone,
We still feel the presence of you.
You were a part of our lives
All in different ways.
New times may never be,
Yet old times are never in a haze.
Still see, your laugh, your smile
And your walk,
Still hear, your words,
Yet never hear, you talk.
We think of you.

We shed a tear.
Always looking back,
Wishing you were here.
We cry for ourselves,
We are left with the pain.
In time it won’t hurt,
In time it won’t strain.
Your thoughts are silenced
In each heart,
A new life now
We all must start.
Until God brings us together,
This is the end.
Yet we will always remember
Our Eternal Friend, Jeffy.
by Rayanne Dunn

Life is a gift to be cherished not wasted or thrown away. Although life may be far from perfect and full of problems, ending your life should never be a solution.

Remember Scott as someone we all loved and looked up to. He was a person who helped us in one way or another. Being such a great person, one wouldn’t think he would take his own life, but, like everyone else, he had his problems.

He wanted peace.
He found the wrong solution.
He chose a permanent solution to a temporary problem.

Scott McArthur is not with us anymore. Cry. Cry for Scott because he will not live out a life that held so much promise. Cry also for yourself, for you have lost a true friend; a friend who focused on your good points rather than your bad; a friend that will be missed dearly.

Scott McArthur is not with us anymore. Smile, Smile because you were lucky enough to have known such a beautiful person. Learn. Learn that even the best of us have problems. No one is immune.

Look after those who have lost their way and give them love. And when you have lost your way, they will look after you. Among friends there is always love and strength, hope and understanding.
Activities are Chelmsford High School's own special effects. They add zest and life to the routine of academic life. Extracurricular activities, each one a unique addition to Chelmsford High School's curriculum, are our special effects.

Scenery is a vital special effect. Without it, the production would seem unrealistic. Likewise, if students were to stay in an academic atmosphere all day, they would not get a true picture of life. Therefore, Chelmsford High School provides outdoor activities such as skiing, canoeing, and outings. These activities teach an appreciation for the natural world in which we live.

Extra-curricular activities at Chelmsford High School also add color to our school and community. The Art Club demonstrates its talents through the murals. The T.V. Studio exhibits our skills to the town on Channel 43.

Many of our activities provide sound effects for the community. They are the means by which students can give their own opinions. The Voice, the Speech and Debate Clubs, and the Students Against Driving Drunk (S.A.D.D.) Club keep students in touch with current issues.

Without the Student Council, Drama Club, The Lion, The Voice, and The National Honor Society, there would be no dances, no plays, no publications, and no gold tassels. These activities are indeed important; however each activity, no matter what the membership, is equally important to its members. Each activity helps students develop their own special effects.

BRITAIN EXCHANGE CLUB

The students traveling to Britain have enjoyed their visit enormously. They have experienced much history and culture in America's mother country.

This group can hardly wait to get to Germany!

This club assumes the British air — or is it London fog?
They're obviously crazy Italians!

Mr. Agostino, you look mahvelous!

The Italian exchange is a very popular club. The members are given a course in Italian to prepare them for the trip and always gain a deep appreciation for the Italian country and history upon their return.

Student Against Drunk Driving work to highlight the problems which result from driving drunk. The goals of the club include: to help eliminate the drunk driver and save lives, to inform high school students of the dangers of drinking and driving, to conduct community alcohol awareness programs, and to organize peer counseling programs to aid students with concerns about alcohol. The chapter members promote these goals by dedicating their time and effort.

Students Against Driving Drunk publicize their message.
COMPUTER TEAM

The computer team solves computer problems and enters competitions. The club encourages students to gain good programming habits and get ahead in the world of computer science.

MATH LEAGUE

The math league competes in math competitions where members try to solve difficult problems in a given period of time correctly to gain points. The students study pre-calculus and usually reach the state level of competition.

Scott Allen, Bob Jasinski (Co-captain), Michael McGuirk, Dan Blackman, Sonia Leach (Co-Captain), David Lee, Will Lee, Tosh Sano, David Grove, Jon Grove, Karen Miu, Jeff O'Neill, Keith Pichtal, Mark Dawson, Ben King, Scott McCaig (Advisor), James Sleeper (Advisor).
With this group, you can see why it's so popular!

FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLUB

The foreign language club is interested in helping students understand other cultures. The club usually conducts several cultural field trips to Boston as well as places like Montreal or Quebec in Canada. Anyone may join and it is extremely popular.

FINE ARTS CLUB

The Fine Arts Club, formerly the Humanities Club, is made up of students who find great interest in exploring the cultural experiences of life. The club goes on several field trips to such places of interest as museums or theaters.
ART CLUB

The art club is for any student interested in learning more about art. The members learn new art skills and work to improve their talents.

The members of the Art Club include members of every high school class. The students are a diverse group with one common interest — a love of art. The club is open to all.

SPEECH TEAM

The Speech Team uses dramatic speaking skills to participate in tournaments throughout Massachusetts. This year, they won first place in the Small Schools Division.

The group is ready and eager to work!

The speech team proudly display their first place trophy!
This Drama Club never "acts up."

The CHS Drama Club is open to any CHS student. The club puts on a play every year; this year was Mousetrap. The members learn all about acting and all the behind-the-scenes maneuvers, including make-up and props.

OUTING CLUB

The Outing Club focuses its activities on non-competitive outdoor recreation. Some activities include hiking, camping, canoeing, biking, and cross-country skiing. The club leads members to learn how to prepare for, appreciate, and enjoy the great outdoors.

The Outing Club is made of members who attend several trips a year. Various members go on different trips and the club is always open to new members.

The Chorus is a fun-loving tribe of all types of students. The club is open to students in grades nine through twelve and no experience is necessary. The chorus gave many performances and can be taken as a chorus with credits.

The members of the chorus are incredibly numerous. Scattered throughout the school, the choral group are rarely at a standstill. Far from anonymous, the chorus is well-known and liked and is always a source of inspiration to CHS.
STUDENT COUNCIL

The purpose of the student council is to make the administration and the student body aware of the other's concerns. The Student Council also supervises student elections.

This club is obviously a diverse and far-reaching group!

The AFS club of CHS is one of the most active in the country. The students have exchanged with students from many far away and exotic countries such as Turkey, Japan, and Finland. Students can be gone from a period of the summer or for a year-long trip. This club is extremely popular and has many fundraisers throughout the year.

The future of business?
A stuntman is a very special man or woman. He risks injury to display his skill, his mobility, and his courage. He is a talented member of a production. The stuntman is our hero because he unselfishly performs many dangerous feats for our entertainment. The stuntmen of our production are the athletes of Chelmsford High School. Athletics, one of the most popular forms of entertainment available at CHS, attracts student and community fans. Precise training is the norm for the stuntman wishing to be the best. Athletes must also train constantly to obtain the skill necessary for a winning team. The athletes unselfishly practice, always seeking victory, but accepting defeat in good stride. Good sportsmanship is always the underlying element. One of the most significant aspects of an athlete and a stuntman is their physical well-being. Toned muscles and lasting endurance are important factors for their success. At home, the loyal fans have cheered the CHS athletes on to many victories. Away, they have been greeted with great respect from other teams in the area. The spectacular stunts the athletes performed have provided excitement and adventure. The contributions of these young men and women have added to the success of our 1986 production.

The Lion's Football season was full of heart. Coach Tom Catio explains, "Football is a funny game. Sometimes the ball just bounces the wrong way. If we had one or two lucky breaks, we just could have been 9-1." But for what Chelmsford lacked in victories this year, they made up with excitement on the field. Captain Harry Ball redefined the term "all around athlete." He dominated the field. Ball’s fellow captains, Shawn McInnis, Robert Laliberte, and Joe Gill also carried their share of pigskin. As a tight end, Sean McInnis along with wide receiver Chuck Keefe, was dubbed the best tandem in the league by the local press. The offensive line, anchored by Laliberte and center Andy Frecker, made it possible for the Dave Markham-Harry Ball combo to be an offensive machine. Quarterback Dave Markham earned the respect of his coach, who has described him as "The best quarterback C.H.S. has had since ... '78."

On defense, linebackers Joe Gill and Russ Russo stopped the enemy attack. Defensive end Lars Yoder and defensive tackle Ross Shay enthused the fans with their quarterback sacks. The defensive backfield consisting of Ken Goodwin, Charlie McCrea, Bill Cerreta, and Harry Ball, kept the opponent's passing game to a minimum.

The C.H.S. Lions didn’t always lead on the scoreboard, but they were always winners according to the fans. Darren Garnick
Coach Gary Fadden strategically advised the Boys Varsity Soccer team to a winning season. The team's 14-3-1 record qualified them for the State Championship.

This year the Boys Varsity team had two senior captains, Jim Poor and Jason Porter, who, along with senior Mark Gere, made the MVC All Conference. Scott Wilson, Mark and Jason made the All-Star team for large schools. Other seniors who played on the Varsity team this year were Paul McLaughlin, Todd Palletta, Bob Considine, Mike Backman and Steve Hill. Each played a significant role on the team. Underclass players also contributed significant support to the winning year.

The Girl's Varsity Soccer Team had a successful season. The team qualified for the State Tournament and became the first girl's soccer team from CHS to win a game in the State Tournament. Although they lost the next game, this was quite an accomplishment for the young Lion team with only three seniors. Team compatibility and a spirited coach were the winning combination. The Lions thank Mr. Rondina for his support and encouragement.

"KICK IT IN"

It was a tough first half.
The 1985 C.H.S. cross-country team was able to capture a third consecutive Merrimack Valley Conference Championship while turning in an undefeated 12-0 record for the regular season. The flying Lions harnessed the conference title with an impressive 25-31 victory.

At the Northern Area Regional Meet, the Lions almost pulled off a team victory, but had to settle for the runner-up position, as they were nipped by Pentucket Regional High by a slim twelve point margin. Two weeks later, the distance men put forth an equally impressive performance, hauling in a third-place finish at the Eastern Massachusetts State Championships. In the final race of the season, the All-State Championship Meet, the determined Lions got their revenge, earning second place against the top teams in Massachusetts.

The '85 squad was led by junior sensation Mike Chamberas. He shattered the C.H.S. course-record by covering the 3.0 mile course in a blazing-fast time of 14:35. Senior Co-captain Greg McGurin gave strong support, clocking a personal record of 14:42 on the home course. Combining with the other Senior Co-captain Scott Brouillette, they provided guidance to talented underclass runners, such as sophomore record-setter Eric Beauchesne, Jamie Duff and Bill Avery.

Pounding the pavement certainly paid off. Congratulations, team, for a very successful year.

This year's Girl's Cross Country team had a season of new accomplishments and record-breaking performances. Anne Frame and Kathy Gavin smashed the sophomore and freshman course records, respectively. The girls also defeated teams never before beaten by CHS in Conference Meet Action. In the first meet of the season, the Lions finally ended Haverhill's winning streak to 31 meets!

Anne Frame, Kathy Gavin, Kathy Wood, Linda Miron, and Sara Dulgarian were consistently the top five scorers for the team, receiving support from Susan McDermott, Amy LaBrecque, and Beth Barwise. The athletes loved winning the Merrimack Valley Conference Title. But it was the team comradery that was the real crowning achievement.

It started out as a dream. In September of 1984, Mr. Whitehead gathered a rag-tag group of 25 students together with hopes of organizing a boys' volleyball team. This was no easy task, for boy's volleyball teams are virtually non-existent on the east coast.

The record books show that Chelmsford went 4-6, but anyone who has watched them play can attest that the Lions were better than a 4-6 team. In the last game of the regular season, coming in with a 3-6 record, Chelmsford upset previously undefeated Northfield-Mt. Hermon. This victory was extremely significant because it showed how much the Lions had improved over the season.

Co-captains Charlie "C.J." Johnson and Jon Aronie certainly lived up to their expectations as far as leadership is concerned. "C.J.", with his perfect sets, made the vicious spikes of Aronie, Kevin "Doc" McLaughlin, Todd Groman, and Curt "In your face" McClain possible. But defense is what kept Chelmsford in the game all season long. Derek Benson, "Pistol Pete" Atkins, and Murali "Mr. Defense" Sastry saved many points with their aggressive "dive on the floor" style. The team's bench provided reliable depth. The players who filled in the gaps were set specialist Scott Bertini, offensive forces Al Grant, John Krause, Darren Garnick, and Albert P. Ward.

In post-season play, Chelmsford came out on top, winning the volleyball tournament at Northfield-Mt. Hermon. Technically the Lions are state champs. Not bad for a 4-6 volleyball team — a team that would never say die.

Coach Dana Howe's Girls' Volleyball team won the MIAA Division I High School State Volleyball Tournament, recording the first CHS Volleyball State Championship.

In the Lion's regular season the team went undefeated, 18-0. Each player had her own specific job to do, and each of them performed beautifully. Setters Mary Tyler and Lori McLaughlin held the team together. Kris Shields and Kerry Cody were terrors at the net. Hitters Allison Aronie and Andrea Zipilivan spiked for victory. Jan Andrusaitis and Karen Robillard kept the back court alive. Sue Therriault and Michelle Boucher served well all year. We wish Coach Howe and the All-Stars continued success.

Undefeated, untied are the two words that best describe the victorious season of the 1985/86 Girls Varsity Swim Team. This squad of forty-six swam their way to the top this past fall proving to be the strongest girls team ever in the history of C.H.S. under coach Allen Thomas.

Unfortunately, success was not easy to come by for these swimmers and divers. These ambitious and determined girls dedicated endless hours of strenuous workouts after school each day. As hardwork usually pays off, it did for them. This mighty Lion team was the Dual Meet Champion of the Merrimack Valley Conference and the dominating force at the M.V.C. Championship Meet to steal the trophy away from the rival Haverhill team. They also qualified 16 swimmers for the North Sectional Swim Meet. This year, the wet look was in at C.H.S.

Cheerleaders are an athletic team, practicing every day after school. This year, CHS is especially fortunate to have three captains: Mara Burger, Marianne Bernazani, and Jennifer King. In all CHS has twenty-three cheerleaders including mascot, Raye Ann Dunn. Cheerleaders rehearse over fifty routines, each including dance and gymnastic maneuvers. The cheerleaders are an integral part of the school’s athletic successes. They encourage and maintain school spirit and school pride. They work hard to cheer the teams on to victory.

Colleen O’Keeffe

The football cheerleaders give the boys their all.

Debbie and Todd discuss the game.
Coach John McLaughlin’s golf team had a very successful season, finishing second in their league with a final record of 12-3-1. The senior captains, Erik Okvist, John Suprenant, who was the third place individual champ of the league, and Steve Vellucci were selected to represent CHS at the State Championship. Besides having a winning year, the team also had a change of season. This was the first year that the CHS golf team played in the fall rather than in the spring. This change was conducive to winning because of the constant playing time the golfers received during the summer.

The home golf matches are played at Apple Country Club in South Chelmsford. Mr. McLaughlin says of the club, “If it weren’t for Apple, we’d be playing out on North Road somewhere”. Congratulations to a team that was really up to par!

Kris Carlson
The Chelmsford High School Boys Swim Team were undefeated in Merrimack Valley League competition and all other dual meets for the third year in a row. They also won the North Sectional Championship. They had thirteen swimmers and divers named to the Merrimack Valley League All-Star Team which competed against the Dual County League All-Stars for the first time. And they finished seventh out of eighty schools at the state meet.

Co-captains Marc Levarn and Peter Sullivan led the team. Levarn specialized in the 200 yard individual medley and the 100 yard breaststroke. Sullivan also did well in those events, and freestyle. Jim Burke and Rich Hendl usually swam in the 50 yard and 100 yard freestyle events. Andrew Hendl was helpful in almost every event. Dave Benson contributed in the 100 yard breaststroke and the relays.

Thanks to coaches, John Lightfoot (diving), Steve Weisfeldt (assistant swim) and Allan Thomas (head swim) for their patience and encouragement.

Coach Tom Gallagher's 1985-86 basketball squad ended with a 16-4 record and qualified for the Division 1 State Basketball Tournament. The three seniors, Mark Brighi, Mike O'Leary and Jimmy Reeks, along with junior guards Mike O'Keefe and Steven Murphy, headed the starting line-up. Playing well off the bench were Scott Bell, Steve Curran, Sean Curran, Dave Pucci, Kevin Hayes, Steven Yerid, Eric Sawyer, and Kevin Kilcoyne. Coach Gallagher and his team deserve credit for their outstanding scoring and sportsmanship.

Let’s Go Chelmsford!
C.H.S. Girl's Varsity Basketball has finished the 1985-86 season with an overall record of 15-5 and 14-4 in M.V.C. play. Losses were not defeats for our team; they just made us try harder. Our strength, talent and ability led us to the Division I State Tournament.

Kris Shields is our "franchise"; she is an incredible player. She made Lowell Sun Player of the Week three times, M.V.C. All Star and the All Conference Team. Another credit to her is that she is a team player.

Paula McHale, Sharon McHale and Kim Ross greatly helped our cause, playing point guards. Jan Andrusaitas and Brita Sorli hustled for the ball on the Junior Varsity and Varsity teams. Kerry Cody, Lynne Sachetti, and Sherri Curley dominated the boards with countless rebounds, as did Kris Shields. The outside shots of Mary Tyler and Sue St. Germain made the difference in many games. As the season progressed, Allison Aronie proved to be a valuable player. She, too, had a good outside shot and strong defensive rebounds. Allison and Sue were each recognized as Lowell Sun Players of the Week, and M.V.C. All-Stars. Katie Wood and Coleen Kelley were not forgotten either—they played our low and center positions and succeeded in dominating the boards. Coach Buzzy McHale deserves great credit for his talent and enthusiasm. He encouraged the girls to want to be the best in the state.

WRESTLING

Could the wrestling team be less competitive? Would that be possible? The answer, of course, is the proverbial "no." The Lions easily accumulated an enviable 16-0-0 record (8-0-0 within the Conference).

The Lions' success can be mainly attributed to the leadership qualities of Quad-Captains Richard Lynch, John Clement, Scott McArthur, and Chris McArthur. Fan-Favorite "Spanky" Lynch made his opponents look like posable action figures in his hands. He became well-known throughout the MVC for his brilliant execution of Karnikazee and the figure four headlock. Clement tended to stick to the basics throughout the year. His victory over Teuksbury's John Devivo at the MVC tournament was the biggest upset of the year. Superstar siblings Scott and Chris McArthur proved to be outstanding success stories. Scott was famous for his technical fall. Chris often pleased the fans with the fireman's carry — his favorite and most effective move. Another successful force on the team was Bob Weilbrenner who only had one loss all year.

Two more wrestlers who cannot be ignored are Juniors Kevin McCarthy and Russell Bickford. McCarthy has not dissapointed anyone, placing first in the Lowell Holiday, Wayland and Chelmsford Invitational Tournaments, as well as going undefeated for the entire season. Bickford came through with clutch performances in the Woburn and Lowell meets. He is destined for stardom next year. Sophomore Eric Frobese and Juniors Chris Castino and Steve McClure hung tough the entire year and should start again next season. McClure earned the coveted Most Outstanding Wrestler Award at the Chelmsford Invitational Tournament.

Congratulations for an outstanding season. To the opponents, always remember, "There's no use trying when you're wrestling a Lion."

JV Record 22-0
The Chelmsford Indoor Track team, coached by Mr. Bill Christman, captured first place in the Merrimack Valley Conference. The team strived for a perfect 8-0-0 record. In post season, Chelmsford took first place in the Northern Area Track Meet and finished a close second in the Class A State Meet.

All this would not have been possible without the outstanding senior backbone. Co-Captain Charlie McCrea is All State Champion, Class A State Champion, and holds the school record of 5.3 seconds in the 50 yard dash. Also, Co-Captain Greg McGuin placed fifth in the two mile at the states. Rick McDonald is holder of the school record of 1:34.4 in the 600 and placed second in the 600 at the States. Harry Ball grabbed fourth in the 300 in the States and is a Northern Area Champ. Other seniors who contributed to the success of the team by continually finishing strong are undefeated high jumper Lars Yoder, undefeated 308 Scott Wilson, Mike Christman, Bob Laliberte, Scott Brouillette, Mark Keenen and Mark Muzi. Congratulations to the Indoor Track Team!

GIRLS TRACK

Under the direction of Mr. Lang (Coach), Mr. Quinn (Asst. Coach), and Mr. Doherty (Asst. Coach), the girls’ indoor track team strived its way through a very successful season. Led by co-captains Linda Miron and Laura Cai to and assistant caps. Regina Deluca, Julie MacPhee, Lori Manzi, and Lori Michniewich, the predominately underclass team completed the dual season with a record of 6-2-0. Every win was the result of great depth and tremendous team effort. In addition, outstanding performances were consistently contributed by Jackie Harris (4k. shot put school record holder), Kara Marshall (All Conference middle-distance), Lori Michniewich (All Conference hurdles), and Linda Miron (All Conference long-distance; 1000 yrd. run school record holder).

The fun of running track this winter was not simply the thrill of winning meets. Rather we shared many good times while training and competing. We obviously won't miss hard workouts (circuits anyone??) dropping batons in relays (now, who did that??), or certain opposing coaches, but there are many things we will miss. Who could forget hide and seek work-outs in the halls, boisterous bus rides (Wham Rap through Harvard Square!), or our own infamous track dance ("jav! double jav")??

Thank you Mr. Lang, Mr. Quinn, and Mr. Doherty for your outstanding coaching. We leave this season looking forward to next year. (Watch out Lowell and Andover!) Senior Linda Miron wishes the team good luck and good times for next year.

The Success of the C.H.S. Hockey Team whose overall record is 12-0-3 and whose league record is 9-0-2 was ranked a strong second in the state this year. Seniors Gary Bruno and Bob Sullivan (forwards) contributed numerous goals and added an offensive punch to win 12 out of 15 games. Defensemen, Mark Dearborn and Brian Egan provided good offense on the powerplay. Ron Webber (goalie) the backbone of the team, is said to be the best goalie in New England. Captains Webber, Sullivan, and Dearborn led ten juniors and five sophomores through their outstanding season.

GYMNASTICS

Gymnastics requires skill, concentration and teamwork. The CHS gymnastics team has demonstrated all of these qualities this year. Chandra Cole started off the season at the top of the team, but unfortunately, she was injured in her fourth meet. Julie Coppola then took over the spot. The only senior on the team, co-captain Julie achieved an all around score of 29.0. Co-captain Sue Popp topped her high score with a 6.5 at the Merrimack Valley All Conference. Julie Webber and Alex Robinson were the other high scoring members of the team. The team reached the Merrimack Valley Conference and placed third with a score of 107. For sportsmanship and perseverance the Chelmsford High School Gymnastics team scores a ten.

The word is out The 1986 Lion is a smash hit. Critics are raving about the production. The 1986 Lion is directed by Mr. George Simonian, Principal of Chelmsford High School. He rallies support from all. The Class of 1986 selects Mr. Simonian as Director of the Year. Mr. George Betzes, Assistant Principal, is an active participant in making CHS a smash hit. He schedules students and staff to make sure productivity is at a maximum each minute of the day. He certainly deserves the Co-Director of the Year Award. There are four assistant directors in the production: Dean John Conrad (Whittier House), Dean Angelo Taranto (Hawthorne House), Dean Edward Quinn (Emerson House), and Dean Donald Boucher (Dickinson House). On a daily basis, they determine rights and responsibilities of all cast members. The deans play a very sensitive role, being both supervisor and friend to the production staff. The stage crew is made up of the teachers. Without them, we would not be a smash hit, but a smash up. Every single day they guide, remediate, and enrich us. They are our motivating force and comfort. They deserve a standing ovation, one that comes from our hearts. Chelmsford High School has created an award-winning production. Dalton Trophies, Globe Art Recognitions, Columbia and American Scholastic Certificates, Math League First Placements, Drama Guild Competitions, and Musical Concerts have become annual events at CHS. The Class of 1986 appreciates the effort and energy that the academic staff puts forth. A heartfelt thanks to each of you.

As we leave Chelmsford High to enter college or the business world, there are many challenges and opportunities that the Class of 1986 will accept and achieve. We will encounter these quests frequently, and we must learn to deal with them in the most efficient, yet productive way. The 1986 LION, like any other challenge, needs support — monetary help to achieve a worthwhile product. The business section of the yearbook plays a major role in producing an exciting publication.

THE 1986 LION staff sells subscriptions to help pay for all the materials needed to create the yearbook. Before the actual release, funds were required to purchase the raw materials: the cover, the paper, the ink. We also visited various businesses in the Chelmsford community to solicit advertisements for the yearbook. The thousands of dollars collected defray subscription costs. That way you can buy a quality product at a reduced cost.

The Chelmsford community generously supported the Class of 1986. We are sincerely grateful for their contributions and their well wishes.

I, Kenneth J. Armstrong, leave the ripped-up Armstrongamia half shirt to John Sorbi. I also leave the flewing jokes to the guys in the Carrer Ed.

I, Michael J. Backler, leave a "Get out of class free" card to anyone who lovely tests are wastes of time. Why study when you can sleep or TV watch?

I, Harrison Ball, leave Jeff the Hoss, Mr. Hazzard a clock, Mr. Sorenson a clue, Mr. Doherty a date, Lars an "A" for effort on Debbie and for Florida.

I, Paul Belanger, leave everyone the message to crank it up.

I, Dana Bennett, leave my NY license to KL, pingpong ball to KR, sunglasses to SS, search Mark Jam to the Class of '87. I also leave for CC.

I, Robert J. Berger, leave all my "Crispy-Crittered" integrated circuits to Mr. DiNatale.

I, Jacqueline M. Bezden, leave Christine to room 228 and my locker to Dean Conrad. I leave many thanks to Mrs. Silva, for the help she gave me.

I, Denise M. Bicola, leave Chelemsford High School after four long years, with the greatest memories and friends.

I, Noelle E. Boc, leave to the Scream Team: green contacts and an empty locker to Jim, my megahappy to Baby, a 42 to Gary, a 32 to Bets and all my love!

I, Erin W. Brackett, leave Joe Dulac 3 chocolate chips cookies! And to Babz I leave the remains of the ice cream on my window!

I, James D. Burke, leave my keyboard to Dave White.

I, Sheila Balmah, alias "Here", leave Brian Egan a brand new American Flag and to chubs I leave a sturdy hand for ice cream cones!!

We, Diane Cadogan and Donna Flaherty, leave Chelemsford High as friends.

I, Kristine R. Carlson, leave Gym and with Dave and Matt and John on the putting green, and Burlington studios to Mrs. Fenton and Mrs. Silva! Bye!

I, Suzanne J. Caron, leave Chelemsford High for college — wherever I may go.

I, Peter Cassely, leave for bigger and better things, and I leave still listening to Stevie on my walkman and I leave my awesome mural.

I, Cheryl A. Cogna, and Susan E. Doughan, leave Mr. Savosik his dictatorship and a lump of coal for next Christmas!

I, Bernadette M. Coutier, leave Lynne and Kelly lots more good times at CHS, Cathy Jo you're not forgotten. Thanks, Mary. So long, Mom; so long, Dad!!!

I, Lee E. Chamberlain, leave Mrs. Donovan many thanks for all of the second chances, she gave me and leave Jeff Geri his heart that I stole!

I, Deborah Pessicone Conosich, being of my own mind, leave with high aspirations, integrity intact, and a heart that beats long and true for Dave.

I, Julie A. Coppola, leave Wiltkiwy to say you Nasty baby!!! Also I promise to send help to Jo Holland.

I, Jessica Costa, leave with dreams of California, Laura's friendship, and the greatest memories of my high school years.

I, Pamela A. Darrigo, leave Ms. Carasso all my forbidden words to next year's seniors! I also leave Dean Boucher a year supply of Polo Cologne!!

I, Pamela A. Davis, leave my backpack to anyone who wants to carry it, and leave Mrs. Silva with Betty, the new Editor-in-Chief.

I, Mark Deborn, leave Coach Fletcher nothing because I'm not good enough.

I, Colleen T. Decew, leave Robyn many more years of friendship, vanilla milkshakes to Lisa, my cracked knuckles to Lauri, and a big hug to Bob.

I, Karen E. DeForest, leave Dennis my other three-quarters; Ian fun fysics; next year's sport's section to Wendy; and I leave CHS again.

I, Karen M. Desmarais, leave Mr. Ford's calculus class to integrate sinx, and leave Mr. Desrochers, leave Dean Taranto a dollar so he can eat lunch. I leave Matt a burn.

I, Christina Diodati, leave wishing good times to the Teaparty and forever winking.

I, Kimberly A. Dolan, leave Mr. Quinn a free haircut when I get my license, and a plastic bubble for Mr. Doherty so he can't injure himself anymore.

I, Joseph M. Dulac, leave my voles tapes to who wants something bad to happen to them.

I, Rayanne M. Dunn, leave Mr. Taranto my headaches from the past four years and to Mr. Fletcher I leave a spark and some gas to make his own fires!!

I, Donna E. Dye, being of abused mind and body, leave Robin 1:28:40; commitment, and a limo; Karen and Mel, memories of New Years '86; Laura a tanningbed!!

I, Douglas S. Eickelkamp, leave Mrs. Donovan all the movies and Monarch notes that Matt and I used instead of reading the novels assigned.

I, Catherine A. Egan, leave Conch Thomas an orange cap and a Banana Nose, Prescott a color coordinated wardrobe, and think our car.

I, Brian D. Egan, leave John E. Fletcher some Milk Bones in a brown bag.

I, Joann M. Falardeau, leave CHS behind with a lot of memories! Shawn, Judy, Todd!!

I, Daniel Fedele, leave Chelsmsford High all the aggravations that I tried so hard to give them. I also leave for my second glorious time!! Yahoo!!

AN INTERVIEW WITH THE SENIOR CLASS ADVISORS

1: How much money has the Class of '86 made?
Mr. Morse: About $23,000 (as of March 1).
2: What does your job entail? The reps' job?
Mr. Morse: Planning and coordinating all class activities and supervising the events themselves to their successful completion.

Mrs. Queenan: Our job goes so far beyond what one sees. We must make sure that each student has been measured for cap and gown.

We must also supervise the paying of senior dues and update a list of those who have left the class or come from other schools where they have already paid their dues.

When students of our class misbehave at an event or there is trouble at an event, we are the ones who are brought in to Mr. Simonian's office and questioned.

We must go out and practically beg teachers to chaperone an event.

We must encourage and practically force our reps and officers to make posters, sell tickets, bake, and attend all senior functions which they are responsible for.

At an event, Mr. Morse and I must do a job that a rep or officer has not done due to not being present.

We must also always remain at the end of a dance to clean up when some of our seniors have left with their dates.

We must or are supposed to be understanding at meetings when our reps and officers go to a sport practice instead of attending our meetings; which are always scheduled on the same day.

We must or are supposed to be understanding when a rep or officer can only stay at our meeting for 10 minutes because they have a practice.

The reps and officers job entails a great deal. In my opinion, reps and officers should have total dedication to the class. They should attend all meetings for the total amount of time. They should help decorate before all events or get someone to help in their place. During an event, they should not forget what time they are to do their work. They should encourage others to pay their senior dues.

3: What made you decide to become our advisor?
Mr. Morse: Mrs. Queenan — and a desire to be involved with the people in the Class of 1986.

Mrs. Queenan: I have been a class advisor twice during the 16 years that I have been a teacher in Chelmsford. I also took through the Class of 1982. Mr. Morse was also class advisor with me then. There is something very special about being class advisor. First of all I believe that to be a successful class advisor, one must have an excellent partner. It is almost like being married. You have to pick a co-worker who has many of the same ideas and philosophies which you have. You have to have a special idea of what the class is like.

Most important, you have to understand what the marrow of the class is like.

Your class cannot and must not be compared to previous years. Each class has its own personality. The advisors must understand how the class ticks; the inner workings of the class.

I feel Mr. Morse is the best person to work with. My strengths are his weaknesses. We are never in competition with each other. We never argue in front of our reps and officers. All decisions are discussed beforehand by us so that we go in to the meetings with a unanimous decision.

When we are pleased or disappointed with our reps we always express our feelings together. Never is one class advisor the heavy and the other totally taciturn. Mr. Morse is an excellent class advisor and a very special friend.

He and I are totally dedicated to this class.

4: Everyone knows the Class of '86 is different. What are some characteristics that make it different.
Mr. Morse: Energy, personality, and individuality.

Mrs. Queenan: I realize this because they are unique. They are also individualistic. There are many strong personalities in the class. This made the class very interesting.

Few teachers wanted to become class advisors to this class because of their reputation from the junior high. Mr. Morse and I felt it would be a challenge to take them through.

It certainly was. In retrospect, I would take them through again.

5: Roughly how much time goes into the planning of a successful senior year?
Mr. Morse: I lost count at 1,000 hours.

6: Have you enjoyed being our advisor and/or found it rewarding?
Mr. Morse: Yes, very much. It has been in some ways the most rewarding of the three years in which I have advised.

7: Do you have any parting comments for the Class of '86?
Mr. Morse: Yes — do not let yourselves down. You have a destiny which awaits you. Go meet it, armed with the best skills you can learn and muster along the way — don't accept less of yourselves than you are capable of.

Mrs. Queenan: I am very honored to be class advisor to the class of 1986. I hope that they will take their individual personalities and use them to advantage.

I hope that they will have benefited from many of their teachers.

I hope their lives will reflect some or many of their aspirations.

For most, they will not become famous or super rich. But it is important that each makes the most of his/her life and is happy within that lifestyle.

I hope that if and when I meet members of the Class of 1986, these individuals will express to me that Chelmsford High was a valuable experience.

Some people climb a mountain and only see one aspect. I have been able to climb a mountain with this class for 3 years and have seen the entire vista on the other side. What an exhilarating vista it has been.

SPECIAL THANKS TO . . .

Well, guys, it's here. Time for the finales, then our production is complete. For the seniors, it's time to move on, to advance our careers, to take part in other productions. Chelmsford High was a springboard for us, and, even though we had a great time, we must move on. Underclassmen; we ragged on you, but it's tradition. Wait until you're seniors, and you'll know why we did it!

I may have had the title and recognition, but this yearbook would be about 20 pages long if I had had to do it alone. The fact that it is 240 pages long speaks well for the incredible group of editors who worked with me. Amy and Karyn got pictures of every homeroom and coordinated them with the right class lists. Sue got pictures of every faculty member. Noelle and Betsey took pictures of every club and got their members list. Kris and Kerri went to all the games, took pictures, and got their team lists and scores. Mike and Steve pounded the pavement to collect ads so we would have enough money to print the yearbook. Through it all, Missy and Pam did layouts. Alana and Wendy typed hundreds of pages of copy for us. (Remember Saturday deadlines? Who said this: "I hate the yearbook!")

The amount of work that goes into a yearbook is phenomenal, and The 1986 Lion is no exception. It would, quite simply, not exist if we hadn't had Mrs. Silva and Mrs. Fenton to guide us. We came into this project with ideas, and not much else. We had to record all the major (and some minor) events of a large school in photos and in writing, and cram an entire year's production into a 240 page program. Layout? Copy? Artwork? DEADLINES?! And we can't ignore Mr. and Mrs. Donovan, who guided the business editors.

The standing ovation is over and the applause has died out. The actors have taken their final bows and are leaving to star in other roles. But as the lights come up, I am reassured that this yearbook will forever remain a program for our production, and can proudly say, "THAT'S A WRAP!"

Sincerely,
Robina A. Gangemi
