HEROES
Heroes can be found everywhere. The people whom we call heroes, those whom we look up to and admire, and often who have done something we respect, guide us to become who we are.

We, the Class of 1996, have worked over these past thirteen years to become heroes in our own right. This book, The 1996 Lion, records our journey towards heroism, and reminds us of what we have accomplished to deserve the title "hero".

"We all live in suspense, from day to day, from hour to hour; in other words, we are the heroes of our own story."

Mary McCarthy
There's a hero
If you look inside your heart.
You don't have to be afraid
Of what you are.
There's an answer
If you reach into your soul
And the sorrow that you know
Will melt away.

And then a hero comes along
With the strength to carry on
And you cast your fears aside
And you know you can survive.
So when you feel like hope is gone
Look inside you and be strong
And you'll finally see the truth
That a hero lies in you.

It's a long road
When you face the world alone
No one reaches out a hand
For you to hold.
You can find love
If you search within yourself
And the emptiness you felt
Will disappear.

Lord knows
Dreams are hard to follow
But don't let anyone tear them away.
Hold on
There will be tomorrow
In time you'll find the way.

-Mariah Carey
The rain stopped falling, the stormclouds hanging over Chelmsford blew away, and the stars emerged. It was Saturday, May 13th, the night of the Junior Cotillion. Just after 7:00 that evening, the enchanted ladies and gentlemen began wandering in. Chelmsford High had been transformed into another world. After enjoying refreshments in the first cafe, the dancers entered the moonlit tunnel that led to the star-studded ballroom. The romantic city skyline surrounded them as they swayed to the music of the stars. Romance and fun abounded, as they danced from everything from "American Pie" to the "Mexican Hat Dance," to "YMCA," to the theme song, "When the Lights Go Down in the City," by Journey. But without the hard work from our "heroes," the Class of 1996 Reps., none of this would have been possible. Everyone was sorry to see the Cotillion come to a close, but it was a night under the stars that will never be forgotten.

HALLOWEEN DANCE

The night of October 28th, 1995, found CHS haunted with a strange cast of characters. The Class of 1996 showed their spirit in such award winning forms as: the cast from The Rocky Horror Picture Show, Beauty and the Beast, a red devil, and, of course, SUPERHEROES. This crazy cast danced up a storm to both old favorites and new ones, along with quite a few "theme songs" that matched the characters perfectly. The judges (our "everyday heroes") were amazed and awed by the Class's spirit, and one even pulled out her broom for a ride to the awards table, where she received a generous gift from the Class of 1996 for all of her hard work and dedication this year. (Thank you Mrs. Coffey!) The Halloween Dance was a great success; a chance for the Seniors to literally let down their hair amidst the hectic pace of their last year of high school. The night flew by, the spirits dissolved back into familiar faces, but the memories live on...

I write this letter with emotions of pride, anticipation, and sadness—pride in what we've accomplished and how we've grown in these past four years, anticipation of our future, and sadness over having to part with dear friends.

I am so thankful for the time spent and for having the chance to get to know you. I've had such a great high school experience, but I couldn't have done it without the help and support of many people.

I would like to first express my sincere gratitude to my fellow class officers: Chris Steiling, vice-president, for his spirit and his ability to pull through for me in all situations; Joy Allen, secretary, for her resourcefulness, dedication, and loyalty to our class; David Crow, treasurer, for his original ideas and his dependability. I especially want to thank our class advisors, Denise Coffey and Ann Swiezerbin, for their unending patience and support. To the class reps, I want to acknowledge their time and dedication, and hard work. To the entire class of 1996, I thank you for your enthusiasm, participation, and spirit. I was honored to have been the president of such a fine class.

On a sadder note, our lives are changing and some things will never be the same. But one thing can never change: memories. My fond memories of the Class of 1996 will forever remain in my heart. I will never forget you. Good luck, I wish you success in all you do.

Happy are we met, and happy have we been,
Happy may we part, and happy meet again.

Thank You
Mrs. Coffey and
Mrs. Swierzbin

Throughout our four years at Chelmsford High School Mrs. Swierzbin and Mrs. Coffey have been supporting and caring towards all members of the class. Whether it was in the classroom or at an extra-curricular event, they always were there to lend a helping hand or give some advice. Both gave generously of their time. They provided us with the leadership we needed to grow within ourselves and as a class, and the class of 96 greatly appreciates all of their efforts.
Dedicated to Mrs. Silva...

Courage, patience, optimism, warmth, generosity... Mrs. Silva possesses all of the qualities that we look for in a hero. In her nearly twenty years of teaching freshman and sophomore English at Chelmsford High School, Mrs. Silva has touched the hearts of many -- both students and teachers alike. She has been an inspiration to us all.

Students who have had Mrs. Silva remember how she always pushed them to live up to their potential. At times when it seemed like no one else cared, Mrs. Silva encouraged her students by letting them know that she believed in them. Her classes were always innovative and exciting; from engaging in a heated debate concerning the moral of a story, to role playing, to listening to a classmate present a new and interesting concept, Mrs. Silva's students were given the opportunity to learn as much from each other as they learned from her. In addition to being such a wonderful teacher, Mrs. Silva was also yearbook advisor for many years. And, as anyone who has ever been on the staff of The Lion can attest to, this is no small job. Mrs. Silva, through her hours of hard work and motherly counseling, earned the respect and admiration of both her students and her yearbook staff. To show their admiration, the Class of 1989 dedicated their Lion to her. Many of Mrs. Silva's former students continue to visit her -- to them, as to all of us, she is a truly unforgettable woman.

More than a few teachers will remember the mischievous qualities in Mrs. Silva. Who was it, after all, who would sneak over to Sully's seventh period to buy ice cream...and who would bring some back for the Principal and Deans so that they would have no way in which to legitimately chastise her for her devilry? And who was it who used to engage in such practical jokes as turning the chairs in Mrs. McCoy's room to the wall, playfully rearranging the messages on the house bulletin board, or harmlessly placing the wrong mail in the wrong boxes? Mrs. Silva's intelligence, warmth, and delightful innocence has certainly always been tempered by a playfulness that we could all use a little more of.
Mrs. Silva's strength has enabled her to live for many years with an illness that few of us could have withstood quite so courageously. Throughout it all, she has retained her optimistic outlook on life. She has been there for her family, friends, colleagues, and students when they have needed her. Always one to lend a patient ear or to extend a helping hand, Mrs. Silva deserves more praise than we, the Class of 1996, will ever be able to bestow upon her. We hope that by dedicating the 1996 Lion to you, Mrs. Silva, we can offer you some idea of what you have meant to us. You are, in the truest sense of the word, our Hero.

"Her teaching and friendship has touched many students." Anna Johnson

"She is greatly admired, and is missed by us all." Erica Robertson

"Mrs. Silva has had a very difficult battle with cancer, and through it all, she has been the sweetest teacher that I ever had. She is the nicest, kindest person I can think of..." Julie Lisavich

"In the 23 years that I have been part of hundreds of yearbooks and worked with dozens of wonderful Yearbook advisors, Jan stands out as unquestionably the very best. One only has to recall her record which stands unbroken today. Jan produced 10 Lions, 9 out of 10 took first place in national competition. She truly remains the all time Champion Yearbook Advisor." Jack Kelly, B.S.P. President

"...she has not only had an impact on my life both personally and academically, and I know she's done the same for lots of others. She is a great teacher and a wonderful person." Jenny Wirth

"Jan has a great gift. The gift of making her yearbook staff smile, even at deadline time. Working with Jan for over ten years I was always amazed in how happy her staff seemed to be at all times, and how they loved to work with her." Guy Garon, Jostens Rep.

"She has given so much to the school, and there is no way we can totally repay her." Chris Steiling

"During her hard times she stayed with us. She put forth to her utmost effort and patience even though she was going through a difficult time." Stephanie Silva
Heroes here, heroes there...
Heroes, heroes everywhere!
BEFORE THEY WERE HEROES...
As our final year of high school, this year has given the senior class the opportunity to show just how heroic we are. We have reached the ultimate goal, and have attained the rank of hero for future classes to emulate. The past thirteen years have allowed us, the Class of 1996, to develop these heroic qualities into what they are today. Our journey will not end with graduation, but will continue on forever in all aspects of our lives. Heroes we are, and heroes we will remain!

On Friday, December 15, 1995, everyone gathered at the Jingle Bell Ball in a cheerful holiday spirit. After already having been postponed once due to a snow storm, many wondered if it would even happen at all. But the weather cooperated and a fun time was ready to be had! The Jingle Bell Ball saw the crowning of Dave McEvoy and Lisa Quinn as the King and Queen, with Greg Rideout, Alison Burt, Brian Ingles and Emily Hughes as members of their Royal Court. CHS students and faculty (including Mr. Meidell, himself!) danced the night away, and when it was over, left to enjoy the upcoming holidays!

Say “cheese!”

What a cute couple!

Don’t worry girls, these guys are trained professionals in the Heimlich maneuver.

Taking a breather, ladies?
I have arrived...

Aren't you glad he uses Dial?

These gentlemen make a fashion statement

Who're you looking at, Abby?

...And they all fell down...

Come on, everybody, do the Locomotion!

Jingle Bell Ball
"YMCA," yells Mr. Meidell and friends

Now kids, no huggy-bear!

Where did your dates go, ladies? Thank goodness she wore heels

We're having a good time! K&K, how cute...

Look out, you're about to lose your corsage!
Julie and Chris get down!

Deb, what are you doing to Brian?

What a handsome pair!

Aren't we cute!

Boy does dance.

Jingle Bell Ball
These two look like they’re having fun.

El Senor Rubin and Ms. D. do the swing.

Dip anyone?

Two gorgeous gals
The Morp dance, a treasured CHS tradition, kicked off the 1995-96 school-year. “Prom” spelled backwards, Morp starts the year off in a casual, fun way. The 1995 Morp was a well-attended event, enjoyed by upper and underclassmen alike. Old friends, after a summer apart, were brought back together, and new friends were made. The music put everyone in a great mood, and it seemed like the night flew by. Eleven o’clock arrived before we knew it, but we all left with pleasant memories and hopeful expectations of the next CHS dance.

Welcome to Morp, 1995!

We’re so happy to finally be SENIORS!
Surprise!

These girls know how to party!

We don’t need guys to have fun!

The '96 Reps. planned another great dance!

Guys' night out

Spirit Week

Matt keeps the beat.

Who are these bewitching ladies that the seniors have captured?

High five: The seniors win!

Lady Lions...Grrr!

A sea of spirited seniors.

Three lovely ladies of colorguard.
These girls are ruthless!
The Class of '96 is #1!!!

Jen runs for the goal line.
Which way is who going?

Deb speaks for her class and her team.
Come into the Lions' Den...
The Class of 1997 has almost completed their journey towards heroism. They have overcome the obstacles of being freshmen, as sophomores worked consistently hard, and finally this year have gained the respect necessary to move towards the goal. Junior year is often the most challenging, and yet throughout this class has shown themselves worthy of their future role as heroes!

98 Juniors
Sophomores year is a very transitional year. Much hard work must be accomplished. No longer the youngest class, and still far from the oldest, these future heroes have to pay their dues, as they work towards heroism. This class can begin to learn what it means to be a role model, as they have the freshman class looking up to them. The Class of 1998 should be proud of their many accomplishments, and rest sure that they, too, have all the potential in the world to be successful heroes.

Sophomores
As the youngest class at CHS, the freshmen have many heroes to look up to. Teachers, Parents, and upperclassmen all serve as role models to these promising students. They are encouraged by the accomplishments of these people and challenged to surpass the heights they have reached. They have already overcome many obstacles in beginning a new school, and meeting the new challenges of high school life. In the coming years, the Class of 1999 will develop into excellent role models for future classes.

The faculty here at CHS are our everyday heroes. Their jobs go far beyond teaching academics; from our teachers we get advice, help with independent projects, and most importantly, support. Our faculty have counseled numerous students through some of the hardest, most awkward years of a person’s life. There is always someone there; someone to whom we can turn to for help on anything from schoolwork to personal problems. With our new principal, Mr. Meidell, and our three deans Mr. Battle, Mr. Doherty, and Mr. Thomas, CHS has undergone many changes. But these men have proven themselves the kind of role models that we need. They have set a fine example of leadership for both faculty and students alike, and as such deserve our thanks. It is these men and their staff who compose our own group of everyday heroes.

Activities

A hero is defined not only in terms of who he is, but also by what he does. Activities - from the arts, to community service, to academic pursuits - all offer the opportunity for the curious and the hardworking to excel in various disciplines. Each club has a specific purpose, and each helps to define the hero in a different way. By looking to role models such as Pablo Picasso, Steven Spielberg, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Albert Einstein, Paul Newman, and the many quoted in the upcoming pages, who have excelled in their own fields, the heroes of tomorrow are given the inspiration to try. What is learned on the path to success is, after all, more important than the goal itself. The effort that is put into these activities is what truly molds people into heroes.

More important than building physical strength and stamina, sports serve to teach the merits of good sportsmanship. They are also important in establishing lifelong friendships, and in challenging players to overcome both mental and physical obstacles. Athletes have many larger-than-life heroes to look up to, such as Bobby Orr, Mo Vaughn, Larry Bird, Drew Bledsoe, Mary Lou Retton and many others who are listed along the bottoms of the sports pages. These role-models prove to us that our goals are attainable. In the process of becoming true heroes, players realize that it is not the game that really matters. Rather, it is what they learned in playing it that makes them heroes.

The 1995 Chelmsford Football team knew going into the season that they were going up against the hardest schedule in the history of the program. The schedule included Division One power houses Brockton and Xaverian.

The scoreboard shows that if it weren’t for three points, we would have been a one loss team and perhaps MVC champs. However, luck didn’t blow PAT’s way several times.

I think this season has prepared us for the future with all the ups and downs we faced this season it has prepared us for failures and victories we will come in contact with as well as the defeats we will see. We all became very close friends and faced some hard times together but we wouldn’t have changed it for the world.

Earning respect from hard work rather than reputation; that’s what the girls volleyball team learned to do this year. Coming into the season, the girls knew that they had their work cut out for them. Area coaches and players looked at the perennial powerhouse and had written them off for the 1995 season as “too young”, “unexperienced”, “untrained”, and on the road to an “off season.”

These skeptics soon learned to never count out the coaching abilities of Dana DeFilippo and Karen LoCoco, who showed up to practice everyday ready to face the challenge of rising the girls up to compete with this years MVC powerhouses. And rise up they did, tearing through the competition to an undefeated record at season’s midpoint. Gutsy play from defensive specialists Stephanie Lis, Sandra Forcier, Jackie Brodie, Jess Fielding, Jenn DeJesus, and Tiffany Trahan kept the ball in play while the opposition hammered away. They had help from the “wall” of middle blockers in Heather Swimm, Kim Vanderbulcke, Katie Dowling, and Liz Drake. Providing the offensive weaponry were juniors Susan Mumby and Heather Turay, who worked like a well oiled machine, Setters Lora McCormack, Tricia Woolard, Colleen Mullen, and Jenny Sime ran the offense game after game. The team was captained by McCormack and Mumby, and masterfully managed by Danielle Luce.

When the season had come to an end, and the girls had time to reflect, they saw fifteen hard fought victories, five heartbreaking losses, and a sparkling MVC Championship plaque. Not once did the team turn their backs on the pressure or succumb to the overwhelming adversity they faced. Perhaps Tom Petty put it best when he sang “In a world that keeps pushing me around, I won’t back down.”

Best Effort

The cross-country season in nineteen hundred ninety-five, brought us losses of four and victories of five.

The team was led by captains Meg, Erica, and Jen, and happy Jack Lang, coaching again. Every meet we found everyone trying their best, and Wednesday each week aiming to beat out the rest.

Ivers, Stoner and Helena, the toughest three freshmen, were always determined and were a welcome addition.

Katie and Laura Domey were a happy running pair, and next year Karen and Keaner have a captaining to share.

The seniors' cross-country seasons are over once and for all, and they will not be running for CHS next fall. But always in our minds are the memories we share, of the 2.9 mile course and the friends we made there.

So, good luck, girls, on you the cross-country future depends, and always run hard, run happy, and the hills are your friends.

Hard Work

The boy’s cross-country team entered the season with high hopes and expectations. With a few returning veterans and some new faces, we set our goals high. Needless to say, a series of extremely close losses broke our stride. No matter how hard we tried to convince ourselves that we had tried our hardest, we felt pangs of defeat with a quick glance at the scoresheets.

However, this frustration only solidified our determination to excel. This culminated in a second place finish in the Merrimack Valley Conference meet, where we stared down those supposedly “superior” teams and beat them. Finishing off the season with the State meet, we felt a sense of fulfillment. Our work had been rewarded.

Big Fun

The 1995 field hockey team started off with a lot of uncertainty from Coach Federico’s absence, along with a new coach and new team. But we successfully remained undefeated and reigned as MVC champs for the second straight year.

Our offensive line was a potent weapon with wings Robynne DeCaprio, Kathleen Ralls, and Kristin Horndahl providing many scoring opportunities for inner Liz Moy, Beth Maloney, Khara Campbell, Katie Fletcher, and Meg Finneral. Links Dana Rourke, Meri White, and Allison Govoni did the dirty work. The tough defensive task fell upon the shoulders of Kerri Ducharme, Elena MacAnespie, Kerri Brooks, Courtney Leary, Erin Walsh, Jen Maggio and first year goalie Becky McCreansky.

The 1995 captains Kathleen, Dana and Robynne with Coach Maura Devaney were our backbone in keeping our positive attitudes. We will not forget our fun and achievements.

Well Done!
The 1995 Girls’ Swimming and Diving team were standouts in more than just their swimming. Despite their six practices and one meet over a five day period, the Lions enthusiasm and spirit never dropped below 100%.

Captains Joanna Jones and Emily Sullivan led the team in cheers and songs, always keeping the spirit up. The practices provided by Streamline Pat, Coach Kinnett, and Andy really paid off as proved in the pool. Coach Kinnett’s strategic line-ups led the way to many victories. Heading up those line-ups were Clewis Kinnett, Jenelle Bryan, and Caitlin Klick. Jen Murray and Robin Johnson added top diving points to many meets. The support the team gave one another played a big part in it’s success.

Friendships that will never be broken, memories of a great four years, and PRIDE are just a few things seniors Joanna, Emily, Cathy, Amy, Meghann, Robin, Abby, and Clewis will take with them. Good luck Lady Lions, and don’t forget you always have someone to lean on.

Even though on paper it might look like we had a rough season. In fact, I think that we played rather well during the season. We had our good spurs and bad, but all in all our 8-7-4 record doesn’t display how hard we played together as a team.

Our three captains Mike Scanlon, Dave McEvoy, and Graham Walsh set a very good example for the entire team to follow. Close behind seniors Ben Hyatt, Jeff DelPapa and Chris Bevington showed tremendous ability to rally the troops.

All the other seniors and underclassmen really made this season worthwhile. John Learson, a surprisingly good finisher made it to the state individual golf meet, quite a feat for a junior. I hope next year’s team had as much heart and dedication as we did this year. Good luck to the golf teams in future.

High Hopes

Coming off an undefeated season and with a strong senior class at the helm, the 1995 Chelmsford High soccer team entered the season with high expectations. However, the road to victory would be a bit rockier, as the Lions lost the five All-Stars to graduation. Nevertheless, the team remained confident in their goal to defend their MVC title.

Early on, the team suffered several close losses as the defense proved to be inexperienced and the offense sputtered. The team kept its composure and finished the season strong with three wins and a tie in the second half. Most importantly, throughout the season, the team remained united and came closer together as friends. In the years to come, the season will be remembered fondly as something special and unforgettable. Next year’s team is wished the best of luck and loads of fun in double sessions!

The majorettes performed rain or shine during every halftime show throughout this spectacular season. The end of the season was marked by a special crowd pleaser, fire-twirling performances by Nikki, Brandi, Jess, and Meredith.

Each of these girls contributed hard work and sacrifice to make this season successful. If the mark of fine performers is to make their task look effortless, then CHS is luck to have such quality teams.

Good luck to next year’s squad!

A Fresh Start

It was a chilly morning in August when Jessica and I stood before the 15 strangers that had been chosen for the 1995 Color Guard. We said the necessary, “Hi, I’m Kristin/Jessica, and your name is...?” to all of the girls, collected paperwork, then kind of stared at each other. And, until we actually started the marching practice, it was a bit strained. There were old girls, the seven die-hards from last year and the years before, and then there were the rookies. But we were getting along beautifully from the start! Our routine for “American Band” allowed us to use the traditional maroon and white flags, but we used maracas for “Island Dance”, and vibrantly colored swing flags for “The Land of Make Believe.” The dedication and effort given by every girl on the squad led us to a great performance each week. We thank Mrs. Dunn and all the girls, and wish luck to all future Color Guard squads!

Defense was a strong suit of this year’s basketball team.

This year’s basketball team was picked to do very well. We did not let down anybody’s anticipation by starting off strong. We did a great job by winning the Tilton Tournament to start our season. Then after losing a heart-breaker to Westford we rattled off eight consecutive wins which included a huge win at Methuen and the Haverhill Christmas Tournament crown. After that we faced a little hardship but came back strong to win most of our MVC battles.

The team had a lot of key players that guided the Lions to the winning season. Led by seniors Paul Mihilidas, Chris David, Ryan Gallagher, Tov Birke-Haueisen, Jim Spaulding, Nate Linstad, Ben Haley, and Josh Jordan, the Lions had leadership. Sophomore Matt Scomis provided a scoring punch to the Lions arsenal. Juniors A.K., Brendan Trainor, Christian Erhartic, and Andy McCabe also did a great job this year.

We had a lot of fun this season. Hopefully next years team can follow the winning tradition left by the eight seniors on this years squad.

This season started off great when we won our first eight games including the Burlington, Vermont championship trophy.

This season we had excellent senior leadership even though we had lost ten seniors last year. Leading the way were captains Eric Ryan and Andrew Pajak, with Joe Bahnan and Ronnie DeRosa right behind them. The Lions also received tremendous support from Keith Aucoin, Brian Macaurelle, Andy Galpin, and Scott Trahan up front, while Jason Ryan, Bruce Linstad, Brian Carnes helped gear the defense. Then the goalie. Well you can never say enough about Chris Jenkins. He did a super job this season in net while faced with adversity of having reconstructive knee surgery in the off season.

Backing up Chris was Geoff Neild who also did a wonderful job.

Coach Fletcher and Tommy Gallagher guided the Lions through a rough and tough season. They did an admirable job helping the team through the tough times. It was a hard job but somebody had to do it.

This season was a lot of fun and the guys on the team did a great job. Good luck to next years squad.

The season started off great. Although we lost a lot of key seniors, the incoming freshmen and older runners proved to be quite an obstacle to the other MVC teams. Our first meet against Tewksbury was anticipated as we were anxious to see how our team would fair. We soon realized Tewksbury would be no match for our strong team. We dominated in every middle distance and distance race. The sprinters and field events proved to be a great asset by completing the lineup of a dominating team. Everyone put forth their best effort and gave it their all throughout the season. You all did a wonderful job and best wishes for next year. All the seniors will miss being part of such a special team made up of such extraordinary athletes.

Bill Maffeo and WHARF take a nice stroll around the Lowell High track.

For our last season of winter track the record was only satisfactory. This could show the amount of work we put in. I don’t think this was the case.

We were hit with injuries and a lack of depth. Also, we were probably sometimes not mentally prepared for the big meets and it showed. The sprints were led by co-captain Mike Losinno, and Brian Therrian. WHARF in the three hundred also proved to be a key element in the mile relay. Bill Maffeo topped the six with Mike Curran beside him in every meet. Steve Rivard and John Powell where dynamite in the thousand. The mile and two mile races were led by Steve Wright and Kevin Curtain. Pat Harrington and Mike Losinno proved to be the best high jumpers while Mike Langtange and Mark Gill were consistent in the shotput.

We all hoped to do better this year since it was Wild Bill’s farewell season. Good luck to the track teams to come but the future of Chuck on the team remains a mystery.

Seniors Nick Brink, Bill MacDonald, Tim Lewis, Jason Bilodeau, Marc Roy, Kris Keimeg, and Casey Finnegan along with Coach Rich prepare for a long, hard season.

Nick Brink struggles to get another win under his belt.

Fourteen little wrestlers standing in a row with the addition of a new assistant coach (from Lowell none the less at first we smelled sabotage, but we figured it was just his cologne) and a strong (Like Herculese) returning line-up we felt as though we would have a positive season.

Coach Rich and Russo tried to shield us from the words of Chelmsford “taking the conference” that were being passed through the papers and mouths of the town with more adversity than most could realize. We ended the season with a 18-1 record and the MVC Championship belt.

Kris Keimeg raises his hand in victory after tearing apart his prey.

Well if there was one word to describe the CHS Boys’ Swim Team this season it would have to be psycho. The second year coach Don Benson led the team into the 96 season he was confident that the team would be able to give their all through every meet. However, that was before five of the teams top swimmers were sidelined due to various reasons for periods of two weeks or more. But the coach juggled the lineup effectively to show the real depth of the team.

Lead by captain Brian Petro-Roy who was sidelined by injury the team went on to beat Haverhill, Nashua, Andover-Central, and a host of other opponents. Seniors Dave Crow, Davey Howe, Jon Quimby, Scott Campbell, Jason Haas, and Matt Sexaur were solid performers all year. The underclass was led by Matt Hilson, Dave Cecere, Skippy Bryan, and Patrick Fei. The team will miss the fourteen graduating seniors but it will rebound as it always has to once again become one of the MVC’s elite.

Who would have known that a newly formed ski team would be competitive? After a strong first place victory in the 94-95 season the boys went into the next year with high expectations. We were anticipated to be the dominant force in the league and proved to be with a 3-0 finish after the first race day. Despite a loss in the second meet we quickly recovered and came back with two 3-0 victories in the final meets.

Our varsity team's success was attributed to the outstanding performance of our top three racers, Barry Clegg, Colin MacDonald, and Billy Sheridan. These three were assisted by the superlative skills of Ben Hyatt, Jeff DelPapa, Chris Bevington, and Graham Walsh.

The future looks bright for the CHS ski team with the expertise in coaching of Bob Dick and the future talent present. “Out the Window.”

Ben Hyatt '96

This year's girls ski team was definitely a “rebuilding team”. We only had two returning racers Captains Nicole Kelly and Courtney Leary. The whole season we struggled to beat Nashoba Regional and we finally did in our last meet. Our record may not have been great but we had a lot of fun. Good luck to next year's team. I know you'll be able to beat the blind skiers.

YEAR IN REVIEW
As entrepreneurs, providers of service, and well-wishers, the business people of Chelmsford and surrounding areas are heroes within the community. We thank them for their continued support and wish them success in all their ventures.

The other heroes of this business section are the staff. Though they had little free time, they did their best to solicit ads in the face of rejection and bad weather. Without them, this yearbook could never have been published.

As we look back on our heroic feats thus far, we should remember that our years at Chelmsford High School have prepared us to go on into the world to be heroic in everything we do. We no longer will be the heroes of CHS, but heroes in other areas of our lives, and heroes to those we meet along the way. We have accomplished great things here at Chelmsford High School, much of which will remain with us forever. Our past thirteen years of heroics can never be forgotten, for the pages of The 1996 Lion have captured our memories, dreams, hopes, and aspirations forever.

The 1996 Lion editors have worked long and hard to enable you to remember all the heroes at Chelmsford High School. Assistant Editors-in-Chief Jennifer Jefferson and Nora Meenagh have dedicated so much to the production of The 1996 Lion, and they are very much appreciated for everything they have done. Sports editors Cathy Cushing, Tov Birke-Hausien, and Scott Johnson have dedicated themselves to getting every score and every candid, and have produced wonderful section. Activities editors Meghann Donahue, Erin Goodhue, and Sarah Dubner have heroically conquered a very trying section, where they have had much asked of them, and have come through. Jessica Kaplan and Kristin Rockett, our Art editors, have shown their great talents in each and every piece of artwork they submitted. Business editors Dan Mullen, Hema Krishnan, and Beth Popolizio have been key to our great success in publishing this book. Their hard work to get advertisments and raise money is well-appreciated. Photography editors Amy Byron, Nick Papadonis, and Kevin Cody supplied so many great pictures for this book, and often under the pressure of a deadline. Underclass editors Jessica Peters and Jodie Gilfeather have produced a wonderful section which took many long hours of work to organize. Faculty editors Dianna Shepard and Pranav Anand worked very hard, and quickly produced a great layout of our teachers and administration. The General Staff, Amanda Gilfeather, Allison Govoni, Elaine Kuo, and Reena Shah, found themselves with the jobs of counting up ballots and typing in numerous things, but their great efforts are very much appreciated. All the editors have my sincere thanks and appreciation for all the dedication and hard work they have displayed throughout this year.

Heroes to The 1996 Lion editors, Ms. Karin Conrad, our literary advisor, and Mrs. Mary Donovan, our business advisor, have been a great support to us all, and each and every editor appreciates their advice and help.

And now we, the editors of The 1996 Lion happily present to you, the Class of 1996, this book with which to remember and treasure your heroic journey!

May you all forever be heroes,
Jessica E. McSheehy
Editor-in-Chief
